DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff ARNOLD SAURIN (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorney General Act, and Plaintiff AJAYZEAU BROWN individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ARNOLD SAURIN is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

6. Plaintiff AJAYZEAU BROWN is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

7. Defendant VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

8. At all relevant times, Defendant VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

9. At all times herein relevant, Defendants VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

11. Defendant VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

12. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members and aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiffs brings this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

14. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment and who reside in California.

(Subclass A.) All class members who were required by Defendants to stay on Defendants’ premises for rest breaks.

(Subclass B.) All class members who received overtime compensation at a rate lower than their respective regular rate of pay because Defendants failed to

1 include all non-discretionary bonuses or other incentive-based compensation in 2 the calculation of the regular rate of pay for overtime pay purposes.

3 (Subclass C.) All class members who earned non-discretionary bonuses or other 4 incentive-based compensation, which was not used to calculate the amount of 5 the meal break or rest break penalty/premium payment.

6 (Subclass D.) All class members who were subject to Defendants' practice of 7 rounding time recorded for purposes of calculating compensation for time
8 worked or for calculating meal periods.

9 15. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

10 16. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 11 the litigation:

12 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class 13 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 14 unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 15 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 16 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

17 b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' as 18 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the 19 interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined
20 community of interest.

21 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 22 each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of 23 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have 24 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
25 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 26 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 27 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
28

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff SAURIN'S employment by Defendants.

1 19. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the
2 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium
3 wages, to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code
4 may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee
5 on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in 6 California Labor Code section 2699.3.

7 20. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved 8 employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom 9 one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

10 21. Plaintiff SAURIN was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 11 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
12 employee. Plaintiff SAURIN and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined
13 by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of 14 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

15 22. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
16 employee, including Plaintiff SAURIN, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after 17 the following requirements have been met:

18 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
19 (hereinafter “Employee's Notice”) to the LWDA and by certified mail to 20 the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code
21 alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support
22 the alleged violations.

23 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 24 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
25 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
26 of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 27 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 28

(65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

On April 5, 2021, Plaintiff SAURIN provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff SAURIN did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of the submission of Plaintiff’s Notice. On January 3, 2023, Plaintiff submitted an amended written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff SAURIN did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of the submission of Plaintiff’s amended Notice.

23. Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 216, 221, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.6, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.5, 256, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2800, 2802, and 2810.5 have been satisfied.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), Plaintiffs bring this action on her own behalf, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus seeks to prosecute the FLSA claims as a collective action on behalf of:

All individuals who worked for Defendants at any time during the period of three years prior to the filing of this Complaint to the present and chose to opt-in to this action (the “Nationwide Collective Class”).

24. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of the Nationwide Collective Class as a collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

25. Plaintiffs consent in writing to opt-in to this action, as required by 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). Like Plaintiffs, each potential member of this Nationwide Collective Class must sign a written consent to join this action, indicating a willingness to participate in the lawsuit and be bound by the outcome as an “opt-in” plaintiff.

26. Notice of the pendency and any resolution of this action can be provided to potential members of the Nationwide Collective Class by mail, print, and/or internet publication.

27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the potential members of the Nationwide Collective Class are readily ascertainable.

28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Nationwide Collective Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members to work over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members;
- c. Whether Defendants’ conduct was willful; and
- d. Whether Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members have sustained damages, and if so, what is the proper measure of those damages.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

29. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

30. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff SAURIN as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately October 2016 to approximately October 2020, in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

31. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff BROWN as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately February 2019 to approximately July 2022, in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

32. Defendants hired Plaintiffs and the other class members and classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

33. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiffs and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

34. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs and the other class members.

35. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

36. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

37. Plaintiffs and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

38. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

1 39. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to
3 receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate
4 overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

5 40. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members all required rest and meal periods
7 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
8 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 11 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other 12 class member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive
13 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class
14 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

15 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 17 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other 18 class member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all
19 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class 20 members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

21 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to
23 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 24 minimum wages for all hours worked.

25 44. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 27 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 28

1 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such
2 wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

3 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to
5 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs and the other class 6 members did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and 7 meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code
8 section 204.

9 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 11 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
12 they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 13 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 14 Plaintiffs and the other class members.

15 47. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
17 records for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in 18 fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

19 48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 21 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

22 49. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
24 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 25 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
26 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 27 in order to increase Defendants' profits.
28

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiffs and the other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

53. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

55. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

56. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

57. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

58. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

59. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members with one-day's rest in every seven-day workweek. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

60. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 57, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

61. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

62. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

63. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

64. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

65. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

66. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

67. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

68. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

69. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 66, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

70. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

71. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

72. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

73. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

74. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

75. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

76. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

77. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

78. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

79. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

80. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 77, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

81. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

82. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

83. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

84. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

85. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

86. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

87. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

88. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

89. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 86, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

90. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

91. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiffs and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

92. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

93. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee minimum wages.

94. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, and 256)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 92, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

96. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

97. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

98. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants' their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

99. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

100. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 204)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

101. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 98, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

102. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

103. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

104. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

105. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages due to them, within any time period

106. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover all remedies available for violations of California Labor Code section 204.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

107. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 104, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

108. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

109. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

110. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

111. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

112. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

113. Plaintiffs and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 1174 and 1174.5)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

114. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 111, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

115. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1174 and 1774.5, an employer shall keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years.

116. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

117. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 1174, Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

118. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code sections 1174 and 1174.5 because they were denied both their legal right and protected interest, in having available, accurate and complete payroll records pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1174 and 1174.5.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

119. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 116, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

120. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

121. Plaintiffs and the other class members incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

122. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

123. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 120, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

124. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiffs, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

125. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

126. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and the other class members, to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and the other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Defendants' policies and practices of failing to pay minimum wages violate California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 204. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174, 2800 and 2802.

127. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

128. Plaintiffs and the other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

129. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 551, 552, 558, and 558.1)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

130. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 127, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

131. California Labor Code sections 551, 552, 558, and 558.1 require that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in a seven-day workweek, that no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in a workweek, and that an employer shall pay a civil penalty in the amounts of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

132. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work in excess of thirty (30) hours in a week and/or six (6) hours in any one (1) day thereof, during workweeks in which they were required to work in excess of six (6) days.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

133. Plaintiff SAURIN incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 130, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

134. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

135. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

136. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Failure to Pay Overtime

137. Defendants’ failure to pay legally required overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by FLSA section 207 and California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

138. Defendants’ failure to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

Failure to Provide Rest Periods

139. Defendants' failure to provide legally required rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226.7.

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

140. Defendants' failure to pay legally required minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes unlawful or unfair activity prohibited by FLSA section 206 and California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

141. Defendants' failure to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees upon termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

142. Defendants' failure to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees during employment in accordance with Labor Code section 204 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 204.

Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

143. Defendants' failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with Labor Code section 226(a) constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226(a).

Failure to Keep Complete and Accurate Payroll Records

144. Defendants' failure to keep complete and accurate payroll records relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California Labor Code section 1174 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 1174.

Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business-Related Expenses and Costs

145. Defendants' failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs in accordance with California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

146. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants and each of them, business expenses, unpaid wages, and/or untimely wages according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.5, as well as all statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11010, et seq. in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation; and
- d. Any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

Failure to Provide One Day's Rest in a Seven-Day Workweek

147. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with one day's rest in a seven-day workweek in violation of California Labor Code sections 551, 552, 558, and 558.1.

148. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(i), civil penalties recovered by aggrieved employees shall be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency for the enforcement of labor laws and education of employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities and twenty-five percent (25%) to the aggrieved employees.

149. Further, Plaintiff is entitled to seek and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210, 218.5 and 2699 and any other applicable statute.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 207

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

150. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 147, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

151. The FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1), provides in relevant part:

Except as otherwise provided in this section, no employer shall employ any of his employees, who in any workweek is employed in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, for a workweek longer than forty hours unless such employee receives compensation for his employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed.

152. At all material times set forth herein, Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members did not qualify for exempt status under the FLSA.

153. At all material times set forth herein, Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek; however, the proper overtime compensation was not paid by Defendants.

154. At all material times set forth herein, Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation and by imposing business expenses on them and failing to fully reimburse them for all necessary business-related expenses incurred by Plaintiffs and the Nationwide Class, as required by the FLSA, violated the provisions of the FLSA and was therefore unlawful. Moreover, Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiffs and the Nationwide Class members overtime compensation and failure to reimburse all necessary business-related expenses was and is a result of a single, uniform policy or practice to deny overtime compensation to them.

155. At all material times Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members was the result of Defendant's willful, knowing, and intentional violation of the provisions of the FLSA, or alternatively Defendant's reckless disregard for the requirements of those provisions.

156. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime compensation as well as liquidated damages equal to the amount of unpaid compensation, interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 206

(Against VALLEY PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL and DOES 1 through 100)

157. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 154, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

158. Pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 206, Plaintiffs and Nationwide Collective Class members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorney General Act, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action;
2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representative of the Class;
3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel; and
4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.
5. That the Nationwide Collective Class be designated a collective action and notice issued pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all similarly situated individuals with instructions to permit them to assert timely FLSA claims in his action by filing individual Consents to Sue pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
6. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representative of the Nationwide Collective Class;
7. That Counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Counsel for the Nationwide Collective Class.

As to the First Cause of Action

8. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
9. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

10. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

11. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194;

12. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

13. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Second Cause of Action

14. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

15. That the Court make an award to Plaintiffs and the other class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided;

16. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

17. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

18. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

19. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein;

20. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

21. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Third Cause of Action

22. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

23. That the Court make an award to Plaintiffs and the other class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;

24. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

25. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

27. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

28. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

29. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

30. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

34. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2;

35. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

36. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

37. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members no longer employed by Defendants;

38. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

39. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiffs and the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;

40. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

41. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

42. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

43. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiffs and the other class members;

44. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

45. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

46. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and

60. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;
61. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;
62. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein;
63. For civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699(a), (f), and (g); and
64. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Tenth Cause of Action

65. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. by failing to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members all overtime compensation due to them, failing to provide all meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members, failing to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members, failing to pay Plaintiffs' and the other class members' wages timely as required by California Labor Code section 201, 202 and 204 and by violating California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174, 2800 and 2802.

66. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all the other class members and all pre-judgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

67. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violation of California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

68. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5;

69. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; and

70. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
