1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

3 Plaintiff seeks approval of the Settlement Agreement entered between Plaintiff and 4 Defendant Network Capital Funding Corporation (“Defendant”). Plaintiff entered the Settlement
5 Agreement on behalf of herself and all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees
6 of Defendant within the State of California at any time during the August 4, 2020, through 7 September 28, 2025 (“Settlement Group” and “Settlement Period”).

8 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9 On August 4, 2021, Plaintiff provided a written notices to the California Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. On October 14, 2021, Plaintiff filed
11 the representative PAGA action against Defendant, individually and on behalf of California and all
12 Settlement Group Members.¹

13 After engaging in discovery, investigations, and negotiations, on July 30, 2025, the Parties
14 participated in mediation with the mediator Mike Ludwig, resulting in the settlement of this case.²

15 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

16 A. Allocation of the Gross Settlement Amount

17 The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross
18 Settlement Amount of $450,000. The PAGA Penalties Fund will be the Gross Settlement Amount
19 less: (1) Attorneys’ Fees Award of $150,000; (2) Litigation Costs Award of $9,384.22; (3)
20 Enhancement Payment of $5,000; and (4) Administration Costs of $12,000.³

25 ¹ (Declaration of Douglas Han (“Han Decl.”), ¶ 12; Exhibits 8-10.)

26 ² (Id. at ¶¶ 13-17.)

27 ³ (Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Douglas Han
28 (“Settlement Agreement”), §§ 7(a), 7(b).)

1 The current amount of the PAGA Penalties Fund is estimated to be $273,615.78. Seventy-
2 five percent (75%) of the PAGA Penalties Fund will be transmitted to the LWDA as the LWDA
3 Payment pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(i). The remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the 4 PAGA Penalties Fund will be distributed to the Settlement Group Members.⁴

5 B. Distribution of the PAGA Penalties Fund

6 Defendant shall provide the Settlement Administrator a list of Settlement Group Members
7 in the manner and timeline set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will be 8 deposited into a qualified settlement fund created by the Settlement Administrator and will be 9 disbursed to the appropriate entities and persons in the manner and timeline set forth in the 10 Agreement. Uncashed settlement checks will be directed to the California State Controller for 11 deposit in the Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Settlement Group Member.⁵

12 C. The Scope of the Release in the Settlement Agreement

13 Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, 14 all Settlement Group Members, LWDA, and any and all allegedly aggrieved employees will be 15 barred from pursuing civil penalties available under PAGA against the Released Parties based on 16 the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and PAGA Notice and that arose during the 17 Settlement Period.⁶ (Arias v. Sup. Ct. (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980, 986 [a plaintiff suing under 18 PAGA “does so as the proxy or agent of the state’s labor law enforcement agencies,” and, as such,
19 “represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies”].) A 20 judgment in a PAGA action “binds not only that [plaintiff] employee but also the state labor law
21 enforcement agencies.” (Ibid.) Furthermore, “[b]ecause an aggrieved employee’s action under 22 [PAGA] functions as a substitute for an action brought by the government itself, a judgment in 23 that action binds all those, including nonparty aggrieved employees, who would be bound by a 24 judgment in an action brought by the government.” (Ibid.) “Accordingly, with respect to the 25

26 ⁴ (Settlement Agreement, supra, at § 7(b)(v).)

27 ⁵ (Id. at § 8.)

28 ⁶ (Id. at § 9.)

1 recovery of civil penalties, nonparty employees as well as the government are bound by the
2 judgment in an action brought under [PAGA]” (Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at p. 986.)

3 D. No Right to Object to or Opt Out of the Settlement

4 “[A] PAGA action is a statutory action for penalties brought as a proxy for the state ...
5 there is no need to protect absent employees’ due process rights[.]” (Williams v. Sup. Ct. (2017) 3
6 Cal.5th 531, 546.) “Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they
7 have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” (Ochoa-Hernandez v. CJADERS
8 Foods, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010), 2010 WL 3570777, at *5.) “PAGA does not make other 9 potentially aggrieved employees parties” and no “due process concerns arise under PAGA because 10 absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and whatever personal 11 claims the absent employees might have for relief are not at stake.” (Williams, at pp. 546-547 12 (internal references omitted, citing Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Sup. Ct.
13 (2009) 46th Cal.4th 993, 1003 and Iskanian v. CLS Trans. Los Angeles, LLC, (2014) 58 Cal.4th
14 348, 381.)) “[A]bsent fellow employees will be bound by the outcome of any PAGA action[.]” 15 (Williams, at p. 548 (internal references omitted, citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at pp.
16 980-981; Fireside Bank v. Sup. Ct. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1069, 1074 and Richmond v. Dart Indus., 17 Inc. (1981) 29 Cal, 3d 462, 474.)

18 Consistent with this law, the Settlement Agreement does not have a procedure for the 19 Settlement Group Members to object to or exclude themselves.

20 IV. STANDARD FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

21 PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of himself, other
22 aggrieved employees, and State of California to recover civil penalties with respect to provisions
23 of the Labor Code that do not provide for civil penalties. Before bringing a civil action under 24 PAGA, an employee must comply with Labor Code section 2699.3. (Lab. Code § 2699(a).) A 25 court “may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part 26 if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an 27 award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Id. at § 2699(e)(2).)

28 ///

1 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2).) “A
2 PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered a class action but a
3 law enforcement action” and does not have to meet the requirements of a class action. (Casida v.
4 Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna Health
5 of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011) 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46
6 Cal.4th at pp. 980-988 (affirming lower court’s holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class action
7 requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013) 2013
8 WL 1490667, at *15.) A court’s review of a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several unique
9 features that render the approval process distinct from approval of a class action settlement. A 10 court reviewing a PAGA settlement only needs to “ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to 11 those affected.” (Williams v. Sup. Ct., supra, 3 Cal.5th at p. 549 (citing Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)).)
12 The Court of Appeal has held that “a trial court should evaluate a PAGA settlement to determine
13 whether it is fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor
14 law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws.” (Moniz v.
15 Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77.)

16 The Court’s focus is on whether the total settlement amount achieves PAGA’s objectives.
17 PAGA’s purpose “to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that 18 otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies.”
19 (Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 3570777, at *4 (citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at 20 p. 986).) The penalties recovered under the PAGA are partly to “be distributed to the [LWDA] for 21 enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about their rights
22 and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to supplement and not 23 supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes.” (Lab. Code § 2699(j).)

24 ///

26 ///

1 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

2 A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist.

3 A settlement agreement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial
4 negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. (Wershba v. Apple
5 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.)

6 The Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of 7 counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the Settlement is a product of 8 hard-fought negotiations that was entered without collusion. (Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988)
9 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v.
10 Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-617, 622 (recommendations of Plaintiff’s 11 Counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp.
12 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating the “assistance of an experienced 13 mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive”).)

14 The Settlement is presumptively fair. This is because the Settlement: (1) is the product of 15 non-collusive, arm’s-length negotiations; (2) was negotiated by counsel with experience in similar 16 wage-and-hour litigation; and (3) occurred after the Parties’ counsel engaged in thorough 17 investigation of the strengths of this case and risks of continued litigation.

18 B. The Relative Strength of the PAGA Claim and Range of Possible Outcomes.

19 Defendant maintained that it had compliant employment policies and practices throughout
20 the statutory period. If this case had not been settled, Defendant would have challenged Plaintiff’s
21 standing as a Settlement Group Member and denied that the other employees were aggrieved.
22 Defendant further argued that the Court was unlikely to assess cumulative penalties for the 23 maximum number of possible separate Labor Code violations because the “subsequent violation”
24 theory of PAGA recovery would not be triggered in this case, and it would be unjust, arbitrary,
25 oppressive, and/or confiscatory. (See e.g. Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 3 F.4th 26 1127, 1144.) Defendant even asserted that PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive and 27 discretionary and maintained that it had a strong argument that it would be unjust to award the 28 maximum PAGA penalties. (Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th

1 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this authority].⁷

2 The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA penalties include, but are not limited
3 to, Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512(a),
4 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802. To recover civil penalties, it must be
5 proven that the Settlement Group Members suffered from the underlying Labor Code violations
6 and that Defendant's conduct gave rise to penalties. (See e.g. Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC
7 (C.D. Cal. 2008) 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-1182.)⁸

8 Plaintiff alleges that PAGA penalties would be about $150,500 (1,505 employees x $100
9 penalty for initial violation) on the low end and $1,204,000 (1,505 employees x $100 penalty for 10 initial violation x 8 theories of recovery) on the high end. Plaintiff recognized the risk that any 11 PAGA award could be reduced, meaning that the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA penalties
12 was reasonable. When PAGA penalties are negotiated in good faith and "there is no indication 13 that [the] amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members," such 14 amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 15 2009) No. 08-00844, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *24; see e.g. Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010)
16 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 579 ("[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement
17 which does not allocate any damages to the PAGA claims."))⁹

18 C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Litigation.

19 Courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. (Class Plaintiffs 20 v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276.) Generally, "unless the settlement is clearly 21 inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with 22 uncertain results." (Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221
23 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).)

24 ///

25 _____
26 ⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 21-24.)

27 ⁸ (Id. at ¶ 25.)

28 ⁹ (Id. at ¶¶ 26-29.)

1 The Parties utilized the pre-mediation period to investigate the veracity, strength, and scope
2 of the PAGA claim. The Parties conducted discovery and exchanged documents and data to 3 mediate the claims related to the Labor Code violations and relevant defenses, as well as to assess
4 the potential value and strength of the PAGA claim. Plaintiff's Counsel determined that pursuing 5 a settlement was preferable to taking the uncertain and potentially risky trial route. Even if a similar 6 settlement could have been negotiated later, it would have been diminished by additional costs and 7 expenses incurred. Thus, the Settlement provides immediate recovery rather than the mere 8 possibility of recovery at an unspecified future date.¹⁰

9 D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

10 "[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, 'a yielding of absolutes and an 11 abandoning of highest hopes.'" (Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n (9th Cir. 1981) 688
12 F.2d 615, 624.) "The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative 13 measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." (Id. at p. 625.)

14 The Settlement provides a significant monetary benefit to the LWDA and Settlement
15 Group Members. The proposed plan of allocation of the PAGA Penalties Fund to the LWDA and 16 Settlement Group Members fully complies with Labor Code section 2699(i). Furthermore,
17 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel acknowledge the expense, duration, risk, and uncertainty
18 associated with the continued proceedings required to litigate this dispute. As previously
19 mentioned, to recover civil penalties, Plaintiff would need to demonstrate that the Settlement
20 Group Members experienced the underlying Labor Code violations and that Defendant's actions 21 resulted in penalties. This process could extend over several months or even years. Plaintiff and 22 Plaintiff's Counsel have also considered Defendant's agreement to settle in a manner that provides 23 immediate relief. When considering the foregoing, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel concluded that 24 the Settlement constitutes a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution.¹¹

25 ///

27 ¹⁰ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 13-17.)

28 ¹¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 21-24, 38.)

1 E. Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel.

2 Plaintiff’s Counsel are experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-
3 hour litigation. Plaintiff’s Counsel believe that the benefit offered by the Settlement is fair and 4 reasonable and in the best interests of the LWDA and Settlement Group Members.¹²

5 VI. APPROVAL OF THE ATTORNEYS’ FEES AWARD.

6 A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund is Appropriate.

7 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of Attorneys’ Fees Award of 8 $150,000 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Plaintiff’s Counsel. The Attorneys’ Fees Award
9 is commensurate with the: (1) risks undertaken; (2) time, effort, and expense dedicated; (3) skills
10 and determination shown; (4) results achieved; and (5) other cases turned down.

11 The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys’ fees as a percentage of a monetary 12 fund preserved or recovered for the benefit of others has been confirmed by the California Supreme 13 Court. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 486, 506.) While trial courts have 14 discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage of-the-fund method, the California
15 Supreme Court has taken the position that trial courts “retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar 16 cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee[.]”
17 and “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California.” (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc., 18 supra, 1 Cal.5th at pp. 486, 506 (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba v. Apple Computer,
19 Inc., supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 253.)

20 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions as “it better approximates 21 the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc.
22 (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 48.) California law provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should 23 be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation
24 based on the result achieved and risk incurred. (Lealao, at pp. 47, 50; Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, 25 Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 503.) In cases where the agreement provides the defendant agrees to 26 pay the attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the agreement, use of that percentage method
27

28 ¹² (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 2-9; Exhibit 1.)

1 is appropriate. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 32.) The fees in class
2 and representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract
3 negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in similar litigation. (Id. at p. 48.) “The ultimate 4 goal ... is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of 5 the method of calculation.” (Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-558
6 (quotation omitted).)

7 Plaintiff’s Counsel are also entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a
8 matter of right. (Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1).) Plaintiff’s Counsel are entitled to fees and costs under 9 Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 as this case is by definition “for the benefit” of others and 10 has secured monetary awards for the Settlement Group.¹³ The payment to the LWDA will benefit 11 the agency in enforcing labor laws and educating “employers and employees about their rights and 12 responsibilities under [the Labor Code].” (Lab. Code § 2699(i).)

13 B. The Attorneys’ Fees Award is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered.

14 The factors courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable are: (1) time 15 and labor required; (2) novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) requisite skills to perform the 16 legal services; (4) preclusion of other employment by the attorney; (5) customary fee; (6) whether 17 the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitation imposed; (8) amount involved and results
18 obtained; (9) experience, reputation and ability of the attorney; (10) undesirability of the case; (11)
19 nature and length of the professional relationship; and (12) awards in similar cases. (Camden I 20 Condo. Ass’n, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.) It should be highlighted that the 21 percentage award sought is commensurate with the following factors: (1) results obtained; (2) risks
22 undertaken; (3) difficulty of this case; and (4) skills displayed and quality of work.

23 ///

24 ///

26 ¹³ (Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 (recognizing 27 that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individual satisfies the “significant benefit,” “public 28 interest,” and “large class of persons” requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff’s personal motivation).)

1 1. The Results Obtained

2 The results attorneys obtain for their clients is an important factor when determining the 3 reasonability of a percentage-based fee. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p.
4 489.) Law firms that obtain exceptional results expect those results to be reflected in their fees.

5 The results obtained herein are reasonable as Plaintiff's Counsel obtained a settlement of 6 $450,000 without the need for extended litigation. If this case went to trial, there was no guarantee
7 that the trial would have been short or that either party would have prevailed. Even if the Parties
8 reached a similar settlement, it would have been undercut by additional expenses incurred.
9 Resolution of this dispute at this stage is preferred as the Parties were moving to the phase where 10 significant time and money would inevitably have to be spent to prepare for trial.

11 By avoiding the uncertainties associated with conducting trial and Defendant's responses
12 to the allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel obtained those results more quickly and surely than if the 13 matter had been litigated to final resolution. Under the law, this factor supports the Attorneys'
14 Fees Award. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

15 2. The Risks Undertaken

16 Whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

17 A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they 18 are performed [and] [...] compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he 19 renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not 20 being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

21 (Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823.)

22 Plaintiff executed a contingent fee agreement. This meant that no recovery would have 23 equated to no compensation for 253.3 hours of work and $9,384.22 in litigation costs incurred.
24 Several factors also made this case difficult, thereby contributing to the risks undertaken. These 25 factors included: (1) difficulties in pinning down job responsibilities, wages paid, and meal and 26 rest breaks taken; (2) number of documents that had to be analyzed; (3) shifting wage-and-hour
27 laws; (4) drafting and propounding formal discovery requests and reviewing the responses; (5) 28

engaging in motions practice with Defendant; and (6) Defendant's initial resistance to the relief.¹⁴

Attorneys being paid on an hourly basis as opposed to being paid on a contingent basis are assuming less risks. (See e.g. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-1133.) The contingent risks are a major factor when determining attorneys' fees. (See e.g. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 504 (noting that trial court had carefully considered risks and contingency involved in awarding 33 and 1/3% fee).)

3. The Difficulty of the Litigation

The unsettled nature of the law, factual complexities underlying the policies and practices in place, engaging in formal discovery and motions practice with Defendant, and other issues made this case complex and difficult. Plaintiff's Counsel overcame these obstacles by obtaining a settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Plaintiff's Counsel obtaining a fair settlement despite these roadblocks speaks volumes of their skill and experience. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 42 ("special skill and experience of counsel" is a relevant factor when determining fee award).)

Due to the difficulty of this case, Plaintiff's Counsel devoted several hours to this matter. The detailed time records set forth the hours worked by each attorney, allocating the total time to the tasks required to conclude this lawsuit. As stated in the previous section, this was not a clear-cut case. Plaintiff's Counsel had to overcome roadblocks and obstacles before they could reach the settlement, which further illustrates the difficulty of this case.¹⁵

4. The Skill Displayed and Quality of Work

The level of skill displayed and excellent quality of work it produced justify the Attorneys' Fees Award. Plaintiff's Counsel are skilled and experienced representatives and class action wage-and-hour litigators, and the detailed time records further illustrate this assertion.

¹⁴ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 30, 32, 33, 36.)

¹⁵ (Id. at ¶ 32; Exhibit 3.)

1 Plaintiff's Counsel used the pre-mediation time to investigate the veracity, strength, and 2 scope of the PAGA claim and to prepare for representative adjudication. This investigation and 3 preparation included: (1) engaging in case strategy and analysis; (2) drafting, reviewing, and 4 revising pleadings, formal discovery requests, and mediation brief; (3) preparing for and appearing
5 at court proceedings; (4) engaging in motions practice with Defendant; (5) calculating potential 6 damages for mediation purposes; (6) preparing for and attending mediation and engaging in 7 negotiations; and (7) working with Defendant's counsel to draft and finalize the Settlement
8 Agreement (and exhibit). Plaintiff's Counsel also undertook the task of locating and interviewing
9 putative aggrieved employees to verify if the PAGA claim raised individualized issues.¹⁶

10 Plaintiff's Counsel's accumulated skill and expertise contributed to the settlement in this 11 case. Under California law, this factor (skills displayed and quality of work) supports the 12 Attorneys' Fees Award. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

13 C. The Lodestar Methodology Justifies the Attorneys' Fees Award.

14 When a common fund is involved, courts may use the lodestar method. A court tasked with 15 cross-checking a percentage-based fee considers the reasonableness of the lodestar figure, which 16 is the time reasonably spent multiplied by the reasonable hourly compensation of the attorneys.
17 (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48.) The court may then adjust, increase, or decrease that 18 figure after considering factors like the novelty and complexity of the issues, skill and expertise,
19 extent the litigation precluded other employment, and risk involved. (Id. at p. 49.)

20 Based on the 253.3 hours worked, the base lodestar fees calculation is $184,640, resulting 21 in a negative multiplier of 0.81 when cross-checked to the Attorneys' Fees Award.¹⁷

22 ///

24 ///

26
27 ¹⁶ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 15.)

28 ¹⁷ (Id. at ¶¶ 33, 35.)

1 1. Work Performed for a Reasonable Number of Hours.

2 Counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent. (Ketchum v. Moses,
3 supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.) Reasonableness is assessed by “the entire course of the litigation,
4 including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial
5 itself[.]” (Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.)

6 This matter required a fair amount of time and labor. The detailed time records evidenced 7 the numerous tasks that were performed by each attorney to seek all necessary information. The 8 detailed time records further illustrate that Plaintiff’s Counsel spent a reasonable number of hours
9 working on this case, thereby demonstrating the application for attorneys’ fees is reasonable.¹⁸

10 The case involved, among other things, gathering and analyzing data from Defendant and 11 other sources. Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook preparation to resolve the entire matter through 12 mediation. These preparations ranged from locating and interviewing putative aggrieved 13 employees, engaging in formal discovery and motions practice with Defendant, gathering and 14 reviewing a myriad of documents, determining the scope of the Settlement Group, verifying the 15 strengths of the PAGA claim, etc.

16 2. The Hourly Rates are Reasonable.

17 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s hourly rates are supported by the 2022 Real Rate Report that was 18 compiled by Wolters Kluwer, which surveyed the hourly rates charged in 2022 by hundreds of 19 attorneys in the State of California. The hourly rates are also in line with the Laffey Matrix. The 20 hourly rates are also reasonable for the following reasons: (1) several courts in the State of 21 California have awarded Plaintiff’s Counsel fees at similar rates; (2) comparable hourly rates for 22 similar services have been deemed reasonable in several cases in the State of California; and (3)
23 surveys of legal rates have supported the hourly rates. This shows that the hourly rates used for 24 the lodestar calculation are well within the range of non-contingent rates charged by comparable
25 attorneys performing similar work in the State of California.¹⁹

26
27 ¹⁸ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 32; Exhibit 3.)

28 ¹⁹ (Id. at ¶¶ 33-35; Exhibits 4, 5.) 21

1 The California Supreme Court has ruled that an attorney fee award that is higher than the 2 actual fees incurred is proper in contingency cases:

3 “[A] contingent fee contract, since it involves a gamble on the result, may properly
4 provide for a larger compensation than would otherwise be reasonable.” The 5 purpose of a fee enhancement, or so-called multiplier, for contingent risk is to bring 6 the financial incentives for attorneys ... into line with incentives they have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis.

7 (Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1132.)

8 Moreover, the California Supreme Court added:

9 The economic rationale for fee enhancement in contingency cases has been 10 explained as follows: “A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal 11 services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not 12 only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. The implicit 13 interest rate on such a loan is higher because the risk of default (the loss of the case, which cancels the debt of the client to the lawyer) is much higher than that of conventional loans.”

14 (Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132-1133.)

15 Finally, “[F]ee enhancements are intended to compensate for the risk of loss generally in 16 contingency cases as a class.” (Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.)

17 VII. THE LITIGATION COSTS AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

18 The Settlement Agreement allows for Litigation Costs Award of up to $20,000. Plaintiff’s 19 Counsel incurred $9,384.22 of litigation in costs and expenses. Plaintiff’s Counsel request that the 20 Court order the reimbursement of these costs and expenses.²⁰

21 VIII. THE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

22 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of the Enhancement Payment of 23 $5,000 to Plaintiff for the services and contributions on behalf of the Settlement Group. The 24 purpose of such an award is to incentivize plaintiffs to step into the shoes of the state labor agency
25 and undertake the risks associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a representative capacity.
26 (Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (“service payments” compensate
27

28 ²⁰ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 36; Exhibit 6.)

1 named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark v. Am. Residential Servs., LLC
2 (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is appropriate ‘if it is necessary to induce
3 an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram v. The Coca-Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001)
4 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted) (“Courts routinely approve incentive
5 awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided and the risks they incurred
6 during the course of the [...] litigation.”).)

7 Plaintiff spent time and effort in locating and producing relevant documents and past
8 employment records, reviewing relevant documents, and providing the facts and evidence 9 supporting the allegations. Plaintiff was available whenever needed by Plaintiff’s Counsel and 10 actively tried to obtain and provide as much information as possible. Plaintiff spent hours speaking
11 with Plaintiff’s Counsel about the alleged violations, discussing the work experiences and work
12 environment, helping Plaintiff’s Counsel develop a strategy to obtain additional documents, aiding 13 Plaintiff’s Counsel to determine the importance of the documents produced, and reviewing the 14 operative complaint, formal discovery requests, and Settlement Agreement (and exhibit). Plaintiff
15 also made herself available all day to participate in and assist with a full day of mediation.²¹

16 Plaintiff was advised of and accepted the risks and sacrifices associated with serving as the 17 named plaintiff. Plaintiff is also not related to anyone associated with Plaintiff’s Counsel. This is 18 further proof that Plaintiff’s interests are not adverse to the Settlement Group Members.²²

19 IX. THE ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED

20 The Agreement provides for the payment of Administration Costs of up to $12,000. The 21 Administration Costs are intended to cover the costs incurred by the Settlement Administrator for 22 performing its duties outlined in the Agreement. Plaintiff’s Counsel have previously worked with 23 the Settlement Administrator and are familiar with its superior reputation and work.

24 ///

26 ²¹ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 37; Declaration of Gerardo Griselda Gonzalez (“Gonzalez Decl.”), 27 ¶¶ 6-10.)

28 ²² (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 37; Gonzalez Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 11-14.)

The Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasonable compromise. Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the above-mentioned payments.
