SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

LAKESHA MCGEE, YASMIN RICO, individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act;

Plaintiff,

vs.

DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC, a
Minnesota limited liability company;
DUNGARVIN, INC., an unknown business entity; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: RG21113182

Honorable Noël Wise
Department 24

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE
ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT,
CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff LAKESHA MCGEE (“Plaintiff MCGEE”) and YASMIN RICO (“Plaintiff RICO” and collectively as “Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for each named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Alameda. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Alameda.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff LAKESHA MCGEE is an individual residing in the State of California.

1 6. Plaintiff YASMIN RICO is an individual residing in the State of California.

2 7. Defendant DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC at all times herein mentioned,
3 was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged
4 throughout the State of California, including the County of Alameda.

5 8. Defendant DUNGARVIN, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is,
6 upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State
7 of California, including the County of Alameda.

8 9. At all relevant times, Defendants DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC and
9 DUNGARVIN, INC. were the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable
10 state laws and statutes.

11 10. At all times herein relevant, DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC,
12 DUNGARVIN, INC., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners,
13 joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest,
14 co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting
15 within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers,
16 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts
17 or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge,
18 permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a
19 DOE herein.

20 11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 21 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sue
22 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 23 that information and belief allege, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
24 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
25 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will 26 seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the 27 same have been ascertained.

28 ///

12. DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC, DUNGARVIN, INC., and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

13. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants, including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiffs’ employment by Defendants.

15. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

16. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

17. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants and the alleged violations was committed against them during their time of employment and they are, therefore, aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

18. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiffs, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

19. On July 14, 2021, Plaintiff MCGEE provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC and DUNGARVIN, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff MCGEE has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff MCGEE’s notice.

20. On August 24, 2021, Plaintiff RICO provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC and DUNGARVIN, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff RICO has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff RICO’s notice.

21. Therefore, Plaintiffs has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in the State of California including, but not limited to all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California who earned shift differentials/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay which was not used to calculate the correct regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “other aggrieved employees”).

23. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff MCGEE as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately February 2019 to approximately July 2020 in the State of California.¹

24. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff RICO as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately November 2017 to approximately March 2020 in the State of California.

25. Defendants hired Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

26. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs’ and the other aggrieved employees’ employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

27. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs’ and the other aggrieved employees’ employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

¹ Pursuant to the Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, Rule 9(a), “the statutes of limitation and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.”

28. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

29. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within the State of California.

30. Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

36. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

37. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

38. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

39. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

40. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

1 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
3 to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

4 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other
6 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
7 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
8 falsely represented to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
9 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

10 43. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
11 to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved
12 employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours
13 per week without overtime compensation.

14 44. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide
15 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

16 45. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and 17 the other aggrieved employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

18 46. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and 19 the other aggrieved employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

20 47. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and
21 the other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law,
22 including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

23 48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete
24 and accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

25 49. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete and 26 accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

27 50. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs
28 and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

1 51. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
2 compensate Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order
3 to increase Defendants' profits.

4 52. California Labor Code section 218 states that noting in Article 1 of the Labor
5 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty
6 due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of California Labor Code § 2698, et seq.

(Against DUNGARVIN CALIFORNIA, LLC,

DUNGARVIN, INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

53. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 52, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

54. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

55. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

56. Plaintiffs and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.
