1 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 11, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. or as soon thereafter as
2 the matter may be heard before the Honorable Laurie A. Damrell in Department 22 of the 3 Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of Sacramento, located at 720 9th
4 Street, Sacramento, California 95814, Plaintiff Maria Martinez (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does 5 move for entry of the following orders:

- 6 1. Granting approval, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), of the 7 settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant Therapeutic Pathways, LLC (successor-
8 in-interest to Therapeutic Pathways, Inc., a California corporation) (“Defendant”) of 9 the claims brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”),
10 as set forth in the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release
11 (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”), attached as “EXHIBIT 1”
12 to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher, including and not limited to, the plan of 13 allocation and distribution of the Total Settlement Amount for payment of the LWDA
14 Payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”),
15 Individual Settlement Shares to the Aggrieved Employees, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs
16 to Plaintiff’s Counsel, Settlement Administration Costs to the PAGA Settlement
17 Administrator, and General Release Fee to Plaintiff;
- 18 2. Approving the Net Settlement Amount, estimated to be no less than $488,441.70
19 which will be distributed to the LWDA and the Aggrieved Employees, pursuant to 20 California Labor Code section 2699(i), of which seventy-five percent (75%) will be 21 paid to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) and twenty-five percent (25%) will be paid
22 to the Aggrieved Employees (“Employees’ Portion”);
- 23 3. Appointing ILYM Group, Inc. Settlement Administrator (“ILYM”) as the PAGA
24 Settlement Administrator;
- 25 4. Directing Defendant Therapeutic Pathways, LLC to transmit the Total Settlement
26 Amount of $800,000.00 into a qualified settlement account established by the PAGA
27 Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement, and directing the 28 PAGA Settlement Administrator to distribute the Total Settlement Amount in accordance with the Settlement Agreement;

5. Directing the mailing of Individual Settlement Share checks to the Aggrieved Employees along with the Cover Letter, which is substantially similar in content and form to that attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment Granting Approval of Private Attorneys General Act (Cal. MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Maria Martinez (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved employees, and Defendant Therapeutic Pathways, LLC (successor-in-interest to Therapeutic Pathways, Inc., a California corporation) (“Defendant”), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2).¹

Subject to approval by the Court, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have agreed to resolve the above-captioned action, brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), for a Total Settlement Amount of $800,000.00.²

The Total Settlement Amount is inclusive of: (1) Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to be paid to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Plaintiff’s Counsel”), (2) General Release Fee to Plaintiff, (3) Settlement Administration Costs to be paid to the PAGA Settlement Administrator, and (4) Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant in California at any time during the period from July 13, 2020 to the date on which the Court approves the Settlement (“Aggrieved Employees” or “PAGA Settlement Group Members”).³

The Net Settlement Amount will be the Total Settlement Amount less the Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fee, and is currently estimated to be no less than $488,441.70.⁴ The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) and

¹ The PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher.

² Settlement Agreement, § III(A).

twenty-five percent (25%) to the PAGA Settlement Group Members (“Employees’ Portion”).⁵ Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to payment of his or her pro rata share of the Employees’ Portion, based on the number of pay periods they each worked during the PAGA Period (“Pay Periods”).⁶

The payments to PAGA Settlement Group Members will be treated and reported for tax purposes as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and the PAGA Settlement Administrator will be responsible for issuing IRS Forms 1099 as required.⁷

Plaintiff submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets the requirements for approval by the Court based upon the relevant fairness factors, the relative strengths of the PAGA claim, the risk, expense, and complexity of further litigation, the benefit conferred by the Settlement, the scope of the release of claims, the experience and views of counsel, and the reasonableness of the Net Settlement Amount (consisting of the LWDA Payment and Employees’ Portion), Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fee. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court approve the Settlement, award the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fee and approve the LWDA Payment, which are provided for by the Settlement and requested herein.

In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to grant approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d).

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant Therapeutic Pathways, LLC provides behavior therapy and social skills training to children and adults with autism spectrum disorder. Plaintiff Maria Martinez is a former employee of Defendant, who worked from approximately July 2019 to approximately ⁵ Settlement Agreement, § I(O).

⁶ Id., § I(L)(S).

⁷ Id., § III(F).

August 2020 as an hourly-paid Billing Specialist.⁸

Prior to commencing this lawsuit, on July 13, 2021, as required by California Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff Maria Martinez provided the LWDA and Defendant with written notice of her intent to assert claims under PAGA and the basis for those claims, to which the LWDA did not respond (“PAGA Notice”).⁹ A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s July 13, 2021 PAGA Notice is attached to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher as “EXHIBIT 2.”

On September 17, 2021, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. (“Operative Complaint”) against Defendant in the Sacramento County Superior Court (“Court”), Case No. 34-2021-00308190 (the “Action”). Plaintiff’s core allegation is that Defendant violated the California Labor Code by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, of, inter alia, failing to pay overtime and minimum wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premiums, failing to pay timely wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs.

On December 7, 2021, Defendant filed an Answer to the Operative Complaint. Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that they had, and continue to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at issue. Defendant denies that they ever violated any provision of the California Labor Code, including, but not limited to, those sections for which Plaintiff seeks penalties under the PAGA.

On or around July 14, 2022, Plaintiff propounded written discovery and Person Most Knowledgeable (“PMK”) Deposition Notices on Defendant. The discovery included, Special Interrogatories, Set One and Two, Request for Production of Documents, Set One, Form Interrogatories – General, Set One, on each Defendant, and notices of depositions for Defendant PMK(s) on topics of organizational structure and wage and hour policies. On September 27, ⁸ Declaration of Maria Martinez (“Martinez Decl.”), ¶ 2.

⁹ Declaration of Travis J. Maher (“Maher Decl.”), ¶ 10.

2022, Defendant provided objections and responses to Plaintiff's initial written discovery sets mentioned above.

In December 2022, the Parties began serious discussions about attending private mediation. On or about January 23, 2023, the Parties agreed to implement an informal stay on discovery in order to save money and focus efforts on mediation, and also scheduled a session of private mediation with Hon. Raul Ramirez, (Ret.) for June 14, 2023, the nearest available mutually workable date.

On June 14, 2023, the Parties participated in mediation conducted by Hon. Raul Ramirez, (Ret.), a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.¹⁰ The matter did not settle at mediation. However, the Parties continued their settlement efforts via the cooperation of Hon. Raul Ramirez, (Ret.).¹¹

On July 28, 2023, Defendant provided supplemental objections and responses to Plaintiff's initial written discovery, specifically to Plaintiff's Special Interrogatories, Set One and Two. On July 28, 2023, Defendant provided supplemental objections and responses to Plaintiff's initial written discovery, specifically to Plaintiff's Request for Production of Documents, Set One.

On November 15, 2023, the Parties filed a Joint Notice of Settlement informing the Court that the Parties had reached a settlement in principle and were in the process of drafting settlement papers.

Plaintiff now moves for an order granting approval of the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2). The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion were submitted to the LWDA in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), prior to this filing.¹²

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

2 A. Aggrieved Employees

3 The Aggrieved Employees who are covered by the Settlement are:

4 All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant in California at any
5 time during the period from July 13, 2020 to the date on which the Court approves
6 the Settlement.¹³

7 Based on information provided by Defendant as of June 20, 2024, there are 8 approximately One Thousand Five Hundred Fifty-Three (1,553) Aggrieved Employees.¹⁴

9 B. Distribution of the Total Settlement Amount

10 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant Therapeutic Pathways, LLC
11 will pay a Total Settlement Amount of $800,000.00.¹⁵ The Net Settlement Amount will be the 12 Total Settlement Amount less the following amounts: (1) Attorneys' Fees consisting of 13 attorneys' fees of $280,000.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of $14,058.30
14 to Plaintiff's Counsel; (2) General Release Fee of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff; and (3) Settlement
15 Administration Costs of up to $7,500.00 to ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM" or "PAGA Settlement
16 Administrator").¹⁶ The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to the Aggrieved
17 Employees and the LWDA, as described in Part III.C, infra.

18 C. Distribution of the Net Settlement Amount

19 Within fifteen (15) calendar days of the "Effective Date", Defendant Therapeutic
20 Pathways, LLC will transmit the Total Settlement Amount to a qualified settlement account
21 established by the PAGA Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement.¹⁷ The 22 "Effective Date" means the date by which (i) the Court enters a Judgment on its Order Granting 23 Approval of PAGA Settlement and Judgment, and (ii) the Judgment is final.¹⁸ No later than 24 fifteen (15) calendar days after the Effective Date, Defendant will provide the PAGA Settlement
25 Administrator with a list of all PAGA Settlement Group Members ("Aggrieved Employees

Data”), containing the following information for each Aggrieved Employee: (i) first and last name; (ii) last known mailing address; (iii) social security number; and (iv) number of PAGA Pay Periods.¹⁹

Seventy-five percent (75%) of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $366,331.28) will be distributed to the LWDA (i.e., LWDA Payment) and twenty-five percent (25%) of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $122,110.42) (i.e., Employees’ Portion) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis, based on their Pay Periods.²⁰ To calculate each Aggrieved Employee’s share of the Employees’ Portion (“Individual Settlement Share”), the PAGA Settlement Administrator will: (1) for each Aggrieved Employee, divide the number of Pay Periods he or she individually worked by the total aggregate number of Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees, and then (ii) multiply this amount by the Employees’ Portion to arrive at each Aggrieved Employee’s Individual Settlement Share.²¹ The payments to Aggrieved Employees for their Individual Settlement Shares are considered one hundred percent (100%) penalties to be reported on IRS Form 1099, if required.²²

No later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the Aggrieved Employees Data and Total Settlement Amount, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will mail the agreed-upon Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Share checks (together, the “PAGA Settlement Package”) to all Aggrieved Employees by first-class United States mail.²³ For each PAGA Settlement Package that is returned as undeliverable within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial mailing, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt to locate an alternate, updated address for the Aggrieved Employee at issue, and shall attempt re-mailing of the PAGA Settlement Package.²⁴

The Individual Settlement Share checks issued to Aggrieved Employees will remain valid

¹⁹ Settlement Agreement, §§ I(I), III(H)(3)(a).

for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days, and thereafter, will be canceled.²⁵ Funds associated with canceled checks will be transmitted to the State Controller's Office Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of his or her respective Individual Settlement Share(s).²⁶

D. The Scope of the Release in the Settlement Agreement

Upon the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement and the full funding of the Total Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the State of California with respect to Aggrieved Employees will be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily released and forever discharged Released Parties from the Released Claims.

The "Released Claims" means any and all claims of the State of California pertaining to Plaintiff and PAGA Settlement Members, arising during the Settlement Period, for civil penalties under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") as well as any interest, fees, and costs available under PAGA, based on the factual allegations in the Operative Complaint and LWDA Notice, including but not limited to, for failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to accurately calculate the regular rate of pay, failure to provide compliant meal periods and pay associated premiums, failure to provide compliant rest periods and pay associated premiums, failure to timely pay wages during employment, failure to timely pay wages upon termination of employment, failure to provide compliant and accurate wage statements, failure to maintain complete and accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs, in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802 and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including inter alia Wage Order 4-2001 (collectively, the "Released Claims").²⁷

The "Released Parties" means Defendant, its affiliates, present and former parents, subsidiaries and their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, shareholders and agents, and any other successors, assigns and legal representatives and its related persons and entities.²⁸

E. No Right to Object to, or Opt Out of, the Settlement

“[A] PAGA action is a statutory action for penalties brought as a proxy for the State,” as such, “there is no need to protect absent employees’ due process rights[.]” Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 546. “Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” Ochoa-Hernandez v. CJADERS Foods, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010), 2010 WL 1340777, at *5. A representative PAGA action need not satisfy class action requirements, and no due process concern arises from the fact that there are “nonparty aggrieved employees who are not given notice of, and an opportunity to be heard in, a representative action that is not brought as a class action.” Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 984. “PAGA does not make other potentially aggrieved employees parties” to the action and no “due process concerns arise under PAGA because absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and whatever personal claims the absent employees might have for relief are not at stake.” Williams, supra, 546-547 (internal references omitted, citing Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 993, 1003 and Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC, (2014) 58 Cal.4th 348, 381.)

“[A]bsent fellow employees will be bound by the outcome of any PAGA action[.]” Williams at 548 (internal references omitted, citing Arias, supra, 980-981; Fireside Bank v. Superior Court (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1069, 1074 and Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal, 3d 462, 474.) A “judgment in such an action is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding” because “the employee plaintiff represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies[.]” “collateral estoppel applies [...] against those for whom the party acted as an agent or proxy[.]” and “[w]hen a government agency is authorized to bring an action on behalf of an individual or in the public interest, and a private person lacks an independent right to bring the action, a person who is not a party but who is represented by the agency is bound by the judgment as though the person were a party.” Arias, supra, at 985-86 (citations omitted); see also Robinson v. Southern Counties Oil Co. (2020) 53 Cal.App.5th 476 (aggrieved employee cannot opt out of a PAGA settlement).

Provided the reasoning stated above, the Settlement is consistent with the law, and there is no requirement that the Aggrieved Employees be provided with a mechanism to opt out of or object to the Settlement.

IV. LEGAL STANDARDS FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

The PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of other aggrieved employees and the State of California to recover civil penalties which, outside of PAGA, only the LWDA can assess upon and collect from an employer (Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a)). Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee must comply with California Labor Code section 2699.3. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Plaintiff has complied.

The settlement of a PAGA action requires court approval. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2) (“The superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed pursuant to this part.”). However, “[a] PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered a class action but a law enforcement action” and therefore does not have to meet the requirements of a class action. Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna Health of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011) 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 980-88 (affirming lower court’s holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013) 2013 WL 1490667, at *15. As such, a court’s review of a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several unique features that render the approval process distinct from, and simpler than, the process for approval of a class action settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement need only “ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those affected.” Williams, supra, 549 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)). Although California Labor Code section 2699(l) does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA settlement is to be judged,

1 courts have approved settlements of PAGA claims. See, e.g., Resendez v. Bridgestone Retail
2 Operations, LLC, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BC596892 (June 2016), DCH Auto
3 Wage and Hour Cases, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. JCCP4833 (May 2017); Garcia v.
4 Gordon Trucking (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 WL 5364575, at *3; Schiller v. David's Bridal,

8 589.

9 In a PAGA case, the court's focus is not the monetary amount which aggrieved
10 employees or the State stand to receive, but instead, whether the total settlement amount achieves
11 the PAGA's objectives. The purpose of the PAGA is "to incentivize private parties to recover 12 civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by 13 overburdened state enforcement agencies." See Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at 14 *4 (citing Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 986). Penalties recovered under the PAGA are, in part, to 15 "be distributed to the [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers
16 and employees about their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously
17 appropriated to supplement and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes." See
18 Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(j). The recovery of penalties on behalf of the State, by way of a PAGA
19 claim, is essentially a law enforcement action. See Amalgamated, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 1003
20 (stating that the PAGA is a mechanism for "an aggrieved employee to recover civil penalties—
21 for Labor Code violations—that otherwise would be sought by state labor law enforcement
22 agencies"); see also Iskanian, supra, at 381.

23 A PAGA settlement is a settlement of claims for penalties and other remedies which the 24 LWDA could assess and collect on behalf of employees without their involvement or approval.
25 "[U]nnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the 26 ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim." Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL
27 1340777, at *5. This renders the approval process of a PAGA settlement distinct from a class
28 action settlement, and the Court need not employ the two-step approval process that applies to a class action settlement, under both state and federal law. A PAGA settlement should nevertheless meet the “fair, reasonable, and adequate” standard as set forth in Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77, 87.

V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement resulted from hard-fought negotiations, fulfills the objectives of the PAGA statute, is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets all of the criteria for approval for the reasons discussed below.

A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

The Parties reached the Settlement through arm’s-length negotiations, after a mediation with an experienced and respected mediator, Hon. Raul Ramirez (Ret.).²⁹ A settlement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.

The Settlement is presumptively fair because: (1) it is the product of non-collusive, arm’s-length negotiations with the assistance of an independent mediator knowledgeable in complex labor and employment matters; (2) it was negotiated by counsel with significant experience in similar complex labor and employment matters; (3) it occurred after counsel for the Parties engaged in significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, and of litigating this claim through trial; and (4) it occurred after mediation, during which time the Parties engaged in further litigation to investigate the claims.³⁰

After engaging in significant investigations, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information, the Parties participated in settlement negotiations to try to resolve the lawsuit.³¹ These efforts included participating in formal mediation conducted by Hon. Raul Ramirez (Ret.), a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.³² In the course of mediation and subsequent settlement negotiations, the ²⁹ Maher Decl., ¶ 18.

³² Id., ¶ 18.

Parties discussed all aspects of the case, including the risks and delays of further litigation and proceeding with trial, as well as the law relating to representative PAGA actions, off-the-clock theory, and wage-and-hour enforcement, the evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of bifurcation of discovery and/or trial and appeals, among other things.³³ During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.³⁴

Based on all of the information available to the Parties and with the assistance of the experienced mediator, the Parties agree that this matter is well-suited for settlement given the strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim.³⁵ Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel believe that the settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of this matter.³⁶ Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive experience handling representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to achieve a great result for Plaintiff, the State of California, and the Aggrieved Employees.³⁷ Therefore, the Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product of arm's length bargaining. See Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-17, 622 (recommendations of plaintiffs' counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating that the "assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive").

B. The Relative Strength of the PAGA Claim and the Range of Possible Outcomes in the Litigation Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

In order for Plaintiff to prevail on the PAGA claim, she would have to prove that Defendant engaged in the alleged California Labor Code violations and demonstrate that Defendant's conduct warrants the imposition of penalties. See, e.g., Elliot v. Spherion Pac.

³³ Maher Decl., ¶¶ 14-16.

³⁴ Id., ¶ 18.

³⁵ Id., ¶ 16.

³⁶ Id., ¶ 29.

³⁷ Id., ¶ 7.

1 Work, LLC (C.D. Cal. 2008) 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 (“Plaintiff’s claim under [PAGA] is
2 wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of plaintiff’s other claims fail as a matter
3 of law, so does her PAGA claim.”).

4 Plaintiff’s core allegation is that Defendant has systematically violated the California
5 Labor Code, with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, by, inter alia, failing to pay
6 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failing to accurately calculate the regular rate of pay,
7 failing to provide compliant meal periods and pay associated premiums, failing to provide 8 compliant rest periods and pay associated premiums, failing to timely pay wages during 9 employment, failing to timely pay wages upon termination of employment, failing to provide 10 compliant and accurate wage statements, failing to maintain complete and accurate payroll
11 records, and failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs.

12 Although wage-and-hour actions are amenable to resolution as to a group of employees,
13 some courts have also found that, for various reasons, the issues raised by Plaintiff raise 14 individualized issues and/or are not suitable for adjudication as to a group of employees.

15 Defendant also maintained several defenses to Plaintiff’s theory of liability, which, if 16 successfully argued and proven, had the potential to eliminate or substantially reduce recovery.
17 Throughout this litigation, Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that they had, and 18 continue to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time
19 period at issue.³⁸ Defendant denies that they ever violated any provision of the California Labor
20 Code, including, but not limited to, those sections for which Plaintiff seeks penalties under the 21 PAGA.³⁹ Defendant further denies, and continues to deny, that the lawsuit is appropriate for 22 representative treatment for any purpose other than settlement.⁴⁰

23 Defendant also challenged Plaintiff’s standing as an aggrieved employee and denied that 24 any of Defendant’s other employees whom Plaintiff seeks to represent are aggrieved.⁴¹ Also, at 25 the time that this case commenced, multiple courts had taken an approach requiring a plaintiff to 26 ³⁸ Maher Decl., ¶ 14.

27 ³⁹ Ibid.

28 ⁴⁰ Id., ¶ 22.

⁴¹ Id., ¶ 13.

1 establish standing and face the possibility of bifurcation of discovery and/or trial of the PAGA
2 claim. See Amalgamated Transit Union, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 1001 (noting that PAGA
3 “require[s] a plaintiff to have suffered an injury resulting from an unlawful action”); Stafford v.
4 Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2014) 2014 WL 6633396, at *4 (finding that judicial 5 economy supported bifurcation because of the difficulties and inherent uncertainties of being 6 able to establish liability with respect to a large number of potentially aggrieved employees and 7 noted that “PAGA’s public purpose would be ill-served if the court finds [the plaintiff] has not
8 been aggrieved by a Labor Code violation”); Horton v. Jones (1972) 26 Cal.App.3d 952, 955
9 (stating that bifurcation and sequencing of litigation is allowed to avoid wasting time and money 10 on trial when litigation of issues could be rendered moot).

11 Defendant also argued that an important feature of PAGA is that the Court retains 12 discretion to lower the penalties if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to 13 do otherwise would result in an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”
14 See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc.
15 (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1136 (holding that a court may reduce the amount of PAGA 16 penalties awarded to an employee based upon discretionary factors). Defendant maintained, and 17 continues to maintain, that they had and continue to have, legally-compliant employment policies
18 and practices throughout the time period at issue.⁴² Defendant denies that they ever violated any 19 provision of the California Labor Code.⁴³ Even if, arguendo, such violations occurred, which 20 Defendant deny, Defendant contended that said violations would only be considered “initial 21 violations” and thus heightened “subsequent violation” penalties were not warranted. See Cal.
22 Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2); see also Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157,
23 1208-09 (“Until the employer has been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision [...],
24 the employer cannot be presumed to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employees is 25 a ‘violation’ subject to penalties.”).

26 Defendant also contended that, with respect to PAGA claims, the Court was unlikely to 27 ⁴² Maher Decl., ¶ 12.

28 ⁴³ Ibid.

1 assess cumulative penalties for the maximum number of possible, separate California Labor
2 Code violations, because it would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and/or confiscatory, especially
3 where certain conduct may be regulated by multiple provisions of the California Labor Code that
4 are interrelated and work in tandem. As such, Defendant contended that cumulative penalties
5 and heightened penalties would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and confiscatory.

6 While Plaintiff disagrees with Defendant's contentions and maintains that her PAGA
7 claim has merit, in reaching the settlement, Plaintiff and her counsel took into account the 8 strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how the case might have
9 concluded as litigation continued, at trial, and/or upon appeal.⁴⁴

10 C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Further Litigation

11 Courts favor the voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. Class
12 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276. Generally, "unless the 13 settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and 14 expensive litigation with uncertain results." Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc.
15 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).

16 Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties investigated the veracity, strength, and scope
17 of the PAGA claim and allegations.⁴⁵ In addition, the Parties exchanged a large volume of 18 information, documents, and data relevant to Plaintiff's claim and Defendant's defenses thereto,
19 including, and not limited to, the employment records of Plaintiff, a sampling of aggrieved
20 employee time and pay data, Defendant's Employee Handbook and multiple standalone policies,
21 various agreements and acknowledgments, and Defendant's operations and employment
22 practices, policies, and procedures documents, including Defendant's Punctuality and 23 Attendance Policy, Meal and Rest Periods Policy, Timekeeping Requirements Policy, Overtime
24 for Nonexempt Employees Policy, Expense Reimbursement Policy, Record Management Policy,
25 and Termination Policy, among other documents.⁴⁶ Counsel for the Parties undertook significant

26
27 ⁴⁴ Maher Decl., ¶ 16.

28 ⁴⁵ Id., ¶ 19.

1 investigation, and also invested time reviewing and analyzing relevant documents and data to
2 evaluate Plaintiff's claim and allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential
3 monetary recovery under PAGA.⁴⁷ Other work performed by Plaintiff's Counsel included, but
4 was not limited to: meeting and conferring with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings,
5 case management, the mediation, and settlement, among other issues; case strategy and analysis;
6 drafting, reviewing, and revising the pleadings, court filings, the mediation brief, settlement
7 agreement, and settlement approval motion papers; and preparing for and appearing for court
8 proceedings, the mediation, and settlement negotiations.⁴⁸

9 Had the case not settled, the Parties would have conducted extensive additional formal 10 discovery, including propounding additional written discovery requests as well as multiple 11 depositions of party and percipient witnesses all over the State of California, to prepare the case
12 for trial. From the inception of this litigation, Defendant indicated that they would aggressively
13 litigate this case.⁴⁹ Even if Defendant failed on their defenses, litigating a complex PAGA action
14 is inherently expensive, and the litigation could continue beyond entry of judgment if either party
15 were to appeal adverse rulings.⁵⁰ Additionally, there is a real possibility that Plaintiff would 16 recover nothing, either for herself or on behalf of the State of California or other Aggrieved
17 Employees after years of costly and labor-intensive litigation. Avoiding these risks and the 18 likelihood of future contentious litigation, which would involve significant costs, favors
19 settlement.

20 D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

21 "[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, 'a yielding of absolutes and an 22 abandoning of highest hopes.'" Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm'n (9th Cir. 1981) 688
23 F.2d 615, 624. "The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or 24 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." Id. at 625.

25 The Settlement provides significant benefits to the State of California and the Aggrieved

Employees and falls well-within the range of acceptable settlements under the circumstances. Under the Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay a Total Settlement Amount of $800,000.00, which encompasses the Net Settlement Amount, Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fee.⁵¹ Subject to approval by the Court, the following amounts will be subtracted from the Total Settlement Amount to yield the Net Settlement Amount: (1) Attorneys' Fees and Costs consisting of attorneys' fees in the amount of $280,000.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $14,058.30 to Plaintiff's Counsel⁵²; (2) the PAGA Settlement Administration Costs of up to $7,500.00; and (3) General Release Fee of up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff.⁵³

The Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $488,441.70, of which an estimated $122,110.42 is to be distributed to Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis, based on their Compensable Pay Periods and $366,331.28 is to be distributed to the LWDA. There is no reason to doubt the fairness of the proposed plan of allocation of the Net Settlement Amount as it fully complies with California Labor Code section 2699(i). The Settlement also meets the "fair, reasonable, and adequate" standard set forth in Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77, 87.

The Settlement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. Plaintiff and her counsel recognize the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to litigate the matter through trial and any possible appeals.⁵⁴ Plaintiff and her counsel have also taken into account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation.⁵⁵ Plaintiff and her counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, both generally and in response to Defendant's defenses thereto, and the difficulties in establishing Defendant's liability for, and the right to recover, penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other Aggrieved Employees.⁵⁶ Plaintiff and her counsel have also taken into account Defendant's agreement to enter into a settlement that confers significant relief upon the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.⁵⁷

Considering all of the facts in this case, Plaintiff and her counsel have determined that the Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claim, and that it is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.⁵⁸

The result achieved in this case, and the monetary recovery provided by this settlement, are well-within the range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, especially when compared to the settlement of PAGA claims in other cases. See, e.g., DCH Auto Wage and Hour Cases, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. JCCP4833 (May 2017) (approving the amount of $15,000 out of $4 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Garcia, supra, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $3.7 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Schiller, supra, 2012 WL 2117001, at *14 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $518,245 toward settlement of PAGA claims); Chu, supra, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $6.9 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Franco, supra, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $2.5 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Nordstrom Commissions Case, supra, at 589 (finding no abuse of discretion by the trial court in approving a settlement that allocates $0 toward the settlement of PAGA claims that were at issue in the lawsuit). Here, the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claim is significant, and it will be distributed in accordance with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

E. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff's Counsel Favor Approval of the Settlement

Plaintiff's Counsel is highly experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation.⁵⁹ In the view of Plaintiff's Counsel, the benefits conferred by the settlement are eminently fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California

⁵⁷ Maher Decl., ¶¶ 11, 29.

⁵⁸ Id., ¶¶ 20, 24, 29.

⁵⁹ Id., ¶¶ 3-7.

1 and the Aggrieved Employees in light of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation
2 and the substantial monetary benefits provided for by the Settlement.⁶⁰ Furthermore, courts have
3 acknowledged that “the interests of plaintiff, counsel and other potentially aggrieved employees
4 are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as convincingly as possible as many Labor
5 Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]” Williams, supra, 548 (citing Cal. Lab. Code §
6 2699(g)(1)(i)).

7 VI. THE PROPOSED ATTORNEYS’ FEES PAYMENT IS FAIR AND
8 REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

9 A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate

10 The Settlement provides for a Total Settlement Amount of $800,000.00.⁶¹ The 11 Settlement provides for attorneys’ fees in an amount of up to Thirty-Five percent (35%) of the 12 Total Settlement Amount, which is $280,000.00, subject to approval and award by the Court.⁶²
13 The requested attorneys’ fees award is commensurate with: (1) the risk that Plaintiff’s Counsel
14 took in bringing and litigating the case, (2) the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, (3)
15 the skill and determination that Plaintiff’s Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Plaintiff’s
16 Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation, (5) the value that Plaintiff’s Counsel has 17 achieved in the case, and (6) the other cases that Plaintiff’s Counsel has turned down in order to 18 devote its time and effort to this case.

19 Plaintiff’s Counsel is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a matter 20 of right under PAGA. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any 21 [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs”). Plaintiff’s
22 Counsel is also entitled to fees and costs under California Code of Civil Procedure section
23 1021.5, as the instant PAGA action is by definition “for the benefit” of others and secures 24 monetary recovery for a large number of Aggrieved Employees, as well as the State of 25 California. See Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17

26
27 ⁶⁰ Maher Decl., ¶¶ 11, 16, 24, 29.

28 ⁶¹ Settlement Agreement, § III(A).

⁶² Id., § III(D).

(recognizing that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individuals satisfies the “significant benefit,” “public interest,” and “large class of persons” requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff’s personal motivation). The settlement will also benefit the state labor agency in enforcing labor laws and educating “employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under [the California Labor Code].” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(i).

The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys’ fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others, has been confirmed by the California Supreme Court. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. While trial courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage-of-the-fund method, the California Supreme Court has taken the position that trial courts also “retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee” and “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California.” Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253.

Courts award fees to serve as an economic incentive for lawyers to undertake litigation, and thereby enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for adjudication of meritorious claims, and to deter wrongdoing. This is especially true in situations where multiple similar alleged wrongs would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their decisions will “not be disturbed on appeal absent a manifest abuse of discretion.” Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 41; see also Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 506 (holding that “trial court did not abuse its discretion in using [the percentage of fund method], in part to approve the fee request”). Indeed, it is long settled that the “experienced trial judge is the best judge of the value of professional services rendered in his court.” Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132.

The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and “the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942. Where the amount of a settlement is a “certain

1 easily calculable sum of money,” California courts may calculate attorneys’ fees as a reasonable
2 percentage of the settlement created. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil
3 Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, section 14:145; Dunk, supra, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1808.

4 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because “it better
5 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” Lealao, supra, 82
6 Cal.App.4th at 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should be
7 equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation
8 based on the result achieved and risk incurred. See Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-50; 9 Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the 10 defendant will pay the plaintiff’s attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use
11 of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32. Fee awards that 12 are too small will “chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights
13 and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately 14 adjudicate numerous claims.” Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should 15 approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated
16 attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. “The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a 17 ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of 18 calculation.” Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting Apple
19 Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court, supra, 126 Cal.App.4th at 1270).

20 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances
21 surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have 22 awarded fees as high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement in complex actions, depending on 23 the circumstances of the case. See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp.
24 494 (awarding attorneys’ fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million total settlement amount);
25 Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195
26 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely 27 approve attorneys’ fees awards “average[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v.
28 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency

2 appropriate).

3 Plaintiff's Counsel has litigated this case since it was commenced, with the very real
4 possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.⁶³ Counsel for the 5 Parties undertook significant investigation, and also invested time reviewing and analyzing 6 relevant information, documents, and data to evaluate the claims, including, and not limited to,
7 calculating the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁶⁴ Other work performed by Plaintiff's
8 Counsel included, but was not limited to: meeting and conferring with Defendant's counsel
9 regarding the pleadings, case management, the mediation, and settlement, among other issues;
10 case strategy and analysis; drafting, reviewing, and revising the pleadings, court filings, the 11 mediation briefs, settlement agreement, and settlement approval motion papers; and preparing 12 for and appearing for court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations.⁶⁵

13 In the present case, Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation
14 and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁶⁶ Plaintiff's Counsel is 15 experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great 16 result for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.⁶⁷ Considering the 17 amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of 18 Plaintiff's Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys'
19 fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

21 Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards

22 The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all
23 of which support the fee award requested by Plaintiff's Counsel, are: (1) the time and labor 24 required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; (10) the undesirability of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F. 2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, the contingent nature of Plaintiff's Counsel's representation and the risks taken in commencing the Action, the skill and determination required, the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Plaintiff's Counsel has obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California. For the reasons discussed herein, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of Thirty-Five percent (35.00%) of the Total Settlement Amount is reasonable.

1. Time & Labor

Plaintiff's Counsel has used its experience and skills in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions to bring this matter to a successful conclusion. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business, and their operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁶⁸ During the litigation of the Action, Plaintiff's Counsel interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, conducted legal research, reviewed and analyzed a large amount of documents and data, prepared for and attended mediation, evaluated the PAGA claim, and calculated the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁶⁹ Plaintiff's Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings, case

⁶⁹ Id., ¶¶ 18-21.

management, the mediation, and settlement, among other issues.⁷⁰ Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work including, inter alia, case strategy and analysis; and engaging in extensive settlement negotiations.⁷¹

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly

The skill required to properly litigate this case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach the same. Defendant retained highly-respected counsel to represent its defenses. Defendant and their counsel felt very strongly about Defendant's ability to prevail on the merits and avoid representative adjudication of the PAGA claim. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel believe that the PAGA claim has merit and that Plaintiff will prevail at trial. Plaintiff's Counsel undertook extensive investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing the lawsuit and during the litigation. Plaintiff's Counsel took steps to prepare the case for trial and had every intention of taking the case to trial if Defendant did not offer an appropriate settlement.

Plaintiff's Counsel's effort and skill were used to, among other things, investigate the allegations and gather facts, research the legal issues, analyze data and information obtained from Defendant, Plaintiff, and through other sources, evaluate the PAGA claim, and negotiate the settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, Plaintiff's Counsel used its extensive experience and skill in the handling of complex wage-and-hour matters to advocate for and obtain Aggrieved Employees and the State of California a recovery now, with maximum efficiency, as opposed to the possibility of recovery in the future, after significant expense and time.⁷²

3. The Value of the Settlement

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this lawsuit, given the uncertainty and risks of further litigation.⁷³ Had the case not settled, Defendant would have vigorously asserted its due-process rights; challenged manageability and liability; insisted upon a manageable trial plan; which may have required the narrowing of issues or scope of aggrieved employees and sought a reduction in the amount assessed as penalties. Defendant, however, faced risks too, including and not limited to, the risk of having the Court assess penalties. Additionally, preparing the case for trial would have been extraordinarily expensive for the Parties.

⁷⁰ Maher Decl., ¶ 24.

⁷¹ Id., ¶ 24.

At this stage, the settlement is preferred over continued litigation because such resolution saves time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, and appellate review of those proceedings. The Settlement offers present and considerable monetary relief to Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California while avoiding additional expense, risk, and delay in obtaining possible further recovery.

4. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent

The representation provided by Plaintiff's Counsel has been wholly contingent and Plaintiff's Counsel took on this matter without knowing whether any recovery would be obtained. Plaintiff's Counsel has also incurred and is requesting $14,058.30 in litigation costs and expenses.⁷⁴

In this case, Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁷⁵ If Plaintiff's Counsel had not been successful, the time that they have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. Plaintiff's Counsel is well-experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁷⁶ The skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown throughout the Action justify the requested

⁷⁶ Id., ¶¶ 2-7.

attorneys' fees and costs. Considering the amounts requested, work performed, and risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

5. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this case, are considerable. Here, the results achieved, and the recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California represent a fair and reasonable resolution of this lawsuit. Plaintiff's Counsel's efforts have resulted in a settlement that provides for a Total Settlement Amount of $800,000.00, and it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount available for distribution to the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, as set forth in Part III.C, is approximately $488,441.70.⁷⁷

6. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys

Plaintiff's Counsel is a recognized class action and complex litigation law firm, and its attorneys employed their knowledge, skill, and experience to bring the case to a successful conclusion. Plaintiff's Counsel has years of wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and representative action cases.⁷⁸

VII. COSTS TO BE REIMBURSED TO PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides the reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses.⁷⁹ As set forth in the Declaration of Travis J. Maher, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks reimbursement of $14,058.30 in litigation costs and expenses.⁸⁰ These expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel requests that the Court award reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $14,058.30 to Plaintiff's Counsel.

VIII. THE PROPOSED COVER LETTER TO THE AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES SHOULD BE APPROVED

Although PAGA does not require notice to unnamed aggrieved employees of a settlement, the Parties prepared, and now present for the Court's consideration and approval, the Cover Letter for transmission to the Aggrieved Employees along with their Individual Settlement Share check (together, Notice Packet), substantially in the form attached as "EXHIBIT 1" to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment. The Cover Letter informs the Aggrieved Employees about the Action and the Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Cover Letter for transmission to the Aggrieved Employees at the time of disbursing their Individual Settlement Shares.

IX. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval by the Court, ILYM Group, Inc. to handle the administration of the Settlement. The fees and expenses of the PAGA Settlement Administrator are estimated not to exceed $7,500.00. These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, printing, and mailing the Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Shares checks to the Aggrieved Employees (i.e., PAGA Settlement Package); re-mailing the returned PAGA Settlement Packages to any updated addresses located; and handling inquiries from Aggrieved Employees regarding the Settlement, among other things. Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of up to $7,500.00 to ILYM Group, Inc., a necessary third-party for handling the settlement process.

X. THE PROPOSED GENERAL RELEASE FEE IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for a General Release Fee to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000.00 in recognition of her efforts and work in spearheading the litigation of this matter, as well as for his broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code

1 Section 1542 waiver (set forth in Section 8(b) of the Settlement Agreement).⁸¹ The purpose of
2 such an award is to incentivize aggrieved employees to step into the shoes of the state labor
3 agency and undertake the responsibilities associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a
4 representative capacity. See Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726
5 (“service payments” compensate named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark
6 v. Am. Residential Servs., LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is 7 appropriate ‘if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram
8 v. The Coca-Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted)
9 (“Courts routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they 10 provided and the risks they incurred during the course of the [...] litigation.”); see also, e.g., 11 Resendez, supra, Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. BC59689 (approving $10,000
12 enhancement award in a PAGA action).

13 Here, Plaintiff allocated considerable time and effort to the litigation of this case in order
14 to enforce the California Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and for the benefit of 15 other Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff discussed her employment with her counsel, gathered and 16 produced relevant documents and information, and provided the facts and evidence necessary to 17 attempt to prove the allegations.⁸² Plaintiff was available whenever her counsel needed her and 18 tried to obtain and provide documents and information that would aid in the litigation of the 19 PAGA claims and pursuit of recovery on behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved
20 Employees.⁸³

21 Accordingly, it is reasonable and just for Plaintiff to receive a General Release Fee in the 22 amount of $10,000.00, in addition to the Individual Settlement Share she will receive as an 23 Aggrieved Employee for her share of the Net Settlement Amount.

XI. CONCLUSION

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasoned compromise of disputed claims that has been reached through arm's-length negotiations, in light of the risks, complexity, and expense of further litigation. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Settlement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the Total Settlement Amount for the LWDA Payment to the LWDA, Individual Settlement Shares to the Aggrieved Employees, Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Plaintiff's Counsel, Settlement Administration Costs to the PAGA Settlement Administrator, and General Release Fee to Plaintiff, and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
