 UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
 GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
 CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
 2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MARKO ASAULYUK (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MARKO ASAULYUK is an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Defendant GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

7. Defendant GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

8. Defendant GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

9. Defendant EDWARD COLA at all times herein relevant was acting either individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendant GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS, LLC, and GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC, who caused and continues to cause all of the wage and hour violations alleged herein against the aggrieved employees, including without limitation violations of Labor Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

10. Defendant STEVEN LEVAN at all times herein relevant was acting either individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendant GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS, LLC, and GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC, who caused and continues to cause all of the wage and hour violations alleged herein against the aggrieved employees, including without limitation violations of Labor Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

11. At all relevant times, GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

12. At all times herein relevant, GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC, EDWARD COLA, STEVEN LEVAN, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed

1 with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of
2 each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

3 13. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 4 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues
5 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on 6 that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
7 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
8 caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek 9 leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same
10 have been ascertained.

11 14. GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS,
12 LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC, EDWARD COLA, STEVEN LEVAN,
13 and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

14 15. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants
15 identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
16 wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
17 employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the 18 statutory provisions set forth herein.

19 PAGA ALLEGATIONS

20 16. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment
21 by Defendants.

22 17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 23 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 24 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
25 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other
26 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code
27 section 2699.3.

28 ///

1 18. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an
2 “aggrieved employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and 3 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

4 19. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was 5 committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved
6 employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by 7 California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of 8 Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

9 20. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
10 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 11 following requirements have been met:

- 12 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
13 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce
14 Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified
15 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
16 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 17 support the alleged violations.
- 18 b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 19 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not 20 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar 21 days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of 22 the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within
23 sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s
24 Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant 25 to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in 26 addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

27 21. On November 3, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission
28 to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants GROUNDWORK COFFEE, LLC,

GROUNDWORK COFFEE HOLDINGS, LLC, GROUNDWORK COFFEE ROASTERS, LLC, EDWARD COLA, and STEVEN LEVAN of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff's notice.

22. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

28. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

30. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

1 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
2 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

3 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 5 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 6 minimum wages for all hours worked.

7 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 9 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 10 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 11 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

12 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 14 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved

20 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 21 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 22 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 23 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

24 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
26 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law,
27 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

28 ///

1 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
3 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

4 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
6 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability
7 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and
8 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly
9 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

10 43. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages

1 51. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
2 compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order
3 to increase Defendants' profits.

4 52. California Labor Code section 218 states that noting in Article 1 of the Labor
5 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty

16 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its
