CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JENNIFER HORTA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JENNIFER HORTA is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

7. Defendant ROCKPORT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

8. Defendant ORANGE HEALTHCARE & WELLNESS CENTRE, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

9. At all relevant times, ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC, ROCKPORT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC, and ORANGE HEALTHCARE & WELLNESS CENTER were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

10. At all times herein relevant, ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC, ROCKPORT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC, ORANGE HEALTHCARE & WELLNESS CENTRE, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek

1 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same
2 have been ascertained.

3 12. ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC, ROCKPORT
4 ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC, ORANGE HEALTHCARE & WELLNESS
5 CENTRE, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as 6 “Defendants.”

7 13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
8 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
9 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
10 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 11 statutory provisions set forth herein.

12 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

13 14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment
14 by Defendants.

15 15. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 16 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 17 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
18 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other
19 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code
20 section 2699.3.

21 16. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an 22 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 23 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

24 17. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was 25 committed against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved
26 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 27 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 28 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

1 18. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
2 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 3 following requirements have been met:

- 4 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
5 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
6 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
7 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
8 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 9 support the alleged violations.
- 10 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 11 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not 12 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar
13 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 14 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within 15 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s
16 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 17 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 18 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

19 19. On July 16, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the 20 LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE
21 SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC, ROCKPORT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC, and 22 ORANGE HEALTHCARE & WELLNESS CENTRE of the specific provisions of the 23 California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 24 support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five 25 (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s notice.

26 20. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 27 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in

28 ///

1 addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203,
2 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 21. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other
5 aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in 6 the State of California, including, but not limited to all current and former hourly-paid or 7 non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California
8 who earned shift differentials/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay
9 which was not used to calculate the correct regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime
10 rate (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “other aggrieved employees”). The other 11 aggrieved employees also include all individuals who work at any facility operated or 12 managed by ROCKPORT HEALTHCARE SUPPORT SERVICES, LLC and/or 13 ROCKPORT ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC.

14 22. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-15 exempt employee from approximately February 2018 to approximately August 2020 in the 16 State of California.

17 23. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, and failed to 18 compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

19 24. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other
20 aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff’s and the other
21 aggrieved employees’ employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

22 25. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 23 Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment for them to be joint employers of 24 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

25 26. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the 26 other aggrieved employees.

27 27. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within 28 the State of California.

28. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

1 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 3 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 4 minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 7 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 8 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 9 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

10 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 12 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
13 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
14 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
15 Code section 204.

16 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 18 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 19 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 20 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 21 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

22 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
24 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
25 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

26 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
27 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 28 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

1 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
3 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
4 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
5 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
6 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 41. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
8 to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
9 were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week
10 without overtime compensation.

11 42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide

18 other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law,
19 including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

24 48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff
25 and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

26 49. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
27 compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order
28 to increase Defendants' profits.

50. California Labor Code section 218 states that noting in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”
