Violation of California Labor Code §
 2698, et seq. (California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JAIME CARRILLO MONTALVO (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JAIME CARRILLO MONTALVO is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant TACOLICIOUS, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California.

11. At all relevant times, TACOLICIOUS, INC., T-LISH II, LLC, TACOLICIOUS MANAGEMENT, INC., and SEAT OF OUR PANTS, INC. were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

12. At all times herein relevant, TACOLICIOUS, INC., T-LISH II, LLC, TACOLICIOUS MANAGEMENT, INC., SEAT OF OUR PANTS, INC., JOSEPH HARGRAVE, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

13. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

14. TACOLICIOUS, INC., T-LISH II, LLC, TACOLICIOUS MANAGEMENT, INC., SEAT OF OUR PANTS, INC., JOSEPH HARGRAVE, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

15. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

16. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment by Defendants.

17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

18. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

1 19. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 2 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
3 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 4 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 5 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

6 20. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
7 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 8 following requirements have been met:

- 9 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
10 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
11 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
12 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor 13 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 14 support the alleged violations.
- 15 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 16 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not 17 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar 18 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 19 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within 20 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s 21 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 22 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 23 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

24 21. On June 17, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to 25 the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant TACOLICIOUS, INC., T-LISH II, LLC, 26 TACOLICIOUS MANAGEMENT, INC., SEAT OF OUR PANTS, INC., and JOSEPH 27 HARGRAVE of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been 28 violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not

1 received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff's 2 notice.

3 22. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 4 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in 5 addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203,
6 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.
