DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff ROSALIA LOPEZ ("Plaintiff"), as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against NEW FASHION PRODUCTS, INC., and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("NFP") and JAMES AHN, an individual ("AHN" and collectively with NFP and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants") as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

2. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, operating machinery and making fabric patterns. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately August of 2003 through approximately August of 2020.

B. Defendants

3. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that defendant NFP is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

1 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant AHN is,
2 and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as Chief Executive 3 Officer and Director for NFP, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below. Plaintiff is further 4 informed and believes and based thereon alleges that AHN violated, or caused to be violated, the 5 above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code provisions in violation of Labor Code section 6 558.1.

5. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall include NFP, AHN, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

20 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that all the times mentioned herein, each of the Defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

26 7. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 27 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 28 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In

1 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 2 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 3 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 4 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 5 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 6 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

7 8. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that AHN
8 violated, or caused to be violated, the above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code 9 provisions in violation of Labor Code section 558.1.

10 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that there exists such a 11 unity of interest and ownership between Defendants, and each of them, that their individuality and 12 separateness have ceased to exist.

13 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that despite the 14 formation of the purported corporate existence of NFP, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the 15 "Alter Ego Defendants"), they, and each of them, are one and the same with AHN and DOES 51
16 through 100 ("Individual Defendants"), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 17 reasons:

18 A. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the Individual 19 Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the 20 laws as set forth in this Complaint, and who has hidden and currently hide behind the 21 Alter Ego Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some 22 other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

23 B. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by and 24 through the Alter Ego Defendants' unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego 25 Defendants as the funding source for the Individual Defendants' own personal 26 expenditures;

27 / / /

28 / / /

- 1 C. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the Individual Defendants 2 and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to 3 appear as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, 4 circumventing a statute, or accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable 5 purpose;
- 6 D. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the business affairs of the 7 Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times 8 mentioned herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably 9 be segregated, and the same are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants 10 are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein were, used by the Individual 11 Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of their, and each 12 of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 13 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;
- 14 E. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants and the Alter 15 Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit defendants to 16 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations of the Civil Code, Labor 17 Code, and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants 18 should thus be disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such 19 disregard is necessary to avoid fraud and injustice to Plaintiff herein;
- 20 F. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the Individual 21 Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence 22 must be disregarded;

23 11. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 24 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 12. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 27 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

28 / / /

1 13. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 2 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 3 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 4 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 5 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 6 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 7 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
8 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 9 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

10 14. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 11 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 12 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 13 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code 14 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 15 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 16 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

17 15. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 18 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
19 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 20 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

21 16. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 22 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 23 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 24 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 25 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

26 17. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 27 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 28 ///

1 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures
2 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

3 18. On or around July 21, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code
4 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation 5 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 6 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

7 19. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 8 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
9 calendar days of the July 21, 2021 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff
10 to the LWDA and Defendants.

11 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

12 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 13 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 14 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 15 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 16 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 17 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 18 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 19 limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to 20 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out and wait in line 21 for minutes to clock in and out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff 22 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make 23 phone calls or drive off the clock, and go through security screenings and temperature checks off 24 the clock; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; 25 detrimental rounding of employee time entries; and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay 26 or otherwise pay the incorrect rate of pay; and failing to include all forms of remuneration, including 27 non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into 28 the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional

1 compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay, to the detriment 2 of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

3 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy
4 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 5 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 6 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting 7 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain 8 on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-9 shift tasks after clocking out and wait in line for minutes to clock in and out, to clock out for meal 10 periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to 11 attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, and go through 12 security screenings and temperature checks off the clock; editing and/or manipulation of time entries 13 to show less hours than actually worked; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; failing to 14 pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, 15 to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

16 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 17 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 18 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 19 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 20 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 21 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 22 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 23 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 24 periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

25 23. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 26 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 27 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 28 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest

1 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 2 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 3 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 4 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

5 24. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
6 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 7 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 8 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 9 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 10 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required
11 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

12 25. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
13 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 14 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment 15 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 16 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 17 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 18 Aggrieved Employees.

19 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
20 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
21 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
22 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 23 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

24 27. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 25 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 26 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 27 and applicable Wage Orders.

28 / / /

1 28. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 3 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 4 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 5 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment (including 6 without limitation cutting, writing, and measuring implements), for the purchase and maintenance 7 of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, office equipment to work from home, in direct 8 consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, 9 as required by Labor Code 2802.

10 29. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 11 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 12 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 13 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 14 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 15 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 16 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 17 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

18 30. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 19 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 20 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 21 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 22 all other Aggrieved Employees.

23 31. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 24 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 25 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 26 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 27 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 28 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

1 32. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 3 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 4 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 5 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 6 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 7 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 8 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 9 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

10 33. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 11 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 12 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 13 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 14 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies 15 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 16 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 17 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

18 34. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 19 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 20 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 21 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 22 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 23 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 24 economic liberty.

25 35. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 26 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 27 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 28 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against All Defendants)

3 36. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
4 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

5 37. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 6 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 7 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 8 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 9 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

10 38. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 11 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 12 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 13 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 14 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 15 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 16 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

17 39. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 18 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 19 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 20 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor 21 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 22 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee 23 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 24 Code section 204.

25 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants)

27 40. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
28 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

1 41. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
2 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 3 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 4 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
5 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 6 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required
7 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

8 42. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 9 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 10 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 11 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 12 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

13 43. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 14 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

15 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 16 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 17 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 18 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 19 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 20 name of the employer; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, 21 subdivision (a).

22 45. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 23 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
24 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
25 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 26 period for each subsequent violation.

27 / / /

28 / / /

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

3 46. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
4 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

5 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 6 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 7 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 8 penalty as follows:

9 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 10 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 11 to recover underpaid wages;

12 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 13 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 14 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

15 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

16 48. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 17 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 18 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 19 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during 20 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 21 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 22 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 23 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 24 of pay.

25 49. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 26 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
27 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars

28 ///

1 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 2 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

3 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against All Defendants)

5 50. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
6 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

7 51. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 8 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 9 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 10 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 11 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 12 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 13 or papers of the person.”

14 52. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 15 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 16 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

17 53. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 18 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 19 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 20 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable 21 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 22 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 23 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 24 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 25 earned.”

26 54. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 27 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 28 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any

1 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision
2 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

3 55. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 4 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 5 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 6 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

7 56. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
8 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 9 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 10 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

13 57. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
14 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

15 58. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 16 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 17 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 18 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 19 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 20 Section 203 as follows:

21 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 22 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 23 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
24 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
25 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

26 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 27 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 28 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is

1 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
2 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
3 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

4 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 5 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 6 employee.”

7 59. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 8 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 9 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ wages for all hours
10 worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, failing to accurately track 11 and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work 12 off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer 13 under Defendants’ control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after 14 clocking out and wait in line for minutes to clock in and out, to clock out for meal periods and 15 continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend 16 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock, and go through security 17 screenings and temperature checks off the clock; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show 18 less hours than actually worked; detrimental rounding of employee time entries; failing to pay 19 reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums; 20 paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums.

21 60. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 22 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
23 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 24 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 25 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 26 subsequent violation.

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants)

3 61. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
4 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

5 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 6 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 7 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 8 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 9 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 10 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

11 63. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 12 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 13 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 14 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 15 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 16 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

17 64. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 19 the failure to: pay overtime wages and minimum wages; provide meal and rest periods or 20 compensation in lieu thereof; provide accurate, itemized wage statements; pay timely wages during 21 employment and after employment separation; provide employees the opportunity to inspect 22 employment records; reimburse Aggrieved Employees for costs incurred in furtherance of their 23 work duties; provide notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; provide the proper accrual 24 and use of paid sick leave; paying employees all owed paid time off and vacation time owed by 25 separation at the proper rate of pay; and placing restraints on competition, whistleblowing and 26 freedom of speech, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to civil penalties for each of 27 these Labor Code violations in the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

28 / / /

1 65. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 2 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 3 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

4 REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

5 66. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

6 PRAYER

7 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for 8 judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 9 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 10 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
11 B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 12 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
13 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; 14 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and 15 E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
