UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COME NOW, Plaintiffs VANESSA BARBER (“Plaintiff BARBER”) and CHERRA REDD (“Plaintiff REDD” and collectively as “Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Sacramento.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff VANESSA BARBER is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

6. Plaintiff CHERRA REDD is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

7. Defendant ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

8. At all relevant times, ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED was the “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

9. At all times herein relevant, ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sue said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

11. ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

12. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

13. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiffs' employment by Defendants.

14. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

15. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

16. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed against them during their time of employment and they are, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiffs and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

17. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiffs, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter "LWDA") and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor

Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

18. On September 28, 2021, Plaintiff BARBER provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff BARBER has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff BARBER’s notice.

19. On September 28, 2021, Plaintiff REDD provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant ESKATON PROPERTIES, INCORPORATED of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff REDD has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff REDD’s notice.

20. Therefore, Plaintiffs have satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

1           30.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid
3 or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours
4 worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest
5 breaks in violation of California law.

6           31.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
8 to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages
9 for overtime compensation.

10          32.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal

13 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14          33.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
16 to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the 17 other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did
18 not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the 19 other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

20          34.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
22 to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other
23 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not
24 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other
25 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

26          35.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
27 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled

28 ///

1 to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least
2 minimum wages for all hours worked.

3         36.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
5 to receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and
6 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all
7 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

8         37.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
10 to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs and the other
11 aggrieved employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum
12 wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California
13 Labor Code section 204.

14         38.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
16 to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 17 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 18 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 19 Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees.

20         39.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
22 records for Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
23 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

24         40.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were entitled
26 to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

27         41.     Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and the other aggrieved employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.
