1 State of California.

2 5. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise,
3 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,
4 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
5 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 6 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
7 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 8 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 9 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 10 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 11 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 12 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall

JURISDICTION

9. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

10. Venue is proper in Orange County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Orange County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Class Members in Orange County, and because Defendants employ numerous Class Members in Orange County.

11. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees of Defendants during the civil penalty period.

12. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

13. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”),

Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

14. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

15. On or around July 26, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

16. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the July 26, 2021 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

17. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and Class Members working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and seven consecutive work days in a work week without being properly compensated for hours worked in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week, and/or hours worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at the proper overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; and editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

18. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class Members,

1 or some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, among other 2 things, at times, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at their regular 3 rate of pay that is above the minimum wage; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; and 4 editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, to the detriment 5 of Plaintiff and Class Members.

6 19. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 7 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them,
8 full, timely thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which they worked more than 9 five (5) hours in a work day and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on 10 which they worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide compensation
11 for such unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

12 20. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 13 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members, or 14 some of them, to take rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major 15 fraction thereof and failed to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by 16 California wage and hour laws.

17 21. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 18 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, the 19 full amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation as required by Labor
20 Code sections 201 and 202, including for, without limitation, failing to pay overtime wages, 21 minimum wages, and premium wages.

22 22. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the present, 23 Defendants have, at times, failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, with 24 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages 25 earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 26 hours worked at each hourly rate, and other such information as required by Labor Code section
27 226, subdivision (a). As a result thereof, Defendants have further failed to furnish employees with 28 an accurate calculation of gross and gross wages earned, as well as gross and net wages paid.

23. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, the full amount of their wages for labor performed in a timely fashion as required under Labor Code section 204.

24. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Defendants have, at times, failed to indemnify Class Members, or some of them, for the costs incurred in purchasing tools necessary to perform work duties, including but not limited to tape measures, gloves, safety glasses and levels.

25. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, brings this action pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 2802, et al., and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11040, seeking overtime wages, minimum wages, payment of premium wages for missed meal and rest periods, failure to pay timely wages, waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, failure to indemnify work-related expenses, other such provisions of California law, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

26. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17208, also seeks (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well as all monies owed but withheld and retained by Defendants to which Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled, as well as restitution of amounts owed.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the class action is provided to the class (collectively referred to as "Class Members").

1 28. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision (b)
2 to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, further divide the defined class
3 into subclasses, and to further specify or limit the issues for which certification is sought.

4 29. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under 5 the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community
6 of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

7 A. Numerosity

8 30. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the 9 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been 10 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are over seventy-five (75) Class
11 Members employed by Defendants within the State of California.

12 31. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases 13 this number. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide information as to the 14 number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the proposed Class is not 15 practicable.

16 B. Commonality

17 32. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 18 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 19 A. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 by failing to pay all hours 20 worked at a proper overtime rate of pay?
- 21 B. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by detrimentally 22 rounding of employee time entries?
- 23 C. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by editing and/or 24 manipulating time entries to show less hours than actually worked?
- 25 D. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by failing to pay 26 for all other time worked at the employee's regular rate of pay and a rate of pay that 27 is greater than the applicable minimum wage?
- 28 E. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not authorizing or permitting

- 1 Class Members to take compliant meal periods?
- 2 F. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members
- 3 with additional wages for missed or interrupted meal periods?
- 4 G. Did Defendants violate applicable Wage Orders by not authorizing or permitting
- 5 Class Members to take compliant rest periods?
- 6 H. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members
- 7 with additional wages for missed rest periods?
- 8 I. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by failing to pay Class
- 9 Members upon termination or resignation all wages earned?
- 10 J. Are Defendants liable to Class Members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code
- 11 section 203?
- 12 K. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by not furnishing
- 13 Class Members with accurate wage statements?
- 14 L. Did Defendants fail to pay Class Members in a timely fashion as required under
- 15 Labor Code section 204?
- 16 M. Did Defendants fail to indemnify Class Members for all necessary expenditures or
- 17 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or by obedience
- 18 to the directions of Defendants as required under Labor Code section 2802?
- 19 N. Did Defendants fail to indemnify Class Members for tools, including, but not limited
- 20 to, tape measures, gloves, safety glasses and levels?
- 21 O. Did Defendants violate the Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code
- 22 section 17200, et seq., by their unlawful practices as alleged herein?
- 23 P. Are Class Members entitled to restitution of wages under Business and Professions
- 24 Code section 17203?
- 25 Q. Are Class Members entitled to costs and attorneys' fees?
- 26 R. Are Class Members entitled to interest?

1 39. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 was in effect and 2 provided: “(a) Eight hours of labor constitutes a day’s work. Any work in excess of eight hours in 3 one workday and any work in excess of forty hours in any one workweek . . . shall be compensated
4 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee.”

5 40. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 further provided that 6 “[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice
7 the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any 8 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of 9 pay.”

10 41. Four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present,
11 Plaintiff and Class Members, at times, worked for Defendants during shifts that consisted of more
12 than eight (8) hours in a workday and/or more than forty hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7)
13 consecutive workdays in a workweek, without being paid overtime wages for all hours worked as a
14 result of, including but not limited to, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours
15 actually worked at the proper overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; 16 and editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, to the 17 detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

18 42. Accordingly, by requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to, at times, work greater 19 than eight (8) hours per workday, forty (40) hours per workweek, and/or seven (7) straight workdays
20 without properly compensating overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay, Defendants, on 21 occasion, willfully violated the provisions of the Labor Code, among others, sections 510, 1194, and 22 applicable IWC Wage Orders, and California law.

23 43. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members have 24 been deprived of overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery,
25 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys’ fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194
26 and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages – Against All Defendants)

3 44. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 45. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 6 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 1197, 1199 and applicable Wage Orders.

7 46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiff and 8 Class Members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under 9 Defendants' control.

10 47. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 11 present, Defendants failed, at times, to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at 12 their regular rate of pay that is above the minimum wage; detrimental rounding of employee time 13 entries; and editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, to 14 the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

15 48. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 16 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid minimum wages 17 for all hours worked or otherwise due.

18 49. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.6, 1194, 1194.2, Code of Civil Procedure
19 sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 20 recover the full amount of unpaid minimum wages, interest and penalties thereon, liquidated 21 damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods – Against All Defendants)

24 50. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
25 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

26 51. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 27 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

28 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders, no employer shall

1 employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a timely meal break of 2 not less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.
3 Furthermore, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours
4 per day without providing the employee with a second timely meal period of not less than thirty (30)
5 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.

6 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
7 with a meal period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission,
8 the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate 9 of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.

10 54. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 11 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were, at times, not provided complete, timely 30-minute, duty-12 free uninterrupted meal periods every five hours of work without waiving the right to take them, as 13 permitted. Moreover, at times, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the 14 Class Member's regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not 15 provided compliant meal periods.

16 55. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and Class Members compliant meal periods as 17 contemplated by Labor Code section 512, among other California authorities, and failing, at times,
18 to provide compensation for such unprovided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully
19 violated the provisions of Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

20 56. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have
21 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay
22 owed for missed, untimely, interrupted, incomplete and/or on-duty meal periods.

23 57. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid
24 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus
25 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7,
26 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

27 / / /

28 / / /

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods – Against All Defendants)

3 58. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 59. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 6 employees of Defendants covered by applicable Wage Orders.

7 60. California law and applicable Wage Orders require that employers “authorize and 8 permit” employees to take ten (10) minute rest periods in about the middle of each four (4) hour
9 work period “or major fraction thereof.” Accordingly, employees who work shifts of three and-a-10 half (3 ½) to six (6) hours must be provided ten (10) minutes of paid rest period, employees who 11 work shifts of more than six (6) and up to ten (10) hours must be provided with twenty (20) minutes
12 of paid rest period, and employees who work shifts of more than ten (10) hours must be provided 13 thirty (30) minutes of paid rest period.

14 61. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
15 with a meal period or rest period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare
16 Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s 17 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

18 62. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 19 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were, at times, not authorized or permitted to take complete,
20 timely 30-minute, duty-free uninterrupted rest periods every four (4) hours of work or major fraction
21 thereof. Moreover, at times, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the Class
22 Member’s regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not authorized 23 or permitted to take compliant rest periods.

24 63. By their failure, at times, to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 25 rest periods contemplated by California law, and one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s
26 regular rate of compensation for such unprovided rest periods, as alleged above, Defendants 27 willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders.

28 64. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have

1 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay
2 owed for rest periods that they were not authorized or permitted to take.

3 65. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid
4 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus
5 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7,
6 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Termination – Against All Defendants)

9 66. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
10 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

11 67. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 12 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 203, as well as applicable
13 Wage Orders.

14 68. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiff and Class Members were 15 entitled upon termination to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to termination.
16 Discharged Class Members were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to 17 discharge immediately upon termination. Class Members who resigned were entitled to payment 18 of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after giving notice of resignation 19 or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were entitled to payment of all wages earned and 20 unpaid at the time of resignation.

21 69. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the three (3)
22 years before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants, due to the 23 failure, at times, to provide overtime wages mentioned above, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
24 Members all wages earned prior to resignation or termination in accordance with Labor Code 25 sections 201 or 202.

26 70. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' failure, at times, to pay Plaintiff and 27 Class Members all wages earned prior to termination or resignation in accordance with Labor Code
28 sections 201 and 202 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff

1 and Class Members at the time of termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202,
2 but intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code
3 sections 201 and 202 resulting in the failure, at times, to pay all wages earned prior to termination
4 or resignation.

5 71. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 6 waiting time penalties from the date their earned and unpaid wages were due, upon termination or 7 resignation, until paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

8 72. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 9 suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid for all wages earned 10 prior to termination or resignation.

11 73. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203 and 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections
12 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover 13 waiting time penalties, interest, and their costs of suit, as well.

14 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements – Against All Defendants)

16 74. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
17 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

18 75. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 19 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 226, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

20 76. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and Class Members
21 were entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized
22 statement that accurately reflects, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 23 wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 24 number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the 25 employer, among other things.

26 77. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the one (1) year
27 before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants failed to comply
28 with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by adopting policies and practices that resulted in their

1 failure, at times, to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized statements that 2 accurately reflect, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned;
3 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
4 worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, among 5 other things.

6 78. Defendants' failure to, at times, provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate
7 wage statements was knowing, intentional, and willful. Defendants had the ability to provide 8 Plaintiff and the other Class Members with accurate wage statements, but, at times, willfully
9 provided wage statements that Defendants knew were not accurate.

10 79. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 11 suffered injury. The absence of accurate information on Class Members' wage statements at times 12 has delayed timely challenge to Defendants' unlawful pay practices; requires discovery and 13 mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed; causes difficulty and expense
14 in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records; and led to submission of inaccurate information 15 about wages and amounts deducted from wages to state and federal governmental agencies, among 16 other things.

17 80. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), Plaintiff and Class Members
18 are entitled to recover $50 for the initial pay period during the period in which violation of Labor
19 Code section 226 occurred and $100 for each violation of Labor Code section 226 in a subsequent 20 pay period, not to exceed an aggregate $4,000.00 per employee.

21 81. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (e) and (g), Code of Civil 22 Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 23 recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable 24 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

25 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment – Against All Defendants)

27 82. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and 28 incorporate each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

1 83. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
2 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 204 and applicable Wage Orders.

3 84. Labor Code section 204 provides that “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th
4 days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month
5 during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day,
6 inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following 7 month.”

8 85. Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states that “[i]n addition to, and entirely 9 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay
10 the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, and 11 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars
12 ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful
13 or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25
14 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

15 86. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the one (1) year
16 before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants employed policies
17 and practices that resulted in, at times, not paying Plaintiff and Class Members in accordance with 18 Labor Code section 204.

19 87. Pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 20 recover penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one
21 hundred dollars ($100) for each initial violation per Class Member, and two hundred dollars ($200)
22 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor
23 Code section 204 per Class Member, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.

24 88. Pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 25 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recovery of penalties, 26 interest, and their costs of suit, as well.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of Labor Code § 2802 – Against All Defendants)

3 89. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 90. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
6 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 2802 and applicable Wage Orders.

7 91. Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (a) provides that “an employer shall indemnify
8 his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 9 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties . . .”

10 92. For three (3) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 11 present, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, to incur, at times, 12 necessary expenditures or losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or at the 13 obedience to the directions of Defendants that included, without limitation, purchasing tape 14 measures, gloves, safety glasses and levels necessary to perform work duties.

15 93. During that time period, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges,
16 that Defendants failed and refused, and still fail and refuse, at times, to reimburse Plaintiff and Class
17 Members for those losses and/or expenditures.

18 94. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 19 suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not reimbursed for the 20 herein-described losses and/or expenditures.

21 95. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 22 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover 23 reimbursement for their herein-described losses and/or expenditures, reasonable attorneys’ fees and 24 costs of suit.

25 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Unfair Competition – Against All Defendants)

27 96. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
28 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

97. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that the unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200. Due to their unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations to compensate employees in accordance with the Labor Code.

98. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property.

99. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well as restitution of all wages and other monies owed to them under the Labor Code, including interest thereon, in which they had a property interest and which Defendants nevertheless failed to pay them and instead withheld and retained for themselves. Restitution of the money owed to Plaintiff and Class Members is necessary to prevent Defendants from becoming unjustly enriched by their failure to comply with the Labor Code.

100. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to costs of suit under Code of Civil Procedure section 1032 and interest under Civil Code section 3287.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under The Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act Of 2004 –

Against All Defendants)

A. Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against All Defendants

101. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

102. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for

1 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

2 103. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated
3 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 4 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 5 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 6 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 7 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 8 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

9 104. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 10 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 11 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other
12 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor
13 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 14 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
15 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor
16 Code section 204.

17 B. Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants

18 105. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
19 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

20 106. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
21 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
22 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net
23 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
24 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
25 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 26 entity securing the employer’s services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 27 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

28 107. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a)

1 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
2 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 3 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage
4 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

5 108. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 6 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

7 109. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 8 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 9 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 10 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 11 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 12 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer’s services
13 if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code 14 section 226, subdivision (a).

15 110. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 16 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
17 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
18 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 19 period for each subsequent violation.

20 C. Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants

21 111. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
22 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

23 112. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 24 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 25 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 26 penalty as follows:

27 (a) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and 28 for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount

1 sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

2 (b) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid
3 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an 4 amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

5 (c) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected
6 employee.”

7 113. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 8 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 9 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 10 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during 11 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 12 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 13 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 14 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 15 of pay.

16 114. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
17 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
18 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
19 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars
20 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

21 D. Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against All Defendants

22 115. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
23 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

24 116. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 25 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 26 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 27 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 28 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts,

1 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents,
2 or papers of the person.”

3 117. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required
4 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 5 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

6 118. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required
7 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 8 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours
9 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
10 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 11 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 12 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee
13 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 14 earned.”

15 119. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
16 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate
17 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 18 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision
19 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

20 120. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 21 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 22 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 23 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

24 121. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
25 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
26 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 27 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

28 E. Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants

1 122. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
2 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

3 123. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 4 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 5 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 6 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 7 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 8 Section 203 as follows:

9 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 10 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 11 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
12 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
13 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

14 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 15 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 16 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 17 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
18 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
19 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

20 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 21 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected
22 employee."

23 124. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 24 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 25 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees' wages for all hours
26 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 28 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at

1 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock.

2 125. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
3 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
4 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one
5 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 6 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 7 subsequent violation.

8 F. Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants

10 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

11 127. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 12 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 13 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 16 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved
22 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

23 129. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 24 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 25 the failure to: pay overtime wages and minimum wages; provide meal and rest periods or 26 compensation in lieu thereof; provide accurate, itemized wage statements; pay timely wages during 27 employment and after employment separation; provide employees the opportunity to inspect 28 employment records; reimburse Aggrieved Employees for costs incurred in furtherance of their

4 freedom of speech, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to civil penalties for each of 5 these Labor Code violations in the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

6 130. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 7 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 8 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.
