SC 2021-47139/47140 W

Box

COMES NOW, Plaintiff TIERRA GAINES (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff TIERRA GAINES is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant INTEGRAL SENIOR LIVING, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

7. Defendant ISL EMPLOYEES, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an

1 employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the
2 County of San Bernardino.

3 8. Defendant SUE FARROW at all times herein relevant was acting either
4 individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendants INTEGRAL
5 SENIOR LIVING, LLC and ISL EMPLOYEES, INC., who caused and continues to cause all
6 of the wage and hour violations alleged herein against the aggrieved employees, including
7 without limitation violations of Labor Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

8 9. At all relevant times, INTEGRAL SENIOR LIVING, LLC and ISL
9 EMPLOYEES, INC. were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable
10 state laws and statutes.

11 10. At all times herein relevant, INTEGRAL SENIOR LIVING, LLC, ISL
12 SENIOR LIVING, LLC, SUE FARROW, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were 13 the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees,
14 successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant
15 hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners,
16 joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or
17 assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification,
18 knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant
19 designated as a DOE herein.

20 11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or
21 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
22 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on 23 that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
24 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
25 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek
26 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same
27 have been ascertained.

28 ///

12. INTEGRAL SENIOR LIVING, LLC, ISL EMPLOYEES, INC., SUE FARROW, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment by Defendants.

15. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

16. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

17. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

18. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

19. On May 21, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants INTEGRAL SENIOR LIVING, LLC, ISL EMPLOYEES, INC., and SUE FARROW of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice.

20. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

7 minimum wages for all hours worked.

8 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 10 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and
11 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all
12 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

13 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
15 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
16 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
17 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
18 Code section 204.

19 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants

6 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
7 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
8 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
9 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

10 42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
