DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs TERESA BOND (“Plaintiff BOND”) and JESSE ZAMARRIPA (“Plaintiff ZAMARRIPA”) individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and REYNEIRO LARIOS (“Plaintiff LARIOS”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The monetary damages, restitution, and civil penalties sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiffs, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated as described herein (“class” or “class members”), and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

19. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time from June 23, 2016 to September 8, 2022 and who reside in California.

20. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

21. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiffs’ claims are typical of all other class members’ as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs’ attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

22. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to use the shift differential pay/ non-discretionary production bonuses/non-discretionary performance, commission, and incentive pay to calculate the regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages where Plaintiffs and the other class members earned shift differential pay/commissions/non-discretionary production bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay, commissions, incentives and overtime wages in the same workweek;

- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs, including and not limited to, whether Defendant failed to reimburse the cost of the use of personal vehicles for business-related tasks;
- l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;

- m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- o. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

23. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff LARIOS's employment by Defendants.

24. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

25. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

26. Plaintiff LARIOS was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff LARIOS and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

27. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff LARIOS, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

28. On April 5, 2021, Plaintiff LARIOS provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant HANGER, INC., HANGER ORTHOPEDIC GROUP, INC., HANGER PROSTHETICS & ORTHOTICS, INC., and HANGER PROSTHETICS & ORTHOTICS WEST, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff LARIOS has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff LARIOS’s notice.

29. Therefore, Plaintiff LARIOS has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

5 the “other class members and aggrieved employees”).

24 eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with 25 Defendants.

26 38. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
27 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid

1 worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest
2 breaks in violation of California law.

11 applicable penalties.

12 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved

15 at Plaintiffs' and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a meal period was 16 missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at
17 Plaintiffs' and the other class members and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a
18 meal period was missed.

20 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
21 to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other
22 class members and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed,
23 and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at
24 Plaintiffs' and the other class members and aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a
25 rest period was missed.

26 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
27 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members aggrieved employees
28 were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not

1 receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

2 44. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
3 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved

5 including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did
6 not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

7 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants

11 all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums,
12 within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

13 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved
15 employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance
16 with California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
17 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total
18 number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved employees.

19 47. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
21 records for Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved employees in accordance 22 with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

23 48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against HANGER, INC., HANGER ORTHOPEDIC GROUP, INC.,

HANGER PROSTHETICS & ORTHOTICS, INC., HANGER PROSTHETICS & ORTHOTICS WEST, INC., HANGER FABRICATION NETWORK, LLC., and DOES 2 through 100)

60. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in

61. Paragraphs 1 through 59, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

62. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

63. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day, more than forty (40) hours in a week, and/or more than six (6) consecutive days in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

64. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

65. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

66. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week, and/or in excess of six (6) consecutive days in a workweek.

67. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

68. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

69. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

74. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

75. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.
