PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

*[Filed concurrently with: Declaration of Justin F. Marquez, Declaration of Evelin
Reyes, and Proposed Order]*

FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

Date: April 26, 2023

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Dept: 11

1 TO THE COURT AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 26, 2023, at 9:00 a.m., in Department 11 of the 3 Los Angeles County Superior Court, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, 4 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court 3.769 et seq., Plaintiff 5 Carmela Reyes (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting final 6 approval of the proposed class action settlement between Plaintiff and Defendants Everytable, PBC 7 and Harvest Fresh Foods, PBC (“Defendants”). Plaintiff further moves the Court for an Order:

- 8 1. Certifying a Class for settlement purposes;
- 9 2. Approving the settlement as fair and reasonable and finding that class members were 10 given notice of the settlement, and advised of their right to participate in the 11 settlement, object to the settlement, or exclude themselves from the settlement, in a 12 reasonable manner;
- 13 3. Appointing Plaintiff as Class Representative for settlement purposes;
- 14 4. Appointing Plaintiff’s Counsel, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC, as Class Counsel for 15 settlement purposes;
- 16 5. Approving payment of administrative expenses to Simpluris as the Settlement 17 Administrator in the amount of $9,995.00;
- 18 6. Approving payment of $247,333.33 in attorney’s fees, which is 33 1/3% of the 19 Maximum Settlement Amount, and costs in the amount of $16,855.11 for litigating 20 this action to Class Counsel;
- 21 7. Approving the payment to the California Labor Workforce Development Agency in 22 the amount of $7,500.00;
- 23 8. Directing that the clerk of the Court enter the Court’s order as a final judgment; and,
- 24 9. Without affecting the finality of the final judgment, reserving continuing jurisdiction 25 over the parties for the purposes of implementing, enforcing and/or administering the 26 Settlement or enforcing the terms of the judgment.

27 The motion will be based upon this notice, the attached memorandum of points and 28 authorities, the Declarations of Justin F. Marquez and Evelin Reyes filed concurrently herewith,

1 the records and files in this action, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may 2 properly receive at or before the hearing.

3 Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Carmela Reyes (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $742,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendants Everytable, PBC and Harvest Fresh Foods, PBC (“Defendants”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 830<sup>1</sup> class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law.

The proposed settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. A presumption of fairness exists as the Settlement was reached through extensive, mediated arm’s-length negotiations, sufficient investigation and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently, and Class Counsel is experienced in similar wage-and-hour litigation. Upon the Court’s approval of the settlement, participating class members will receive an average individual net settlement payment of approximately $538.76, with the highest individual net settlement payment to be paid of approximately $4,054.12. (Declaration of Evelin Reyes Regarding Notice Administration [“Reyes Decl.”], ¶ 12.) The deadline to opt-out or object to the settlement was March 3, 2023; as of filing this Motion, there were only two requests for exclusion and zero objections to the settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 13, 14.) Thus, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members.

Plaintiff’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of $247,333.33, reimbursement of attorney costs and expenses in the amount of up to $20,000.00, an incentive award for Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000.00, Settlement Administration Costs of $9,995.00; and payment to the California Labor Workforce Development Agency “LWDA”) in the amount of $7,500.00 are also reasonable and thus should be approved by the Court.

<sup>1</sup> In Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff indicated that there were approximately 772 class members at that time based on the initial information provided by Defendant for the class period. In the final class mailing list provided to the Settlement Administrator by Defendant, the list states that there are 830 class members in the class period. (Reyes Decl., ¶ 6.)

1 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval of the 2 Settlement.

3 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

4 A. Plaintiff's Claims

5 This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") (Cal. Lab.
6 Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked in 7 California as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for Defendants during the class period.
8 Defendants specialize in the meal preparation and subscription industry and serve customers in 9 southern California, including in Los Angeles County. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in 10 Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement ["Marquez Decl."], 11 ¶ 2.)

12 Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 13 resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to pay for all 14 hours worked off-the-clock by the putative class members. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendants 15 failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and failed to provide 16 its employees with their earned meal period and rest period premiums. In addition, Plaintiff 17 alleges that Defendants failed to reimburse its employees for all necessary business-related 18 expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts claims against Defendants for failure to 19 pay minimum and straight time wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal 20 periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay all final wages at 21 termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, unfair business practices, and 22 civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

23 On September 30, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint 24 against Defendants for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay 25 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest 26 periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate 27 itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) violation 28 of California's Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200,

1 et seq. (Id. at ¶ 4.) In addition, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action
2 Complaint on August 22, 2022, which added a cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA, 3 for which Plaintiff had previously provided notice to Defendants and the California Labor &
4 Workforce Development Agency on October 1, 2021. (Id.)

5 B. Discovery and Investigation

6 Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information 7 before mediating this action. Defendants produced timekeeping and payroll records for the 8 putative class members. Defendants also provided documents of their wage and hour policies 9 and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and 10 former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

11 After reviewing the documents regarding Defendants' wage and hour policies and 12 practices and analyzing Defendants' timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able 13 to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendants' 14 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 15 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel 16 reviewed these records and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation.
17 (Id.)

18 C. Settlement Negotiations, Preliminary Approval, and Class Size.

19 On March 23, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 20 action mediator, Lisa Klerman, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom. The 21 settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 22 were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 23 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial 24 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

25 After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 26 Plaintiff's claims and Defendants' defenses, the Parties were able to reach a resolution, the 27 material terms of which were encompassed within an initial settlement agreement that was 28 subsequently modified pursuant to the Court's request. (Id. at ¶ 8; Ex. 1 [Amended Joint

1 Stipulation of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and Release (“Settlement” or “Settlement 2 Agreement”)].) The Court ultimately granted preliminary approval on December 1, 2022. (Id.
3 at ¶ 8.)

4 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 5 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 6 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 7 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 8 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendants both to certification and 9 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 12.) Indeed, because of the 10 proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the 11 risk of an unfavorable judgment.

12 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

13 Under the Settlement, Defendants will pay $742,000.00 to resolve this Litigation. This 14 amount is all-inclusive. The Settlement’s key terms include:

15 1. Settlement Class: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification 16 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “[A]ll persons who 17 worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the time 18 period of April 5, 2017 through May 22, 2022.” (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.1.)

19 2. Settlement Period: The Settlement Period means the period from April 5, 2017
20 through May 22, 2022. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.3.)

21 3. Participating Class Members: Participating Class Members means all Class 22 Members who do not submit a valid and timely request to exclude themselves from the Settlement.
23 (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.24.)

24 4. PAGA Members: PAGA Members means all Class Members, as that term is defined 25 in the Settlement Agreement, who worked for Defendants from April 5, 2020 through May 22,
26 2022. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.20.)

27 5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $742,000.00, for all claims, including 28 wages, interest, the Class Counsel Award, Litigation costs, Settlement Administration Costs,

1 payment to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for the alleged PAGA 2 penalties, all other penalties, and the Class Representative Service Award. (Settlement, § VI, subd.
3 1.9.)

4 6. Uncashed Checks & Cy Pres: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement 5 Administrator as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a 6 valid mailing address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall 7 mail the check to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after 8 one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be deemed unpaid residue pursuant Code of Civil 9 Procedure Section 384(a). Unpaid residue (uncashed or returned checks) will be paid to Legal Aid 10 at Work. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 2.8.)

11 7. Release as to All Settlement Class Members: The class release is limited to “all 12 claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action against the Released Parties [as defined in 13 the Settlement Agreement] and any of them, for relief and penalties, that accrued during the Class 14 Period, and as a result of Class Members’ employment by Defendants in California, that arise under 15 any state or local law or state administrative order that was pled based on the facts alleged in the 16 Operative Complaint, including claims of failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, 17 straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit 18 rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure to furnish accurate itemized 19 wage statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and all damages, interest, 20 penalties, attorneys’ fees, costs, and other amounts recoverable under said causes of action under 21 California law, to the extent permissible, including, but not limited to, the California Labor Code 22 and the applicable Wage Orders, including, without limitation, all related claims for restitution and 23 other equitable relief arising from California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., 24 interest on unpaid wages, unpaid wages, attorneys’ fees or litigation costs, and any other related 25 claims and/or penalties. The release does not extend to any claims not alleged in the Operative 26 Class Action Complaint and specifically excludes claims for workers’ compensation, personal 27 injuries, unemployment insurance, state disability compensation, claims under the Employment 28 Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, previously vested benefits under any employer sponsored benefits plan, wrongful termination, discrimination retaliation, and harassment including, but not limited to, those arising under the Age Discrimination In Employment Act, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Title VII of the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, and/or Federal Civil Rights Act of 1991, or any similar state or federal laws, the California Family Rights Act, the Federal Family Medical Leave Act, the California Pregnancy Leave Law, or similar state or federal laws, the Federal Equal Pay Act of 1963, violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 or violations of any other state or federal law, rule or regulation concerning discrimination, retaliation and/or harassment. This release does not include any of the claims encompassed within the Released PAGA Claims. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.29, subd. 3.5.1)

8. Release as to All PAGA Members: The PAGA release is limited to “all claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action against the Released Parties [as defined in the Settlement Agreement], and any of them, for civil penalties pursuant to PAGA, that accrued during the PAGA Period, and as a result of PAGA Employees’ employment by Defendants in California, that arise under any state or local law or state administrative order that was pled based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and the Plaintiff’s notice to the LWDA, including claims of failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for expenditures. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.30, subd. 3.5.2.)

9. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $10,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($7,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00) being paid to the PAGA Members. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.21.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 9.)

10. Net Settlement Fund: The “Net Settlement Fund” or “Net Settlement Amount” is the amount that remains and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted: (1) attorneys’ fees and Litigation costs, (2) Administrative Costs, (3) enhancement to the Named Plaintiff, and (4) the penalties recoverable pursuant to the PAGA.

(Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.16.)

11. Distribution Formula: Members of the Settlement Class not opting out will receive a lump sum payment as good and valuable consideration for the waiver and release of claims as set forth in Sections II.D(7) and (8), above, in an amount determined by the Settlement Administrator in accordance with the provisions as outlined in Section VI, subdivision 2.6 of the Settlement Agreement.

12. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be allocated as 25% wages and 75% penalties/interest. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 2.5.)

13. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $10,000.00. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 2.4.) This amount is for Plaintiff's time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 3.5.3.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 1.16.)

14. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendants will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($247,333.33) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $20,000.00, subject to Court approval at the Final Approval. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 2.4.) At this time, Class Counsel's costs are approximately $16,555.11. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 27.)

15. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice set forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Reyes Decl., Ex. A.) The Notice also included an opt-out form that class members could complete in the event they decide to not participate in the settlement. (Id.) Class Members were notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § VI, subd. 3.2.) Simpluris, the Settlement Administrator, undertook its best efforts to ensure that the notice was provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a skip trace when needed and re-mailing

1 the notice to updated addresses. (Reyes Decl., ¶¶ 8-9.)

2 E. Class Notice and Settlement Administration.

3 This Court granted preliminary approval on December 1, 2022. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 11.)
4 Notices explaining class member rights were mailed out to all 830 class members in the mailing 5 list provided by Defendant. (Reyes Decl., ¶ 8.) To date, 27 notice packets remain undeliverable 6 after remailing attempts were made. (Id. at ¶ 9.) There were two requests for exclusion and 7 zero objections to the settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 13, 14.)

8 III. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

9 The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex 10 cases. (See e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of California (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277-81.) Factors 11 to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the 12 risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class 13 action status through proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 14 government participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” (Kullar 15 v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) A presumption that a settlement is 16 fair and reasonable exists where, as here, the following four factors are present: “(1) the settlement 17 is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 18 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) 19 the percentage of objectors is small.” (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 20 224, 245.)

21 Whether a class action settlement should be approved is a question committed to the trial 22 court’s broad discretion. (Id. at pp. 234-35.) In exercising its discretion, the Court should give 23 “[d]ue regard ...to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” (Dunk 24 v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) “The inquiry ‘must be limited to the extent 25 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 26 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 27 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

1           A.     The Settlement Reflects a Reasonable Compromise.

2           A settlement is not judged against what the plaintiff might recover had she prevailed at 3 trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
4 (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at pp. 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the 5 settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower 6 than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement 7 because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side 8 gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

9           The settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 10 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 12.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of 11 their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.) Plaintiff also 12 recognizes that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, 13 time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Furthermore, even if Plaintiff obtained 14 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial 15 and possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the class. (Id.)

16           Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief 17 and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the 18 uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish 19 liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of 20 $742,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is 21 appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net 22 benefit of approximately $538.76, and the highest estimated net payout is expected to be 23 approximately $4,054.12. (Reyes Decl., ¶ 12.)

24           B.     The Settlement was Reached After Arms-Length Negotiations Following 25 Informal Discovery.

26           The Settlement was reached over the course of a full-day mediation with experienced 27 employment mediator, Lisa Klerman, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.) The settlement negotiations were 28 at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The

1 parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but 2 each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement 3 had not been reached. (Id.)

4 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 5 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as class member timekeeping and payroll records, 6 Defendants' policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of meal and 7 rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well as 8 information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus former 9 employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages paid 10 to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 11 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 12 Litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and her counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 13 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

14 C. Plaintiff's Counsel Has Substantial Class Action Experience.

15 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 16 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 28-40.) Class Counsel has substantial experience 17 in all facets of litigation in state and federal court, including discovery, law and motion, trial, 18 appeals, arbitration and mediation. Class Counsel has litigated numerous class actions on behalf 19 of plaintiffs and have been lead counsel or otherwise exercised significant case handling 20 responsibilities in numerous cases resulting in millions of dollars in class action settlements. (Id.)

21 Based on Class Counsel's experience as employment and class action attorneys, Class 22 Counsel is eminently qualified to evaluate the strength of Plaintiff's claims, the strength of 23 Defendants' defenses against certification, the strength of Defendants' defenses on the merits, and 24 the fairness of the Settlement. Their opinion that final approval of the Settlement would be in the 25 best interests of class members in light of the significant risks of litigation is entitled to great 26 weight. (See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 129 ["The court undoubtedly should give 27 considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel and the involvement of a neutral 28 mediator in assuring itself that a settlement agreement represents an arms' length transaction entered without self-dealing or other potential misconduct”].)

D. There Are No Objections to the Settlement.

No class member has objected to the Settlement, and only two class members (representing only 0.2% of the class) have requested exclusion from the Settlement. (Reyes Decl., ¶¶ 13, 14.) The overwhelmingly positive response of the class strongly supports final approval of the Settlement. (See, e.g., In re Lifelock, Inc. Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Ariz. 2010) 2010 WL 3715138, *6 [relatively few objections and requests for exclusion support approval].)

Factors to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include “the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 128.) The reaction here has been overwhelmingly positive. Courts have approved class action settlements in lesser circumstances. (See, e.g., Hughes v. Microsoft Corp. (W.D.Wash. 2001) 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5976, 2001 WL 34089697, *8 [court found that the “class members overwhelmingly support[ed] the settlement” where there were over 37,000 notices sent out, 2,745 class members participated in the settlement, “only nine objections were submitted”, and there were 86 timely opt-outs and over 20 additional defective or untimely opt-outs, “these indicia of the approval of the class of the terms of the settlement support a finding of fairness under Rule 23”], citing Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir.1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 [despite vigorous objections and appeal by objectors, “fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and stayed in the class presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness”, court did not abuse its discretion in approving settlement].)

IV. THE COURT SHOULD AWARD PLAINTIFF THE REQUESTED AMOUNTS OF FEES, COSTS AND AN ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT.

Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant has agreed to pay Class Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees in the amount of $247,333.33, which is 33 1/3% of the Maximum Settlement Amount, and costs up to $20,000.00 for litigating this Action. In addition, Defendants will not oppose an application for the payment of Settlement Administration Costs and a Class Representative Enhancement Award. Settlement Administration Costs are $9,995.00, and Plaintiff will apply for an Enhancement Award in the amount of $10,000.00. The proposed attorneys' fees and expenses, as well as the requested Enhancement Award, were disclosed to the Class Members in the proposed Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement.

"In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether certification of the class was proper, and whether the attorney fee award was proper are matters addressed to the trial court's broad discretion." (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at pp. 234-235.) "Courts recognize two methods for calculating attorney fees in civil class actions: the lodestar/multiplier method and the percentage of recovery method." (Id. at p. 254; Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.)

A. Counsel Requests an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund" Method.

California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 [quoting D'Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal. 3d 1.]

Class Counsel intends to seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common fund" theory. The purpose of the common fund/percentage approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal. 3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share."

The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480 that, "when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class

1 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 2 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 3 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 4 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 5 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 6 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—7 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
8 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

9 Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative “lodestar” approach for 10 deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable 11 time records. Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote: “This 12 court is compelled to ask, ‘Is this process necessary?’ Under a cost-benefit analysis, the answer 13 would be a resounding, ‘No!’” (In re Activision Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp.
14 1373, 1375.) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the 15 interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the 16 litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the 17 demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378-79.) The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the 18 percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g. In 19 re Pacific Enterprises Securities City and County of San Francisco Litigation (9th Cir. 1994) 47 20 F.3d 373, 378-79 [approving attorney’s fee of 33 1/3%].)

21 1. The Standard Fee Award in Class Actions Has Resolved Itself As One- 22 Third Of The Recovery In Common Fund Cases.

23 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 24 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 25 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 26 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 27 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
28 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty

1 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (See Id.; 2 see also, Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating 3 that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under 4 $10 million].)

5 The settled-for 33 1/3% fee award is consistent with the average fee award in class actions.
6 Indeed, the custom and practice in class actions is to award approximately one-third of a fund as a 7 fee award. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies 8 show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 9 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Thus, Plaintiff’s fee request is in line 10 with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is 11 consistent with awards in California. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the 12 attorneys’ fees requested herein.

13 2. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code.

14 Class Counsel is entitled to recover fees under Labor Code § 1194, which provides, in part:
15 [A]ny employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime 16 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.
17 (Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.)

18 As this litigation culminated in a settlement that provided for a recovery of unpaid wages, 19 including unpaid minimum wages and overtime compensation, Plaintiff is entitled to recover 20 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs under the California Labor Code.

21 Class Counsel is also entitled to a fee award under California’s private attorney general 22 statute, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. “The award of attorneys’ fees is proper under Section 23 1021.5 if ‘(1) plaintiffs’ action ‘has resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the 24 public interest,’ (2) ‘a significant benefit, whether pecuniary or nonpecuniary, has been conferred 25 on the general public or a large class of persons’ and (3) ‘the necessity and financial burden of 26 private enforcement are such as to make the award appropriate.’” (Press v. Lucky Stores (1983) 27 34 Cal.3d 311, 317-318.) The fundamental objective of the statute is “to encourage suits enforcing 28 public policies by providing substantial attorneys’ fees to successful litigants in such cases.”

1 (Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 565.)

2 This action resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the public interest, 3 as Plaintiff sought to enforce Settlement Class Members' rights to recover statutory wages arising 4 from Defendants' failure to pay all wages and failure to provide meal and rest breaks. (See Murphy 5 v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1113 [noting that "health and safety 6 concerns" are what motivated the Industrial Wage Commission to adopt mandatory meal and rest 7 periods].)

8 This action also conferred a significant benefit on a large class of persons. Notice was sent 9 to 830 Settlement Class Members, and only two Settlement Class Members requested exclusion.
10 The Settlement provides a significant monetary benefit, in that it permits all persons who worked 11 for Defendants during the applicable class period to obtain compensation for unpaid wages and 12 missed meal and rest periods.

13 Finally, the necessity and financial burden of private enforcement render an award 14 appropriate. Without the incentive of an attorneys' fee award, Plaintiff could not have afforded to 15 hire counsel to pursue this case, as the cost of litigating this matter far outweighed Plaintiff's 16 potential recovery. (See Ryan v. California Interscholastic Federation (2001) 94 Cal.App.4th 17 1033, 1044 ["As to the necessity and financial burden of private enforcement, an award is 18 appropriate where the cost of the legal victory transcends the claimants' personal interest; in other 19 words, where the burden of pursuing the litigation is out of proportion to the plaintiff's individual 20 stake in the matter."].)

21 3. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 22 Fee Award.

23 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 24 and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class action matters.
25 Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in dozens of class actions resulting 26 in a multitude of beneficial results to class members in California. Because it is reasonable to 27 compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, a fee award of 28 33 1/3% of the Maximum Settlement Amount, a percentage considered within the norm in class

1 action practice, is certainly justified here.

2 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 3 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement.
4 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 5 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class
6 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 7 awards amounting to 33 1/3% of the recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is 8 reasonable and fair.

9 B. While the Lodestar Method is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, Courts
10 May Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees.

11 Although California supports the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 12 to cross-check fee awards. "It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can 13 be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to "cross-check" or adjust the lodestar in 14 comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and 15 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation." (In re 16 Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.)

17 Applying the lodestar method requires a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the 18 number of hours reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate. The second step is to apply a 19 multiplier to the lodestar to take into account various factors. "The purpose of such adjustment is 20 to fix a fee at the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, 21 retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal 22 skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate 23 for such services." (Id. at pp. 556-57.) "Under certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may 24 be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis." (Id. at p. 557.)

25 Wilshire Law Firm's current lodestar is at least $130,350 based on approximately 233 hours 26 of work performed by Class Counsel thus far. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 19-20.) Accordingly, the 27 requested fee of $247,333.33 is reasonable and fair as it is based on a multiplier of 1.9. To be sure, 28 trial courts have substantial discretion in adjusting the lodestar to account for various factors. (See

1 Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26, 39-45; see also Serrano, supra, 2 20 Cal.3d at p. 49.) In addition, it has been held that “[m]ultipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even 3 higher.” (See Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 255; see also Van Vranken, supra, 901 F. Supp. At 4 p. 298 “[m]ultipliers in the 3-4 range are common in lodestar awards for lengthy and complex 5 class action litigation”].)

6 1. Class Counsel’s Rates Have Been Approved by Several Courts.

7 Class Counsel provides a declaration to support their lodestar hourly rates. “Affidavits of 8 the plaintiffs’ attorney and other attorneys regarding prevailing fees in the community, and rate 9 determinations in other cases, particularly those setting a rate for the plaintiffs’ attorney, are 10 satisfactory evidence of the prevailing market rate.” (United Steelworkers of America v. Phelps 11 Dodge Corp. (9th Cir. 1990) 896 F.2d 403, 407.) Class Counsel has received final approval of 12 their hourly rates in other wage and hour class action settlements. These rates are not opposed or 13 challenged.

14 2. The Lawsuit Provided a Public Benefit.

15 Class Counsel’s choice to litigate this matter provided a public benefit to 830 California 16 employees. Moreover, the California Supreme Court stated that “Labor Code section 1194 confirms 17 “a clear public policy ... that is specifically directed at the enforcement of California's minimum wage 18 and overtime laws for the benefit of workers.” [citation omitted].” (Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v.
19 Super. Ct. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 340.) Given the financial risks and numerous attorney hours 20 attendant to the litigation of Plaintiff’s claims, this factor supports Class Counsel’s fee request and 21 encourages the private enforcement of legal rights for the general good.

22 3. Applying a Positive Multiplier Is Appropriate.

23 Once this lodestar figure has been determined, the Court may take into account other 24 “enhancement” factors to adjust the lodestar award. While Plaintiff seeks a modest multiplier 25 of 1.9 here, the overall reasonableness of Plaintiff’s request is underscored by the fact that a 26 significantly higher multiplier would be justified under applicable law.

27 Contingency fees should be higher than fees for the same legal services paid concurrently 28 with the provision of the services. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33.) “A 1 lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the 2 fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid 3 no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.” (Id. at p. 1133.)

4 Application of that rule is particularly appropriate where the case is brought to redress important 5 rights of vulnerable persons. (Id.) A risk enhancement is “earned compensation; unlike a 6 windfall, it is neither unexpected nor fortuitous. Rather it is intended to approximate market-7 level compensation for such services which typically pay a premium for the risk of nonpayment 8 or delay in payment of attorney’s fees.” (Id. at p. 1138.)

9 “Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 10 p. 255; see also Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal. App. 4th 495, 512
11 [applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class action]; Chavez, supra, 162 12 Cal. App. 4th at p. 60 [applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check]; Vizcaino v. Microsoft
13 Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 [“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier 14 of 1.0-4.0]; Been v. O.K. Industries Inc. (E.D. Okla. 2011) 2011 WL 4478766, *11 [citing a 15 study “reporting [an] average multiplier of 3.89 in survey of 1,120 class action cases” and 16 finding that a multiplier of 2.43 would be “per se reasonable”].) The intermediate court in 17 Laffitte, after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check, 18 affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l (2014) 231 Cal. App. 4th 860, 881-82.)
19 The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full by the California Supreme Court in its new 20 decision guiding lower courts on assessing fees.

21 Factors considered in determining whether a lodestar multiplier is appropriate generally 22 include: (1) the risks presented by the contingent nature of the case; (2) the novelty and difficulty 23 of the questions involved and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (3) the 24 nature of the opposition; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to 25 acceptance of the case; and (5) the result obtained and the importance of the lawsuit to the 26 public. (Serrano, supra, 20 Cal. 3d at pp. 48-49.) All of these factors favor approval of a 27 multiplier along the lines of those approved in the cases above.

28 The major consideration in determining the necessity of a multiplier is the contingent nature

1 of the award. (Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132-33.) Further, the possibility of no recovery 2 is only one of the uncertainties involved in taking on such a case. Other uncertainties are the 3 amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost, both in effort and expenses, and 4 uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. (Id. at pp. 1132-1133, 5 1138.) Here, Class Counsel have been the only counsel to represent Class Members in this matter
6 and have borne the entire risk and costs of litigation purely on a contingency basis. Class Counsel's 7 outlay of time and money in this case has been significant.

8 The other factors are also present here. Class Counsel are skilled attorneys who have 9 had success in wage-and-hour class actions. This case required experienced and competent 10 lawyers and expertise in the issues presented herein. Defendant's contentions underscore the 11 risk of prevailing at class certification and trial, and any of these obstacles could have prevented 12 recovery completely. Further, proceeding to trial would have added years to the resolution of 13 this case because of the difficult legal and factual issues raised and the likelihood of appeals.
14 Despite these risks, Class Counsel took this case on a contingency basis. Yet, there are only so 15 many cases that Class Counsel can take at any one time. Consequently, there were other 16 meritorious cases presented to Class Counsel that would have generated substantial fees, but 17 were declined, during the pendency of this action in order to devote the attention necessary to 18 achieve favorable results. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 25.) Considered against the risks of continued 19 litigation, and the importance of the employment rights and a speedy recovery, the relief 20 provided under the Settlement represents a very strong result for the Class.

21 C. Costs Are Reasonable.

22 As of the date of filing this Motion, Class Counsel has incurred around $16,555.11 in costs, 23 and they anticipate incurring at least $300.00 in additional costs up to the time the Court enters a 24 judgment in this action and schedules a hearing on distribution. (Id. at ¶¶ 10, 27, Ex. 2.)
25 Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests reimbursement of up to $16,855.11 in costs.
26 Notably, Defendant has agreed that it will not oppose any cost award request up to $20,000.00.
27 The categories of costs are set forth in the accompanying Declaration of Justin Marquez, and these 28 costs are easily seen to be both reasonable and necessary.

1           D.     The Enhancement Payment to the Plaintiff Is Reasonable.

2           Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 3     compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 4     members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 5     of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 6     are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 7     class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
8     2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.) The California Supreme Court has also noted that “retaliation against 9     employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-10    retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 11    460-61.) Plaintiffs should therefore be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake
12    of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

13          Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 14    a Service Award in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. (Settlement, § XV.) This amount is 15    also in exchange for Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendant. Plaintiff has 16    submitted a declaration demonstrating that she devoted at least 40 hours of time and work assisting 17    counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for 18    mediation. (See, generally, Declaration of Plaintiff Carmela Reyes filed in Support of Plaintiff’s 19    Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement; see also Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 13-17.)

20          When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 21    requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 22    award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 23    representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 24    Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 25    53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).)

26           E.     Administration Expenses Should be Approved.

27          Simpluris, the Settlement Administrator, estimates that it will incur a total of $9,995.00 in 28    costs associated with the administration of this Settlement. (Reyes Decl., ¶ 16.) These expenses

1 are reasonable, based upon the size of the class, claim and exclusion tracking, and Class Member 2 payment processing.

3 V. CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval 5 of the proposed settlement.

6 Respectfully submitted,
