Attorneys for Plaintiff Tanisha Lopez

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

TANISHA LOPEZ, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, and as an aggrieved
employee and Private Attorney General,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RESTORIX HEALTH, INC., a Nevada
corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 21STCV38844

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

- (1) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 (Unpaid Overtime)
- (2) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) (Unpaid Meal Period Premiums)
- (3) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 226.7 (Unpaid Rest Period Premiums)
- (4) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 (Unpaid Minimum Wages)
- (5) Failure to Pay Reporting Time Wages (8 Cal. Code Regs. tit. 9, § 11050, subd. 5; Cal. Labor Code §§ 218, 1194, 1194.2, 1197)
- (6) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid)
- (7) Violation of Labor Code §§ 204 and 210 (Wages Not Timely Paid During Employment)
- (8) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 226(a) (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements)
- (9) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses)
- (10) Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.
- (11) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 2699, (Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiff TANISHA LOPEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members of the 2 general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that either have 3 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further
4 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants RESTORIX HEALTH, INC. and DOES
7 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
8 violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay
9 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods,
10 failure to pay minimum wage, failure to pay reporting time wages, failure to timely pay wages, failure
11 to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and failure
12 to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on behalf
14 of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively 15 referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 13, below) pursuant 16 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by 17 Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 18 according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 herself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or more of 21 the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by 24 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according 25 to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except 28 those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify

1 any other basis for jurisdiction.

2 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
3 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise
4 intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over
5 them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
7 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los 8 Angeles.

9 PARTIES

10 7. Plaintiff TANISHA LOPEZ is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, 11 State of California.

12 8. Defendant RESTORIX HEALTH, INC., is and at all times herein mentioned was, a
13 corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada, and registered to do business
14 in the state of California.

15 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and 16 therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals,
17 partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times
18 mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee,
19 co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned
20 acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency,
21 employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true
22 names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 23 each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences
24 herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct.
25 RESTORIX HEALTH, INC. and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as
26 "Defendants."

27 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the 28 County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the

1 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

2 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the 3 working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and
4 the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly 5 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

6 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

7 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Tenth Causes of Action as a class action on her own 8 behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks 9 class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

10 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
11 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4)
12 years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class
13 action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”).

14 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 16 litigation:

17 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members
18 is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this
19 time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity
20 of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment 21 records.

22 b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated
23 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
24 Members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

25 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
26 Member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of 27 claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other 28 Class Members. Plaintiff’s attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the

1 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 2 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and 3 attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the 4 prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

5 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and
6 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members
7 is impractical.

8 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 9 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment
10 and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out
11 of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class 12 Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the 13 vindication of their rights.

14 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 15 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among 16 others, exist as to the members of the Class:

17 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 18 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

19 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and 20 the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted
21 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

22 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than 23 eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay
24 the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;

25 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or 26 rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal
27 and/or rest periods without compensation;

28 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members

- 1 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 2 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members when
- 3 they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods;
- 4 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
- 5 Members for all hours worked;
- 6 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required
- 7 minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 8 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper
- 9 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 10 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class
- 11 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from
- 12 employment;
- 13 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all
- 14 necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 15 l. Whether Defendants failed to pay reporting time wages in violation of the applicable
- 16 IWC Wage Order;
- 17 m. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class
- 18 Members during their employment;
- 19 n. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor
- 20 Code, including section 226;
- 21 o. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- 22 p. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 23 q. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
- 24 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper
- 25 withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 26 r. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting
- 27 from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 28 s. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendants are an operator of comprehensive wound and amputation prevention centers throughout California.

18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a LVN Care Nurse since approximately September of 2018.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in an ongoing scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that regularly prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, failed to pay reporting wages, failed to timely pay wages during employment and upon termination of employment, and failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

1 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
2 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with 3 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and the 4 Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish control
5 over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly failed to
6 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take their meal
7 periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 8 taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their fifth hour of work
9 and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour
10 of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records
11 of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

12 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
13 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under California
14 law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies regarding the 15 provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead,
16 Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
17 Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal periods, and 18 to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to often work through their meal periods,
19 for which they were not compensated.

20 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
21 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
22 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that
23 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment
24 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late,
25 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to provide legally
26 compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to 27 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 28 rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

1 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
2 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking
3 timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit
4 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for
5 every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
6 periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith effort to 7 authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

8 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under California
10 law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies regarding the 11 provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead,
12 Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
13 Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty free rest periods, and
14 to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their rest 15 periods.

16 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
17 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
18 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that
19 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment
20 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late,
21 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to authorize and 22 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failed to
23 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 24 rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or interrupted.

25 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although Defendants
27 prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28 Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved

1 Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock outside of their scheduled hours and
2 during purported meal periods for which they were not compensate including, without limitation,
3 completing paperwork, answering phone calls, making work-related deliveries, responding to work-
4 related inquiries, and attending mandatory training meetings and seminars.

5 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies that
6 prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time
7 worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

8 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 9 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

10 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
11 all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they 12 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week,
13 or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week.
14 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were
15 entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages
16 for overtime compensation.

17 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay overtime to 18 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular 19 rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

20 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
21 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.
22 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 23 entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at 24 least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter
25 alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage
26 pursuant to California law and requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform
27 work off the clock without compensation.

28 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or
2 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
4 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation,
6 including overtime compensation, minimum wages, and meal and rest period premiums within any 7 time permissible under California Labor Code section 202.

8 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under 10 California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew or should 11 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages
12 owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not
13 receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum wages, and meal and rest 14 period premiums.

15 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 16 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
17 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 18 entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 19 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
20 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked and the actual gross wages 21 earned.

22 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to keep 23 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
24 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and accurate
25 payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with California
26 law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

27 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
28 or should have known that Defendants were required to produce employee records for inspection

1 upon request pursuant to California Labor Code sections 226, 432, and 1198.5, but failed to do so.
2 Plaintiff requested her records pursuant to these Labor Code provisions on August 11, 2021,
3 September 14, 2021, and October 18, 2021, but Defendants failed to ever produce the requested
4 records to Plaintiff.

5 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
6 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
7 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

8 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
10 including but not limited to the use of personal cell phones, personal computers, and personal vehicles
11 for work-related purposes. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to 12 reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related 13 expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

14 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees were sometimes required by Defendants to report for work and did report for 16 work, but were either not to put to work or were furnished with less than half of their usual or 17 scheduled day's work. On such occasions, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the 18 Aggrieved Employees required reporting time wages for half their usual or scheduled day's work.

19 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 20 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant 21 to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully,
22 knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 23 Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase Defendants' 24 profits.

25 44. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code 26 shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or 27 her] under this article."
28

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

46. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

48. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

49. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

50. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

52. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

53. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

55. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

57. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

58. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-

1 mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5)
2 hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

3 60. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were
4 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for periods
5 longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) 6 minutes.

7 61. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
8 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that were 9 late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full 10 meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

11 62. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class
12 Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

13 63. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
14 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

15 64. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
16 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional
17 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period
18 was not provided.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 65. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
23 allegation set forth above.

24 66. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
25 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 26 Defendants.

27 67. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer 28 shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the

1 California IWC.

2 68. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very employer
3 shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 4 the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked 5 daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the 6 total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours.”

7 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class
8 Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 9 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

10 70. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other 11 Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to 12 take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to 13 take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

14 71. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class
15 Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7 for work
16 performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other Class
17 Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

18 72. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code
19 section 226.7.

20 73. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
21 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional
22 hour of pay at the employees’ regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day that the rest
23 period was not provided.

24 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
28 allegation set forth above.

75. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

76. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

77. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

78. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 218, 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 8 Cal. Code Regs. tit. 9, § 11050, subd. 5)

(Against All Defendants)

79. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

80. At all relevant times set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provided that for each workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage.

81. At all relevant times set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provided that if an employee is required to report for work a second time in any one workday and is furnished less than two (2) hours of work on the second reporting, said employee shall be paid for two (2) hours at

1 the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage.

2 82. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members, who were
3 required to report to work and did report to work, were not put to work or were furnished less than 4 half of their usual or scheduled day's work.

5 83. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class
6 members the reporting time pay due pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order.

7 84. California Labor Code section 218 provides a private right of action to employees to 8 sue directly for any wages or penalty due him under that article. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage
9 Order, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the reporting time pay prescribed
10 by the Wage Order in an amount of no less than two (2) hours nor more than four (4) hours, at the 11 employee's regular rate of pay.

12 85. California Labor Code section 1197 provides that the minimum wage for employees
13 fixed by the commission or by any applicable state or local law, is the minimum wage to be paid to 14 employees, and the payment of a lower wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. Pursuant to 15 California Labor Code section 1194 Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the 16 unpaid balance of the full amount of minimum wage or overtime compensation due to them, including 17 interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

18 86. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class
19 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid
20 and interest thereon.

21 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
25 allegation set forth above.

26 88. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202
27 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 28 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or

1 her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the
2 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the 3 employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

4 89. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
5 Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
6 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed
7 by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to minimum wages,
8 straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants'
9 employ.

10 90. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
11 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 12 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

13 91. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
14 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue 15 as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but 16 the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

17 92. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants are 18 entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up
19 to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

20 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 204 and 210)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
24 allegation set forth above

25 94. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages
26 earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar 27 month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 28 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

95. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

96. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period.

97. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members all wages due to them, within any time period permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

98. Plaintiff and other Class Members are entitled to recover all available remedies for Defendant's violations of California Labor Code section 204, including statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 210(b).

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against All Defendants)

99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

100. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

101. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to the failure list the total number of hours worked and the actual gross wages earned.

102. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

103. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

104. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

105. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

107. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

108. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-

1 related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred
2 as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

3 109. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class
4 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover
5 from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of 6 their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary
7 expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

8 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

10 (Against All Defendants)

11 110. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
12 allegation set forth above.

13 111. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful 14 and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors.
15 Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 16 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

17 112. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute 18 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 19 17200, et seq.

20 113. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be 21 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and 22 practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without paying 23 them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally,
24 Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work
25 through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor
26 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay 27 wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

28 114. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197,

1 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

2 115. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully
3 gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

4 116. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business
5 acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or 6 property.

7 117. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
8 and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a
9 period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees
10 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award 11 of costs.

12 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 118. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
16 allegation set forth above.

17 119. Plaintiff brings her eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 18 herself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to 19 the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA").

20 120. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for 21 violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision
22 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
23 Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 24 employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action 25 brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 26 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

27 121. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
28 were committed against her during her time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an "aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

122. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees’ work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

1 j. Failing to pay reporting time wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation
2 of Labor Code §§ 218, 1194 and 1197 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

3 123. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually
4 and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to 5 recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not
6 limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11050, penalties under 7 California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any 8 and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.
9 The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at 10 trial.

11 124. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.
12 On October 21, 2021, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and 13 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
14 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that 15 Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s
16 intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under 17 Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed
18 since the mailing of Plaintiff’s October 21, 2021 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development
19 Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice.
20 Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for herself and other 21 Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

22 125. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to
23 protect her interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed
24 by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to 25 Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

26 126. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor
27 Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor
28 Code §2699.3.

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public
3 similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants,
4 jointly and severally, as follows:

5 Class Certification

- 6 1. That this action be certified as a class action;
7 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class;
8 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and 9 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most current/last 10 known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

11 As to the First Cause of Action

- 12 5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
13 Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime
14 wages due to Plaintiff and other Class Members;
15 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages
16 as may be appropriate;
17 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the 18 date such amounts were due;
19 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California
20 Labor Code section 1194; and
21 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

22 As to the Second Cause of Action

- 23 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
24 Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal
25 periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the Class;
26 11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each 27 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided;
28 12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiff and the Class;

18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;

19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

and

22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the Class;

24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

25. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiff and the Class in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

27. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

28. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay Plaintiff and the other class members reporting time wages due to them;

31. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

32. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiff and the other class members in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

34. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

35. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

36. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

37. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and other Class Members no longer employed by Defendants;

38. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

39. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiff and other Class Members who have left Defendants' employ;

40. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

41. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

42. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time required by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiff and the Class;

43. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 210;

44. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

45. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the Class, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

46. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

47. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e); and

48. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

49. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802;

50. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

51. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

52. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

53. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Tenth Cause of Action

54.
