DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs BRIANNA FLORES (“Plaintiff FLORES”) and Plaintiff TANIA ESTREMER (“Plaintiff ESTREMER”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and Plaintiff DEXTER NORMAN HANSEN (“Plaintiff HANSEN”) (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of San Bernardino. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff BRIANNA FLORES is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

6. Plaintiff TANIA ESTREMER is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

7. Plaintiff DEXTER NORMAN HANSEN is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Riverside.

8. Defendant BISCOMERICA CORP., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

9. At all relevant times, Defendant BISCOMERICA CORP. was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

10. At all times herein relevant, Defendants BISCOMERICA CORP., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sue said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on that information and belief allege, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

12. Defendant BISCOMERICA CORP. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

13. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

15. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from October 15, 2015 to final judgment and who reside in California.

16. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

17. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs FLORES’s and ESTREMER’s claims are typical of all other class members’ as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

- 1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER A will fairly and 2 adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she 3 has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as 4 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER A have no
5 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
6 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
7 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs FLORES
8 and ESTREMER A have incurred, and during the pendency of this action
9 will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and 10 will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 11 substantial benefit of each class member.
- 12 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 13 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
14 of all class members is impractical.
- 15 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class 16 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 17 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
18 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect 19 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 20 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 21 their rights.

22 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 23 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 24 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 25 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 26 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 27 b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to 28 pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of

1 California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted,
2 and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of 3 California law;

4 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and 5 the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over 6 forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime
7 compensation to Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other
8 class members;

9 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and 10 the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs 11 FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members to work during 12 meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

13 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs FLORES
14 and ESTREMER and the other class members for all hours worked;

15 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs FLORES
16 and ESTREMER and the other class members within the required time
17 upon their discharge or resignation;

18 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs 19 FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members during their 20 employment;

21 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 22 California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;

23 i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as 24 required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 25 1174(d);

26 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs FLORES and 27 ESTREMER and the other class members for necessary business-
28 related expenses and costs;

- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

19. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff HANSEN's employment by Defendants.

20. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

21. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations were committed.

22. Plaintiff HANSEN was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff HANSEN and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

23. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff HANSEN, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

24. On May 11, 2021, Plaintiff HANSEN provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff HANSEN has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff HANSEN’s notice.

25. Therefore, Plaintiff HANSEN has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1182.12, 1192, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

33. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

34. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

35. Plaintiffs and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

36. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

37. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

40. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages

1 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 2 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

3 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive

6 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
7 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

8 44. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
10 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
11 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies 12 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and 13 the other class members.

14 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
16 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did 17 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

18 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
19 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 20 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

21 47. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
23 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 24 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
25 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 26 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

27 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 28 Plaintiffs and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiffs and the other

20 Defendants' profits.

21 57. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
22 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

26 (Against BISCOMERICA CORP. and DOES 1 through 100)

27 58. Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMERIA incorporate by reference the allegations 28 contained in Paragraphs 1 through 57, and each and every part thereof with the same force and

1 effect as though fully set forth herein.

2 59. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
3 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 4 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular
5 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly 6 basis.

7 60. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 8 were required to pay Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members
9 employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 10 (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of 11 eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

12 61. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 13 required to pay Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members overtime 14 compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 16 62. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation

17 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
18 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day 19 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 21 of work.

22 63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the 23 other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40)
24 hours in a week.

25 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 26 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class 27 members.

28 ///

65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

66. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

71. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the

1 employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except
2 that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may
3 be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period
4 was not waived.

5 72. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the
6 other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) 7 hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were 8 required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 9 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

10 73. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the

23 77. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 24 226.7(b), Plaintiffs FLORES and ESTREMER and the other class members are entitled to 25 recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 26 compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

(Against BISCOMERICA CORP. and DOES 1 through 100)
