2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff BRYAN PADILLA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff BRYAN PADILLA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

1 & RINGS, ALOCA GLOBAL FASTENERS, INC., and HUCK INTERNATIONAL, INC.
2 were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

3 15. At all times herein relevant, Defendants HOWMET AEROSPACE, INC.,
4 HOWMET GLOBAL FASTENING SYSTEMS, INC., HOWMET FASTENING SYSTEMS,
5 ARCONIC CORPORATION, ARCONIC FASTENING SYSTEMS, ALCOA FASTENING
6 SYSTEMS & RINGS, ALOCA GLOBAL FASTENERS, INC., HUCK INTERNATIONAL,
7 INC. and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers,

11 servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions
12 alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
13 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

14 16. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 15 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
16 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on
17 that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
18 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
19 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek
20 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same

27 18. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
28 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,

wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

19. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

20. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

21. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

22. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

23. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter "LWDA") and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor

Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

24. On June 3, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant HOWMET AEROSPACE, INC., HOWMET GLOBAL FASTENING SYSTEMS, INC., HOWMET FASTENING SYSTEMS, ARCONIC CORPORATION, ARCONIC FASTENING SYSTEMS, ALCOA FASTENING SYSTEMS & RINGS, ALOCA GLOBAL FASTENERS, INC., and HUCK INTERNATIONAL, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice.

25. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in the State of California including, but not limited to all current and former hourly-paid or non-

2 shift differentials/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay which was
3 not used to calculate the correct regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate and

5 stay on work premises during rest periods (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “other
6 aggrieved employees”).

7 27. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-
8 exempt employee from approximately June 2016 to approximately June 2020 in the State of

13 aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff’s and the other
14 aggrieved employees’ employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

16 Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment for them to be joint employers of
17 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

18 31. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the 19 other aggrieved employees.

20 32. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within 21 the State of California.

22 33. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a
23 day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

24 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
26 or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours
27 worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest
28 breaks in violation of California law.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and

1 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all
2 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

3 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
5 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
6 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
7 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
8 Code section 204.

9 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
11 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 12 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 13 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by
14 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

15 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
17 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
18 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

19 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
21 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

22 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
24 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
25 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
26 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
27 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

28 ///
