1 Plaintiff JOSE ANTONIO TOVAR (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other
2 members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon 3 facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants PREMIER WALL SYSTEMS INC.
7 and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 8 California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from 9 Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 10 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages,
11 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, 12 failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses, and failure to pay prevailing wages.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 20 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 21 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 22 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 23 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 24 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 25 be established according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.
28

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff JOSE ANTONIO TOVAR is an individual residing in the State of California.

8. Defendant PREMIER WALL SYSTEMS INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of California and registered to do business in the state of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture, and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. PREMIER WALL SYSTEMS INC. and Doe Defendants

1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as “Defendants.”

10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of San Bernardino, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Tenth Causes of Action as a class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”).

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable, and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more
2 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
3 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
4 Members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
6 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 7 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 8 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 9 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 10 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 11 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 12 periods;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 14 Members for all hours worked;
- 15 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 16 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 17 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 18 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 19 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 20 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 21 employment;
- 22 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members
23 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California
24 Labor Code section 2802;
- 25 l. Whether Defendant unlawfully failed to pay prevailing wage for work performed 26 on public works projects in violation of Labor Code sections 1771, 1774, and 27 1815;
- 28

- 1 m. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 2 Class Members during their employment;
- 3 n. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
4 Labor Code, including section 226;
- 5 o. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud, or oppression;
- 6 p. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 7 q. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 8 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their 9 improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 10 r. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties 11 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 12 s. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory 13 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

14 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

15 17. Defendants are a construction company that provide various construction services, 16 including steel stud framing and gypsum wallboard assembly.

17 18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a construction worker, framer, and 18 drywall worker from approximately 2018 until being required to take leave due to an injury on 19 February 15, 2021.

20 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, 21 and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

22 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 23 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 24 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 25 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

27 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 28

1 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

2 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 3 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
4 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation,
6 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
7 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 8 underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum 9 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class,
10 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a 11 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,
12 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 13 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 14 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-15 related expenses, and failed to pay prevailing wages.

16 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
17 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
18 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
19 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
20 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
21 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
22 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
23 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
24 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute 25 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 26 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 27 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

1 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
2 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
3 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
4 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
7 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 8 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

9 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 11 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 12 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
13 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
14 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 15 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, 18 short, late, and/or interrupted.

19 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
20 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 21 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 22 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 23 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
24 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 25 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 26 work period.

27 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
28

1 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
2 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
3 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
5 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 6 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
7 to work through their rest periods.

8 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 10 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
11 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
12 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
13 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
14 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
15 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 17 interrupted.

18 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 19 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 20 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 21 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 22 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 23 were not compensated.

24 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
25 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
26 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 27 time worked.

1 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies
2 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 3 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
4 all wages owed.

5 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 6 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 7 week.

8 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 10 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 11 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 12 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 14 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

15 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
16 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 17 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

18 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 19 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
20 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 21 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 22 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
23 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 24 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 25 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
26 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, 27 and the Aggrieved Employees.

1 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 3 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
5 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 7 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 8 California Labor Code section 202.

9 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
11 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 12 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 13 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
14 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 15 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

16 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 17 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
18 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 19 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 20 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 21 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 22 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, the address of the legal entity of 23 the employer, or the amount of available paid sick leave.

24 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 25 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
26 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 27 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 28

1 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

2 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
3 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
4 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

5 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, 7 including but not limited to uniforms, work belts, helmets, gloves, boots, tools, and use of 8 personal vehicles for work-related purposes. Defendants knew or should have known that 9 Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all 10 necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of 11 California law.

12 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees were required to perform work on public works projects as defined by 14 Labor Code section 1720. Despite the fact that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
15 were deemed to be employed on public works projects pursuant to Labor Code section 1772,
16 Defendant failed to pay employees the correct general prevailing wage rate for work performed 17 on such projects.

18 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 19 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 20 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 21 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 22 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 23 Defendants' profits.

24 44. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
25 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 26 to him [or her] under this article."

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 46. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
7 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 8 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 9 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

10 47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 11 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 12 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 13 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 14 (40) hours in a workweek.

15 48. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 16 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 17 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 18 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

19 49. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 20 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 21 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 22 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 23 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

24 50. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 25 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

26 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 27 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members at their correct regular rate of 28

1 pay taking into account all applicable compensation and the prevailing wages Defendants were 2 required to provide to all workers employed on public works of similar character in the locality.

3 52. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid
4 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 5 California Labor Code sections 510, and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

6 53. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class
7 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 8 attorneys' fees.

9 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
13 every allegation set forth above.

14 55. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 15 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 16 Defendants.

17 56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 18 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 19 applicable order of the California IWC.

20 57. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
21 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
22 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal 23 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 24 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 25 both the employer and employee.

26 58. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 27 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more 28

1 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal
2 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 3 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 4 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

5 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 6 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their

12 every allegation set forth above.

13 75. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 85. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and

6 86. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all

28

1 92. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a)
2 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized

12 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at

16 to the failure list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct
17 rates of pay, the address of the legal entity of the employer, or the amount of available paid sick

19 94. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 20 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

21 95. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'
22 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were

6 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
7 every allegation set forth above.

8 99. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 9 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 10 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job 11 duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

12 100. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that 13 were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary 14 business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 15 costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

16 101. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 17 Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 18 recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and 19 scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred
20 the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

21 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 102. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
25 every allegation set forth above.

26 103. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
27 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.
28

104. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

105. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. 1 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 110. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 111. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 7 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 8 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
9 (“PAGA”).

10 112. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties 11 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 12 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
13 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 14 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 15 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 16 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 17 2699(a).

18 113. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
19 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 20 employee” under PAGA.

21 114. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
22 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 23 Codes by:

24 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 25 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.

26 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
27 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
28

- 1 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
2 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 3 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§
4 226.7 and 512.
- 5 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 6 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
7 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 8 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 9 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end 10 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 11 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 12 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 13 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 14 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 15 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
16 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period,
17 total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code 18 § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- 19 i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary 20 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.
- 21 j. Failing to pay proper prevailing wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for 22 work performed on public works projects in violation of Labor Code §§ 1771,
23 1774, and 1815.

24 115. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 25 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and 26 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above,
27 including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 sections 11010
28

1 and 11160, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 2 and 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the 3 California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all,
4 is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

5 116. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §
6 2699.3. On July 27, 2021, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor
7 and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
8 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders
9 that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of 10 Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee
11 required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65)
12 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s July 27, 2021, notice and the Labor and 13 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations
14 discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties
15 for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

16 117. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 17 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
18 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs
19 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

20 118. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
21 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
22 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.
