DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

FILE BY FAX

COMES NOW, Plaintiff KENNETH MURRAY (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Alameda.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff KENNETH MURRAY is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant NEW WORLD VAN LINES OF SAN FRANCISCO, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Alameda.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant NEW WORLD VAN LINES OF SAN FRANCISCO was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

1 13. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the
2 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the
3 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
4 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current
5 or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

6 14. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved
7 employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom 8 one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

9 15. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 10 committed against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved
11 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 12 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 13 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

14 16. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
15 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 16 following requirements have been met:

17 b. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
18 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified
19 Mail the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
20 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 21 support the alleged violations.

22 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 23 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
24 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
25 of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 26 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 27 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the 28 aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California

Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

17. On April 5, 2021, Plaintiff provided an amended written notice by U.S. Certified Mail to the LWDA and to Defendants NEW WORLD VAN LINES OF SAN FRANCISCO and NEW WORLD VAN LINES OF CALIFORNIA of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of submission of Plaintiff's Notice.

18. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 221, 224, 226(a), 226.2, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

9 minimum wages for all hours worked.

10 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that the aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages
12 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime wages and meal and rest

14 their discharge.

10 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
12 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability 13 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and 14 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
