DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff PRISCILLA DE LA CRUZ CORONA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of San Bernardino. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff PRISCILLA DE LA CRUZ CORONA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

6. Defendant WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

7. Defendant COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

8. Defendant COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL ASSOCIATES, INC., dba WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

9. At all relevant times, Defendants WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL, and COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL ASSOCIATES, INC. dba WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, and DOES 2 through 100 (hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants”) were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

10. At all times herein relevant, Defendants WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL, and DOES 2 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 2 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sue said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

12. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff bring this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

14. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from June 3, 2016 to final judgment and who reside in California.

15. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

16. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

- 1 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as 2 demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the 3 interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined 4 community of interest.
- 5 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 6 each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of 7 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
8 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 9 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 10 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 11 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 12 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 13 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 14 each class member.
- 15 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 16 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
17 of all class members is impractical.
- 18 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
19 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
20 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
21 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
22 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 23 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 24 their rights.

25 17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that
26 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
27 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

28 ///

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day, over forty (40) hours per week, and/or over six (6) days per workweek and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants implemented an improper practice and policy of editing and rounding meal periods, which resulted in recorded short and late meal periods being modified to reflect as though they were facially compliant (when they were in fact not, and a premium was due and should have been paid but was not) and resulting in underpayment of wages to the extent time worked was not compensated due to rounding and editing, during the relevant time period;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to use earned commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, non-discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-discretionary production and/or performance pay, and/or shift differentials to calculate the regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages where Plaintiff and the other class members earned commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, non-discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-discretionary production and/or performance pay, and/or shift differentials and overtime wages in the same workweek;

- f. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- j. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- k. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- l. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- m. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- n. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- o. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- p. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

1 19. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the
2 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium
3 wages, to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code
4 may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee
5 on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in 6 California Labor Code section 2699.3.

7 20. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved 8 employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom 9 one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

10 21. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were 11 committed against her during her time of employment and she is, therefore, an aggrieved
12 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 13 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of 14 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

15 22. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
16 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 17 following requirements have been met:

18 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by certified mail
19 (hereinafter “Employee's Notice”) to the LWDA and the employer of the 20 specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been 21 violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged 22 violations.

23 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 24 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
25 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
26 of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 27 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 28 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

23. On July 7, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER and COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of the submission of Plaintiff's notice.

24. Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802 have been satisfied.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

26. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately October 2017 to approximately March 2018, in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

27. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed, short, late, or interrupted meal periods and/or rest breaks.

28. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

29. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

30. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

31. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

32. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or over six (6) days in a workweek during their employment with Defendants.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed, short, late, or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked as a result of, inter alia, Defendants' requiring Plaintiff and the other class members to perform work off-the-clock and engaging in an improper rounding policy.

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to use earned commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, non-discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-discretionary production and/or performance pay, and/or shift differentials to calculate the regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages where Plaintiff and the other class members earned commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, non-discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-discretionary production and/or performance pay, and/or shift differentials and overtime wages

1 in the same workweek.

2 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during
4 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders
5 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

6 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class 9 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, or interrupted, and 10 they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and 11 the other class member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, or 12 interrupted.

13 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 failed to relieve Plaintiff and the other class members of all duties, failed to relinquish control
15 over Plaintiff and the other class members' activities, failed to permit Plaintiff and the other 16 class members a reasonable opportunity to take, and impeded or discouraged them from taking 17 thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their fifth hour of work
18 for shifts lasting at least six (6) hours, and/or take second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal
19 breaks no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours.
20 Defendants also automatically deducted meal periods from Plaintiff's and other class
21 members' time records regardless of whether a complaint meal period was taken.

22 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
24 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class 25 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, or interrupted, and 26 they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and 27 the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, or
28 interrupted.

1 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum
4 wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter alia,
5 Defendants' effective payment of zero dollars per hour for hours Plaintiff and the other class
6 members worked off-the-clock performing work duties and Defendants' implementation of an
7 improper rounding procedure.

8 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
10 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
11 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 12 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

13 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
15 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
16 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
17 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

18 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
19 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
20 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
21 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
22 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the 23 other class members, including worked performed off-the-clock, and the failure to correctly list
24 the name of the legal entity that is the employer.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
3 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did
4 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

5 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 7 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs, including, but not limited to,
8 costs of complying with Defendants' dress code, and purchasing medical equipment and office
9 supplies.

10 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
12 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 13 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
14 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 15 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

16 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 17 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other 18 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 19 week, and/or more than six (6) consecutive days in a workweek without overtime
20 compensation for all overtime hours worked.

21 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to use earned commissions, 22 non-discretionary bonuses, non-discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-
23 discretionary production and/or performance pay, and/or shift differentials to calculate the 24 regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate for the payment of overtime wages where 25 Plaintiff and the other class members earned commissions, non-discretionary bonuses, non-26 discretionary monetary and non-monetary incentives, non-discretionary production and/or 27 performance pay, and/or shift differentials and overtime wages in the same workweek.

28 ///

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

53. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members, including work performed off-the-clock, and the failure to correctly list the name of the legal entity that is the employer.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

55. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, including, but not limited to, costs of complying with Defendants' dress code, and purchasing medical equipment and office supplies.

56. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

57. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER,

COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL, COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY
CARE MEDICAL ASSOCIATES, INC. dba WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, and DOES 2 through 100)

58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 57, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

59. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

60. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or more than six (6) consecutive days in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, more than forty (40) hours in a week, or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

61. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

62. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day

1 of work.

2 63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 3 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, in excess of forty (40) hours in a week, and/or in excess of 4 six (6) consecutive days in a workweek.

5 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 6 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

7 65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
8 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 9 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

10 66. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 11 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 12 attorneys' fees.

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

15 (Against WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER,

16 COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY CARE MEDICAL, COMPREHENSIVE PRIMARY
17 CARE MEDICAL ASSOCIATES, INC. dba WEST POINT MEDICAL CENTER, and

18 DOES 2 through 100)

19 67. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
20 through 66, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 21 forth herein.

22 68. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
23 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by 24 Defendants.

25 69. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
26 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 27 applicable order of the California IWC.

28 ///

70. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

71. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

72. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

73. 2 (when they were in fact not, and a premium was due and should have been paid but was not),

10 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 11 meal periods.

12 76. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
13 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 14 226.7.

15 77. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
16 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

17 78. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
18 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 19 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that
