Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF KERN

RAUL MORALES REYES, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GIUMARRA VINEYARDS CORPORATION, a
California corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: BCV-21-102730

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiff Raul Morales Reyes (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary 2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant GIUMARRA VINEYARDS 6 CORPORATION and DOES 1 through 10 (GIUMARRA VINEYARDS CORPORATION and 7 DOES 1 through 10 are collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the 8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) 9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and 10 overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, 11 failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure to maintain accurate records of hours 12 worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage 13 statements, and failure to indemnify for necessary business expenditures.

14 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 15 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
16 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his 17 or her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so 18 that employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required 19 for employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 20 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 21 underlying statutes—since Plaintiff is not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution or 22 other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the PAGA to permit an 23 individual to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this 24 action.

25 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or 26 were harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved 27 Employees worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 28 applicable statutory period.

1 4. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on 2 behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of 3 California. Plaintiff does not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by 4 California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are 5 mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiff does not seek underlying general and/or special damages
6 for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, 7 declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for himself and all Aggrieved Employees as permitted by 8 the PAGA.

9 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 10 establishment within the State of California, including Kern County. As such, and based upon all 11 the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 12 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 13 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

14 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 15 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 16 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 17 willful and deliberate.

18 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 19 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 20 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 21 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 22 the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

1 THE PARTIES

2 A. Plaintiff

3 8. Plaintiff is a resident of Kern County, California who worked for Defendants in 4 Bakersfield, California from approximately September 2015 to approximately April 24, 2020.¹

5 B. Defendants

6 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief 7 alleges, that Defendant GIUMARRA VINEYARDS CORPORATION is, and at all times herein 8 mentioned, was:

- 9 (a) A corporation qualified to do business and actually conducting business in 10 numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Kern 11 County; and,
12 (b) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer
13 of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant GIUMARRA 14 VINEYARDS CORPORATION suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the 15 Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or 16 working conditions.

17 10. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued 18 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names.
19 Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 20 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to 21 set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, 22 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

23 11. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 24 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, 25 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of 26 _____

27 ¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a) 28 (California Rules of Court), whereby “statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020.”

1 California.

2 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times 3 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 4 the other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions.
5 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant 6 was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, 7 subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of 8 some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in 9 a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other 10 Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff 11 is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the 12 scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, 13 and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other 14 Defendants.

15 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

16 13. Plaintiff Raul Morales Reyes worked for Defendants in Bakersfield, California 17 from approximately September 2015 to approximately April 24, 2020. At all times, Defendants 18 paid Plaintiff an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime.

19 14. Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 20 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants 21 was typical and illustrative.

22 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, 23 and Overtime Wages

24 15. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
25 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, 26 and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required 27 to do so.

28 16. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed

1 more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive 2 additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

3 17. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 4 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation
5 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 6 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

7 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 8 not paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, 9 straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 10 to work “off-the-clock,” uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 11 Employees to work unpaid during legally required meal periods and after clocking out for the 12 workday. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay 13 for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff 14 and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

15 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

16 19. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 17 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than 18 the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-19 minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday.
20 Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they 21 were not provided with all required meal period(s).

22 20. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff 23 and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-24 free meal period. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees routinely worked through meal periods 25 “off-the-clock,” and Defendants frequently paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees less than 26 all their work time. Much of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In 27 failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of the 28 hours Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked. Defendants also regularly, but not always,

1 required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a 2 day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours 3 of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that 4 were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, 5 Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, 6 pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without 7 working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 8 Employees permission to take a meal period. Defendants also never informed Plaintiff of his 9 right to, nor permitted him to take, a second meal period when Plaintiff worked at least ten hours 10 in a workday. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to 11 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

12 21. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 13 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal periods.
14 Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the 15 additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

16 C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

17 22. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 18 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 19 two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 20 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is 21 itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

22 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to authorize and 23 permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods. Defendants 24 regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive 25 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 26 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four 27 hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that 28 were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiff

1 and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work 2 tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or 3 by denying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period.

4 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff and the 5 Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

6 24. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 7 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all 8 required rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 9 Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were 10 not authorized and permitted to take.

11 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

12 25. Based on Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all 13 wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

14 26. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two 15 times per month. Throughout the statutory period, employees were entitled to be paid twice a 16 month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium 17 wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, 18 Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to 19 pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods 20 not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by 21 Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the 22 legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in 23 those amounts.

24 E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

25 27. Plaintiff seeks penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to 26 California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully 27 fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is 28 subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every 1 employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period.

2 Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded

3 28. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all 4 meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

5 29. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California
6 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 7 the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the 8 accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the 9 Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which 10 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and 11 the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the 12 use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in 13 seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their 14 respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing 15 failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and 16 the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 17 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

18 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

19 30. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 20 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 21 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 22 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-23 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is 24 entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

25 31. Throughout the statutory period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other 26 Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 27 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 28 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without

1 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time 2 of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 3 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and 4 overtime wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

5 32. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 6 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 7 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 8 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 9 more than thirty (30) days.

10 33. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 11 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 12 hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

13 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

14 34. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 15 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, 16 including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of 17 piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, 18 (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 19 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 20 which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her 21 social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, 22 (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly 23 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 24 hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is 25 missing. (Labor Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

26 35. The statute further provides: "An employee suffering injury as a result of a 27 knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to 28 recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees." (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

36. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

37. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

38. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work tools/equipment and use of personal cell phones. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges all preceding paragraphs as 1 though fully set forth herein.

2 40. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 3 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

4 41. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 5 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 6 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 7 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, 8 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, 9 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or 10 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 11 2699.3.”

12 42. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 13 Code § 2699.3. On September 10, 2021, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 14 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 15 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and 16 former Aggrieved Employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff 17 also paid the filing fee on September 10, 2021. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-18 844207-21 (Raul Morales Reyes v. Giumarra Vineyards Corporation).

19 43. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his administrative 20 remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor 21 Code § 2699.3(d).)

22 44. The statute of limitations is also tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020 23 pursuant to Rule 9(a) of the Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19.

24 45. More than sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the 25 LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations 26 discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties 27 under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in 28 this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor

Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

46. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

47. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify for necessary business expenditures;

2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of himself and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,
