3 under Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, §2699, et seq. (hereafter “PAGA”),
4 complains of Defendant TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS TECHNOLOGIES
5 CORPORATION (“Defendant”) and each of them, as follows:

6 I.

7 INTRODUCTION

8 1. This is a Class and Representative Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §
9 382 and Labor Code §2699, et seq., on behalf of Plaintiff and a Proposed Class defined as:

10 All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-
11 exempt employee by TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS
12 TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION, in the State of California
13 since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present 14 plus any additional time during which the statutes of limitation for the causes of action herein were tolled pursuant to Emergency Rule
9 of the California Rules of Court, the ‘Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19’. (“Proposed Class”)

15 2. Any limitations period referenced in this complaint is extended pursuant to 16 Emergency Rule 9 (a) of the “Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19,” Appendix I to the 17 California Rules of Court, adopted effective April 6, 2020, which provides that the statutes of 18 limitation that exceed 180 days for civil actions are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020
19 [“Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action 20 that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020.”] Any reference to the 21 relevant time period or statute of limitations referenced in this complaint is extended into the past 22 by the number of days in which this tolling was in effect.

23 3. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 24 present, Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of their rights associated with 25 meal periods and failed to provide timely and compliant meal periods. Further, Defendant failed
26 to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees’ regular rate of compensation for each 27 workday that the first meal period was not provided within the first (5) hours of the shift.
28 Defendant has had a consistent policy of paying meal period premiums at the base rate and not the

1 blended rate in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

2 4. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 3 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay vested vacation wages to all 4 members of the Proposed Class. Defendant violated the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and the 5 members of the Proposed Class for their fully vested vacation at the time of their separation from 6 the company in violation of Labor Code §§ 227.3 and 510.

7 5. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
8 Defendant has failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are
9 furnished wage statements in violation of Labor Code §226(a)(2) that do not accurately show total
10 hours worked by the employee and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and
11 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee in violation of 12 Labor Code §226(a)(9). Further, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements that
13 do not include premiums as a result of the claims alleged above and when they do, they are not
14 accurate rate. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements in 15 violation of Labor Code §226(a)(8) that do not show the name and address of the legal entity that
16 is the employer.

17 6. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
18 Defendant has failed to pay all wages due at the time of termination or resignation to Plaintiff and 19 the Proposed Class.

20 7. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all Proposed Class Members brings this action
21 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, and 512; Wage Order 1-2001; and 22 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11010, seeking meal period penalties, vested 23 vacation wages, accurate itemized wage statements, other penalties, injunctive and other equitable 24 relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

25 8. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all Proposed Class Members, pursuant to 26 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, also seeks injunctive relief, restitution, and 27 disgorgement of all benefits Defendant enjoyed from its unlawful conduct as described herein.

28 9. For at least one (1) year prior to the date of the letter sent to the Labor Workforce

1 and Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant giving notice of the claims pursuant to 2 PAGA and continuing to the present, and as extended by Emergency Rule 9 referenced in 3 paragraph 2 above, Defendant has violated Labor Code provisions, as detailed below, giving rise
4 to a claim pursuant to PAGA. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all aggrieved employees presently
5 or formerly employed by Defendant during the liability period as defined in his PAGA notice
6 letter, brings this representative action pursuant to Labor Code §2699, et seq. seeking penalties for 7 Defendant’s violation of Labor Code Sections 201-203, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, and 512. A true and 8 correct copy of Plaintiff’s notice letter is attached hereto as Exhibit “1”.

9 II.

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein
12 pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the California Constitution and California Code of Civil Procedure
13 § 410.10 by virtue of the fact that this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive 14 of interest, exceeds $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the 15 State of California or is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

16 11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant has caused 17 injuries in the County of Los Angeles and the State of California through their acts, and by their 18 violation of the California Labor Code, California state common law, and California Business &
19 Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

20 12. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of 21 Civil Procedure § 395. Defendant operates within California and does business within Los 22 Angeles County. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all Proposed 23 Class Members within the State of California and the county of Los Angeles.

24 13. This case should be classified as complex according to Rule 3.400 of the California
25 Rules of Court, and assigned to a complex litigation judge and department, as it will involve 26 substantial documentary evidence, a large number of witnesses, and is likely to involve extensive 27 motion practice raising difficult or novel issues that will be time-consuming to resolve and would 28 require substantial post judgment judicial supervision.

14. Plaintiff files this amended complaint adding a claim for penalties under Labor Code §2699, et seq. as a matter of right. (see Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(C).)

III.

PARTIES

A. PLAINTIFF

15. Plaintiff NICK VASQUEZ is a resident of California.

16. Plaintiff and all Proposed Class Members, were regularly required to:

a. Work without being provided compliant meal periods or meal period premiums in lieu thereof;

b. Work without being paid for all vested vacation hours; and

c. Work without being furnished accurate itemized wage statements in writing that comply with Labor Code §226(a).

17. Defendant willfully failed to compensate Plaintiff and all Proposed Class Members for wages at the termination of their employment with Defendant.

18. As a result of this conduct, Defendant has engaged in unfair competition and unlawful business practices.

19. Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees as defined in his notice letter to the LWDA are “aggrieved employees” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699, et seq. (see Labor Code §2699(c).)

B. DEFENDANTS

20. Defendant TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION is believed to be a California corporation operating within the State of California. Defendant’s corporate address is believed to be 1211 Old Albany Road, Thomasville, GA 31792. Upon information and belief, Defendant employed Plaintiff and similarly situated persons as hourly employees within California. Defendant has done and does business throughout the State of California.

21. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to

1 Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure
2 § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants
3 designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred 4 to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and 5 capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

6 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant
7 acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint 8 scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are 9 legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the 10 employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class Members.

11 23. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers 12 of the Proposed Class. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or 13 working conditions of the Proposed Class, or suffered or permitted the Proposed Class to work, or 14 engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with the Proposed Class.
15 Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed the Proposed Class.

16 IV.

17 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18 24. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are, and at all times pertinent hereto, have been 19 classified as non-exempt employees by Defendant. Defendant hires employees who work as 20 hourly employees who are paid on an hourly basis.

21 25. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are covered by 22 California Industrial Welfare Commission Occupational Wage Order No. 1-2001 (Title 8 Cal.
23 Code of Regs. § 11010).

24 26. Defendant failed to inform Plaintiff and the members of the Proposed Class of their 25 right to take compliant meal periods by way of a lawful policy. In addition, Defendant failed to 26 provide Plaintiff and all Proposed Class members with timely and compliant thirty (30) minute 27 uninterrupted meal breaks within the first five (5) hours of work or one (1) hour of pay at their 28 regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided or provided

1 after five (5) hours, all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and Industrial Welfare
2 Commission Wage Orders. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class were not compensated with one (1)
3 hour of wages at the regular rate of compensation for each missed meal period as required.
4 Defendant has had a consistent policy of paying meal period premiums at the base rate and not the
5 blended rate in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

6 27. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
7 Defendant has failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are
8 furnished wage statements in violation of Labor Code §226(a)(2) that do not accurately show total
9 hours worked by the employee and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and
10 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee in violation of 11 Labor Code §226(a)(9). Further, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements that
12 do not include premiums as a result of the claims alleged above and when they do, they are not
13 accurate rate. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements in
14 violation of Labor Code §226(a)(8) that do not show the name and address of the legal entity that
15 is the employer.

16 28. On a regular and consistent basis, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class members were 17 not paid their fully vested vacation wages at the time of their separation from the company.

18 29. Defendant willfully failed to pay wages and compensation, when Plaintiff and all 19 Proposed Class Members quit or were discharged. This failure was willful, without legal 20 justification, and interfered with Plaintiff's and Class Members' rights.

21 30. As a result of the acts alleged herein, Defendant violated Labor Code §2699, et seq.

22 V.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 31. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as 25 a Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff seeks to represent a 26 proposed class composed of and defined as follows:

27 All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-
28 exempt employee by TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS
TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION, in the State of California

1 since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present
2 plus any additional time during which the statutes of limitation for
3 the causes of action herein were tolled pursuant to Emergency Rule
4 9 of the California Rules of Court, the 'Emergency Rules Related to
5 COVID-19'. ("Proposed Class")

6 32. Plaintiff reserves the right under Rule 3.765(b) of the California Rules of Court to 7 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, by division into subclasses, or by 8 limitation to particular issues.

9 33. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
10 under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a well-defined
11 community of interest in the litigation and the Proposed Classes are easily ascertainable.

12 A. NUMEROSITY

13 34. The potential members of the Proposed Class as defined are so numerous that 14 joinder of all the members of the Proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of 15 proposed Class Members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes
16 that Defendant currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed over 50 members 17 of the Proposed Class.

18 35. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's employment records would provide information 19 as to the number and location of all Proposed Class Members. Joinder of all members of the 20 Proposed Class is not practicable.

21 B. COMMONALITY

22 36. There are questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class that predominate
23 over any questions affecting only individual Proposed Class Members. These common questions
24 of law and fact include, without limitation:

25 a. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and IWC Wage
26 Order 1-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders by failing to provide required meal periods 27 throughout the term of employment and/or failing to compensate said employees one (1) hour of 28 wages at their regular rate of compensation in lieu of meal periods;

b. Whether Defendant failed to pay vested vacation wages to Plaintiff and the Proposed Class in violation of Labor Code §§ 227.3 and 510;

1 c. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 226(a) by failing to provide
2 accurate itemized wage statements that show the total hours worked by the employee, all 3 applicable rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 4 each hourly rate by the employee, meal period premiums, and show the name and address of the 5 legal entity that is the employer;

6 d. Whether Defendant violated §§ 201-203 of the Labor Code by failing to pay
7 compensation due and owing at the time that any Proposed Class Member's employment with 8 Defendant terminated;

9 e. Whether Defendant violated § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions
10 Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged; and 11 f. Whether Plaintiff and the members of the Proposed Class are entitled to 12 equitable relief pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

13 g. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 2699, et seq. by engaging in the 14 acts alleged herein.

15 C. TYPICALITY

16 37. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Proposed Class. Plaintiff and 17 all members of the Proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by 18 Defendant's common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and 19 effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

20 D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

21 38. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the 22 members of the proposed Class.

23 39. Counsel who represent Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are competent and 24 experienced in litigating large employment class actions.

25 E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

26 40. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
27 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Proposed Class Members is not 28 practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class predominate over any

1 questions affecting only individual members of the Proposed Class. Each member of the Proposed
2 Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's illegal policy and/or 3 practice of failing to provide meal periods, failing to pay vested vacation wages, failing to provide 4 accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay all wages upon resignation or termination.

5 41. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their 6 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
7 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this 8 action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

9 VI.

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

12 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS PURSUANT TO

13 LABOR CODE § 226.7 AND LABOR CODE § 512

14 42. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
15 by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 43. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 require an employer to pay an additional hour of 17 compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a first 18 meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over five (5) hours, to be provided within the 19 first five (5) hours of the shift.

20 44. Defendant failed to maintain a policy informing Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of 21 these rights.

22 45. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class consistently worked shifts over five (5) hours.
23 Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the Proposed Class with timely, uninterrupted meal 24 periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes within the first five hours of work as required by the 25 Labor Code during the relevant time period.

26 46. Defendant also has had a consistent policy of failing to pay Plaintiff and the 27 Proposed Class one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each
28 workday that the first meal period was not provided within the first (5) hours of the shift. On July

1 15, 2021, in Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC, the California Supreme Court set forth the 2 formula for calculating the one extra hour of premium pay that employees are owed if an employer
3 fails to provide a compliant meal period or rest break. Specifically, the Court held that those 4 premium payments must include the hourly value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as a 5 nondiscretionary bonuses), and cannot simply be paid at an employee's base hourly rate. Here,
6 when meal period premiums are provided, Defendant has had a consistent policy of paying meal
7 period premiums at the base rate and not the appropriate blended rate that includes all shift
8 differentials (or other non-discretionary compensation) in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

9 47. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are entitled to 10 damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at the regular rate of compensation per 11 missed meal break, per day in a sum to be proven at trial.

12 VII.

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

14 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

15 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES UNDER LABOR CODE §§ 227.3 AND 510

16 48. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
17 by reference all previous paragraphs.

18 49. Labor Code §227.3 provides: "...whenever a contract of employment or employer 19 policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his 20 vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance 21 with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served..."

22 50. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and all members of the Proposed Class for their 23 vested vacation at the time of their separation from the company.

24 51. As a result of this unlawful policy, Defendant does not pay all wages owed at the 25 appropriate rate to Plaintiff and all members of the Proposed Class in violation of Labor Code
26 §510. Labor Code § 510(a) states that eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work and any work
27 in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday and any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one
28 workweek must be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate

1 of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one day shall be compensated
2 at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class were 3 forced to work on a regular and consistent basis without receiving compensation for all hours.

4 52. By this common practice and policy, Defendant willfully violated California law.

5 53. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiff and the members of the 6 Proposed Class have been deprived of wages and/or overtime in amounts to be determined at trial,
7 and are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees,
8 and costs.

9 VIII.

10 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

12 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(A)

13 54. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
14 by reference all previous paragraphs.

15 55. Labor Code §226(a) requires employers to furnish accurate itemized wage
16 statements in writing that show the total hours worked by the employee and all applicable hourly
17 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly
18 rate by the employee. (Labor Code §§ 226(a)(2) and (9) respectively.) Defendant issues Plaintiff
19 and the Proposed Class Members itemized wage statements that do not accurately show total hours
20 worked or all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number 21 of hours worked at each hourly rate.

22 56. Further, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements that do not 23 include premiums as a result of the claims alleged above and when they do, they are not at the 24 accurate rate.

25 57. Labor Code §226(a)(8) requires that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the 26 time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage
27 statement in writing showing the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer. Plaintiff 28 and the Proposed Class are issued wage statements that do not show the name and address of the

1 legal entity that is the employer.

2 58. Defendant's failure to provide accurate itemized wages statements according to 3 Labor Code § 226(a) was all done on a regular and consistent basis.

4 59. An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an 5 employer to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual 6 damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred 7 dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an 8 aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and 9 reasonable attorneys' fees.

10 IX.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

13 WAITING TIME PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE § 203

14 60. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
15 by reference all previous paragraphs.

16 61. Numerous members of the Proposed Class including the Plaintiff are no longer
17 employed by Defendant. They were either fired or quit Defendant's employ.

18 62. Defendant's failure to pay wages, as alleged above was willful in that Defendant
19 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them, thus entitling Plaintiff and the Proposed Class to 20 penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue as a 21 penalty until paid for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the time they were due.

22 63. Defendant has failed to pay Plaintiff and others a sum certain at the time of 23 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those 24 sums for thirty (30) days thereafter. Pursuant to the provisions of Labor Code § 203, Plaintiff and 25 the Proposed Class are entitled to a penalty in the amount of Plaintiff's and the Proposed Class
26 Members' daily wage multiplied by thirty (30) days.

27 X.

28 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

1 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

2 UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

3 64. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
4 by reference all previous paragraphs.

5 65. This is a Class Action for Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself,
6 on behalf of the general public, and on behalf of the Proposed Class, bring this claim pursuant to 7 Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of Defendant as alleged in this
8 Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, the general
9 public, and the Proposed Class. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public
10 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

11 66. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code § 17204,
12 and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive relief, restitution, and other 13 appropriate equitable relief.

14 67. Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair business 15 practices.

16 68. California’s wage and hour laws express fundamental public policies. Providing 17 employees with proper wages and compensation are fundamental public policies of this State and 18 of the United States. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State to enforce 19 vigorously minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 20 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 21 employees from competitors who lower their costs by failing to comply with minimum labor 22 standards.

23 69. Defendant has violated statutes and public policies as alleged herein. Through the 24 conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendant has acted contrary to these public policies, have 25 violated specific provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair
26 business practices in violation of Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq., depriving Plaintiff,

Re: NICK VASQUEZ v. TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION
California Labor Code § 2699 Penalties

Gentlepersons:

This office represents NICK VASQUEZ (“Plaintiff”) and a proposed group of current and former employees working for TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION (“Defendant”) in the State of California. The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698, et. seq. We herein set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to bring a representative action on behalf of himself and the State of California as well as on behalf of a group of aggrieved employees defined as: All persons who are employed or have been employed as a non-exempt employee by TURBINE ENGINE COMPONENTS TECHNOLOGIES CORPORATION, in the State of California who worked one or more pay periods since one (1) year prior to the date of this letter and continuing to the present plus any additional time during which the statutes of limitation for the causes of action herein were tolled pursuant to Emergency Rule 9 of the California Rules of Court, the ‘Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19’. (“aggrieved employees”).

Any limitations period referenced in this letter is extended pursuant to Emergency Rule 9 (a) of the “Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19,” Appendix I to the California Rules of Court,

LABOR & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

California Labor Code §2699 Penalties

November 19, 2021

adopted effective April 6, 2020, which provides that the statutes of limitation that exceed 180 days for civil actions are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020 [“Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.”] Any reference to the relevant time period or statute of limitations referenced in this letter is extended into the past by the number of days in which this tolling was in effect.

Defendant has engaged in practices that violate Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 with respect to Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 require an employer to pay an additional hour of compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a first meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over five (5) hours, to be provided within the first five (5) hours of the shift. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(c), if an employer fails to provide an employee with a lawful meal period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period was not provided, was not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner.

Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees of their rights associated with meal periods and failed to provide timely and compliant meal periods. In addition, Defendant has had a consistent policy of: (1) failing to provide Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees timely and compliant meal periods of at least 30 minutes in length; and (2) failing to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees’ regular rate of compensation for each workday that the complaint meal period was not provided.

Very recently, on July 15, 2021, in Ferra v. Loews Hollywood Hotel, LLC, the California Supreme Court set forth the formula for calculating the one extra hour of premium pay that employees are owed if an employer fails to provide a compliant meal period or rest break. Specifically, the Court held that those premium payments must include the hourly value of any nondiscretionary earnings (such as such as a shift differentials), and cannot simply be paid at an employee’s base hourly rate. Here, when meal period premiums are provided, Defendant has had a consistent policy of paying meal period premiums at the base rate and not the blended rate that includes all shift differentials (or other non-discretionary compensation) in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

Defendant also engaged in a practice of failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226(a), which requires that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each employee an accurate itemized statement in writing showing a number of specific items, including total hours worked by the employee and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee (See Labor Code §§ 226(a) (2) and (9).) Here, Defendant has failed to furnish Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees with accurate itemized wage statements that include total hours worked by the employee and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. Further, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees are issued wage statements that do not include premiums as a result of the claims alleged above and when they do, they are not at the accurate rate.

Additionally, Labor Code §226(a)(8) requires that every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees are issued wage statements that do not include the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer. Thus, Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee within the meaning of PAGA and Defendant has violated Labor Code §226(a) with respect to Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees.

Labor Code §227.3 provides: "...whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served..." Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees for their vested vacation wages at the time of the employee's separation from the company.

As a result of this unlawful policy, Defendant does not pay all wages owed at the appropriate rate to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees in violation of Labor Code §510. Labor Code § 510(a) states that eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work and any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday and any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one workweek must be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay. Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were forced to work on a regular and consistent basis without receiving compensation for all hours

Labor Code § 203 provides that if "an employer willfully fails to pay...any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days."

Here, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees were not paid all wages due upon their separation from Defendant's employ. As such, Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee and Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees all wages due at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter in violation of Labor Code §203.

We are constrained to move forward with the filing of this complaint alleging causes of action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, and 512 with or without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.
