DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff ANTHONY BIZZLE (“Plaintiff Bizzle”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorney General Act, and Plaintiff LOURDES LOERA (“Plaintiff Loera”) (together with Plaintiff Bizzle, “Plaintiffs”) individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorney General Act, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiffs, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all

1 other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this
2 action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3 3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and
4 belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California,
5 or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise
6 of jurisdiction over them by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play
7 and substantial justice.

8 4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
9 maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of 10 California, County of Sacramento.

16 under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

17 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 19. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other 19 members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under 20 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

21 20. The proposed class is defined as follows:

22 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for 23 any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the 24 period from December 1, 2018 to final judgment and who reside in California.

25 (Subclass A) All Class Members who were required by any of the Defendants to 26 stay on any of the Defendants’ premises for rest breaks.

27 (Subclass B) All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who 28 worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from December 1, 2018 to final judgment who received overtime compensation at a rate lower than their respective regular rate of pay because one or more of the Defendants failed to include all non-discretionary bonuses or other incentive-based compensation in the calculation of the regular rate of pay for overtime pay purposes.

(Subclass C) All class members who were subject to Defendants' practice of rounding time recorded for purposes of calculating compensation for time worked or for calculating meal periods.

(Subclass D) All class members who worked at a healthcare facility owned, operated, controlled, supervised or managed by any of the Defendants known as Sherwood Healthcare Center.

(Subclass E) All class members who worked at a healthcare facility owned, operated, controlled, supervised or managed by any of the Defendants known as Saylor Lane Healthcare Center.

21. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

- 1 22. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 2 the litigation:
- 3 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
4 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 5 unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 6 greater than 2,250 individuals and the identity of such membership is 7 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- 8 b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' as 9 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the 10 interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined 11 community of interest.
- 12 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 13 each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of 14 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have 15 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
16 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 17 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 18 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 19 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 20 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 21 each class member.
- 22 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 23 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
24 of all class members is impractical.
- 25 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
26 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
27 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
28 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect

1 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 2 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 3 their rights.

4 23. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that
5 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
6 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 7 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 8 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 9 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay
10 their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California
11 for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed 12 altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 13 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to 14 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
15 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs 16 and the other class members;
- 17 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of 18 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class
19 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 20 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the 21 other class members for all hours worked;
- 22 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the 23 other class members within the required time upon their discharge or 24 resignation;
- 25 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and 26 the other class members during their employment;
- 27 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 28 California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;

- i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

24. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiffs' employment by Defendants.

25. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium wages, to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

26. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

27. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against them during their time of employment and they are, therefore, aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

28. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiffs, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee's Notice”) to the LWDA and by certified mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

29. On July 19, 2021, Plaintiff Bizzle provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff Bizzle did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of the submission of Plaintiff Bizzle’s Notice.

30. On June 25, 2021, Plaintiff Loera provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff Loera did not receive an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) days of the date of the submission of Plaintiff Loera’s Notice.

32. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Sacramento.

33. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff Bizzle as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately August 2020 to approximately April 2021, in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

34. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff Loera as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, from approximately 2004 to approximately May 2021, in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

35. Defendants hired Plaintiffs and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

36. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiffs and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

37. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs and the other class members.

38. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

39. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

1 40. Plaintiffs and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
2 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

3 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
4 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
5 employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing
6 to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest
7 breaks in violation of California law.

8 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
10 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime
11 compensation for all overtime hours worked.

12 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
13 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members all required rest and meal periods
14 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
15 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

16 44. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
18 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class
19 member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal
20 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class member's
21 regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

22 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
24 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class
25 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
26 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class members'
27 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

28 ///

1 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum
4 wages for all hours worked.

5 47. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
8 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 9 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 48. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs and the other class members did
13 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
14 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

15 49. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
18 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
19 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and 20 the other class members.

21 50. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
23 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did 24 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

25 51. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 27 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

28 ///

52. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

53. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiffs and the other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

54. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

55. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

56. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

57. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

58. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

59. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

60. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

62. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

63. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 64, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

64. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

65. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

66. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

67. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours

1 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day
2 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in
3 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
4 of work.

5 68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members worked
6 in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

7 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 8 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

9 70. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid
10 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 11 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

12 71. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class 13 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 14 attorneys' fees.

22 72. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
23 through 73, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 24 forth herein.

25 73. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
26 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment by 27 Defendants.

28 ///

1 74. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
2 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an
3 applicable order of the California IWC.

4 75. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
5 Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to 6 work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee
7 with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per 8 day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual
9 consent of both the employer and employee.

10 76. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
