COMES NOW, Plaintiff ANTHONY BIZZLE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ANTHONY BIZZLE is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. eDefendant ASBURY PARK NURSING & REHABILITATION at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

7. Defendant CYPRESS HEALTHCARE GROUP, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

8. At all relevant times, Defendants ASBURY PARK NURSING & REHABILITATION and CYPRESS HEALTHCARE GROUP, LLC were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

9. At all times herein relevant, ASBURY PARK NURSING & REHABILITATION, CYPRESS HEALTHCARE GROUP, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

11. ASBURY PARK NURSING & REHABILITATION, CYPRESS HEALTHCARE GROUP, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

///

12. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

13. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

15. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

16. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

17. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter "LWDA") and by U.S. Certified

1 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
2 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 3 support the alleged violations.

4 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 5 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
6 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar
7 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 8 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within
9 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s
10 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 11 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 12 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

13 18. On July 19, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the 14 LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant ASBURY PARK NURSING &
15 REHABILITATION and CYPRESS HEALTHCARE GROUP, LLC of the specific
16 provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts
17 and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice
18 within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice.

19 19. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 20 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for 21 violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 22 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

23 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

24 20. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 25 aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in 26 the State of California (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “other aggrieved 27 employees”).

28 ///

1           21. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-
2 exempt employee from approximately November 2019 to approximately October 2020 in the 3 State of California.

4           22. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, and failed to 5 compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

6           23. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other
7 aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other
8 aggrieved employees' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

9           24. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 10 Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' employment for them to be joint employers of 11 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

12           25. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the 13 other aggrieved employees.

14           26. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within 15 the State of California.

16           27. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a
17 day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

18           28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
19 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
20 or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours
21 worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest
22 breaks in violation of California law.

23           29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 25 receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for 26 overtime compensation.

27           30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal

1 periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission
2 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

3         31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
5 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
6 aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not
7 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
8 aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

9         32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
11 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
12 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not
13 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
14 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

15         33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 17 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 18 minimum wages for all hours worked.

19         34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 21 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 22 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 23 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

24         35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 26 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
27 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages

28 ///

1 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
2 Code section 204.

3       36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 5 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 6 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 7 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by
8 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

9       37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
11 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
12 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

13       38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 15 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

16       39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
18 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability 19 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and 20 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
21 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

22       40. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
23 to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
24 were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week
25 without overtime compensation.

26       41. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide 27 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

28 ///

42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

43. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

44. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

45. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete and accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

46. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

47. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

49. California Labor Code section 218 states that noting in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."
