JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff Damon Potter (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and 2 on behalf of others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows.

3 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against his former employer(s), Defendants Personnel
5 Staffing Solutions Group, Inc., Rudolph Foods Company, Inc., and DOES 1 through 20,
6 inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of all current and former nonexempt employees
7 employed by Defendants at Rudolph Foods locations in California (the “Class” or “Represented
8 Employees”), for Labor Code violations stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay all wages
9 owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure
10 to provide rest breaks, failure to timely pay wages, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage 11 statements.

12 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately November 2020
13 through April 2021.

14 3. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the Represented Employees were 15 subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations
16 to which Plaintiff was subjected during employment.

17 4. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
18 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours 19 worked.

20 5. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty
21 meal periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants’ policies and practices, 22 the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable 23 to take meal periods due to workload, (2) forced to take on-duty meal periods while under 24 Defendants’ control, (3) forced to take meal periods, if such a meal occurred, after the 5th hour
25 of work, (4) not provided a mandated first meal period for shifts in excess of 6 hours, and (5) not 26 provided mandated second meal periods for shifts over 10 hours.

27 6. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Represented Employees with 28 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as

1 mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks and the Represented
2 Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks due to being
3 overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
4 were not permitted to leave the premises for rest breaks, in violation of California law.
5 Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the Represented Employees worked in excess of 6 10 hours in a shift, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit a third mandated rest break.

7 7. Plaintiff also alleges that he and the Represented Employees were not timely paid
8 all wages due and owing each pay period (Labor Code § 204) and upon separation of 9 employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that 10 Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the 11 Represented Employees at the time their employment ended with Defendants, including, but not 12 limited to minimum, regular, and overtime wages, wage premiums, among others.

13 8. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage 14 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a), discussed below.

15 9. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' violations of the wage and hour components of 16 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 17 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 18 its competitors.

19 10. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 20 Represented Employees' employers or persons acting on behalf of the Represented Employees'
21 employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 22 violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision regulating
23 hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order and, as such, are subject to penalties for each 24 underpaid employee as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and under California law.

25 11. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking declaratory, injunctive, equitable, and 26 monetary relief against Defendants and each of them, on behalf of himself and the Represented
27 Employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys' fees,
28 penalties, costs and expenses pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208,

210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 1199, among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted. Plaintiff also reserves the right to name additional representatives throughout the State of California.

II. JURISDICTION

12. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

III. VENUE

13. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 395(a). Defendants transact business in Riverside County and the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in Riverside County. Furthermore, Defendants employed or employ Plaintiff and Represented Employees in Riverside County.

IV. PARTIES

Plaintiff

14. Plaintiff and Class Representative Damon Potter was employed by Defendants from approximately November 2020 through April 2021 and performed work for Defendants in Riverside County.

Defendants

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Personnel Staffing Solutions Group, Inc. is a Delaware Corporation authorized to and doing business in Riverside County, California, and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the applicable statutory periods.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Rudolph Foods Company, Inc. is an Ohio Corporation authorized to and doing business in Riverside County, California, and is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the applicable statutory periods.

1 17. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 2 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 3 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 4 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Represented Employees by virtue of 5 Defendants' unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
6 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE
7 Defendants when ascertained.

8 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that he and the Represented 9 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 10 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, 11 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of 12 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a 13 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 14 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Represented Employees.

15 19. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 16 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 17 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human 18 resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally,
19 Defendants also have a shared website, common management, a centralized control of labor 20 operations, and common ownership or financial control.

21 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting 22 themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active 23 concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in 24 all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times 25 Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the 26 agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining 27 co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and 28 purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of 1 their remaining co-Defendants.

2 21. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants 3 have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate 4 corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which 5 Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly,
6 the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed
7 jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the 8 separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege, 9 thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

10 V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11 22. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
12 as if fully alleged herein.

13 23. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as 14 a class action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

15 24. The relevant time period for this class action is defined as the period beginning 16 four years prior to the filing of this action until class certification (the “Relevant Time Period”).

17 25. The Class, also referred to as the “Represented Employees,” that Plaintiff seeks to 18 represent is defined as follows:

19 California Class

20 All current and former nonexempt employees employed by 21 Defendants at Rudolph Foods locations in California during 22 the Relevant Time Period.

23 26. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following subclasses:

24 Meal Break Subclass

25 All Represented Employees who worked a shift in excess of 26 5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Rest Break Subclass

2 All Represented Employees who worked a shift of at least
3 3.5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

4 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass

5 All Represented Employees who separated from their
6 employment with Defendants during the period three years
7 before the filing of this action and ending when final
8 judgment is entered.

9 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass

10 All Represented Employees during the period one year
11 before the filing of this action and ending when final
12 judgment is entered.

13 27. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class description with greater 14 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as appropriate.

15 28. Plaintiff, as Class Representative, is a member of the class and subclasses that he 16 seeks to represent.

17 29. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
18 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the 19 litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

20 30. Numerosity: The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that 21 a joinder of all Represented Employees is impracticable. Although the exact number is currently 22 unknown to Plaintiff, this information is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

23 31. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to the class which 24 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the class, including 25 without limitation:

26 i. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
27 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all 28 hours worked;

1 ii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
2 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
3 Employees for hours above 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week;

4 iii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
5 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and the Meal Break
6 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
7 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a compliant
8 meal period was not provided;

9 iv. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
10 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant rest breaks to Plaintiff and the Rest Break
11 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass
12 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a paid rest 13 break was not provided;

14 v. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 15 timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment between Defendants and Plaintiff and 16 the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass, whether such separation was voluntary or involuntary;

17 vi. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 18 provide Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass with complete, accurate, itemized 19 wage statements;

20 vii. Whether Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§
21 17200 et seq. due to the: failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated paid rest 22 breaks, failure to provide mandated meal periods, and failure to timely pay final wages; and

23 viii. Whether Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to equitable 24 relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

25 32. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims, as the Class Representative, are typical of the 26 claims of The Class. Plaintiff, like other members of The Class, was subjected to Defendants'
27 ongoing Labor Code and Wage Order violations including pertaining to the failure to pay all 28 wages owed, failure to provide mandated meal periods, failure to provide mandated paid rest breaks, failure to timely pay final wages, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

33. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff, as the Class Representative, will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests are not in conflict with those of the Class. Class Representative's counsel are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and other complex litigation matters, including cases like this case.

34. Superiority of Class Action. Class certification is appropriate because a class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Represented Employees is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Each Represented Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and practices set forth above. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

(Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

35. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

36. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not exempt from the requirement to be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each hour worked.

37. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided proper minimum and regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they

1 were performing.

2 38. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
3 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
4 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

5 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
6 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
7 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

8 40. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 9 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
10 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay 11 them in accordance thereto.

12 41. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 13 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
14 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 15 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
16 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

17 42. During employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants 18 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

19 43. As a result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
20 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

21 44. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 22 all unpaid minimum wages, liquidated damages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs of 23 suit, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1194.2, against Defendants in an amount to be proven 24 at trial.

52. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

53. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

54. During the employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

55. As a result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

56. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of all unpaid overtime wages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit against Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass Against All Defendants

57. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

58. Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal periods.

59. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

60. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an

1 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
2 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
3 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
4 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 5 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

6 61. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
7 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 8 pay for each meal period that is missed.

9 62. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were denied
10 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 11 practices, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations
12 when they were: (1) unable to take meal periods due to workload, (2) forced to take on-duty meal
13 periods while under Defendants' control, (3) forced to take meal periods, if such a meal
14 occurred, after the 5th hour of work, (4) not provided a mandated first meal period for shifts in 15 excess of 6 hours, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts over 10 hours.

16 63. Furthermore, on the occasions that Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Meal Break
17 Subclass a meal premium under Labor Code § 226.7 for a missed/denied meal period,
18 Defendants paid this premium at the base rate of pay instead of at the "regular rate" which 19 incorporates additional nondiscretionary compensation (such as shift differentials and bonuses).

20 64. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
21 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not provided with all
22 mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass one 23 additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

24 65. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Meal
25 Break Subclass all mandated meal periods and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 26 meal or rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

27 66. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass did not
28 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers

1 obtained from Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not willfully obtained, were not
2 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
3 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
4 to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

5 67. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass with meal
6 periods as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of 7 each meal period not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and 8 IWC Wage Order § 11. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at 9 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal period was not 10 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

11 68. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
12 and IWC Wage Order § 11, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Meal
13 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

14 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

16 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

17 Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass Against All Defendants

18 69. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
19 as if fully alleged herein.

20 70. Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
21 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

22 71. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
23 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

24 72. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 25 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 26 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
27 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 28 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

1 73. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
2 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
3 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

4 74. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
5 Break Subclass with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
6 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks and the 7 Rest Break Subclass were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks due
8 to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Rest Break
9 Subclass were often not permitted to leave the premises for rest breaks, in violation of California 10 law. Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass worked in excess of 11 10 hours in a shift, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit a third mandated rest break.

12 75. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
13 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass were not provided with all
14 mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
15 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

16 76. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
17 Break Subclass all mandated rest breaks and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 18 rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

19 77. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass with rest breaks
20 as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each rest
21 break not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage 22 Order § 12. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the 23 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a paid rest break was not 24 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

25 78. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
26 and IWC Wage Order § 12, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Rest
27 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

2 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

4 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

5 79. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 80. Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 8 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing 9 and payment of wages.

10 81. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 11 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

12 82. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
13 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 14 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

15 83. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a 16 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 17 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

18 84. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby
19 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were not paid all wages due and owing upon 20 separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

21 85. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all 22 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass upon separation of 23 employment, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as 24 meal and rest period premiums.

25 86. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
26 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass all 27 wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 28 202. Consequently, pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Defendants owe Plaintiff and the Waiting

Time Penalties Subclass the above-described waiting time penalty, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Labor Code § 226)

Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

87. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

88. Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

89. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

90. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

91. Defendants' wage statements failed to accurately state total hours worked, the hours worked at each hourly rate, the accurate rates of pay, and further failed to accurately state gross wages earned, all deductions, and net wages earned.

92. Additionally, Defendants provided wage statements to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer.

1 93. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
2 to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a
3 wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the 4 requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

5 94. Defendants' failure to provide the required writing deprived Plaintiff and the 6 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass of the ability to know, understand, and question the 7 calculation and rate of pay and hours used to calculate the wages paid by Defendants. Therefore,
8 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass had no way to dispute the resulting 9 miscalculation of wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to said
10 Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered 11 and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost
12 interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully 13 perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damages in amounts according to 14 proof at trial.

15 95. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor 16 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered an injury in 17 that each was prevented from knowing, understanding and disputing the wage payments paid to 18 them. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have each suffered an 19 injury in that the failure to show all wages earned on the itemized wage statements resulted in 20 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees being denied all necessary deductions, payments, and 21 withholdings owed by the employer, including, but not limited to, the failure to make all 22 necessary contributions for unemployment benefits, social security benefits, proper payment of 23 taxes and withholdings, and other mandated state and federal benefits.

24 96. Plaintiff has also been injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt 25 to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the 26 mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

27 97. Labor Code § 226(e) requires Defendants to pay the greater of all actual damages 28 or fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus attorney's fees and costs, to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass who were injured by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). The exact amount of the applicable penalty is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR AND UNLAWFUL COMPETITION

(Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.)

Plaintiff and the Represented Employees against All Defendants

98. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

99. California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice." The Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, have suffered and continue to suffer injuries in fact, due to the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein.

100. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under Business & Professions Code § 17021.

101. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in conduct that violated California's wage and hour laws, including failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide mandated meal periods and rest breaks, \ and failure to timely pay final wages, all to decrease their costs and increase their profits.

102. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees wages and monies and other financial obligations to which they were entitled.

103. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Orders, Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. Defendants' ongoing violations of the foregoing statutes and laws constitute a violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

104. Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and its scheme to lower its payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful and unfair business

1 practices because it was done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of the 2 Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated.

3 105. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
4 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Represented Employees, and to the general public.
5 Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of 6 Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

7 106. A violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. may be 8 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 9 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, are 10 unlawful and in violation of public policy, and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive,
11 fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
12 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 107. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has no plain,
14 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a 15 consequence of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 16 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually,
17 and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable
18 harm unless Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said 19 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

20 108. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is entitled to,
21 and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge the profits which Defendants have 22 acquired, or of which Plaintiff and Represented Employees have been deprived, by means of the 23 above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the 24 Represented Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the unfair
25 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

26 109. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is further 27 entitled to and does seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 28 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

110. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Represented Employees; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

VI. LABOR CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CAUSES OF ACTION
(Cal. Lab. Code. §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

111. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as he was employed by Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil action filed on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated current and former aggrieved employees in California against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter the “Aggrieved Employees”).

112. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys' fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor does she, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

113. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. More than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the date Plaintiff provided the written notice of the claims alleged herein without the LWDA assuming jurisdiction over the claims alleged. Accordingly, Plaintiff has fully satisfied the administrative prerequisites to suit under the PAGA.

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

5 114. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 115. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 8 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 9 hour worked.

10 116. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and 11 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours 12 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were 13 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 14 were performing.

15 117. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
16 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and
17 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

18 118. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
19 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
20 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

21 119. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
22 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
23 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

5 120. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 121. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did 8 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

9 122. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 10 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 11 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in 12 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 13 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
14 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

15 123. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 16 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to 17 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 18 Aggrieved Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

19 124. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime to Plaintiff and the 20 Aggrieved Employees due to the failure to include all earned and nondiscretionary compensation 21 in the calculation for the regular rate of pay and overtime rate.

22 125. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage 23 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because 24 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 25 week without proper overtime compensation.

26 126. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
27 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 28 Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

1 127. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
2 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
3 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

4 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLIANT MEAL PERIODS

6 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

7 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

8 128. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
9 as if fully alleged herein.

10 129. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
11 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal 12 periods.

13 130. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide 14 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

15 131. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 16 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an 17 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
18 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
19 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
20 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 21 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

22 132. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
23 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 24 pay for each meal period that is missed.

25 133. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied
26 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 27 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when 28 they were: (1) unable to take meal periods due to workload, (2) forced to take on-duty meal

1 periods while under Defendants' control, (3) forced to take meal periods, if such a meal
2 occurred, after the 5th hour of work, (4) not provided a mandated first meal period for shifts in
3 excess of 6 hours, and (5) not provided mandated second meal periods for shifts over 10 hours.

4 134. Furthermore, on the occasions that Defendants paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
5 Employees a meal premium under Labor Code § 226.7 for a missed/denied meal period,
6 Defendants paid this premium at the base rate of pay instead of at the "regular rate" which
7 incorporates additional nondiscretionary compensation (such as shift differentials and bonuses).

8 135. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
9 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 10 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 11 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

12 136. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not 13 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
14 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 15 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an 16 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
17 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

18 137. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
19 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
20 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

21 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

23 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

24 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

25 138. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint
26 as if fully alleged herein.

27 139. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
28 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

1 140. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
2 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

3 141. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and
4 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of
5 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major
6 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 7 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

8 142. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
9 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay
10 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

11 143. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the 12 Aggrieved Employees with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major
13 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks and the 14 Aggrieved Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks
15 due to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 16 Employees were often not permitted to leave the premises for rest breaks, in violation of 17 California law. Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked 18 in excess of 10 hours in a shift, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit a third mandated 19 rest break.

20 144. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
21 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 22 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
23 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

24 145. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
25 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
26 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

6 as if fully alleged herein.

7 147. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “nonexempt” employees
8 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws regarding the 9 timing of payment of wages each period.

10 148. Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable 11 twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through 12 fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that 13 wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of 14 the following month.

15 149. Furthermore, Labor Code § 204(d) states “[t]he requirements of this section shall 16 be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if 17 the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period.”

18 150. At all relevant times herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the 19 Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each period within the time required by 20 Labor Code § 204. Moreover, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 21 Employees with all wages due and owing each pay period, including, but not limited to,
22 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums, within the 23 time specified by Labor Code § 204.

7 153. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “non-exempt” employees
8 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 9 timing and payment of final wages.

10 154. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 11 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

12 155. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
13 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 14 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

15 156. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a 16 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 17 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

18 157. At all relevant times here, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

7 as if fully alleged herein.

8 161. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 9 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of 10 accurate itemized wage statements.

11 162. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized 12 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the 13 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her
