GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff DANILO CORTEZ FLORES (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of San Mateo. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of San Mateo.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff DANILO CORTEZ FLORES is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant ESPOSTO’S, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Mateo.

7. Defendant ESPOSTO’S FINE FOODS, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Mateo.

8. Defendant WILLIAM ESPOSTO at all times herein relevant was acting either individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendants ESPOSTO’S, INC., and ESPOSTO’S FINE FOODS, INC., who caused and continue to cause all of the wage and hour violations alleged herein against the aggrieved employees, including without limitation violations of Labor Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

9. At all relevant times, Defendants ESPOSTO’S, INC. and ESPOSTO’S FINE FOODS, INC. were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

10. At all times herein relevant, ESPOSTO’S, INC., ESPOSTO’S FINE FOODS, INC., WILLIAM ESPOSTO and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek

1 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same
2 have been ascertained.

3 12. ESPOSTO’S, INC., ESPOSTO’S FINE FOODS, INC., WILLIAM ESPOSTO
4 and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

5 13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
6 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
7 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
8 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 9 statutory provisions set forth herein.

10 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

11 14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff’s employment
12 by Defendants.

13 15. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 14 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 15 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
16 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other
17 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code
18 section 2699.3.

19 16. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an 20 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 21 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

22 17. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was 23 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
24 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 25 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 26 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

27 ///

28 ///

1 18. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
2 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 3 following requirements have been met:

- 4 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
5 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
6 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
7 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
8 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 9 support the alleged violations.
- 10 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 11 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
12 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar
13 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 14 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within
15 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s
16 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 17 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 18 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

19 19. On July 16, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the 20 LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant ESPOSTO’S, INC. and ESPOSTO’S FINE
21 FOODS, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been 22 violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not
23 received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff’s
24 notice.

25 20. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 26 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for 27 violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a),
28 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

20 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not
21 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
22 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.
