I am completely familiar with the present litigation, including the pleadings, discovery, and filings submitted in this matter. I make this Declaration from my own personal knowledge, and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify to the following.

2. I graduated cum laude from the University of California, San Diego in 2004 with a degree in Human Development. I graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law in 2008. I am admitted to practice before the following Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States District Court, Northern, Eastern, Southern and Central of California; all California State Courts.

3. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement in the above-captioned case.

COMPANY BACKGROUND

4. NRC provides environmental, industrial, and emergency response solutions.

5. Plaintiff and Proposed Class members were employed by Defendant and performed work as non-exempt, hourly employees.

6. In Plaintiff's position as Marine Technician, he traveled to various sites to perform cleanup of hazardous spills.

7. In addition to Marine Technicians, the Proposed Class includes hazardous waste vehicle operators and other hourly employees.

LITIGATION OVERVIEW AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

8. On September 30, 2021, Plaintiff commenced this lawsuit by filing a Complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Alameda, captioned Robert Dell v. US Ecology Illinois, Inc., et al., Case No. RG21114398, alleging causes of action against Defendant for 1) Failure to Pay Wages and/or Overtime Under Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, 1104.2, and 1199; 2) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks Pursuant to Labor Code Sections 226.7 and 512; 3) Failure

1 to Provide Rest Breaks Pursuant to Labor Code Section 226.7; 4) Violation of Labor Code Section
2 226(a); 5) Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code Section 203; and 6) Violation of Business &
3 Professions Code Section 17200 (hereafter, the “Action”).

4 9. On December 7, 2021, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint (“FAC”), naming
5 NRC Environmental Services Inc. as the Defendant in the Action and alleging an additional cause
6 of action against Defendant for penalties pursuant to the Private Attorney General Act of 2004
7 (“PAGA”) (Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.). Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(a), Plaintiff gave
8 timely written notice to Defendant and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
9 by sending the PAGA Notice.

10 10. As part of this settlement, the Parties have agreed to permit Plaintiff to file a Second 11 Amended Complaint (“SAC”) to amend the class definition to exclude employees who had 12 acknowledged arbitration agreements from the Class. On November 7, 2022, the Parties filed a 13 stipulation to permit Plaintiff to file a SAC. Counsel for Plaintiff has contacted the clerk and 14 believes that the Court is still processing the filing, but that the SAC will be filed before the Court
15 hears the instant Motion.

16 THE DISCOVERY PROCESS

17 11. The Parties engaged in extensive informal discovery to arrive at the proposed 18 settlement.

19 12. Plaintiff obtained, through informal discovery, pertinent time and pay data for the 20 proposed settlement class and PAGA members, including Plaintiff’s personnel file, so that the 21 Parties could fully investigate the claims at issue and understand their strengths and weaknesses.

22 13. On July 26, 2022, the Parties participated in an all-day private mediation presided
23 over by experienced mediator Frances “Tripper” Ortman, Esq. which led to this proposed 24 settlement of the Action on a class and representative basis, subject to the Court’s approval.

25 14. Defendants deny any liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims
26 alleged in the Action, disputes the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and further contend
27 that, for any purpose other than settlement, Plaintiff’s claims are not appropriate for class or 28 representative action treatment. Defendants contend, among other things, that, at all times, it has

1 complied with the California Labor Code, and the Industrial Wage Commission Orders.

2 15. Based on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of
3 the opinion that the Agreement with Defendants are fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best
4 interest of the settlement class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of 5 significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendants, uncertainties regarding a class and 6 representative action trial on the merits, and numerous potential appellate issues. Although 7 Defendants deny any liability, Defendants are agreeing to this Agreement solely to avoid the cost
8 of litigation. Accordingly, the Parties and their counsel desire to fully, finally, and forever settle,
9 compromise and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or relating to the Action on the 10 terms set forth here.

11 CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

12 16. Here, Plaintiff maintains that the proposed settlement class is ascertainable for 13 several reasons: First, Defendants have agreed in the Agreement to provide a class list to the 14 Administrator containing the name, last-known mailing address, social security number, and 15 number of class settlement period workweeks and PAGA pay periods for all putative class
16 members and PAGA members after issuance of the preliminary approval order.

17 17. Second, the proposed settlement class consist of Defendants' employees, and 18 Defendants are required to keep records of its employees' names, home addresses, and social 19 security numbers.

20 18. Third and finally, Defendants informally produced Plaintiff's personnel file and 21 time and pay data for settlement class members containing class member contact information,
22 which confirms that all settlement class members may be readily identified based on Defendants'
23 records.

24 19. Therefore, Plaintiff is confident he will be able to establish that the proposed 25 settlement class is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

26 20. Here, Plaintiff argues that there are questions of law and fact common to the 27 proposed settlement class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class
28 members.

21. These common questions include:

- 1) Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages and/or overtime compensation;
- 2) Whether Defendants failed to provide lawfully required meal periods and/or failed to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 3) Whether Defendants failed to provide lawfully required rest periods and/or failed to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 4) Whether Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 5) Whether Defendants failed to pay compensation due and owing upon termination of employment;
- 6) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair competition; and,
- 7) Whether Defendants violated § 2699, et seq. of the Labor Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged.

22. Plaintiff's challenge to Defendants' uniform policies and practices involves common factual and legal issues that are amenable to class treatment.

23. Here, Plaintiff maintains that the proposed settlement class members suffered the same injuries, in the same manner: (1) settlement class members were not properly paid all wages/overtime; (2) settlement class members did not receive their meal and rest periods as required; (3) settlement class members were not provided accurate itemized wage statements; (4) and, (5) settlement class members were not paid all wages owed upon termination/resignation.

24. Accordingly, for purposes of settlement, certification for settlement purposes is appropriate.

25. Plaintiff performed work for Defendant as a Marine Technician, which required him to travel to various sites requiring code-compliant cleanup of hazardous spills. Plaintiff was an hourly employee and was paid on a weekly basis.

26. Plaintiff alleges that he: (1) worked without being paid all wages and/or overtime, including minimum wage; (2) worked without being provided compliant meal/rest periods as required by law; (3) worked without being provided accurate itemized wage statements that share the same alleged defect of failing to show all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period

1 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and (4) worked without being
2 paid all wages due upon separation. Plaintiff also alleges that he experienced derivative claims for 3 unfair business competition (B&P Code §17200) and Labor Code §2699, et seq.

4 27. Plaintiff also contends that his claims are typical of those of the settlement class.

5 28. Plaintiff believes that he is capable of fairly representing and adequately protecting 6 the interests of the proposed settlement class members.

7 29. Plaintiff's interests in this litigation are coextensive with the interests of the 8 proposed settlement class members. The members of the proposed settlement class all worked for 9 Defendants during the relevant time period and incurred the same type of alleged damages with 10 regard to Defendants' alleged violations of the law.

11 30. Moreover, Plaintiff has agreed to serve as Class Representative and has retained
12 qualified Counsel who is experienced in prosecuting wage and hour class actions.

13 31. This demonstrates his commitment to bringing about the best possible results for 14 the benefit of the proposed settlement class.

15 32. Plaintiff has provided his Counsel with all necessary and pertinent information.

16 33. He has been a very active participant in the litigation including having frequent 17 contact with settlement class members and working closely with Class Counsel to develop the 18 theories of liability.

19 34. Therefore, Plaintiff believes that he has and will continue to adequately represent 20 the proposed settlement class members.

21 35. In this regard, the superiority of class treatment is evident here because individual 22 pursuit of class members' claims may not be economically viable.

23 36. The only alternative to certification would be to force over 170 employees to join 24 this action, file individual, uniform actions, or abandon their legal rights altogether.

25 37. Plaintiff maintains that this economic reality would result in a windfall for 26 Defendants if this case were not certified.

1 48. Plaintiff contends that his review of the randomized time records provided by
2 Defendants show evidence of a routine practice of rounding time in that 99.8% employee shifts
3 were recorded to the quarter hour, and more than half of all shifts were recorded as exactly 8 hours.

4 49. Plaintiff contends that, just as the employer in Donahue did, Defendants improperly 5 rounded time records for meal periods to the nearest quarter, or half, hour.

6 50. Plaintiff's review of the records for mediation revealed that all meal punch times
7 were to the exact half hour (e.g. 7:00 am to 11:00am, then lunch, and then 11:30am to 2:30pm).

8 51. Plaintiff contends that Defendants were using a timekeeping system which required
9 employees to submit handwritten time sheets reflecting their actual hours worked and that time
10 was later input into an electronic timekeeping system. As such, Plaintiff argues that Defendants 11 could have maintained accurate punch records, but instead rounded employee time.

12 52. Plaintiff felt confident that this claim was certifiable and that damages could be 13 determined easily by matching up handwritten timecards with punch records for the same pay
14 period to determine if any wages were owed to class members.

15 53. In addition, Plaintiff alleged Defendants also required Plaintiff and the Class
16 members to arrive prior to the scheduled time of their shift to begin their work tasks and also to 17 work after their shift. As such Plaintiff and the Class members allege that they worked hours off-
18 the-clock and were not compensated for this time.

19 54. Plaintiff contends that he and the Class members were often required to work
20 overtime hours for which they were not compensated.

21 55. Plaintiff acknowledges that this can be a highly difficult type of claim to prove 22 because there are no time records to substantiate or evaluate the claim.

23 56. Instead, Defendant would argue that if there was any such issue of pre-shift work,
24 it would necessitate speaking to each and every Settlement Class Member about their experiences
25 day to day and whether any off the clock time was ever worked and if so, why it was worked.

26 57. This type of inquiry, Defendants would argue, makes its very difficult to establish 27 liability based on common proof.

28 58. Based on this acute risk, Plaintiff believed it was appropriate to discount this claim

1 for settlement purposes.

2 59. Plaintiff alleged he and all other Class members consistently worked shifts over
3 five (5) hours and Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class members with proper meal
4 periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes as required by the Labor Code during the relevant time
5 period.

6 60. According to pay records informally produced by Defendants, there are two issues.

7 61. First, the records overall consistent show exact 30 minute meal periods.

8 62. Plaintiff would certainly challenge the validity of these records.

9 63. Second, even timesheets showing exact 30-minute meal periods, reflected a 10 significant number of shifts with late first meal periods, shifts with no meal, and shifts with no 11 second meal.

12 64. As a result, Plaintiff asserts that the class can invoke the burden shifting clearly set
13 forth in Donahue to successfully argue that having records rife with violations will create a 14 presumption of liability.

15 65. The burden would then, in theory, shift to Defendant to prove that in fact all class
16 members got compliant meal periods.

17 66. Plaintiff was confident that if the burden did shift to Defendant, Defendant would 18 attempt to gather testimonial evidence from class members indicating that the records were 19 accurate and either they took compliant meal breaks as reflected in the records or were paid a meal
20 period premium in lieu thereof.

21 67. Though Plaintiff does not believe this was the case, Plaintiff must acknowledge it
22 poses risks for the Class.

23 68. There is risk as to both sides as to what declarations and depositions of class
24 members might reveal.

25 69. Indeed, Plaintiff had to consider that Defendant could secure declarations from 26 Class Members that all complaint breaks were “provided”, but that Class Members chose to take 27 late breaks or miss breaks on occasion.

28 70. In short, simply because Donohue may shift the burden to Defendant, it does not

1 establish liability and provides Defendant an opportunity to disprove the allegations.

2 71. In response, first and foremost, Defendant argued that Class Members were 3 provided with legally compliant meal periods.

4 72. In addition, Plaintiff anticipated that Defendant would assert that such an argument
5 would pose individual issues and Defendant would be entitled to inquire of each class member, on 6 each day whether or not they were provided with compliant meal periods.

7 73. Taken together, Plaintiff acknowledged some risk but was confident that he could
8 certify the meal period claim and that Defendant faced significant risk and exposure on the meal
9 period claim.

10 74. Here, similar to the meal break violations, Plaintiff alleged that Defendants
11 maintained a consistent policy of failing to provide Plaintiff and the Class members with rest
12 breaks of not less than ten (10) minutes per four (4) hour work period or major fraction thereof.

13 75. Plaintiff maintains that he and the Class members were unable to take compliant
14 rest breaks due to work volume and the general inability to take a rest break while performing on-
15 site work, or traveling to or from a site.

16 76. The same risk analysis does not apply as with the meal periods, though, because 17 there generally are no records associated with rest periods.

18 77. As such, Plaintiff does not believe that he would be able to invoke the Donahue
19 burden shifting in the same way.

20 78. Plaintiff had to acknowledge that it could potentially be easier for Defendant to 21 defeat certification of this claim if it was able to gather testimonial evidence from class members
22 indicating that they were able to take all required rest breaks each day.

23 79. Though Plaintiff does not believe this was the case, Plaintiff must acknowledge it
24 poses risks for the Class.

25 80. Just as with meal periods, there is risk as to both sides as to what declarations and 26 depositions of class members might reveal.

27 81. Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed to issue him and the Class members
28 accurate itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay

1 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

2 82. As Plaintiff alleges that Defendants regularly knowingly and intentionally failed to
3 issue Plaintiff and the Class members accurate itemized wage statements, Plaintiff and the Class
4 contend that they are “deemed to suffer injury” because the information required to be contained
5 in wage statements is not easily ascertainable elsewhere.

6 83. Here, Plaintiff anticipated that Defendants would argue its conduct was not 7 “knowing and intentional” and all required information was show on the paystubs and if there were 8 ever any errors it was the result of clerical error, omission, or oversight.

9 84. It was anticipated that Defendant would argue that Plaintiffs claims were merely 10 derivative of the underlying wage and meal period claims, but that all record of payment actually 11 received by a Class Member was shown on the paystubs as required.

12 85. Here, Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed to properly pay overtime for any 13 work in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or any work in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

14 86. The risk analysis for the section 203 claim flows from the risk analysis for the 15 underlying wage claim discussed above.

16 87. If Defendants could prove, as it contends, that Class members were properly paid
17 for all hours worked, there would be no recovery of wages and no waiting time penalties that flow 18 therefrom.

19 88. Plaintiff also alleged that Defendants owe waiting time penalties by not paying 20 former alleged employees all wages owed and all premium payments for non-compliant meal or 21 rest periods. Labor Code § 226.7. Pursuant to Murphy v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2002)
22 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1120, Plaintiff contended that break premium payments constitute “wages” under 23 Labor Code § 203. (“We hold that section 226.7’s plain language, the administrative and 24 legislative history, and the compensatory purpose of the remedy compel the conclusion that the 25 ‘additional hour of pay’ is a premium wage, not a penalty”).

26 89. In addition to the wage, meal period, rest period, itemized wage statement, and 27 penalty claims alleged in detail above, Plaintiff also alleges a record keeping violation as the basis
28 for a PAGA claim on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees.

1 90. Here, Plaintiff contends that Defendants did not maintain accurate records of meal
2 periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees and have violated IWC Wage Order 4, ¶7 with 3 respect to Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
4 Employees to work under conditions of labor prohibited by an order of the Industrial Welfare
5 Commission (IWC) by violating, refusing, and neglecting to comply with the commission's orders
6 regarding working conditions.

7 91. Defendants violated IWC Wage Order 4-2001 by failing to maintain accurate
8 records of meal periods for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Industrial Welfare
9 Commission Wage Order 4-2001.

10 92. Plaintiff discounted the PAGA claim for multiple reasons.

11 93. First, the aggrieved employees' PAGA claims are derivative of all the foregoing 12 class claims. If Plaintiff cannot establish liability on the underlying claim (taking into account the 13 risks discussed above), then the derivative PAGA claim will also necessarily fail.

14 94. Second, a court has discretion to award less than the maximum penalty.

15 95. Third, the likelihood of the Court reducing the PAGA damages awarded to 16 Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees – assuming liability is proven as to each of Plaintiffs'
17 claims – is also higher in this case where these same individuals will also be receiving money for 18 the same unlawful conduct under the class claims.

19 96. There is significant expense associated with the class certification process, which 20 the Parties can avoid by entering into the contemplated Agreement now.

21 97. If the Court did eventually certify a class, trial of a case involving approximately 22 179 Class members would require the retention of expensive expert witnesses, the accrual of 23 extensive litigation costs, and a significant time overlay by the parties.

24 98. Moreover, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues in this case it is 25 likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal
26 would result in further delay for the Class members who are waiting for a resolution in this matter.

27 99. This case has not been certified to be tried as a class action. While Plaintiff believes 28 there is strong evidence to support certification of several possible subclasses certification is

1 always hard fought and subject to judicial discretion. Moreover, in class actions, decertification
2 is always a possibility. In attempting to certify a class, the parties would need to conduct multiple
3 depositions, including of the Class Representative and of several person(s) most knowledgeable
4 regarding Defendants' policies. There is a risk for both sides as to what these depositions will 5 reveal and whether they will support class certification to the extent expected.

6 100. It was very difficult for the Parties to reach this Settlement of $750,000.00.

7 101. This Settlement is the result of adversarial, non-collusive, and arms-length
8 negotiations. The Parties arrived at it after extensive investigation and discovery, careful 9 evaluation of the law, risks, and all information substantiating the amount of penalties reasonably
10 likely to be awarded to the class were the trier of fact to find Defendants liable, and the assistance
11 of an experienced mediator, Tripper Ortman.

12 102. Plaintiff assessed full value of the Minimum Wage/Overtime claim, without any 13 discount, at approximately $364,542.

14 103. This calculation assumed that each Class member worked 10 minutes of unpaid
15 overtime per shift.

16 104. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the meal period claim, without any discount, at 17 approximately $320,380.

18 105. This calculation was based upon unique (alleged) meal period violations in the 19 records meaning missed first or second break, late break, or short breaks.

20 106. Of course, if these violations were reduced by Defendant gathering testimonial
21 evidence per Donohue that breaks were "provided" but take late or missed for other reasons, this 22 number would go down.

23 107. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the rest period claim, without any discount, at 24 approximately $1,559,427.

25 108. This assumes a 100% violation rate of 5 rest period violations per workweek per 26 Settlement Class Members.

27 109. If Plaintiff assumed there were only 2.5 meal period violations on average per 28 workweek per Class Member for the purposes of assessing maximum potential liability that

1 number drops in half to $779,713.50.

2 110. In the settlement context and accounting for the risk discussed above, Plaintiff
3 determined that the lower number was more appropriate for settlement valuation purposes.
4 accepting a discount of the full amount of the rest period claim was appropriate.

5 111. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the wage statement claim pursuant to Labor Code
6 §226(a) at $440,000.

7 112. This calculation was based on the number of class members who received wage
8 statements during the relevant recovery period (110) using $50/$100 for each of the allegedly 9 violative wage statements.

10 113. Considering the derivate nature of Labor Code §226, Plaintiff determined that 11 accepting a discount on this claim was appropriate.

12 114. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the waiting time claim for penalties pursuant to 13 Labor Code §203 at $527,553.

14 115. This calculation was based on the number of former employees in the data who are 15 allegedly owed any unpaid wages at the time of separation.

16 116. Considering the derivate nature of Labor Code §203 and the unresolved nature of 17 whether Section 203 penalties are available for alleged meal and rest period violations, Plaintiff
18 determined that accepting a discount on this claim was appropriate.

19 117. Finally, Plaintiff calculated the value of the PAGA claim at $1,257,600 for 20 Settlement Class Members (using $100 per pay period) for one alleged underlying Labor Code
21 violation for each of the 12,576 pay periods in the relevant time period.

22 118. As the law is unsettled regarding whether PAGA penalties can be awarded for each 23 of the underlying Labor Code violations (i.e. “stacked”) for the purposes of assessing the 24 maximum penalty amount, Plaintiff calculated the exposure at one penalty of $100 per person per 25 pay period.

26 119. The main risk taken into account with PAGA is the discretionary nature of the 27 penalty award.

28 120. A judge can award the statutory maximum of $100 for the initial violation and $200 thereafter or – in theory – one cent per wage statement.

121. While there is a dearth of available authority, in Plaintiff's view, were he to succeed on any of the underlying Labor Code violations, it is not likely that a Judge would also award a large amount of penalties of top of any damages recovered.

122. Using the figures set forth above, per Plaintiff's assessment, the maximum potential value of all of Plaintiff's and the Settlement Class Members' claims was approximately $3,689,789.

123. As a result of the forgoing risks on the merits discussed extensively above, Class Counsel believes the Gross Settlement Amount of $750,000.00 is fair and reasonable.

Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Settlement Period.

- 6.3 Release by Non-Participating Class Members Who Are Aggrieved Employees: All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Settlement Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the Action including, any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay unpaid wages, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime and double time wages, meal and rest period violations, unpaid reimbursements and expenses, wage statement violations, separation pay violations; and PAGA penalties (collectively, the “Released PAGA Claims”) during the PAGA Settlement Period.

7. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) that complies with the Court’s current checklist for Preliminary Approvals.

- 7.1 Defendant’s Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from Defendant and Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator. In their Declarations, Defense Counsel and Defendant shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

- 7.2 Plaintiff’s Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its “not to exceed” bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiff, Class Counsel or Defense Counsel; (v) a signed declaration from Plaintiff confirming willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members, and/or the Administrator; (v) a signed declaration from each Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); and all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members, the Administrator and/or the Cy Pres Recipient. In their Declarations, Plaintiff and Class Counsel Declaration shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

- 7.3 Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 7.4 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

8. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 8.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Phoenix to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Phoenix agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 8.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports to state and federal tax authorities.
- 8.3 Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 8.4 Notice to Class Members.
- 8.4.1 No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- 8.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class

Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice [with Spanish translation, if applicable] substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

8.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

8.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members’ written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

8.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

8.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

8.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member’s election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member’s name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

8.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

8.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3 of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

8.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

8.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

8.7 Objections to Settlement.

8.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees

Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

- 8.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 60 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).
- 8.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.
- 8.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.
- 8.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- 8.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 8.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report"). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

8.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

8.8.5 Administrator's Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

8.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

9. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES AND ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of the mediation, there are 179 Class Members and 19,667 total Compensable Work Weeks.

9.1 Defendant represents that the Class Group includes approximately 179 putative class members who worked approximately 19,667 workweeks for Defendant from September 30, 2017, through the date of mediation. This representation is a material term of this Settlement Agreement. If the actual number of workweeks worked by the Class Group during the period from September 30, 2017 through the date of mediation is determined from Defendant's business records to be 5% or more than 19,667 workweeks, then Plaintiff shall have the right in his sole discretion to rescind this Settlement Agreement, which shall become void ab initio. Plaintiff shall communicate his decision to rescind the Settlement Agreement in writing to the Settlement Administrator and Defendant's counsel within seven (7) calendar days after the date on which the Settlement Administrator communicates to the Parties that the Plaintiff's Right to Rescind Clause has been triggered. Defendant shall have the option to preempt Plaintiff's right to rescind by increasing the Gross Settlement Amount on a proportional basis. For example, if the workweeks worked by the Class Group during the period from September 30, 2017 through the date of mediation are determined from Defendant's business records to be 7% more than 19,667 workweeks, then Defendant shall have the option of increasing the Gross Settlement Amount by 2%. Defendant shall communicate its decision to preempt Plaintiff's right to rescind the Settlement Agreement in writing to the Settlement Administrator and Plaintiff's counsel within seven (7) calendar days after the date on which Plaintiff provides written notice of his intent to rescind the Settlement Agreement.

10. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 5% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than thirty days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.
11. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than seven days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.
 - 11.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.
 - 11.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
 - 11.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

11.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

11.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

12. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

13. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

13.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. The Parties have determined that this Settlement represents a fair and reasonable compromise of disputed claims for wages and other monetary and non-monetary relief following a reasonably thorough investigation. The Parties have entered into this Settlement to avoid the inherent risks and costs of further litigation. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

- 13.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members. Class Counsel may discuss the terms of this Settlement with Class Members other than the Plaintiff only if such additional Class Members initiate contact with Class Counsel in such regard.
- 13.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 13.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 13.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

- 13.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 13.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 13.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 13.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 13.10 Other Actions Enjoined. Defendant shall have the right to request, and Plaintiff and his Counsel will not oppose, that the Court enter an order that pending Final Approval, Class Members who do not opt-out of the Settlement are barred from instituting or prosecuting any claims or actions against the Released Parties which fall within the definition of the Released Claims and that any pending actions against the Released Parties, whether in court or arbitration, are stayed on an interim basis only as to any claims which fall within the definition of the Released Claims.
- 13.11 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 13.12 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 13.13 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.

- 13.14 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 13.15 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.
- 13.16 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 13.17 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 13.18 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Robert Dell, an individual, on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, v. US Ecology Illinois, Inc., NRC Environmental Services, Inc.; and DOES 1 thru 50, inclusive, Defendants,
Case No. RG21114398

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against US Ecology Illinois, Inc., and NRC Environmental Services, Inc. (“Defendant” or “NRC” is used herein as a placeholder) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former NRC employee, Robert Dell (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for all of Defendant’s current and former non-exempt employees in the state of California during the Class Settlement Period (September 30, 2017 to September 24, 2022) (“Class” or “Class Members”); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all of Defendant’s current and former non-exempt employees in the state of California during the PAGA Settlement Period (September 30, 2020 to September 24, 2022) (“Aggrieved Employees” or “PAGA Members”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ _____ (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ _____. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Settlement Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked _____ workweeks during the Class Settlement Period and you worked _____ workweeks during the PAGA Settlement Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Settlement Period and/or the PAGA Settlement Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Settlement Period wage claims and PAGA Settlement Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Settlement Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces

Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Settlement Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Settlement Period, respectively. The number Class Settlement Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Settlement Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former NRC employee. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay wages and/or overtime under Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199; provide meal and rest breaks pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and 226.7; failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a); waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203; and violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Kingsley & Kingsley, APC ("Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant will pay $750,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $250,000.00 (33-1/3% of the Gross Settlement] to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $15,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $5,000.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $10,000.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $100,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Settlement Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Settlement Period Workweeks.

4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 15% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 85% to interest and penalties. (“Non-Wage Portion.”) The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [date] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Settlement Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void:

Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Phoenix. (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement (and separately paid all employer payroll taxes), Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Settlement Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Settlement Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) any and all claims, demands, liabilities, damages, attorney’s fees, costs, and penalties, relating to any and all facts and claims asserted in the Action or any other claims that could have been asserted in the Action based on the facts alleged or ascertained, including but not limited to claims arising from alleged unpaid wages, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime and double time wages, meal and rest period violations, unpaid reimbursements and expenses, wage statement violations, separation pay violations; and PAGA penalties (collectively, the “Released Class Claims”) during the Class Settlement Period Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Settlement Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Settlement Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties, from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the Action including, any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay unpaid wages, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime and double time wages, meal and rest period violations, unpaid reimbursements and expenses, wage statement violations, separation pay violations; and PAGA penalties (collectively, the "Released PAGA Claims") during the PAGA Settlement Period.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $25,000.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Settlement Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Settlement Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Settlement Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Robert Dell v. US Ecology Illinois, Inc., and NRC Environmental Services, Inc., and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least [insert] days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details] or the Court's website [need details].

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [date]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action Robert Dell v. US Ecology Illinois, Inc., and NRC Environmental Services, Inc. and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing on [date] at [time] in Department 21 of the Alameda Superior Court, located at 1221 Oak Street Building, Oakland, CA 94612. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel before making a decision. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) either personally or virtually [need details].

It's possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. You should check the Administrator's website [www.etc.] beforehand or contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Date: XX

Time: XX

Dept.: 21

Complaint Filed: September 30, 2021

FAC Filed: December 7, 2021

Trial Date: None Set

1 The Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
2 Agreement and Class Notice (“Agreement”), a copy of which is attached as to the Declaration of 3 Kelsey M. Szamet as Exhibit “1”, came before this Court on XXXX. The Court, having considered 4 the papers submitted in support of the motion of the parties, HEREBY ORDERS THE 5 FOLLOWING:

6 1. The Court grants preliminary approval of the Agreement and the Class based upon 7 the terms set forth in the Agreement filed herewith. The Settlement is fair, adequate, and
8 reasonable to the Class. The Court finds that: (a) the Agreement resulted from extensive arm’s 9 length negotiations; and (b) the Agreement is sufficient to warrant notice of the Settlement to 10 persons in the Class and a full hearing on the final approval of the Settlement.

11 2. “Class” means all of Defendant’s current and former non-exempt employees in the 12 state of California from September 30, 2017 through September 24, 2022.

13 3. The “Class Settlement Period” or “Release Period” means the period from 14 September 30, 2017 to September 24, 2022.

15 4. “Aggrieved Employee” or “PAGA Member” means all of Defendant’s current and
16 former non-exempt employees in the State of California from September 30, 2020 through
17 September 24, 2022.

18 5. The “PAGA Period” means the period from September 30, 2020 through
19 September 24, 2022.

20 6. The Settlement falls within the range of reasonableness and appears to be 21 presumptively valid, subject only to any objections that may be raised at the final fairness hearing
22 and final approval by this Court.

23 7. The Court makes the following preliminary findings for settlement purposes 24 only:

- 25 A. The Class, which consists of approximately 179 persons, is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- 26 B. There appear to be questions of law or fact common to the Class for 27 purposes of determining whether this Settlement should be approved;
- 28 C. Plaintiff’s claims appear to be typical of the claims being resolved through the proposed settlement;

- 1 D. Plaintiff appears to be capable of fairly and adequately protecting the 2 interests of the Class Members in connection with the proposed settlement;
- 3 E. Common questions of law and fact appear to predominate over questions
4 affecting only individual persons in the Class. Accordingly, the Class
5 appears to be sufficiently cohesive to warrant settlement by representation;
6 and
- 7 F. Certification of the Class appears to be superior to other available methods
8 for the fair and efficient resolution of the claims of the Class.

9 8. The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice to Class Members in 10 substantially the form attached to the Agreement as “Exhibit A”.

11 9. The Court approves the procedure for Class Members to object to the Settlement as 12 set forth in the Class Notice to Class Members.

13 10. The Court approves the procedure for Class Members to become Participating Class
14 Members as set forth in the Notice to Class Members.

15 11. The Court directs the mailing of the Notice to Class Members by first class mail to 16 the Class Members in accordance with the Implementation Schedule set forth below. The Court
17 finds that the dates selected for the mailing and distribution of the Notice, as set forth in the 18 Implementation Schedule, meet the requirements of due process and provide the best notice
19 practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons 20 entitled thereto.

21 12. The Court confirms Kingsley & Kingsley, APC as Class Counsel.

22 13. The Court confirms the named Plaintiff in the operative complaint in the Action as 23 the Class Representative.

24 14. The Court approves Phoenix as the Administrator.

25 15. The Court orders that pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 26 Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), statutory notice of this Settlement has been and will 27 continue to be given to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency.

28 16. The Court orders the following Implementation Schedule for further proceedings:

a.	Preliminary Approval	XXXXXXXXXXXXX
----	----------------------	---------------

15. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the Court does not execute and file an Order of Final Approval and Judgment, or if the Effective Date of Settlement, as defined in the Agreement, does not occur for any reason, the Agreement and the proposed Settlement that is the subject of this Order shall become null, void, unenforceable and inadmissible in any judicial, administrative or arbitral proceeding for any purpose, and all evidence, court orders and proceedings had in connection therewith, shall be without prejudice to the status quo ante rights of the Parties to the litigation, as more specifically set forth in the Agreement.

11 and for entry of an order of final approval and entry of final judgment thereon. The Court having 12 read and considered Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement; Motion for 13 Approval of Approval of Attorneys’ Fees and Costs; the Declarations of Kelsey M. Szamet, and 14 XXXX of Phoenix (Administrator); and the supporting documents annexed thereto, now finds:

15 NOW THEREFORE, GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

16 1. The Court has personal jurisdiction over all Class Members and that the Court has 17 subject matter jurisdiction to approve the Settlement;

18 2. The terms of the Settlement are fair, just, reasonable, and adequate, consistent and 19 in compliance with California Code of Civil Procedure, the California and United States
20 Constitutions (including the due process clauses), the California Rules of Court and any other 21 applicable law, and in the best interest of each of the Parties and the Class Members and is hereby 22 finally approved in all respects.

23 3. The Parties are hereby directed to perform the terms of the Settlement as described 24 in the Agreement according to its terms and provisions.

25 4. The Agreement is binding on Plaintiff and all other Class Members, except those 26 timely and properly filed Requests for Exclusions, as well as their heirs, executors, and 27 administrators, successors, and assigns.

28 5. There are XX (XX) valid requests for exclusion.

1 6. It is ordered that the Class is certified for settlement purposes only. The Court finds
2 that an ascertainable class exists and a well-defined community of interest exists in the questions
3 of law and fact involved because in the context of the Settlement: (i) there are questions of law
4 and fact common to the Class Members which, as to the Settlement and all related matters,
5 predominate over any individual questions; (ii) the Claims of Plaintiff are typical of the Claims of 6 the Class Members; and (iii) in negotiating, entering into and implementing the Settlement,
7 Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Attorneys have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interest
8 of the Class Members.

9 7. The Court finds that the Notice and notice methodology implemented pursuant to 10 this Settlement (i) constituted the best practicable notice; (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably 11 calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action, their 12 right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement and their right to appear at 13 the Final Settlement Hearing; (iii) were reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient 14 notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (iv) met all applicable requirements of the 15 California Code of Civil Procedure, the California and United States Constitution (including the 16 Due Process Clause), the California Rules of Court and any other applicable law.

17 8. "Class" means all of Defendant's current and former non-exempt employees in the 18 state of California from September 30, 2017 through September 24, 2022.

19 9. The "Class Settlement Period" or "Release Period" means the period from 20 September 30, 2017 to September 24, 2022.

21 10. "Aggrieved Employee" or "PAGA Member" means all of Defendant's current and
22 former non-exempt employees in the State of California from September 30, 2020 through
23 September 24, 2022.

24 11. The "PAGA Period" means the period from September 30, 2020 through
25 September 24, 2022.

26 12. The Agreement is not an admission by Defendant, nor is this Final Order a finding 27 of the validity of any allegations or of any wrongdoing by Defendant. Neither this Final Order, 28 the Settlement, nor any document referred to herein, nor any action taken to carry out the Settlement, shall be construed or deemed an admission of liability, culpability, negligence, or wrongdoing on the part of Defendant.

13. Pursuant to the Agreement, upon entry of this Final Order, Plaintiff and each Class Member shall fully release and discharge the Released Parties pursuant to the following release, which provides:

any and all claims, demands, liabilities, damages, attorney's fees, costs, and penalties, relating to any and all facts and claims asserted in the Action or any other claims that could have been asserted in the Action based on the facts alleged, including but not limited to claims arising from alleged unpaid wages, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime and double time wages, meal and rest period violations, unpaid reimbursements and expenses, wage statement violations, separation pay violations; and PAGA penalties (collectively, the "Released Class Claims") during the Class Settlement Period. Except as set forth in the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Settlement Class Period.

14. Pursuant to the Agreement, upon entry of this Final Order, Plaintiff and each PAGA Member shall fully release and discharge the Released Parties pursuant to the following release, which provide:

all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Settlement Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the Action including, any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay unpaid wages, minimum wages, regular wages, overtime and double time wages, meal and rest period violations, unpaid reimbursements and expenses, wage statement violations, separation pay violations; and PAGA penalties (collectively, the "Released PAGA Claims") during the PAGA Settlement Period.

15. Plaintiff and all Class Members who have not been timely and properly excluded from the Class, and any person acting on their behalf, are permanently barred and enjoined from: (i) filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, participating in (as class members or otherwise), or receiving any benefits or other relief from, any other lawsuit, in any state or federal court, arbitration, or administrative, regulatory or other proceeding or order in any jurisdiction

1 based on the Released Claims; and (ii) organizing such non-excluded Class Members into a
2 separate class for purposes of pursuing as a purported class action (including by seeking to amend
3 a pending complaint to include class allegations, or by seeking class certification in a pending
4 action) any lawsuit based on or relating to the Released Claims;

5 16. The Agreement provides that the Gross Settlement Amount is Seven Hundred Fifty
6 Thousand dollars and zero cents ($750,000.00). The Net Settlement Amount shall be determined
7 according to the terms of the Agreement.

8 17. The Court orders the calculations and the payments to be made and administered in 9 accordance with the terms of the Agreement.

10 18. The Court hereby finds that Plaintiff and Class Counsel adequately represented the 11 Class for purposes of entering into and implementing the settlement. The Court hereby confirms 12 Kingsley & Kingsley, APC as Class Counsel in the Action.

13 19. The Court hereby finds the unopposed application of Class Counsel for a costs and 14 attorneys' fees award provided for under the proposed Settlement to be fair and reasonable in light
15 of all the circumstances and is hereby granted. Of the Gross Settlement Amount, $250,000.00
16 shall be paid for attorney fees and $15,000.00 shall be paid for litigation costs.

17 20. The unopposed application of Class Counsel for a Class Representative Service
18 Payment is hereby granted. Of the Gross Settlement Amount, a $5,000.00 Class Representative
19 Service Payment shall be allocated to Named Plaintiff ROBERT DELL.

20 21. The unopposed application of Class Counsel for claims administration fees to 21 Phoenix is hereby granted. Of the Gross Settlement Amount, $10,000.00 shall be paid for 22 settlement administration fees.

23 22. The Court approves the PAGA Penalties in the amount of $100,000.00. The Court
24 approves 75% of the PAGA Penalties being allocated to the LWDA in the amount of $75,000.00.
25 The Court further directs that the remaining 25% of the PAGA Penalties, in the amount of 26 $25,000.00 shall be allocated to the Participating Class Member.

27 23. If a Class Member does not cash his or her settlement check within 90 days, the 28 uncashed funds shall be transmitted by the Administrator to the California Controller's Unclaimed

Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).

24. Defendant shall have no further liability for costs, expenses, interest, attorneys' fees, or for any other charge, expense, or liability, except as provided for in the Agreement.

25. The Parties are authorized, without further approval from the Court, to agree to and to adopt such amendments, modifications and expansions of this Stipulation and all exhibits attached hereto as (i) are consistent with the Final Judgment; and (ii) do not limit the rights of Class Members under the Stipulation.

26. Pursuant to California Rule of Court Rule 3.769(h) and C.C.P. §664.4, the Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the Actions, the Parties, and the Class, as well as the administration and enforcement of the terms of the Settlement of this action to enforce the terms of the judgment. Without affecting the finality of the Final Judgment, the Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the Actions, the Parties, and the Class, as well as the administration and enforcement of the Settlement. Any disputes or controversies arising with respect to the interpretation, consummation, enforcement, or implementation of the Settlement shall be presented by motion to the Court; provided however, that nothing in this part shall restrict the ability of the Parties to exercise their rights to terminate the Settlement pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

27. This Final Order shall constitute a final judgment.

28. The Court hereby dismisses the action (including all individual claims and Released Claims presented thereby) with prejudice, without fees or costs to any party except as provided in the Agreement.
