MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Thomas Brown and Anthony Doss (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $222,500.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Fidelity Security Services, Inc. (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 331 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg (Ret.), over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement in July 2023. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiffs and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant is a professional security guard company based in Los Angeles that provides armed and unarmed security guards for shopping malls, schools, and parking lots. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to pay wages owed every pay

1 period, failure to pay all final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage
2 statements, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under the PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

3 On August 26, 2021, Plaintiff Brown filed a putative wage and hour class action
4 complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor 5 Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 6 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to 7 authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages 8 at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage 9 statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor 10 Code § 2802); and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200, et seq.).
11 On September 9, 2021, Plaintiff Brown sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & 12 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant 13 to the PAGA. On November 24, 2021, Plaintiff Brown separately filed a PAGA representative 14 action against Defendant (Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. 21STCV43378).¹ On 15 May 29, 2024, Plaintiff Brown filed a First Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint 16 adding a claim for civil penalties under the PAGA, including a claim for Defendant’s failure to 17 pay wages every pay period, adding Plaintiff Doss as an additional class representative, and 18 adding Harout Messrelian as counsel for Plaintiff Doss. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 4.)

19 B. Discovery and Investigation

20 Following the filing of the initial Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and 21 information before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records 22 for class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and 23 practices during the class period, financial documents, and information regarding the total 24 number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

25 ///

26 ///

27
28 ¹ Plaintiff Brown’s separate PAGA action was dismissed following the filing of the First Amended Class & Representative Action Complaint.

1 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices, 2 financial records, and analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel
3 was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's 4 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 5 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel 6 reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

7 C. Settlement Negotiations

8 On July 14, 2023, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 9 action mediator, Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg (Ret.). (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted 10 via Zoom. The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 11 professional manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 12 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 13 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 14 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims, 15 Defendant's defenses, and Defendant's financial condition, the Parties reached a settlement, the 16 material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 17 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice].)

18 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 19 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 20 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 21 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 22 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 23 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 16.)

24 Indeed, the $222,500.00 Settlement represents 48% of the realistic maximum recovery
25 of $463,045.50. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's maximum 26 potential liability for all claims was approximately $2.7 million, when the risk of prevailing at 27 certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant's 28 realistic exposure was $463,045.50, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery.

(Id. at ¶¶ 16-30.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and trial and Defendant’s financial conditions, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶¶ 26-30.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment or not recovering anything if Defendant filed for bankruptcy.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court’s Form Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. A document showing the edits the Parties made to the template in redline is attached to the Declaration of Justin F. Marquez as Exhibit 2. The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “a person employed by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt who worked for Defendant during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: “means the period from March 1, 2017 to July 14, 2023.” (Settlement, § 1.11.)

3. Participating Class Member: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

4. Aggrieved Employees: means a person employed by Defendant in California and classified as a non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period (December 29, 2019 to July 14, 2023). (Settlement, §§ 1.4, 1.12.)

5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $222,500.00 for all claims, including Plaintiff Doss’ Individual Settlement Amount, Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representatives Service Payments and the Administrator’s Expenses. (Settlement, §§ 1.22. 3.2.1.)

6. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check

1 to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and 2 eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to Legal Aid at Work² (“Cy Pres Recipient”), thereby leaving 3 no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, 4 subd. (b). (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

5 7. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members, on 6 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, 7 heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were 8 alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the 9 Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action including. Except as set forth in 10 Section 6.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, 11 including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and 12 Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or 13 claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 6.2.) This Release will 14 be deemed effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount 15 and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments.
16 (Settlement, § 6.)

17 8. Release by Non-Participating Class Members Who Are Not Aggrieved Employees: 18 “All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on 19 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, 20 heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA 21 penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period 22 facts stated in the Operative Complaint and Plaintiffs’ PAGA Notices, and ascertained in the course 23 of the Action.” (Settlement, § 6.3.)

24 9. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.”
25 (Settlement, § 3.1.)

26 ///

27 _____
28 ² Legal Aid at Work is a nonprofit legal services organization that has been assisting working families with low incomes for more than 100 years. Please see <https://legalaidatwork.org/> for more information.

1 10. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $15,000.00 allocated to Plaintiffs’
2 claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($11,250.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25%
3 ($3,750.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.34.) Class Counsel 4 submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary 5 Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 10.)

6 11. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 7 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
8 Payment, Class Representatives Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 9 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be 10 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

11 12. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 12 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 13 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 14 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate 15 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% 16 share of PAGA Penalties ($3,750.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by 17 all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each 18 Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Period Pay Periods.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

19 13. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be 20 allocated as 25% wages and 75% to penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

21 14. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiffs shall be 22 paid enhancement awards not to exceed $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Brown and $5,000.00 to Plaintiff 23 Doss. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiffs’ time and effort in bringing and 24 presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, 25 pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 6.1.) If the Court approves a lesser 26 enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount 27 to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis.
28 (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) Additionally, of the Gross Settlement Amount, $5,000.00 will be allocated to the settlement of Plaintiff Doss³ individual wage and hour claims. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

15. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to 33.333333% ($74,166.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $20,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.) Plaintiffs' counsel has a fee sharing agreement. Under the Agreement, Wilshire Law Firm will receive 75% of the fees collected in this matter and Messrelan Law Inc. will receive 25% of the fees collected in this matter. Both Plaintiffs have consented to this fee split in a separate joint prosecution agreement between the law firms and have signed the agreement. Upon request from the Court, Plaintiffs' counsel can provide a copy of the Joint Prosecution Agreement. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 55.)

16. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 8.4.) Apex Class Action, LLC, the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Declaration of Sean Hartranft, ¶ 7, Ex. B [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

³ Please see the declaration of Anthony Doss regarding his individual settlement.

1 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 2 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 3 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 4 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 5 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 6 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 7 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 8 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 9 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 10 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 11 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 12 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy 13 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

14 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 15 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 16 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

17 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 18 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

19 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 20 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

21 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 22 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 23 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
24 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
25 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 26 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 27 to approve the settlement.”].)

28 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of

1 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Hon. Mitchel R. Goldberg (Ret.). (Marquez 2 Decl., ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 3 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 4 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its 5 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive
6 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims, 7 Defendant's defenses, and Defendant's financial condition, the Parties reached an agreement.
8 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 8.)

9 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 10 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 11 records, Defendant's policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 12 meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well 13 as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 14 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 15 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 16 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 17 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and their counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 18 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

19 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 20 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-55; see generally, Declaration of Harout 21 Messrelian in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement 22 ["Messrelian Decl."].) Again, this supports the position that the terms of the Settlement are 23 premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed in light of the risks, 24 expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this action.

25 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' 26 Respective Legal Positions

27 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 28 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.

1 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 2 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 3 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 4 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 5 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

6 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
7 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 28.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate 8 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving 9 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 10 uncertain proposition. (Id.) Likewise, Defendant presented an inability to pay at mediation and 11 provided financial records to Plaintiffs’ counsel to review prior to the mediation. This production 12 included Defendant’s balance sheets, profits and lost statements, and tax returns. Plaintiffs’ 13 counsel utilized a financial expert to review these documents. (Id. at ¶ 27.)

14 The proposed settlement of $222,500.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 15 compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery and the realistic chance of Defendant 16 declaring for bankruptcy. (Id. at ¶¶ 16-30.) Because of the proposed Settlement, class members 17 will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment or not 18 receiving anything due to a potential bankruptcy filing by Defendant. When considering the risks 19 of litigation, the risk of a bankruptcy, the uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, 20 the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable 21 judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $222,500.00 is within the “ballpark” of 22 reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement 23 Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $253.27. (Id. at ¶ 24 29.)

25 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

26 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
27 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 28 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-55;

1 see generally, Messrelian Decl.) Although Plaintiffs and their counsel were prepared to litigate 2 the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best 3 interests of the class.

4 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

5 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 6 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 7 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 8 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 9 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 10 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

11 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

12 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 13 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $74,166.67, which is 33.333333% of the Gross 14 Settlement Amount, and up to $20,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 15 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

16 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
17 Method

18 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 19 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 20 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 21 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 22 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 23 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

24 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 25 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 26 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v.
27 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 28 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in

1 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 2 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 3 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 4 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 5 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

6 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 7 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 8 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 9 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 10 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 11 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 12 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 13 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—14 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
15 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

16 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

17 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 18 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 19 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 20 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 21 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
22 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 23 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 24 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 25 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 26 million].)

27 Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal to 33.333333% of the Settlement Amount, 28 which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic

1 literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162
2 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method 3 or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 4 recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ 5 fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

6 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

7 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 8 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 9 section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 10 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 11 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 12 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 13 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 14 Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-40.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 15 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 16 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 17 ahead of all other concerns.

18 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 19 Requested Fee Award

20 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 21 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez 22 Decl., ¶¶ 41-55; see generally, Messrelian Decl.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel 23 or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is 24 reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, 25 Class Counsel’s requested fee award is supported here.

26 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 27 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
28 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning

1 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 2 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 3 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 4 is reasonable and fair.

5 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

6 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and “there is no 7 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other” class members, 8 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
9 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 10 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
11 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
12 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
13 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 14 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, 15 the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved 16 by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia
17 v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 18 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1 [approving a 19 PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) 20 No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 21 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $15,000.00, 75% percent of which 22 ($11,250.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($3,750.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved 23 Employees. (Settlement, §1.34.) The $15,000.00 settlement amount equates to approximately 24 6.7% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are routinely approved.
25 The Parties negotiated to allocate 6.7% of the Settlement to PAGA penalties in good faith and this 26 amount is reasonable considering that the maximum PAGA penalties were estimated at 27 $330,000.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period). (Marquez Decl., ¶ 24.)

28 ///

1 E. The Service Awards to Named Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

2 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 3 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 4 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 5 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 6 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 7 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
8 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

9 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 10 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 11 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 12 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 13 work under substandard unlawful conditions”. Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court 14 has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 15 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
16 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 17 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
18 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

19 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 20 Service Awards in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Brown and $5,000.00 to Plaintiff Doss.
21 This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiffs’ general release of all claims against Defendant.
22 Courts routinely approve a $10,000 enhancement award for plaintiffs represented by Class 23 Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 24 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of 25 America, National Association (N.D. Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, 26 at *4 [“The court approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel 27 represent that Plaintiffs devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, 28 communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and were frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 31-35; see generally, Messrelian Decl.) These amounts are reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, and the court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 35.)

When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev. 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

A. Legal Standard

The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1)

1 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest
2 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 3 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal.2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 4 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 5 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 6 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class
7 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 8 Cal.3d 462, 470.)

9 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
10 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 11 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 12 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 13 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 14 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

15 B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 16 Settlement Purposes.

17 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

18 The proposed class that Plaintiffs seek to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 19 approximately 331 employees of Defendant.

20 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 21 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 22 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
23 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 24 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

25 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 26 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 27 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 28 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable

1 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 2 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
3 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 4 Cal.2d 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) 5 Therefore, Plaintiffs contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

6 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

7 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 8 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 9 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 10 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 11 Cal.App.3d 605.)

12 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 13 policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether Defendant had 14 legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether 15 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees 16 to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 17 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period 18 premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-compliant. Plaintiffs 19 contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified class members, 20 including Plaintiffs. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same 21 alleged injuries.

22 3. Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

23 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 24 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 25 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 26 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that 27 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 28 situated” vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they

1 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 2 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendant; as 3 such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 4 employees.

5 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

6 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 7 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 8 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 9 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

10 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel 11 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 12 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-55; see generally, Messrelian Decl.) Class Counsel 13 unquestionably is "qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." 14 (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs have no conflicts, and 15 Plaintiffs have, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, 16 showing their dedication. Plaintiffs' willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates their 17 serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 18 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

19 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

20 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 21 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
22 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 23 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 24 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-25 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 26 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 27 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 28 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

1 VI. CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary 3 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing in March 2025.

4 Respectfully submitted,
