Attorneys for Plaintiffs, the Class and Aggrieved Employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF MONTEREY

MELISSA HEBDON, on behalf of herself and all similarly aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

v.

MISSION HEALTHCARE SERVICES,
LLC; HEALTHY LIVING NETWORK
RESOURCES, LLC; HEALTHY LIVING
AT HOME - MONTEREY, LLC; and DOES
1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 22CV000226

PLAINTIFFS' NOTICE OF MOTION
AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL
OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT;
AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT

Date: July 1, 2025
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Dept.: 14

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 1, 2025, at 10:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as 3 the matter may be heard, before the Honorable Carrie M. Panetta, judge presiding, in 4 Department 14 of the above referenced Court, located at 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey, 5 California 93940, Plaintiffs Melissa Hendon and Annette Lewis (“Plaintiffs”) will and hereby 6 do seek an Order:

7 move this Court for the following relief with respect to the Joint Stipulation of Class
8 Action and Representative Action Settlement (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”)
9 entered into by Plaintiffs and Defendants Mission Healthcare Services, LLC, Healthy Living
10 Network Resources, LLC and Healthy Living at Home – Monterey, LLC (together, 11 “Defendants”) (Plaintiffs and Defendants shall collectively be referred to as the “Parties”):

- 12 1. granting final approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class and Representative 13 Action Settlement (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”) in this matter;
- 14 2. approving distribution of the settlement funds to the Class Members pursuant to 15 the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- 16 3. approving Plaintiffs’ request for an Enhancement Payment of $10,000.00 to each 17 Class Representative (totaling $20,000.00) pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- 18 4. approving Plaintiffs’ request for an award of attorneys’ fees to Class Counsel for 19 approximately one-third of the Settlement Amount, i.e. $408,333.33, and reimbursement of 20 litigation costs of $48,410.79 pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- 21 5. approving Plaintiffs’ request for payment of the settlement administration costs
22 to of Phoenix Settlement Administrators in the amount of $24,000.00 pursuant to the terms of 23 the Settlement Agreement; and
- 24 6. entering final judgment as to all members of the Class in this action.

25 This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, which 26 provides for court approval of the settlement of a purported class action and allows the Court
27 to grant final certification of a class for settlement purposes. In light of the overwhelmingly 28 positive response, as shown by the lack of objections and nominal opts-out, there is no

1 question that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and thus should be granted final 2 approval.

3 This Motion will be based on the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, and 4 the supporting Declarations of B. James Fitzpatrick, Laura L. Franklin, Larry W. Lee, Kristen
5 M. Agnew, Andrew H. Swartz and Plaintiff Melissa Hebdon, Plaintiff Annette Lewis and 6 Taylor Mitzner on behalf of Phoenix Settlement Administrators, upon the oral arguments of 7 counsel (should there be any), and on the complete records and file herein.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This is a wage and hour class and representative PAGA action arising from 4 Defendants' Mission Healthcare Services, LLC, Healthy Living Network Resources, LLC and 5 Healthy Living at Home – Monterey, LLC (together, "Defendants") alleged violation of the 6 California Labor Code. Prior to the settlement of this Action, Plaintiffs Melissa Hebdon and 7 Annette Lewis ("Plaintiffs") and Defendants (jointly referred to as the "Parties") thoroughly
8 investigated the facts relating to the claims alleged in the operative Complaint against 9 Defendants. The Parties each propounded and responded to written discovery, and Defendants 10 produced time and payroll records for Class Members. Thereafter, the Parties participated in 11 three full days of private mediation and were ultimately able to reach the current settlement.

12 The terms of the settlement provide that Defendants shall pay a Gross Settlement
13 Amount of $1,225,000.00. On average, each Settlement Class Members will receive 14 approximately $334.65. Significantly, the entire settlement amount is non-reversionary, such 15 that no monies will revert back to Defendants.

16 The Parties believe that this amount is fair, adequate, and reasonable, especially given 17 the risks and uncertainty of class certification and the merits of this case. Further, notice of the 18 settlement was provided to the class by Phoenix Settlement Administrators in the manner
19 approved by the Court. Not a single objection was received and only two (2) requests for 20 exclusion from the Settlement were submitted. Thus, there is a 99.88% participation rate.
21 Therefore, the Parties respectfully request that the Court grant this Final Approval of Class
22 Action Settlement

23 II. THE PAYMENTS TO THE SETTLEMENT CLASS & AGGRIEVED
24 EMPLOYEES

25 The Settlement provides a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,225,000.00. The entire 26 Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary, such that no monies will revert back to 27 Defendants. There are 1,716 Settlement Class Members. See Declaration of Taylor Mitzner on 28 behalf of Phoenix Settlement Administrators ("Admin Decl.") ¶ 13.

1 The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be $574,255.88. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 15.

2 The Net Settlement Amount is based on the following:

3	Gross Settlement Amount	$1,225,000.00
4	Less Class Counsel Fees	($408,333.33)
5	Less Class Counsel Costs	($48,410.79)
6	Less Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff Hebdon	($10,000.00)
7	Less Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff Lewis	($10,000.00)
8	Less PAGA Allocation	($150,000.00)
9	Less Settlement Administration Costs	($24,000.00)
10	Net Settlement Amount	$574,255.88

11 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Settlement Class Members will 12 receive a proportionate share of the Net Settlement Amount based on the total number of pay
13 periods worked during the Class Period. There are 1,716 Settlement Class Members, with a 14 total of 54,253 pay periods. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 13. Based on estimated settlement calculations
15 at this time, the estimated average payment to each Settlement Class Member will be $334.65, 16 and the highest payment to a Settlement Class Member is estimated to be $804.44. See id. at ¶ 17 16.

18 The Settlement allocates $150,000.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA
19 penalties (“PAGA Allocation”), of which 75%, or $112,500.00 shall be paid to the Labor and 20 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and 25%, or $37,500.00 to PAGA Employees
21 (“Net PAGA Payment”). See Admin. Decl. ¶ 17. PAGA Employees will receive a 22 proportionate share of the Net PAGA Payment based on the number of pay periods worked 23 during the PAGA Period. See id. Based on the estimated calculations at this time, the average 24 Individual PAGA Payment to each Aggrieved Employee is estimated to be $20.26 and the 25 highest payment is estimated to be $56.61. See id. All Class Members who are PAGA
26 Employees, including individuals who requested exclusion from the Settlement, will receive 27 an Individual PAGA Payment.
28

1 III. CLASS MEMBERS WERE PROVIDED PROPER NOTICE OF THE 2 SETTLEMENT

3 The notice procedures required by the Preliminary Approval Order have been followed
4 and satisfy all due process rights of Class Members. The Preliminary Approval Order
5 contemplated that the Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement (the “Notice”), as approved
6 in the Preliminary Approval Order, be sent to all Class Members by first class mail, as 7 specified in the Settlement Agreement. The Preliminary Approval Order contemplated,
8 further, that Phoenix Settlement Administrators would serve as the Settlement Administrator.

9 As clearly stated in the Administrator’s Declaration, notice was provided to Class 10 Members, as required by the Preliminary Approval Order. On November 27, 2024, the 11 Settlement Administrator received the Class List from Defendants’ Counsel that included 12 1,718 Class Members. See Admin Decl. ¶ 3.¹ On or about December 12, 2024, each of the 13 persons identified on the mailing list were sent the Notice via first class mail. See id. at ¶ 7. As 14 part of the administration process, the Settlement Administrator has re-mailed Notices to 15 twenty-two (22) updated addresses Class Members using newly updated addresses after 16 performing a skip-trace using the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address Database, 17 one of the most comprehensive address databases available for skip tracing. See id. at ¶ 8. As 18 of the date of this filing, there are no Notices that remain undeliverable. See id. at ¶ 9. Further, 19 the Notice provided Class Members with Class Counsel’s contact information, where they 20 could further seek information regarding the settlement, leave questions for the Settlement
21 Administrator, and update their address. See id. at ¶ 7, Exhibit A.

22 The provision of sending the notice to Class Members as described above meets the 23 requirements for the “best notice practicable” in this case as necessary to protect the due
24 process rights of Class Members. See Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 811-12

25 ¹ At the time of settlement, the Parties previously estimated that there were approximately 2,537 Class Members.
26 However, following preliminary approval, Class Counsel notified Defendants that the Class List contained
27 significantly fewer Class Members than expected. See Declaration of Patricia T. Stambelos, ¶ 6. Defense counsel 28 reviewed the records and calculations and determined that their experts had inadvertently transposed numbers in their data presentation and had failed to exclude duplicative information from the data set. See id. at ¶ 7. The revised and corrected Class List contained 1,718 individuals identified as Class Members, who worked a total of 54,355 weeks during the Class Period. See id. at ¶ 8, 9.

(1985) (provision of “best notice practicable” with description of the litigation and explanation of opt-out rights satisfies due process); Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 174-75 (1974) (individual notice must be sent to class members who can be identified through reasonable means); Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (best practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”). Here, the Class Members were provided with a mailing regarding the settlement that explained the settlement and allowed Class Members to seek information, ask questions, and object, if so desired. As such, proper notice has been given to the Class Members. Thus, the Court may proceed to determine the fairness and adequacy of the settlement and enter its Order granting final approval, secure in the knowledge that all absent Class Members have been given the opportunity to participate fully in the claims, exclusion, and the approval process.

IV. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS ARE FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE, AND THE SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE GIVEN FINAL APPROVAL

A. The Terms, Negotiation, and Reception of the Settlement by Class Members All Strongly Support the Conclusion that the Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

As explained by the Court of Appeal in Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 130, 133 (2008), a class action settlement should be approved when the plaintiff has conducted sufficient discovery and the settlement is reasonable in light of the strengths of the plaintiff’s claims. As discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, Class Counsel have conducted extensive formal and informal discovery and investigation and, in light of the strength and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims, Class Counsel submits that this settlement is fair pursuant to Kullar.

Without reiterating the Parties’ showing that the Settlement Agreement and the negotiation process that led up to it was fair and adequate, as set forth in detail in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Parties highlight the following facts. The Settlement Agreement

1 was the product of three-full day mediations and extended negotiation between highly able and
2 experienced attorneys on both sides. See Declaration of Kristen M. Agnew (“Agnew Decl.”)
3 ¶¶ 2-7; Declaration of Laura L. Franklin (“Franklin Decl.”) ¶ 2; Declaration of B. James 4 Fitzpatrick (“Fitzpatrick Decl.”) ¶ 4; Declaration of Larry W. Lee (“Lee Decl.”) ¶ 2; 5 Declaration of Declaration of Andrew H. Swartz (“Swartz Decl.”) ¶ 2, 9, 10. In addition, the 6 resolution of this case was reached only after the production of data relevant to the potential
7 value of the claims. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 3,4. Class Counsel retained Econ One to review the 8 payroll data and perform a comprehensive damage analysis in preparation for mediation. See
9 id. at ¶ 4. With Econ One’s assistance, and based on the data provided by Defendants, Class 10 Counsel was able to calculate a range of potential damages and penalties. See id. at ¶¶ 4, 5.
11 Class Counsel estimated that Defendants’ maximum liability exposure is approximately 12 $15,859,572.93. See id. at ¶ 5. Thus, in the present case, the Gross Settlement Amount is 13 approximately 7.70% of the maximum recovery of the class and representative PAGA claims.
14 See id.

15 The results after mailing of the Class Notice further support confirmation of the 16 Court’s preliminary approval of the settlement with final approval of the settlement, as 17 evidenced by the fact that there is not a single Class Member who has objected to the current 18 settlement and only two (2) Class Members submitted a request to opt-out. See Admin. Decl.
19 ¶¶ 10-12. The Court may appropriately infer that the class action settlement is fair, adequate,
20 and reasonable when, among other reasons, few, or no class members object to it. See Class
21 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1291 (9th Cir. 1992); Churchill Vill. LLC v. Gen.
22 Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 577 (9th Cir. 2004) (approving settlement with 45 objections and 500 opt-23 outs from a 90,000-person class, representing 0.05% and 0.56% of the class, respectively); 24 Chun–Hoon v. McKee Foods Corp., 716 F. Supp. 2d 848, 852 (N.D. Cal. 2010) (where 16 of 25 329 class members opted out, court found that positive class reaction “strongly supports 26 settlement”). Here, the lack of any objections and nominal opt-outs to this current settlement is 27 an indication that Class Members themselves view the settlement as fair, adequate, and 28 reasonable.

B. Under Well-Established Legal Principles, the Court Should Grant

Final Approval of the Settlement

1. Standard of Review

On a motion for final approval of a class action settlement under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and California Rule of Court 3.769, a court's inquiry is whether the settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert. denied subnom., Byrd v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983). A settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and therefore merits final approval, when "the interests of the class are better served by the settlement than by further litigation." See Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth § 21.6 at 309 (Fed. Jud. Ctr., 4th ed. 2004) ("Manual"). The law favors settlement, particularly in class actions and other complex cases, where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. See Alba Conte & Herbert B. Newberg, 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 11.41 (4th ed. 2002); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992); Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976).

Although the Court possesses "broad discretion" in determining that a proposed class action settlement is fair, the Court's role must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. See Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625.

Accordingly, the Court should give due regard to what is otherwise a "private consensual agreement" between the parties. Id.; see also Church v. Consolidated Freightways, Inc., 1993 WL 149840 (N.D. Cal. 1993); In re Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379 (D. Ariz. 1989), aff'd sub nom., Class Plaintiffs, 955 F.2d 1268; Manual § 21.6 at 309 ("The judicial role in reviewing a proposed settlement is critical, but limited to approving the proposed settlement, disapproving it, or imposing conditions on it. The judge cannot rewrite the agreement").

A court's approval of a class action settlement will only be reversed for a clear abuse of discretion. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 (1996); Officers for

1 Justice, 688 F.2d at 626 (“reverse only upon a strong showing that the district court’s decision
2 was a clear abuse of discretion”); Class Plaintiffs, 955 F.2d at 1276; Ackerman v. Kassar,

4 Cir. 1998). As the court cautioned in 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland
5 Corp.:

6 “It cannot be overemphasized that neither the trial court in approving the settlement
7 nor this Court in reviewing that approval have the right or duty to reach any ultimate 8 conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute.
9 It is well settled that in the judicial consideration of proposed settlements, ‘the [trial] judge does not try out or attempt to decide the merits of the controversy,’ [citation] and the appellate court ‘need not and should not reach any dispositive conclusions on the admittedly unsettled legal issue.”

10 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1146 (2000).

11 2. The Settlement is Presumed to Be Fair

12 The Court should begin its analysis with the presumption that the settlement is fair and 13 should be approved:

14 [A] presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through 15 arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 16 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.

19 Wash. Pub Power Supply, 720 F. Supp. at 1387.

20 The settlement in the case at bar warrants approval and carries a presumption of 21 fairness. As previously noted in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, this current settlement
22 was negotiated at arm’s length and with the assistance of a neutral mediator. See Agnew Decl.
23 ¶¶ 2-5. Furthermore, Class Counsel is highly experienced in this type of litigation. As shown 24 in the supporting declarations, Class Counsel has significant experience in class actions and 25 employment wage and hour matters. See id. at ¶¶ 7-13; Franklin Decl. ¶ 3, 4; Fitzpatrick Decl.
26 ¶ 12; Lee Decl. ¶¶ 10, 11; Swartz Decl. ¶ 15.

27 3. Two-Way Costs and Other Risks Inherent in Continued

Litigation Favor Final Approval

To assess the fairness, adequacy and reasonableness of a class action settlement, the Court also should weigh the immediacy and certainty of substantial settlement proceeds against the risks inherent in continued litigation. See also In re General Motors Corp., 55 F.3d 768, 806 (3d Cir. 1995) (“present value of the damages plaintiffs would likely recover if successful, appropriately discounted for the risk of not prevailing, should be compared with the amount of the proposed settlement”) (internal citations omitted); Girsh v. Jepsen, 521 F.2d 153, 157 (3d Cir. 1975); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 616-17 (N.D. Cal. 1979).

If Plaintiffs pursued this case without settlement and failed to prevail, Plaintiffs would have been potentially responsible for Defendants’ costs. As such, should any individual bring individual claims against Defendants on the same causes of action, they would each face the uncertainty of prevailing and the possibility of paying costs to Defendants. Accordingly, such claims likely would not be brought—thus, this lawsuit achieves a true benefit for the class that they might not otherwise get or seek as individuals. Here, given that a fair and reasonable settlement has been reached, neither Plaintiffs, nor any of the Class Members will be required to pay for Defendants’ litigation costs.

The risks of this case were weighed by Class Counsel and should be considered a significant factor by the Court in its determination of final approval. Class Counsel obtained a very substantial settlement for the Class that resulted in a fair recovery which at the same time provides for finality and no risk of costs by the Class Members or the Class Representative.

The Settlement Agreement also affords the Class prompt, fair relief, while avoiding significant legal and factual battles that otherwise may have prevented the Class from obtaining any recovery at all. While Class Counsel believe the Class Members’ claims are meritorious and can be successfully litigated, they are experienced and fully understand the inherent risks and uncertainty involved with such matters as the resolution of class certification, the outcome of a potential trial, and the outcome of any appeals that would inevitably follow should the Class prevail at trial. Class Counsel have also assessed the same risks in connection with the current settlement. Because the settlement provides immediate and

1 substantial relief, without the attendant risks and delay of continued litigation—not to mention
2 the threat of litigation fees and costs—Class Counsel believe that the settlement warrants the 3 Court’s final approval.

4 4. The Complexity, Expense, and Likely Duration of Continued 5 Litigation Against Defendants Favor Final Approval

6 Another factor considered by courts in approving a settlement is the complexity,
7 expense, and likely duration of the litigation. See Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Girsh,
8 521 F.2d at 157. In applying this factor, the Court must weigh the benefits of the settlement 9 against the expense and delay involved in achieving an equivalent or more favorable result at 10 trial. See Young v. Katz, 447 F.2d 431, 433-434 (5th Cir. 1971). As noted in the Motion for 11 Preliminary Approval, continued litigation could have led to appeals on a number of issues.
12 On the other hand, the settlement that was reached provides to all Class Members – regardless 13 of their means – fair relief in a prompt and efficient manner. Were the Court to deny final 14 approval, the Class Members would be left without a remedy as a practical matter and courts
15 across the State would have to address the issues presented here in a piecemeal, costly, and 16 time-consuming manner. The settlement in this case is therefore consistent with the 17 “overriding public interest in settling and quieting litigation” that is “particularly true in class 18 action suits.” See Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d at 950 Error! Bookmark not 19 defined. (footnote omitted); see also 4 Newberg at § 11.41.

20 5. The Opinion of Experienced Counsel Favors Final Approval

21 Class Counsel supports the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best
22 interest of the Class Members as a whole. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 2, 6; Franklin Decl. ¶ 2; 23 Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 2; Lee Decl. ¶ 2; Swartz Decl. ¶ 2. Similarly, counsel for Defendants are in 24 favor of this settlement. The endorsement of qualified and well-informed counsel of a 25 settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate is entitled to significant weight by the Court in its 26 final approval determination. See Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Ellis, 87 F.R.D. at 18; 27 Boyd, 485 F. Supp. at 617; Linney, 151 F.3d at 1242.

1 V. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT PAYMENTS SHOULD BE APPROVED

2 Plaintiffs have requested, and Defendants do not oppose, an Enhancement Payment of 3 $10,000 to each Class Representative, pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.
4 Plaintiffs request that this Court approve such Enhancement Payments in light of the efforts
5 Plaintiffs put into this case, the absence of any objection to the Enhancement Payments, and 6 the excellent result achieved. As shown in the supporting declarations, the Class
7 Representatives spent a significant amount of time: (i) engaging in telephonic and in-person
8 discussions with Class Counsel regarding the case; (ii) searching for documents relating to 9 their claims, including pay records, policy manuals, and emails; (iii) reviewing various files
10 and pleadings in this case, including the PAGA Notice, the Complaint, the First Amended 11 Complaint and their declarations; and (iv) reviewing the Settlement Agreement. See 12 Declaration of Melissa Hebdon (“Hebdon Decl.”) ¶ 10; Declaration of Annette Lewis (“Lewis 13 Decl.”) ¶ 9. The Class Representatives have continuously been kept apprised of the status of 14 this case. See Hebdon Decl. ¶ 10; Lewis Decl. ¶ 9.

15 In addition to the invaluable services they provided, Plaintiffs also took a significant 16 risk, both professionally and monetarily, in acting as Class Representatives. Because the 17 claims alleged by Plaintiffs involved the payment of costs to the prevailing party, Plaintiffs 18 could have possibly faced paying the costs of Defendants had they not prevailed in this action.
19 See Hebdon Decl. ¶ 8; Lewis Decl. ¶ 6. Despite this, however, Plaintiffs agreed to pursue this 20 case on behalf of the Class.

21 Also, given that future employers are much less likely to hire individuals who have 22 filed suit against their prior employer, particularly cases of this nature, the Class
23 Representatives could face negative employment prospects in the future. The Class
24 Representatives took such risks upon themselves and the whole Class benefited from this.
25 Class Members did not have to file individual lawsuits and bear the risks of payment of fees
26 and costs if they did not prevail, nor did they have to face the potential for retaliation and not 27 getting future employment had they filed a lawsuit which is a public record. These are 28 significant benefits, even apart from the time the Class Representatives have spent working on this case, that weigh in favor of granting the requested enhancement.

1 Finally, as part of the class settlement, Plaintiffs also agreed to give a general release of 2 their individual claims, something that the Class Members did not have to do. See Settlement
3 Agreement § E-1. Thus, the Class Representatives have sacrificed their own individual rights
4 for those of the Class Members. This is a significant factor to take into account that further 5 warrants the award of the requested service amount.

6 Courts have routinely granted approval of settlements containing such enhancements.
7 See e.g., Herrera v. Federal Express Corporation, 2020 WL 2951122 at *7 (C.D. Cal. March 8 31, 2020) (noting that case law supports enhancements of $10,000); Potter v. Big Text Trailer
9 Manufacturing, Inc., 2020 WL 1942619 at *10 (C.D. Cal. March 20, 2020) (awarding $10,000
10 enhancement where plaintiff spent 30-40 hours on the matter and entered into a general
11 release); Smith v. Experian Information Solutions, Inc., 2020 WL 6689209 at *7 (C.D. Cal.
12 Nov. 9, 2020); Aikhan v. Goodrich Corporation, 2020 WL 49191382 at *9 (C.D. Cal. June 25, 13 2020); Thomas v. Cognizant Technology Solutions U.S. Corporation, 2013 WL 12371622 at 14 *9 (C.D. Cal. June 24, 2013); Djukich v. AutoNation, Inc., 2015 WL 13756099 at *14 (C.D.
15 Cal. Nov. 12, 2015). Moreover, it should be noted that there were no objections by any 16 members of the Class to the proposed Enhancement Payments. For such reasons, the Class
17 Representatives respectfully request that this Court approve the award of the Enhancement 18 Payments.

19 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES SHOULD BE APPROVED

20 Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees in an amount of one-third
21 (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable. Class Counsel has achieved
22 an excellent settlement in this litigation, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and this 23 Motion. The proposed settlement provides substantial benefits to the Class and was reached
24 after aggressive investigation and litigation by Class Counsel. Furthermore, there have been no 25 objections filed against the Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the 26 amount of $408,333.33. As more fully detailed below, Class Counsel's request for attorneys'
27 fees is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

28 Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common fund wage and hour

1 class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v. Robert Half
2 Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) (“We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
3 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit
4 of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out
5 of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an 6 appropriate percentage of the fund created.”). Under the percentage of the fund method, the 7 Court’s objective remains to “mimic the market” in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v.
8 Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998) (J. Posner) (“When a fee is set by a court rather 9 than by contract, the object is to set it at a level that will approximate what the market will 10 set.... The judge, in other words, is trying to mimic the market in legal services.”).

11 An award of 33.33% of the fund in attorneys’ fees mimics the marketplace as it “is 12 supported by the fact that typical contingency fee agreements provide that class counsel will 13 recover 33.33% if the case is resolved before trial and 40% if the case is tried.” Fernandez v.
14 Victoria Secret Stores LLC, 2008 WL 8150856, *16 n. 59 (C.D. Cal. July 21, 2008) (citing 15 Brickman, Effective Hourly Rates of Contingency-Fee Lawyers: Competing Data and Non- 16 Competitive Fees, 81 Wash U. L. Q. 653, 659 n. 11) (Fall 2003). Indeed, “empirical studies
17 [that] show that...fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”
18 Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008).

19 The California Supreme Court in Laffitte affirmed a fee award representing 33 1/3 20 percent of the fund. Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 506. And this was based on a lodestar amount that 21 required a multiplier of 2.13. Id. at 487. As the Court held, only when the multiplier is 22 “extraordinarily high or low [should] the trial court [] consider whether the percentage method
23 should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a justifiable range.” Id. at 505.

24 Moreover, in the Laffitte intermediate court decision, the court observed that “33 1/3
25 percent of the common fund is consistent with, and in the range of, awards in other class
26 action lawsuits.” Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 231 Cal. App. 4th 860, 871 (2014). Here, the fee
27 award representing 33.33% of the Gross Settlement Amount clearly falls within that range, 28 and is consistent with other comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and fee awards.
See Fitzpatrick, An Empirical Study of Class Action Settlements and Their Fee Award, 7 J.

1 Empirical Leg. Stud. 811, 833 (2010) (analyzing 444 cases between 2006-2007 and 2 concluding that “[m]ost fee awards were between 25 percent and 35 percent, with almost no
3 awards more than 35 percent.”); Eisenberg & Miller, Attorney Fees in Class Action
4 Settlements: An Empirical Study: 1993-2008, 7 J. of Empirical Leg. Stud. 248, 262, fn.16
5 (2010) (independent studies of class action litigation nationwide conclude that fees 6 representing one-third of the total recovery is consistent with market rates).

7 Finally, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not 8 decisive, is relevant to the... reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v.
9 Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the 10 court’s “approximation of the market” for fees is well supported. Id. at p. 1269. In this case, 11 the Class Notice specifically notified Class Members that Class Counsel would be seeking 12 33.33% of the Gross Settlement Amount as attorneys’ fees. To date, no Class Member has 13 objected to the settlement. This strong favorable response also supports the requested fees.

14 In addition, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced 15 attorney’s fees reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. As observed in City of 16 Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F. 2d 448, 470 (2d Cir. 1974):

17 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent upon his success to 18 charge, when successful, as little as he would charge a client who had agreed to 19 pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in complicated cases 20 producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee depend solely on the reasonable 21 amount of time expended.

22 Here, it is clear that a common fund of $1,225,000.00 has been created as the entire amount is 23 to be paid out without any reversion. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent
24 in nature and the case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. See Lee Decl.
25 ¶ 3. Among the risks was the cost inherent in class action litigation, as well as a potentially 26 drawn-out battle with a defendant that has retained premier defense counsel.

27 As a secondary backup support for the percentage of the fund method, when fees are 28 allocated by percentage method, courts have discretion to “cross-check” the fees awarded through the lodestar method. However, the Laffitte Court “emphasize[d] [that] the lodestar

1 calculation, when used in this manner, does not override the trial court’s primary 2 determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund and thus does not impose an
3 absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award.” Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 505
4 (emphasis added); In re Rite Aid Corp. Secs. Litig., 396 F.3d 294, 306-307 (3d Cir. 2005)
5 (“[The lodestar cross-check does not trump the primary reliance on the percentage of common 6 fund method.”).

7 The Supreme Court in Laffitte stated: “If the multiplier calculated by means of a 8 lodestar cross-check is extraordinarily high or low, the trial court should consider whether the 9 percentage used should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a justifiable
10 range, but the court is not necessarily required to make such an adjustment.” Id. (emphasis 11 added). Thus, a lodestar cross-check is aimed at astronomical multipliers. Indeed, cross-checks 12 are not required; in many cases, performing a cross-check “undermines” one of the primary 13 reasons for using the percentage method: aligning counsel’s incentives with the benefits
14 delivered to the class and discouraging protracted litigation. Id. at 506 (finding trial courts 15 “retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check”); Report of the Third Circuit Task Force,
16 Court Awarded Attorney Fees 108 F.R.D. 237, 258 (1985); Lealao, 82 Cal. App. 4th 19, 29-30
17 (citing the recommendations of the Third Circuit Task Force with approval and observing that 18 “[t]he criticisms of the lodestar approach set forth in this Report are now echoed by many 19 authorities, who have been most vocal about the manner in which it exacerbates the problem 20 of ‘cheap settlements’ and burdens already overworked trial judge.”).

21 Courts have defined reasonable multipliers on a lodestar cross-check to “range from 2 22 to 4 or even higher.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 255 (2001); see
23 also, e.g., Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal. App. 4th 495, 512 (2009)
24 (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class action); Chavez v. Netflix, 25 Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 60 (2008) (applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check). The 26 intermediate court in Laffitte, after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on 27 a cross-check, affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. Laffitte, 231 Cal. App. 4th at 881-82. The 28 intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full by the California Supreme Court in its new decision guiding lower courts on assessing fees.

1 With respect to Class Counsel's lodestar, to date, over 577.70 hours have been
2 expended by Class Counsel in this matter.² See Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 8, Exhibit A; Lee Decl. ¶
3 5, Exhibit A; Swartz Decl. ¶ 4. Moreover, Class Counsel expects to incur additional hours of 4 attorney time in finalizing this settlement. See Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 8; Lee Decl. ¶ 5. Class
5 Counsel each request an hourly rate of $595.00 per hour. See Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 10; Lee Decl.
6 ¶ 7; Swartz Decl. at ¶ 4. The courts are quite liberal in the evidence required to prove an 7 attorney's hours. Detailed time records are not required. An attorney's testimony alone may 8 suffice: "Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a particular case is 9 sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time
10 records." Martino v. Denevi, 182 Cal. App. 3d 553, 559 (1986).

11 Reasonable hours include, in addition to time spent during litigation, the time spent 12 before the action is filed, including time spent interviewing the clients, investigating the facts
13 and the law, and preparing the initial pleadings. New York Gaslight Club, Inc. v. Carey, 447
14 U.S. 54, 62 (1980). Further, the fee award should include fees incurred to establish and defend 15 the attorneys' fee claim. Serrano v. Unruh, 32 Cal. 3d 621, 639 (1982) [Serrano IV]. A 16 reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing rate charged by attorneys of similar skill and 17 experience in the relevant community. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler, 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 1095
18 (2000). The court may consider other factors when determining a reasonable hourly rate, e.g., 19 the attorney's skill and experience, the nature of the work performed, the relevant area of 20 expertise and the attorney's customary billing rates. Flannery v. California Highway Patrol,
21 61 Cal. App. 4th 629, 632-33 (1998).

22 Here, Class Counsel's skill and experience justify the requested rate. As shown in the 23 supporting declarations, Class Counsel have significant experience in the area of employment
24 and wage and hour class actions. Specifically, Class Counsel's practice focuses on 25 representing employees in employment matters, particularly wage and hour cases. See Agnew
26 Decl. ¶¶ 7, 9-13; Franklin Decl. ¶ 3, 4; Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 12; Lee Decl. ¶¶ 10, 11; Swartz

27
28 ² In addition to the time expended by the attorneys, there is approximately 41.50 hours of paralegal time billed to the matter. See Fitzpatrick Decl. ¶ 8, Exhibit A. The hourly rate for paralegals is $185.00 per hour. See id. at ¶ 9.

Decl. ¶ 15. As such, based on the hours and applicable rate, the total lodestar to be expended by Class Counsel through finalizing this settlement will be approximately $343,731.50 [$595 x 577.70].

Once the court establishes the lodestar amount, it may enhance the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award. Serrano III, 20 Cal.3d at 48. The pertinent factors include the difficulty of the questions involved and the skill in presenting them, the contingent nature of the fee award, the extent to which the litigation precluded other employment, and the percentage-of-the-fund the attorney would have received on the fair market. Id., Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 49. However, this list is not exhaustive and the court can consider other factors it deems important in setting the multiplier. Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1139 (2001).

Lealao contains several factors justifying an enhancement based on the percentage-of-the-benefit, namely, no objections by Class Members, commendable conduct by counsel, and significant recoveries by Class Members, all of which were previously detailed above. Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 51-53. As in Lealao, the Class was notified of the settlement and attorney's fee with no objections. The extreme effort undertaken by counsel, as shown by their hours and the significantly high amount of claims being paid out, shows commendable conduct.

It is also critical to note that prompt settlement cannot be used to diminish the fee or the enhancement based on a percentage-of-the-fund. Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 52 (the promptness of settlement "cannot be used to justify the refusal to apply a multiplier"). According to Lealao, courts placed "an extraordinarily high value" on settlement, and counsel should be rewarded, not punished, for achieving this goal in a timely fashion. Id.

The multiplier should be enhanced by the contingent nature of counsel's fee recovery. The risks in taking on a class action case are enormous, not the least of which is time and effort. Not only was there significant risk taken upon by Class Counsel, but their ability to obtain the current settlement should be seen as quite commendable. As explained previously, Defendants maintained that there were significant obstacles. Thus, the risk involved in this case was quite significant for the Class Representatives and their counsel, and in the face of such risks, the current settlement was still able to be obtained by Class Counsel.

1 Here based upon Class Counsel's lodestar of $343,731.50, the requested fees result in a
2 multiplier of approximately 1.187 ($408,333.33 (requested fees) ÷ $343,731.50 (lodestar
3 amount). This demonstrates that the requested fees are reasonable and fair, particularly based 4 on the factors described above. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224 (Ct.
5 App. 2001) (noting that courts using the lodestar method to calculate attorney fees awards in 6 class actions typically apply multipliers in the range of 2 to 4); Boyd v. Bank of Am. Corp., 7 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 162880 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 18, 2014) (awarding 33% of the common 8 fund, based on a multiplier of 2.58, in a wage and hour class action settlement); Vandervort v.
9 Balboa Capital Corp., 8 F.Supp.3d 1200, 1210 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (awarding 33% of the 10 common fund, based on a multiplier of 2.52).

11 As such, the requested fee award is fair and reasonable, and should be awarded in its 12 entirety. Class Counsel risked not only a great deal of time, but also a great deal of expense to 13 ensure the successful litigation of this action on behalf of all Class Members. For such reasons,
14 Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the amount of $408,333.33 is fair, reasonable, 15 and adequate.

16 VII. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE REQUEST FOR REIMBURSEMENT
17 OF COSTS

18 The request for reimbursement of costs, in the amount of $48,410.79 is fair and 19 reasonable. Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiffs are allowed to seek 20 reimbursement of litigation costs up to a maximum of $60,000.00. To date, Class Counsel
21 have expended $48,410.79 in litigation related costs. See Lee Decl. ¶ 8, Exhibit B; Fitzpatrick
22 Decl. ¶ 14, Exhibit B. The authority for the court to award this is the Parties' Settlement
23 Agreement and Labor Code sections 226, 1194, 2802, and 2698 et. seq. As such, this request
24 should be approved.

25 VIII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR'S FEES AND COSTS SHOULD BE 26 APPROVED

27 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the fees and costs of the Settlement
28 Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, are to be paid out of the Gross Settlement
Amount. In total, the settlement administration costs total $24,000.00. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 19,

1 Exhibit B. Thus, settlement administration fees in the amount of $24,000.00, as agreed to in 2 the Settlement Agreement, should be approved.

3 IX. NOTICE HAS BEEN PROVIDED TO THE LWDA

4 On October 11, 2024, Class Counsel uploaded the Court's Order Granting Preliminary 5 Approval to the LWDA's website. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 14. The LWDA has not responded or 6 objected to this settlement. See id. On June 6, 2025, Class Counsel uploaded this Motion and 7 Proposed Order to the LWDA's website. See id. at ¶ 15.

8 X. CONCLUSION

9 For all the foregoing reasons, and on the basis of the authorities cited herein, Plaintiffs 10 respectfully submit that the standards for final approval have been met, and the terms of the 11 Settlement Agreement are fair, adequate and reasonable. Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully 12 request that the Court enter an Order in the form proposed and submitted:

- 13 1. Granting final approval to the proposed Settlement Agreement;
- 14 2. Approving distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount pursuant to the terms of 15 the Settlement Agreement;
- 16 3. Approving the Class Representatives' request for individuals Enhancement 17 Payments with payment pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- 18 4. Approving the Class Representatives' request for an award of the Class
19 Counsel's fees and litigation costs with payment pursuant to the terms of the Settlement
20 Agreement;
- 21 5. Approving the Class Representatives' request for payment of the settlement 22 administration costs with payment pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- 23 Entering judgment as to all members of the Settlement Class in this action; and Setting
24 a Compliance Hearing date.
