MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Cuitlahuac Nino (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $325,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant J.W. Peterson Painting, Inc. (“Defendant”, and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 250 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Michael E. Dickstein, over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement on February 28, 2023. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant provides commercial, residential, and industrial painting services throughout California, including Alameda County. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

1 On September 1, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint
2 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay 3 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest 4 periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate
5 itemized wage statements; and (7) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 6 section 17200, et seq.). On September 3, 2021, Plaintiff sent notice to Defendant and the 7 California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour 8 violations pursuant to PAGA. On February 25, 2022, Plaintiff’s First Amended Class and 9 Representative Action Complaint, which added a cause of action for civil penalties under 10 PAGA, was deemed effective after Judge Seligman’s signing of a Joint Stipulation for Leave to 11 File First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 4.)

12 B. Discovery and Investigation

13 The Parties did not engage in any formal discovery prior to mediation. However, the Parties 14 participated in an informal discovery exchange in preparation for mediation. As part of 15 Defendant's informal discovery production, Defendant produced all of its relevant policy 16 documents that were in effect during the class period and a randomized sampling of timekeeping 17 and payroll records for the class, which included approximately 3,750 shifts for Plaintiff's counsel 18 to review. All of the timekeeping records showed that class members entered their scheduled hours 19 worked for each shift that they worked, 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.; there were also no entries for meal 20 periods taken or missed. Based on this timekeeping practice, my expert and I did not believe that 21 increasing the sample size would alter our analysis. Also, when entered into a sample size 22 calculator, the number of shifts in the sampling indicated a 1.53% margin of error on a 95%
23 confidence interval. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 After analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, pertinent demographics, 2 and after extensive conversations with Plaintiff, as well as reviewing Defendant's 2020 3 Paycheck Protection Program loan application, Class Counsel were able to evaluate the 4 probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum monetary 5 exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law 6 regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these 7 records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

8 C. Settlement Negotiations

9 On February 28, 2023, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced 10 class action mediator Michael E. Dickstein. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via 11 Zoom. The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 12 professional manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 13 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 14 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 15 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and 16 Defendant's defenses, the Parties reached a settlement, the material terms of which are 17 encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA 18 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice].)

19 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 20 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 21 Counsel is of the opinion that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 22 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 23 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 24 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

25 Indeed, the $325,000.00 Settlement represents 89.1% of the realistic maximum 26 recovery of $364,790.50. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's 27 maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $2.8 million, when the risk of 28 prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $364,790.50, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Parties used the Los Angeles County Superior Court’s Form Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed by J.W. Peterson Painting, Inc. in California and classified as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: “means the period that starts on March 7, 2017 and shall end on April 29, 2023.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

4. Aggrieved Employee: “means a person employed by J.W. Peterson Painting, Inc. in California and classified as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee who worked for J.W. Peterson Painting, Inc. during the PAGA Period (March 7, 2020 to April 29, 2023).” (Settlement, §§ 1.4, 1.31.)

5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $325,000.00, and “will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment and the Administrator’s Expenses.” (Settlement, § 1.22.)

6. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undelivered, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing address by performing a Class Member Address Search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to the Cy Pres Recipient consistent with Code of Civil Procedure § 384, subd. (b), Shepherd's Gate, located at 1660 Portola Ave., Livermore, CA 94551. (Settlement, §§ 4.4.2, 4.4.3.) Shepherd's Gate provides services and assistance to women and children suffering from homelessness, addiction and domestic violence.¹

7. Release: "All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action, including any and all claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and (7) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period." (Settlement, § 6.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, § 6.)

8. No Reversion: "None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to J.W. Peterson Painting, Inc." (Settlement, § 3.1.)

9. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $25,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff's claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($18,750.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($6,250.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.34.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 9.)

1 10. Net Settlement Amount: The “Net Settlement Amount” is the amount that remains
2 and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted: (1) 3 Class Counsel Fees Payment, (2) Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, (3) Administrative 4 Expenses Payment, (4) Class Representative Service Payment, (5) Individual PAGA Payments, 5 and (6) LWDA PAGA Payments. (Settlement, § 1.28.)

6 11. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 7 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class
8 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 9 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate 10 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% 11 share of PAGA Penalties ($6,250.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by 12 all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each 13 Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Period Pay Periods.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14 12. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be 15 allocated as 33% wages and 67% to penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

16 13. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be 17 paid an enhancement award not to exceed $7,500.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for 18 Plaintiff’s time and effort in bringing and presenting the action. (Settlement, § 6.1.) If the Court 19 approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net
20 Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-21 rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

22 14. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 23 a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($108,333.33) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-24 pocket costs not to exceed $25,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

25 15. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a 26 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ 27 fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations 28 are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 4.4.1.) CPT Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Declaration of Julie Green on Behalf of CPT Group, ¶ 11, Ex. B [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 1 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 3 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

4 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed
5 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

6 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 7 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 8 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
9 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
10 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman, (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 11 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 12 to approve the settlement.”].)

13 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 14 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Michael E. Dickstein. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 7.)
15 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 16 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 17 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 18 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 19 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, 20 the Parties reached an agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

21 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 22 the claims set forth in the litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll
23 records. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class Counsel 24 investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) 25 Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the 26 proposed Settlement. (Id.)

27 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 28 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 39-53.) Again, this supports the position that the

1 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 2 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 3 action.

4 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’
5 Respective Legal Positions

6 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 7 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
8 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 9 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 10 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 11 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 12 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

13 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
14 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 26.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 15 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 16 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 17 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

18 The proposed settlement of $325,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 19 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Because of the proposed 20 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 21 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 22 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 23 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $325,000.00 is within 24 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 25 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 26 $597.67. (Id. at ¶ 27.)

1 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

2 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
3 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 4 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-5 53.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 6 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

7 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

8 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A, should 9 be approved for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the 10 settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members 11 who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file 12 their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice 13 meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

14 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

15 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 16 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $108,333.33 which is 33 1/3% of the Gross 17 Settlement Amount, and up to $25,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 18 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

19 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
20 Method

21 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 22 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 23 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 24 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 25 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 26 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

27 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 28 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all

1 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
2 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995)
3 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 4 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 5 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 6 County of San Francisco v. Sweet, (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 7 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 8 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

9 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 10 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 11 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 12 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 13 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 14 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 15 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 16 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—17 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
18 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

19 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

20 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 21 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 22 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 23 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 24 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
25 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 26 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 27 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 28 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys' fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 ["Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery."].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys' fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A "Fee-Shifting" Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194(a) provides for the recovery of "minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys' fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 37-38.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-53.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

1 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 2 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
3 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 4 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class
5 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee
6 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 7 is reasonable and fair.

8 D. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

9 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 10 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 11 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 12 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 13 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the 14 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir.
15 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

16 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 17 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 18 codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to 19 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 20 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions....”). Nonetheless, the California 21 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 22 the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
23 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 24 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
25 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

26 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 27 a Service Award in the amount of $7,500.00 to Plaintiff. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff 28 devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel

1 very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was in contact with Class Counsel
2 during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 29-33.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light
3 of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams,
4 III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F.
5 Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, and the 6 court approved a $25,000.00 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff.
7 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 33.)

8 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 9 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 10 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 11 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 12 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 13 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment 14 discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850.00 and a median award of 15 $31,081.00, while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award 16 of $12,121.00 and a median award of $13,059.00. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found 17 that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative 18 plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including 19 risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

20 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

21 A. Legal Standard

22 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 23 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 24 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 25 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 26 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 27 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 28 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1)

1 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest
2 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 3 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 4 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 5 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 6 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class
7 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 8 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

9 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
10 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 11 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 12 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 13 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 14 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

15 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 16 Settlement Purposes.

17 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

18 The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 19 approximately 250 employees of Defendant.

20 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 21 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 22 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
23 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 24 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

25 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 26 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 27 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 28 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable

1 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 2 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
3 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 4 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha, (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 5 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

6 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

7 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 8 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 9 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 10 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 11 Cal.App.3d 605.)

12 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 13 policies and practices paying for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime 14 wages; whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with 15 meal periods; whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and 16 permitting its employees to take rest periods; whether final payment of wages was untimely and 17 excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether the wage 18 statements were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant had legally compliant 19 policies and practices regarding business-related expenditures by employees. Plaintiff contends 20 that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified class members, including 21 Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

22 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

23 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 24 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 25 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 26 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“[t]he only requirements are that 27 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 28 situated” vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they

1 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 2 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as 3 such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 4 employees.

5 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

6 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 7 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 8 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 9 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

10 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 11 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 12 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-53.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 13 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 14 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 15 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's 16 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 17 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

18 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

19 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 20 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
21 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 22 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 23 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly 24 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 25 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 26 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th 27 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 28 are essentially non-existent.

1 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

2 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

3 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 4 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 5 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 6 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 7 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 8 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 9 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 10 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

11 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

12 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 13 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 14 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 15 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 16 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

17 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 18 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 19 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 20 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 21 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 22 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 23 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 24 combined settlement-certification class notice.
