1 Plaintiff ISMAEL REYES MORALES (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other
2 members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon
3 facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a
4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants BOGH ENGINEERING, INC. and 7 DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California
8 Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ 9 failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 10 permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide 11 accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, failure to 12 reimburse necessary business-related expenses, failure to pay accrued but unused vacation time,
13 failure to pay reporting wages, failure to pay prevailing wages, and failure to provide potable
14 water and handwashing materials.

15 2. Plaintiff’s First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 16 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
17 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 18 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
19 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 20 and will be established according to proof at trial.

21 3. Plaintiff’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf
22 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 23 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 24 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 25 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 26 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 27 be established according to proof at trial.
28

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

7. Emergency Rule 9 of the California Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19 tolled the statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff ISMAEL REYES MORALES is an individual residing in the County of San Bernardino, State of California.

9. Defendant BOGH ENGINEERING, INC., is and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do business in the state of California.

10. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and

1 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 2 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 3 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 4 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged
5 were proximately caused by its conduct. BOGH ENGINEERING, INC. and Doe Defendants 1
6 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

7 11. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 8 the County of San Bernardino, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent
9 with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage 10 Orders").

11 12. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 12 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 13 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 14 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

15 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16 13. Plaintiff brings the First through Tenth Causes of Action as a class action on his 17 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, 18 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

19 14. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
20 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 21 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
22 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.").

23 15. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

24 16. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 25 litigation:

- 26 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 27 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 28

1 Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50)
2 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 3 inspection of Defendants' employment records.

4 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated
5 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
6 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

7 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
8 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
9 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 10 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 11 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
12 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 13 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 14 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
15 Member.

16 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 17 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
18 Members is impractical.

19 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 20 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 21 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 22 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
23 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
24 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

25 17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 26 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
27 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:
28

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California Labor Code section 2802;

- l. Whether Defendants failed to pay accrued and unused vacation time in violation of Labor Code section 227.3;
- m. Whether Defendants failed to pay reporting time wages in violation of the applicable IWC Wage Order;
- n. Whether Defendant unlawfully failed to pay prevailing wage for work performed on public works projects in violation of Labor Code sections 1771, 1774, and 1815;
- o. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;
- p. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- q. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- r. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- s. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- t. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- u. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Defendants are a general contracting company that provides construction services with an emphasis on building school projects.

19. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a finisher from approximately 2019 to August 31, 2020.

1 20. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

3 21. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 4 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 5 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

8 22. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 9 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

10 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 11 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
12 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 13 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, 14 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
15 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 16 underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum
17 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class,
18 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a 19 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,
20 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 21 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 22 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-23 related expenses, failed to pay wages owed for accrued vacation time upon termination of 24 employment, failed to pay reporting wages, failed to pay prevailing wages, and failed to provide 25 potable water and handwashing materials.

26 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
27 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
28

1 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
3 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
4 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
5 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
7 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
8 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 9 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 10 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

11 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
12 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 13 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
14 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
16 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
17 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 18 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

19 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
20 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 21 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 22 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
23 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
24 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 25 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 26 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the 27 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, 28

1 short, late, and/or interrupted.

2 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
3 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 4 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 5 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
6 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
7 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 8 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 9 work period.

10 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
11 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 12 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
13 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
14 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
15 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 16 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 17 to work through their rest periods.

18 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
19 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 20 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
21 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
22 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
23 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
24 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
25 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 27 interrupted.

1 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 3 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 4 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 5 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 6 were not compensated.

7 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
8 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
9 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 10 time worked.

11 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies
12 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 13 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 14 all wages owed.

15 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 17 week.

18 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 19 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 20 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 21 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 22 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 23 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 24 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

25 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
26 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 27 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.
28

1 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
3 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they
5 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
6 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 8 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, implementing time rounding
9 policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 10 Aggrieved Employees, and requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to 11 undergo security checks prior to clocking in and after clocking out for their shift.

12 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 13 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 14 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
15 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
16 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
17 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 18 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 19 California Labor Code section 202.

20 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 21 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
22 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 23 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 24 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
25 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 26 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and vested but unused vacation time.

27 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 28

1 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 4 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 5 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
6 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, net wages earned, all applicable
7 hourly rates, and the name and address of the legal entity of the employer.

8 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
10 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 11 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 12 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

13 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 14 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
15 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

16 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 17 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for vested but unused vacation time.
18 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees were 19 entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination, including vested and unused vacation
20 time. Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages 21 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including vested and unused vacation time.

22 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
23 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
24 including but not limited to tools, boots, belts, use of personal vehicles, and cellphones for work
25 related purposes. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to 26 reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related 27 expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

44. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were sometimes required by Defendants to report for work and did report for work, but were either not put to work or were furnished with less than half of their usual or scheduled day's work. On such occasions, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees required report time wages for half their usual or scheduled day's work.

45. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to perform work on public works projects as defined by Labor Code section 1720. Despite the fact that Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were deemed to be employed on public works projects pursuant to Labor Code section 1772, Defendant failed to pay employees the correct general prevailing wage rate for work performed on such projects.

46. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees were not provided with an adequate supply of potable water, soap or other suitable cleansing agent, and single use towels for handwashing.

47. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

48. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

49. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

1 50. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 3 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 4 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 51. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 6 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 7 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 8 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 9 (40) hours in a workweek.

10 52. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 11 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 12 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 13 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 53. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 15 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 16 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 17 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 18 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

19 54. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 20 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

21 55. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 22 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

23 56. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid 24 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 25 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

26 57. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class
27 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 28

attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

59. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

60. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

61. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

62. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 1 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

2 64. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 3 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 4 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 5 thirty (30) minutes.

6 65. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
7 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that
8 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
9 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

10 66. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
11 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 12 226.7.

13 67. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
14 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

15 68. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
16 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 17 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 18 meal period was not provided.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
23 every allegation set forth above.

24 70. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
25 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 26 Defendants.

27 71. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
28

1 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
2 order of the California IWC.

3 72. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very 4 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 5 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be 6 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
7 hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 8 (3.5) hours.”

9 73. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class
10 Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 11 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

12 74. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 13 other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class
14 Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class
15 Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

16 75. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
17 Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7
18 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and 19 other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

20 76. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
21 Code section 226.7.

22 77. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
23 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
24 additional hour of pay at the employees’ regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day 25 that the rest period was not provided.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 78. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 79. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 7 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than 8 the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

9 80. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage
10 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections
11 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

12 81. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum 13 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 14 those sections, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance
15 of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated
16 damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

17 82. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other Class
18 Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 19 unpaid and interest thereon.

20 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 84. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 26 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 27 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his 28

1 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the
2 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case
3 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

4 85. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
5 Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
6 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
7 employed by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to 8 minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, and vested but unused vacation time,
9 within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

10 86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
11 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 12 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

13 87. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 14 pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 15 continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is 16 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

17 88. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants are 18 entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid,
19 up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 204 and 210)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 90. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all 26 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any 27 calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable 28

1 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

2 91. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
3 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of 4 any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and 5 payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

6 92. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
7 wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday
8 for the next regular payroll period.

9 93. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 10 pay Plaintiff and other Class Members all wages due to them, within any time period permissible
11 under California Labor Code section 204.

12 94. Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover all available remedies for 13 Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 204, including statutory penalties
14 pursuant to Labor Code section 210(b)

15 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
19 every allegation set forth above.

20 96. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a)
21 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized
22 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3)
23 the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a 24 piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 25 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates 26 of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social 27 security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 28

1 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
2 worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall 3 be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and 4 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at 5 least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

6 97. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 7 Class with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited
8 to the failure list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct
9 rates of pay, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates.

10 98. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 11 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

12 99. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'
13 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 14 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 15 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

16 100. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 17 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 18 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

19 101. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance
20 with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

21 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 102. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
25 every allegation set forth above.

26 103. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 27 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

104. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

105. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 227.3)

(Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

107. California Labor Code § 227.3 affirms "whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served."

108. Defendants' failure to pay Class Members unused and accrued vested vacation time at the time of the Class Members' separation from employment with Defendants violates Labor Code § 227.3.

109. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff and similarly situated Class Members have suffered substantial losses according to proof, as well as pre-judgment interest, costs, and attorneys' fees pursuant to statute and applicable law.

2 117. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
3 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
4 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 5 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable
6 laws; and an award of costs.

7 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 118. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
11 every allegation set forth above.

12 119. Plaintiff brings his eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 13 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 14 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
15 ("PAGA").

16 120. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
17 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 18 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
19 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 20 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 21 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 22 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 23 2699(a).

24 121. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
25 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an "aggrieved 26 employee" under PAGA.

27 122. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
28

1 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor
2 Codes by:

- 3 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage
4 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 5 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
6 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 7 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
8 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 9 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§
10 226.7 and 512.
- 11 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 12 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
13 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 14 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 15 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end 16 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 17 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 18 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 19 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 20 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 21 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 22 Employees' meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and 23 compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and 24 the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- 25 i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary 26 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.
- 27 j. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all vested but unused vacation time in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.
28

k. Failing to pay reporting time wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

l. Failing to pay proper prevailing wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for work performed on public works projects in violation of Labor Code §§ 1771, 1774, and 1815.

m. Failing to provide potable water and handwashing materials to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

123. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11060, California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, 1775, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

124. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On May 27, 2021, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s May 27, 2021, notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties

1 for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

2 125. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 3 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
4 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
5 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

6 126. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
7 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
8 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.

9 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

10 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general 11 public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, prays for relief and judgment against 12 Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

13 Class Certification

- 14 1. That this action be certified as a class action;
- 15 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class;
- 16 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and
- 17 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most 18 current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class 19 members.

20 As to the First Cause of Action

- 21 5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
22 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay
23 all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and other Class Members;

- 24 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special 25 damages as may be appropriate;

- 26 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 27 from the date such amounts were due;
- 28

1 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 2 California Labor Code section 1194; and

3 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

4 As to the Second Cause of Action

5 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
6 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to 7 provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the Class;

8 11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at 9 each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not 10 provided;

11 12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 12 proof;

13 13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b);

14 14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 15 due;

16 15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

17 16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

18 As to the Third Cause of Action

19 17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
20 Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest
21 periods to Plaintiff and the Class;

22 18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at 23 each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not 24 provided;

25 19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 26 proof;

27 20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b); 28

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due; and

22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the Class;

24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

25. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiff and the Class in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

27. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

28. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and other Class Members no longer employed by Defendants;

31. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiff and other Class Members who have left Defendants' employ;

33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts

1 were due; and

2 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

3 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

4 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
5 Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required by 6 California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiff and the Class;

7 36. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 210;

8 37. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

9 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

10 38. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record
11 keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as 12 to Plaintiff and the Class, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements 13 thereto;

14 39. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

15 40. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e); and

16 41. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

17 As to the Eight Cause of Action

18 42. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
19 Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 20 all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 21 2802;

22 43. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

23 44. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

24 45. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and
