MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Virginia Payabyab, Marie Aponte, and Megan Wilder (“Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a proposed $305,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Bridge Hospice LLC (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The Settlement, as defined below, will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 179 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Mr. Marc Feder, Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class for settlement purposes only, approve the proposed notice, and set a Final Approval Hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiffs and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant provides home health care and hospice care in locations all over California, including, but not limited to, Sacramento, San Diego, Palm Springs, Fremont, Orange County, and Walnut Creek. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

3. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to have legally compliant meal and rest period policies, that Defendant failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods which they did not pay all meal premiums for, that Plaintiffs and Class Members were required to perform work off-the-clock which they were not compensated for, that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members at their regular rate of pay for

1 overtime compensation, that Defendant failed to calculate and pay sick pay using the methods
2 outlined in the Labor Code, and that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and Class Members 3 for necessary business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for 4 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination, 5 unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

6 Defendant denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to 7 comply with the laws identified in in the Operative Complaint, and denies any and all liability 8 for the causes of action that are or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts in the 9 Operative Complaint. (Settlement, § 2.1.)

10 On October 29, 2021, Plaintiffs filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint
11 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay 12 overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods and/or timely pay meal period premium 13 pay; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods and/or timely pay rest period premium pay; 14 (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized
15 wage statements; and (7) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business 16 and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. (Id. at ¶ 4.) On December 7, 2022, Plaintiffs filed their 17 First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint, which added a cause of action for 18 civil penalties under PAGA (“Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

19 B. Discovery and Investigation

20 Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information 21 before mediating this action. Defendant produced a 25% sampling of timekeeping and pay 22 records for class members. Defendant also provided its wage and hour policies and practices 23 during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and former 24 employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

25 After reviewing the documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and 26 practices and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able 27 to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s 28 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the

1 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel 2 reviewed these records and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation.
3 (Id.)

4 C. Settlement Negotiations

5 On September 27, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced 6 class action mediator, Marc Feder, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.
7 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 8 manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 9 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 10 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

11 After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 12 Plaintiffs' claims and Defendant's defenses, the Parties were able to reach a resolution, the 13 material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8; Ex. 1 14 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice ("Settlement" or "Settlement 15 Agreement")].)

16 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 17 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 18 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 19 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 20 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 21 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 15.)

22 Indeed, the $305,000.00 Settlement represents 40% of the realistic maximum recovery
23 of $758,006.70. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's maximum 24 potential liability for all claims was approximately $3.8 million, when the risk of prevailing at 25 certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant's 26 realistic exposure was $758,006.70, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery.
27 (Id. at ¶¶ 15-29.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at 28 trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Although Defendant denies all of Plaintiffs' claims and contends Plaintiffs would not succeed on the merits of his claims or in certifying those claims for class treatment, Defendant nonetheless agreed to resolve this action through settlement to avoid the expense, distraction, and uncertainty of protracted litigation.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Parties used the Los Angeles County Superior Court's Form Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. A document showing edits the Parties made to the template in redline is attached to the Declaration of Justin F. Marquez as Exhibit 2. The Settlement's key terms include:

1. Settlement Class: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: "all current and former non-exempt hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period and did not previously sign a general release of claims." (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: The Class Period means the period from May 4, 2017, to the date when the Court grants preliminary approval of the settlement. (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Class Member: means a member of the Settlement Class, as either a Participating Class Member or Non-Participating Class Member (including a Non-Participating Class Member who qualifies as a PAGA Group Member. (Settlement, § 1.9.)

4. Participating Class Member: means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement. (Settlement, §1.35.)

5. Non-Participating Class Member: means any Class Member who opts out of the Settlement by sending the Settlement Administrator a valid and timely Request for Exclusion. (Settlement, §1.29.)

6. PAGA Group: means all "Aggrieved Employees," current and former non-exempt hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA Period. (Settlement, §1.14.) The "PAGA Period" means the period from May 4, 2020 through the date of Preliminary Approval of the Settlement. (Settlement, §1.31.)

1 7. Gross Settlement Amount: “Gross Settlement Amount” means $305,000.00 2 which is the total amount Defendant agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in 3 Paragraph 9 below. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, 4 Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel
5 Expenses, Class Representative Service Payment, and the Administrator’s Expenses. (Settlement, 6 § 1.22.)

7 8. Uncashed Checks: For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check 8 or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the 9 Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to a Court-approved nonprofit 10 organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b) (“Cy 11 Pres Recipient”) Legal Aid At Work. (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

12 9. Release by Participating Class Members Who Are Not PAGA Group Members: All 13 Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present 14 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released 15 Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the 16 Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action, 17 including but not limited to any and all claims for the: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight 18 time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to 19 authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure 20 to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify necessary business 21 expenses; (8) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business and 22 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and (9) PAGA penalties. Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of 23 this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for 24 vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, 25 unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on 26 facts occurring outside the Class Period. (Settlement, § 6.2.)

27 10. Release by Non-Participating Class Members Who Are PAGA Group Members: 28 All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on 1 behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys,

2 heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA
3 penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period 4 facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice and ascertained in the course of the 5 Action, including but not limited to any and all claims for the: (1) failure to pay minimum and 6 straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) 7 failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) 8 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify necessary business
9 expenses; (8) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law, California Business and 10 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and (9) PAGA penalties.. (Settlement, § 6.3.)

11 11. No Reversion: "None of the Total Maximum Settlement Amount will revert to 12 Defendant." (Settlement, § 3.1.)

13 12. PAGA Payment and Allocation: means the $16,000.00 from the Total Maximum 14 Settlement Amount allocated to civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, California 15 Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"). 25% of the PAGA Payment ($4,000.00) will be allocated 16 to the PAGA Group and 75% to LWDA ($12,000.00) in settlement of PAGA claims. (Settlement, 17 §§ 1.34; 3.2.5.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this 18 Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 9.)

19 13. Net Settlement Amount: means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following 20 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
21 Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 22 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be 23 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments. (Settlement, § 1.28.)

24 14. Distribution Formula: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 25 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class 26 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 27 Member's Workweeks. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) 28 dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($4,000.00) by

1 the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the 2 PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay 3 Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their 4 Individual PAGA Payment. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.)

5 15. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Participating Class Members will be 6 allocated as 10% wages and 90% penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

7 16. Class Representative Named Plaintiffs Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiffs 8 shall be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $10,000.00 each (for a total of $30,000.00 for 9 all three Plaintiffs). (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiffs' time and effort in bringing 10 and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, 11 pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 6.1.) If the Court approves a lesser 12 enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount 13 to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis.
14 (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

15 17. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 16 a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($101,666.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-17 pocket costs not to exceed $15,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.) At this time, Class Counsel's costs
18 are approximately $11,296.73. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 40.)

19 18. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a 20 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' 21 fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations 22 are calculated. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 8; Ex. 1.) The Notice also includes information on how class 23 members can opt-out in the event they decide not to participate in the settlement. (Id.) Class 24 Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Id.) The notice will be provided in 25 English with a Spanish translation. CPT Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will 26 undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class 27 members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to 28 updated addresses. (Id.) (Marquez Decl., ¶ 11; Ex. 3 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

1 III. DISCUSSION

2 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 3 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 4 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
5 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 6 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 7 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
8 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

9 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 10 factors, which may include the strength of Plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity, and likely 11 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 12 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 13 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 14 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 128.) In order 15 to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within 16 the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement 17 of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles 18 (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of 19 the maximum amount the Plaintiffs class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, 20 only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of 21 the litigation.”].)

22 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 23 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 24 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

25 //

26 //

27 //

28 //

1 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 2 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

3 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and 4 Informed and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

5 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 6 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 7 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
8 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
9 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 10 fact that a Plaintiffs might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 11 to approve the settlement.”].)

12 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following a full day of 13 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Marc Feder, Esq. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 7-8.)
14 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 15 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 16 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 17 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

18 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 19 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as class member timekeeping and payroll records, 20 Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of meal and 21 rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well as 22 information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus former 23 employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages paid 24 to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 25 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 26 Litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 27 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

28 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 1 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-51.) Again, this supports the position that the 2 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 3 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 4 action.

5 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ 6 Respective Legal Positions

7 A settlement is not judged against what Plaintiffs might recover had he prevailed at trial, 8 nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
9 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 10 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 11 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 12 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 13 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

14 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
15 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 27.) While Plaintiffs is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 16 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving 17 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 18 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

19 The proposed settlement of $305,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 20 compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-29.) Because of the proposed 21 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 22 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 23 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 24 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $305,000.00 is within 25 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 26 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 27 $795.19. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

28 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

1 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
2 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 3 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-4 51.) Although Plaintiffs and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the 5 litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

6 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

7 The Proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement, in the form attached to the Settlement 8 Agreement (Exhibit 1) should be approved for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the 9 class of the terms of the settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. The 10 Notice also provides instructions in the event a Class Member wishes to object to this proposed 11 class action settlement, either in writing or at the hearing, and explains the Class Member will have 12 the opportunity to file an objection and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the 13 proposed Notice meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

14 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

15 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, the Settlement Administrator will 16 allocate from the Gross Settlement the reasonable attorneys' fees to Class Counsel in the amount 17 of $101,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross Settlement Amount, and up to $15,000.00 in actual 18 costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class members in the Notice of Proposed Class Action 19 Settlement and are reasonable.

20 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common 21 Fund" Method

22 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 23 by counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. The California Supreme Court held that "when 24 a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiffs 25 or Plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiffs 26 or Plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 27 25, 34, quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

28 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common

1 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 2 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent, 3 supra, 557 F.2d at p. 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California 4 Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund 5 from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of 6 the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet
7 (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine 8 has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in 9 which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

10 The California Supreme Court recently affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 11 1 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the 12 class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that 13 fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate 14 percentage of the fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages 15 of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between 16 counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the 17 encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging 18 the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our 19 trial courts.” (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

20 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

21 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 22 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 23 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 24 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 25 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
26 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 27 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 28 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294 [stating that most

1 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 2 million].)

3 Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 4 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature
5 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 6 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 7 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)
8 Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated 9 by the Parties and requested herein.

10 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

11 Labor Code § 1194(a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 12 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 13 section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 14 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 15 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 16 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 17 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 18 Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 35-40.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 19 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 20 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 21 ahead of all other concerns.

22 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 23 Requested Fee Award

24 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 25 and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class actions.
26 (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-51.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in 27 several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to 28 compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class

1 Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

2 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 3 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
4 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 5 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class
6 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee
7 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 8 is reasonable and fair.

9 D. The Named Plaintiffs Award Is Reasonable

10 Named Plaintiffs in class action lawsuits "are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 11 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 12 members of the class." (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 13 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 14 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 15 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
16 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

17 Service awards are particularly important to a Plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because 18 they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy 19 is codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, "it is the policy of this state to 20 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 21 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions...."). Nonetheless, the California 22 Supreme Court has noted that "retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 23 the Labor Code is widespread," despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
24 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 25 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
26 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

27 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court's approval, the Settlement 28 Administrator will allocate from the Total Maximum Settlement Amount a Named Plaintiffs

1 Award in the amount of $10,000.00 each, for a total of $30,000. This amount is also in exchange
2 for Plaintiffs’ general release of all claims against Defendant. Class Counsel represent that 3 Plaintiffs devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with 4 counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact
5 with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 30-34; Declaration of Virginia 6 Payabyab, Marie Aponte, and Megan Wilder in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary 7 Approval of Class Action Settlement (Payabyab, Aponte, and Wilder Declarations, ¶¶ 4-9.) This 8 amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated for all 9 class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-
10 cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action 11 settlement for 339 class members, and the court approved a $10,000.00 class representative 12 incentive award for each named Plaintiffs. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 34.)

13 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 14 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 15 award given to class action Plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 16 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 17 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 18 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) That same study found that named Plaintiffs in employment 19 discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, 20 while named Plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121
21 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards 22 in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative Plaintiffs whole by 23 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization
24 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

25 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS WARRANTED

26 A. Legal Standard

27 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 28 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the

1 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 2 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 3 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 4 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 5 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1)
6 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 7 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 8 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 9 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 10 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 11 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class 12 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 13 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

14 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
15 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 16 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 17 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 18 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 19 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

20 B. Plaintiffs Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 21 Settlement Purposes

22 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

23 Plaintiffs contend that the proposed class that Plaintiffs seeks to represent is easily 24 ascertainable, and includes approximately 179 employees of Defendant.

25 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 26 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 27 records of Defendant (i.e., job position), the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
28 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the

1 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

2 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 3 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
4 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action
5 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
6 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 7 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 8 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 9 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 10 Plaintiffs contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

11 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

12 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 13 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class predominate over any individual 14 questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant 15 adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 16 605.)

17 Here, Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 18 resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to have legally compliant 19 meal and rest period policies, that Defendant failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods 20 which they did not pay all meal premiums for, that Plaintiffs and Class Members were required to 21 perform work off-the-clock which they were not compensated for, that Defendant failed to 22 compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members at their regular rate of pay for overtime compensation, 23 that Defendant failed to calculate and pay sick pay using the methods outlined in the Labor Code, 24 and that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and Class Members for necessary business 25 expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to provide accurate 26 wage statements, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and 27 civil penalties under PAGA.. Plaintiffs contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for 28 all of the identified class members, including Plaintiffs. Further, all class members are alleged to 1 have suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries. Defendant denies all 2 allegations.

3 3. Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

4 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 5 of the representative Plaintiffs compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 6 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 7 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 8 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 9 situated" vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the class if they 10 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 11 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs is a former employee of Defendant; as 12 such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 13 employees.

14 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

15 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 16 named Plaintiffs must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; 17 second, a named Plaintiffs' interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank 18 of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

19 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel 20 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 21 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-50.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 22 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 23 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs has no conflicts, and Plaintiffs has, with counsel, 24 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiffs' 25 willingness to serve as representatives demonstrate their serious commitment to bringing about the 26 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

27 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

28 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class

1 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
2 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 3 class action device enables it to manage this Litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 4 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly 5 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 6 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 7 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
8 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 9 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

10 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

11 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

12 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 13 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 14 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 15 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 16 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 17 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 18 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 19 direct mail, the best possible form of notice.

20 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

21 The Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 of this 22 Motion should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first-class mail to the last 23 known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the 24 Settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. The Notice also provides 25 instructions in the event a Class Member wishes to object to this proposed class action settlement, 26 either in writing or at the hearing, and explains that the Class Member will have the opportunity to 27 file an objection and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

28 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg,

1 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 2 terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 3 makes clear that the Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 4 Defendant, who deny all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits
5 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made.
6 Accordingly, the Notice complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality 7 required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

8 VI. CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 10 approval of the proposed Settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing on October 23, 2023 11 (approximately 120 days after the June 23, 2023 hearing date on this motion, if it is granted), or 12 the first available date thereafter.
