1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Ivan Loreno (“Plaintiff”) submits this memorandum of points and authorities in support 4 of his motion for final approval of the class action settlement (the “Settlement”) with Defendant South
5 Coast Beverage, LLC (hereinafter “South Coast” or “Defendant”). The Settlement Class is defined as: all 6 individuals whom Defendant South Coast Beverage, LLC and/or its successors classified as non-exempt 7 employees and who worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period, which is the 8 period of time starting on December 23, 2017 and ending on February 7, 2025.

9 In this non-reversionary Settlement, the average settlement payment to each Settlement Class 10 Member is approximately $1,233.98. This is a favorable resolution of the highly disputed wage and hour 11 claims in this case and the significant litigation risks that Plaintiff faced. Since this Court granted 12 preliminary approval on February 7, 2025, nothing has changed to impact the propriety, fairness, 13 adequacy and reasonableness of the Settlement. In addition, after receiving notice of the Settlement and 14 of their projected Settlement payments, no Class Member has opted-out or submitted a written objection 15 to the Settlement.

16 As explained below, the Court should grant Plaintiff’s motion in its entirety because: (1) the Class 17 continues to meet the requirements for class certification for settlement purposes under Code of Civil 18 Procedure section 382; (2) the Settlement warrants final approval because it is a fair, adequate, and 19 reasonable compromise of the disputed claims in this case; and (3) the amounts requested for Class 20 Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs, Plaintiff’s Service Award, payment to the Labor Workforce 21 Development Agency (“LWDA”), and settlement administration costs are all fair, adequate, and 22 reasonable. For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter the [Proposed] Order 23 of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Final Judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

24 II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

25 On December 23, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative class action complaint. See Declaration of 26 Scott M. Lidman (“Lidman Decl.”), ¶ 10. On December 27, 2021, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the 27 California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and to Defendant advising of his 28 intention of filing a PAGA claim based on the Labor Code violations alleged in his operative complaint.

1 Id. After exhausting his administrative remedies, on March 28, 2022, Plaintiff filed a First Amended 2 Class and Representative Action Complaint adding a cause of action for civil penalties under the PAGA.
3 Id. Therefore, Plaintiff’s primary claims/allegations are that Defendant: (1) failed to pay all minimum 4 wages owed; (2) failed to pay all overtime wages owed; (3) failed to provide all legally required meal 5 periods; (4) failed to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods; (5) failed to provide accurate, 6 itemized wage statements; (6) failed to pay all wages owed upon termination; (7) engaged in unlawful 7 business practices; and (8) is liable for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 8 (“PAGA”). Id.

9 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

10 As explained in detail in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff’s primary theories of 11 liability are related to Defendant’s alleged failure to pay for all time worked and failure to provide 12 Settlement Class Members all legally compliant duty-free meal and rest periods. Lidman Decl., ¶ 11.
13 Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant would keep track of his hours and the hours of the other 14 non-exempt employees and would unlawfully shave their work time and/or round their work time to the 15 quarter hour such that Plaintiff and Settlement Class members would not be fully paid for all time worked.
16 Id. Plaintiff also alleges that this time shaving and/or rounding practice utilized by Defendant was not-17 even handed over time and Defendant would round and shave in Defendant’s favor such that the 18 employees were routinely underpaid for their time worked. Id. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant 19 miscalculated his and Settlement Class members’ regular rate of pay by excluding “On Call/Incentive” 20 pay and other forms of pay not excludable as a matter of law when calculating an employee’s regular rate 21 for working overtime hours. Id. Plaintiff and Settlement Class members were paid an amount less than 22 one and a half times (or two times in the case of double time hours) their regular rate of pay, as Defendant 23 failed to include the various forms of On Call/Incentive Pay when calculating their regular rate of pay.
24 Id.

25 Plaintiff also alleges that he and Settlement Class members were not provided with all required 26 first meal periods beginning before the end of the fifth hour of work. Lidman Decl., ¶ 13. Specifically, 27 Defendant’s policies and procedures failed to provide Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members with a 28 duty-free 30-minute meal period when they worked shifts in excess of 5.0 hours. Id. Further, Defendant

1 failed to meet its obligation of recording the start and stop time for meal periods and thus there is a 2 presumption that Plaintiff and Settlement Class members were not relieved of duty and no lawful meal 3 period was provided. Id.

4 Plaintiff alleges that he and Settlement Class members were also not authorized and permitted to 5 take all required rest periods due to Defendant's rest period policies and practices that fail to authorize 6 and permit all rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof. Lidman Decl., ¶ 15.

7 As a result of the alleged unpaid wages and unpaid meal period and rest period premium wages
8 described above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant issued inaccurate wage statements in violation of Labor 9 Code § 226, failed to pay all wages to Settlement Class Members upon their separation of employment, 10 and is thus liable for civil penalties under the Labor Code Private Attorney General Act ("PAGA").
11 Lidman Decl., ¶¶ 17.

12 As explained infra and in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Defendant denies 13 Plaintiff's claims and asserts several affirmative defenses, both on the merits and with respect to class 14 certification.

15 B. Mediation and Settlement

16 Throughout litigation, Plaintiff propounded written discovery, including without limitation, 17 Special Interrogatories (Sets 1-3), Form Interrogatories General and Employment, and Requests for 18 Production (Sets 1-2), to which Defendant responded. Lidman Decl., ¶ 20. Further, the Parties 19 completed the Belaire-West notice and Defendant produced the contact information for the putative class 20 members that did not opt-out. Id.

21 After agreeing to participate in private mediation, Defendant informally produced a 20 percent 22 sampling of timekeeping and payroll data for the putative class, as well as its wage and hour policies and 23 other relevant documents and information relevant to the claims alleged. Lidman Decl., ¶ 21. Specifically, 24 Plaintiff received a list of unique Employee ID numbers. Id. The Parties agreed that Plaintiff's sample 25 represented 20 percent of the total Employee ID numbers. Id. Using Excel's "RAND" function which 26 randomly generates a value between 0 and 1, each of the 112 Employee ID numbers was randomly 27 assigned such a value. Id. After the random assignment, the list of Employee ID numbers was sorted in 28 ascending order according to the values randomly assigned. Id. After the list was sorted, Plaintiff selected

1 the first 23 Employee ID numbers, which represents a 20 percent sampling. Id.

2 In addition to the representative sampling, Defendant produced key data points and all relevant 3 written wage and hour policies in effect during the relevant time periods. Lidman Decl., ¶ 21.
4 Specifically, Plaintiff was provided with the following:

- 5 • Plaintiff's personnel files and timekeeping and payroll documents;
- 6 • Spreadsheet with hire and term dates to determine key data points, including total number of 7 employees, workweeks, and pay periods during the relevant time period;
- 8 • Exemplars of the wage statements provided during the relevant time period; and
- 9 • Employee Handbook for relevant time period.

10 Id. This formal and informal discovery allowed the parties to assess the merits and value of Plaintiff's 11 claims and Defendant's defenses thereto. Id.

12 On September 14, 2023, a mediation was held with Mark S. Rudy, Esq., a well-respected wage 13 and hour class action mediator. Lidman Decl., ¶ 22. During mediation, the parties vigorously debated 14 their opposing legal positions, the likelihood of certification of Plaintiff's claims, and the legal basis for 15 the claims and defenses. Id. Ultimately, the Parties agreed on a class-wide resolution. Id.

16 C. Preliminary Approval of Settlement

17 Plaintiff submitted the Class Action Settlement to the Court with his Motion for Preliminary 18 Approval on November 6, 2024. Lidman Decl., ¶ 23. On January 30, 2025, the court issued a tentative 19 ruling granting preliminary approval contingent on Plaintiff providing supplemental briefing. Id. On 20 February 3, 2025, Plaintiff submitted supplemental briefing addressing the issues identified by the court 21 and an Amended Class Action Settlement. Id. On February 7, 2025, the Court signed an Order Granting 22 Preliminary Approval of the Settlement. Id.; Exh. A.

23 Plaintiff submitted the Settlement, Amended Settlement, and the Court's Order Granting 24 Preliminary Approval of the Settlement to the LWDA via the LWDA's website on November 6, 2024, 25 February 3, 2025, and February 7, 2025, respectively. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 38; Exhs. D-F. Plaintiff will 26 also provide the LWDA with a copy of the instant motion for final approval and supporting documents 27 after the instant motion is filed and will file a supplemental proof of service prior to the hearing. See 28 Lidman Decl., ¶ 39.

On April 22, 2025, Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Phoenix”) mailed the Notice via U.S. first class mail, in English and Spanish, to all 127 Settlement Class members on the Class List who had until June 6, 2025 to request exclusion and/or submit objections or disputes. See Declaration of Kevin Lee of Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Lee Decl.”), ¶¶ 5 and 9-11. As of the date of this filing, there have been no requests for exclusion, no objections, and no disputes received. Id. at ¶¶ 9-11. Plaintiff now respectfully submits the Settlement for this Court’s final approval.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT AND NOTICE PROCESS

A. Settlement Class Definition

The Settlement Class encompasses: all individuals whom Defendant South Coast Beverage, LLC and/or its successors classified as non-exempt employees and who worked for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. Lidman Decl., ¶ 24. The Class Period means the period of time starting on December 23, 2017 and ending on February 7, 2025. Id.

B. Monetary Terms of the Settlement

The Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a Total Settlement Amount of Four Hundred Eighty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($485,000.00), $109,000.00 of which has been previously paid by Defendant. See Lee Decl., ¶ 13. The New Settlement Money to be funded is in the amount of Three Hundred Seventy-Six Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($376,000.00). Settlement, ¶ 3.1. The Net Settlement Amount is the amount remaining from the New Settlement Money after deducting requested Class Counsel attorneys' fees ($161,666.67), and Class Counsel costs ($22,618.29), requested Service Award to Plaintiff Ivan Loreno ($7,500.00), the payment of civil penalties ($20,000.00), and the requested Settlement Administration Costs ($7,500.00). See Lee Decl., ¶ 13. Based on these requested amounts, the Net Settlement Amount is calculated to be approximately $156,715.04. Id.

The Net Settlement Amount shall be allocated to Settlement Class members who worked during the Class Period, as follows:

A. Each Class Member’s Individual Class Settlement Payment shall be apportioned based on his or her highest hourly wage rate during the Class Period and the number of workweeks he or she worked during the Class Period. Settlement, ¶ 1.24.

1 B. Each Participating Class Member's total weeks worked during the Class Period shall be
2 multiplied by said Participating Class Member's highest hourly rate earned during the Class
3 Period to come up with a total number of points for each Participating Class Member.
4 Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1. The total number of points for all Participating Class Members shall 5 then be divided into the Net Settlement Amount to calculate the monetary value of each point.
6 Id. The monetary value of each point shall then be multiplied by each Participating Class
7 member's total number of points to determine the correct amount to be payable to each 8 Participating Class Member. Id.

9 C. If a Participating Class Member previously received a payment from Defendant as part of a
10 direct settlement campaign which was a direct result of the filing of the Action, in exchange
11 for signing a release agreement, the Participating Class Member's Individual Settlement
12 Payment shall be reduced by the amount already paid to the Participating Class Member by 13 Defendant but those Participating Class Members whose Individual Settlement Payment, 14 reduced by any prior settlement payments obtained in exchange for signing a release
15 agreement, is less than $100.00 shall be entitled to receive a minimum payment of One 16 Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($100.00). Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.2.

17 The Aggrieved Employees' share of the PAGA Penalties shall be divided among them on a pro 18 rata basis based on the number of pay periods they worked during the PAGA Period. Settlement, ¶ 3.2.6.
19 Specifically, the amount each Aggrieved Employee is entitled to receive will be determined by (a) dividing 20 the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25 percent share of PAGA Penalties, $5,000.00, by the total 21 number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and 22 (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Settlement, ¶ 3.2.7.1.

23 Twenty-five percent (25%) of the payment of the Individual Class Payment to Class Members 24 will consist of 1099 income representing payment for statutory penalties and interest, and seventy-five 25 percent (75%) of the payment of the Net Settlement Amount to eligible Class Members will consist of 26 W-2 income representing payment for wages. Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.

27 Defendant will pay the employer-side payroll taxes owed on the New Settlement Money 28 separately from, and in addition to, the New Settlement Money. Settlement, ¶ 3.1.

1 C. Summary of Notice Process

2 1. *Mailing of Notice Packets

3 On March 10, 2025, Defendant provided Phoenix with data files containing the names, last known 4 mailing addresses, Social Security numbers, number of Class Period Workweeks worked, number of 5 PAGA Pay Periods worked, highest hourly rate earned, and the amount paid as part of a prior direct 6 individual settlement for each Class Member during the Class Period. Lee Decl., ¶ 3. After performing 7 address updates and verifications, Phoenix mailed the Class Notice to 127 Settlement Class Members on 8 April 22, 2025 in English and Spanish. Id. at ¶ 5. Following the initial mailing, five (5) Class Notices
9 were returned to Phoenix by the Post Office, five (5) Class Member's addresses were traced, and three (3) 10 Class Notices were remailed. Id. at ¶ 7. As of the date of filing this final approval motion, two (2) Class 11 Notices remain undeliverable because no forwarding address was provided and/or no new address could 12 be located through Skip Trace. Id. at ¶ 8.

13 The deadline for Settlement Class Members to submit objections, requests for exclusion, or 14 disputes was June 6, 2025. Lee Decl., ¶¶ 9-11. As of the date of this filing, there were no requests for 15 exclusion, no objections, and no disputes. Id. at ¶¶ 9-11. Accordingly, as of the date of this Motion, the 16 participation rate amongst the Settlement Class Members is 100 percent and the average estimated 17 payment is $1,233.98, with the highest estimated payment to a Settlement Class Member being 18 $9,985.74, the lowest estimated payment to a Settlement Class Member being $88.91. Id. at ¶ 13.

19 D. Timing of Payments

20 Defendant shall fully fund the New Settlement Money, and also fund the amounts necessary to 21 fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes, by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 22 30 days after the date of entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment by the Court. See Settlement, ¶ 23 4.4.

24 Class Members will have 180 days to cash their settlement checks before the checks are voided.
25 Settlement, ¶ 4.5.1.

26 For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment 27 check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented 28 by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member

1 thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure 2 Section 384, subd. (b). Settlement, ¶ 4.5.3.

3 E. Notice of Judgment

4 As stated in the Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final 5 Court Approval mailed to class members, the final judgment entered by the Court and any changes to the 6 Final Approval hearing date or location will be posted on the Settlement Administrator's website at loren-7 v-south-coast-beverage.phoenixcases.com. See Lee Decl., ¶5, Exh. A.

8 IV. ARGUMENT

9 A. This Court Should Confirm its Conditional Certification of the Class for Settlement
10 Purposes Because It Meets All of the Requirements for Class Certification Under Code
11 of Civil Procedure § 382

12 Under Code of Civil Procedure section 382, a class may be certified if: (1) it is ascertainable and 13 its members are too numerous for joinder to be practical; (2) the representative and absent class members 14 share a community of interest, and questions of law and fact common to the class predominate over 15 questions unique to individual class members; (3) the representative's claims are typical of the class' 16 claims; and (4) the representative will fairly and adequately represent the class' interests. See Richmond 17 v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.

18 Here, this Court found that the Class meets all the requirements for class certification for 19 settlement purposes when it granted preliminary approval of the Settlement on February 7, 2025. See 20 Lidman Decl., ¶ 23; Exh. A. After the Court entered an order granting preliminary approval, no events 21 have occurred to cast doubt on the propriety of this determination. In fact, the reaction of the Settlement 22 Class Members thus far to the Settlement has been strongly in support of the Settlement. No Settlement 23 Class Member has requested exclusion from the Settlement, no Settlement Class Member has objected to 24 any portion of the Settlement, and no Settlement Class Member has disputed the Settlement. See Lee 25 Decl., ¶¶ 9-11. This Court should therefore confirm its conditional certification of the Settlement Class.

26 B. This Court Should Finally Approve the Settlement Because it is a Fair, Adequate, and 27 Reasonable Compromise of Disputed Wage and Hour Claims

28 California courts have a strong policy in favor of settlement. See, e.g., Stambaugh v. Superior Court, 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236 (1976). Unlike individual settlements, class action settlements involve a court approval process that exists to prevent fraud, collusion, and unfairness to class members. Malibu

1 Outrigger Bd. of Governors v. Superior Court, 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-79 (1980). This approval 2 process consists of preliminary settlement approval, notice being given to class members, and a final 3 fairness and approval hearing being held, at which class members have the opportunity to be heard with 4 respect to the settlement. Id. Now that notice has been provided to the Settlement Class, Plaintiff 5 respectfully requests that the Court finally approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable.

6 1. The Settlement was Reached at Arm's Length, Through Experienced Counsel and 7 An Experienced Mediator, and Was Based on Sufficient Information to Intelligently
8 Negotiate a Fair Settlement in Light of the Claims Asserted and Risks of Continued
9 Litigation

10 A settlement is presumptively fair where it is reached through arm's length bargaining, based on 11 sufficient discovery and investigation to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently, counsel is 12 experienced in similar litigation, and the percentage of objectors to the settlement is small. Dunk v. Ford
13 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802 (1996). In deciding whether to approve a proposed settlement, a 14 trial court has broad powers to determine if the proposed settlement is fair under the circumstances of the 15 case. Mallick v. Superior Court, 89 Cal.App.3d 434 (1979). In exercising these powers, the overriding 16 concern is to ensure that a proposed settlement is "fair, adequate, and reasonable." Dunk, supra, 48 17 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (internal quotations omitted). Relevant factors for the Court to consider include, but 18 are not limited:

19 [T]he strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 20 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 21 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the 22 proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental 23 participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

24 Id. These factors require balancing, are non-exhaustive and, as such, trial courts should tailor the factors 25 to each case. Id. "In the context of a settlement agreement, the test is not the maximum amount plaintiffs 26 might have obtained at trial on the complaint, but rather whether the settlement is reasonable under all of 27 the circumstances." Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250 (2001). Because 28 settlements inherently involve compromise, even settlements providing for substantially narrower relief than likely would be obtained if the suit were successfully litigated can be reasonable because, "the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation." Id. (quoting Air Lines Stewards, etc., Local 550 v. American Airlines, Inc., 455 F.2d 101, 109 (7th Cir. 1972)).

1 Here, the Settlement resulted from extensive arm's length settlement negotiations between 2 qualified and experienced counsel, with the assistance of a well-respected mediator, and is fair, adequate, 3 and reasonable for all Settlement Class Members. While Plaintiff maintains that his claims are 4 meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that his position includes substantial risks and uncertainty, which 5 justifies a downward departure from the maximum exposure that Plaintiff calculated each claim carried.

6 As detailed in Plaintiff's Preliminary Approval Motion, there is significant risk of non-7 certification and/or not prevailing on the merits with respect to each of Plaintiff's claims. For example, 8 with respect to Plaintiff's unlawful rounding claims, Defendant contends that it compensated Settlement 9 Class members for all of their time worked, and any unpaid time was de minimis and therefore non-10 compensable. Lidman Decl., ¶ 12. Defendant further contends that it did not have a rounding policy or 11 practice during the relevant time period and/or that its rounding policy was fair and equitable. Id. Further, 12 Defendant contends that any so-called "On Call/Incentive Pay" paid during the relevant time period was 13 discretionary, was not required to be paid, and did not need to be included in the regular rate of pay for 14 overtime purposes. Id.; See 29 C.F.R. §§778.208, 778.211 (excluding "discretionary" bonuses from the 15 regular rate); see also DLSE Manual § 49.1.2.4(3) (bonuses are discretionary, and therefore excludable, 16 if "both the fact that payment is to be made and the amount of the payment" are discretionary).

17 As for Plaintiff's meal period claims, Defendant counters that it has always provided non-exempt 18 employees with an opportunity to take legally compliant meal periods, and any non-compliant meal 19 periods reflected in employee timekeeping records were solely the result of employee choice, rather than 20 any policy or practice of Defendant. Lidman Decl., ¶ 14. Defendant contends Plaintiff's meal period 21 claim is not suited for class certification and individual inquiries would be required to assess which 22 employees took non-compliant meal periods, how many meal periods were non-compliant or missed, and 23 the reasons why a particular employee took a non-compliant meal period or missed a meal period during 24 a particular shift. Id.

25 As for Plaintiff's rest period claims, Defendant contends it has always maintained and enforced 26 lawful rest period policies and practices, and that Settlement Class Members were authorized and 27 permitted to take all off-duty rest periods in compliance with California law. Lidman Decl., ¶ 16.
28 Defendant argues that Plaintiff's rest period claims are inherently unsuited for class treatment as they

1 require an individualized inquiry into whether each Settlement Class member was in fact authorized and 2 permitted to take a compliant rest period, which would devolve into an unmanageable series of mini-trials.
3 Id.

4 As for Plaintiff's claim for wage statement violations, Defendant argues that its alleged wage 5 statement violations could not be shown to be "knowing and intentional," and that Plaintiff cannot show 6 that he or any other putative class member "suffer[ed] injury" as a result of the alleged wage statement 7 violations, as required by Lab. Code § 226(e) for imposition of penalties. Lidman Decl., ¶ 18.

8 As for Plaintiff's claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant argues that it has strong defenses to 9 the waiting time claim because there exist good-faith disputes as to Plaintiff's underlying claims, 10 precluding imposition of penalties. Lidman Decl., ¶ 18; See also 8 Cal. Code Regs. § 13520 (a "good 11 faith dispute that any wages are due will preclude imposition of waiting time penalties"); Kao v. Joy 12 Holiday, 12 Cal.App.5th 947, 963 (2017) (holding that "good faith dispute" over whether employee was 13 exempt precluded imposition of waiting time penalties over contested wages owed).

14 Lastly, Defendant argues that Plaintiff's PAGA claim will fail for the same reasons that his 15 underlying claims will fail. Lidman Decl., ¶ 18; see Price v. Starbucks Corp. (2011) 192 Cal.App.4th 16 1136, 1147 ("Because the underlying causes of action fail, the derivative UCL and PAGA claims also 17 fail."). Defendant also maintains that, given its good faith defenses, this Court would exercise its 18 discretion to substantially reduce any PAGA penalties if it were to find Defendant liable for any of 19 Plaintiff's claims. Id. ; See Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 20 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1135 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming v. Covidien Inc. (C.D. Cal.
21 2011) Case No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047, at *4 (reducing PAGA penalties from 22 $2.8 million to $500,000).

23 These considerations, not only bore heavily on the negotiations leading to the Settlement, but also 24 confirm that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise in view of the risks of further 25 litigation. Lidman Decl., ¶ 19. As detailed in the Preliminary Approval Motion, Plaintiff carefully vetted 26 the claims at issue and conducted a detailed liability analysis of class-wide data to calculate the damages 27 figures. Id. Thus, while these risks are far from exhaustive, they demonstrate that the Settlement is fair, 28 adequate, and reasonable in view of them. Id.

1 2. The Settlement Fairly, Reasonably, and Adequately Compensates Class 2 Members Because Each Participating Class Member Will Be Paid Based on the 3 Extent of His or Her Injury

4 The Net Settlement Amount shall be allocated to Settlement Class members who worked 5 during the Class Period, as follows:

- 6 A. Each Class Member's Individual Class Settlement Payment shall be apportioned based on his 7 or her highest hourly wage rate during the Class Period and the number of workweeks he or 8 she worked during the Class Period. Settlement, ¶ 1.24.
- 9 B. Each Participating Class Member's total weeks worked during the Class Period shall be 10 multiplied by said Participating Class Member's highest hourly rate earned during the Class
11 Period to come up with a total number of points for each Participating Class Member.
12 Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1. The total number of points for all Participating Class Members shall 13 then be divided into the Net Settlement Amount to calculate the monetary value of each point.
14 Id. The monetary value of each point shall then be multiplied by each Participating Class
15 member's total number of points to determine the correct amount to be payable to each 16 Participating Class Member. Id.
- 17 C. If a Participating Class Member previously received a payment from Defendant as part of a
18 direct settlement campaign which was a direct result of the filing of the Action, in exchange
19 for signing a release agreement, the Participating Class Member's Individual Settlement
20 Payment shall be reduced by the amount already paid to the Participating Class Member by 21 Defendant but those Participating Class Members whose Individual Settlement Payment,
22 reduced by any prior settlement payments obtained in exchange for signing a release
23 agreement, is less than $100.00 shall be entitled to receive a minimum payment of One 24 Hundred Dollars and Zero Cents ($100.00). Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.2.

25 This method of distribution compensates Settlement Class Members based on the estimated extent 26 of their injuries, as Settlement Class Members who worked more workweeks, would have been subject 27 to more of the alleged wage and hour violations than those who worked fewer weeks and ensuring that 28 settlement payments previously received by Settlement Class Members are taken into account. Thus, the formula for compensating Settlement Class Members is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it is tethered to the damages and penalties that could be recovered by them.

1 3. The 100 Percent Participation Rate and Absence of Any Objections Further 2 Confirms That the Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

3 Class members' response to a settlement is relevant in evaluating whether it merits final approval.
4 Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801. The lack of objections and requests for exclusion supports a 5 fairness presumption. See 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85
6 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152-53 (finding 9 objections and 80 opt-outs from a class of 5,454 showed a 7 “particularly impressive” favorable response from class members). Here, only two (2) of the Class 8 Notices were returned undeliverable. Lee Decl., ¶ 7. As of the filing of this Motion, of the 125 delivered 9 Class Notices, not a single Settlement Class Member has objected to the Settlement and no Settlement 10 Class Member has elected to opt-out of the Settlement. Id. at ¶ 11. The extremely favorable response of 11 the Settlement Class further confirms that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

12 C. The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees is Reasonable as a Percentage of the Common 13 Fund Confirmed by a Lodestar Cross-Check

14 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class, as the prevailing parties in settlement, are entitled to recover 15 their attorneys' fees and costs for their wage claims. See Lab. Code §§ 218.5, 226(e) and 2699(g). A fee 16 award is justified where the legal action has produced its benefits by way of a voluntary settlement. See,
17 e.g., Maria P. v. Riles, 43 Cal.3d 1281, 1290-91 (1987); Westside Community for Independent Living, 18 Inc. v. Obledo, 33 Cal.3d 348, 352-53 (1983). When a settlement results in a common fund for the benefit 19 of a class, class counsel may be awarded fees as a percentage of the common fund. See Wershba, supra, 20 91 Cal.App.4th at 254 (recognizing the “percentage of recovery” method).

21 The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 22 (2016), that “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases.” Specifically, the 23 Laffitte Court held:

24 The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of 25 calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 26 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 27 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the 28 litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

Id. at 503 (internal citation omitted); see also, e.g., Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977) (“when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or

1 plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 2 may be awarded attorney's fees out of the fund."); Serrano v. Unruh, 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (1982) (in 3 awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its 4 equitable power to prevent the other parties' unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache 5 Properties, Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir. 1993) (the percentage of the fund method for calculating 6 attorneys' fees more accurately reflects the results achieved for the putative class than the lodestar method 7 and "establishes reasonable expectations on the part of plaintiffs' attorneys as to their expected recovery; 8 and it encourages early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation."); In re Rite Aid Corp. Securities 9 Litigation, 396 F.3d 294, 300 (3rd Cir. 2005) ("The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored 10 in common fund cases because it allows courts to award fees from the fund 'in a manner that rewards 11 counsel for success and penalizes it for failure.") (citation omitted).

12 Laffitte also held that trial courts have discretion to assess reasonableness of fee awards with tools 13 such as the "lodestar cross-check," whereby the trial court calculates class counsel's lodestar (hours 14 worked multiplied by hourly rate) and determines whether the "lodestar multiplier" needed to bring the 15 lodestar on par with the percentage of recovery is reasonable. Laffitte at 503-06. While a trial court may 16 utilize the lodestar cross-check, it need not do so. Id. at 506 ("[w]e hold further that trial courts have 17 discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee, as the court did here; they also retain the 18 discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a 19 requested percentage fee.")

20 Here, Class Counsel's fee request of $161,666.67 (one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) is 21 fair and reasonable based on a percentage of the recovery confirmed with a lodestar cross-check. First, 22 "regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions 23 average around one-third of the recovery." Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008); 24 see also, e.g., Cicero v. DirectTV, Inc., No. EDCV 07-1182, 2010 WL 2991486 at * 7 (C.D. Cal. July 27, 25 2010) (observing that "30-50% [is] commonly awarded in cases in which the common fund is relatively 26 small" and that in California, "courts usually award attorneys' fees in the 30-40% range in wage and hour
27 class actions..."); Williams v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. 02-cv-2003 IEG (AJB), 2010 WL 2721452 28 at * 6 (S.D. Cal. July 7, 2010) (collecting cases where courts awarded between 33.33% and 40% in

1 attorneys' fees in wage and hour class actions). This is also consistent with Class Counsel's experience 2 in similar wage and hour class action matters. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 29. Thus, the percentage sought by 3 Class Counsel here (the same percentage sought by class counsel in Laffitte) is reasonable.

4 Next, as stated, under the lodestar method the court computes the "lodestar" amount by 5 multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their 6 reasonable hourly rates. See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest 20 Cal.3d 25, 48 (1977). The court then enhances 7 this lodestar figure by a "multiplier" to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty and difficulty
8 of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. Id. at 49; Ketchum v. Moses, 24 9 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36 (2001); Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank, 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 834 (2001) ("There is 10 no hard-and-fast rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion to increase or 11 decrease a lodestar calculation").

12 Under California law, lodestar multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher. See, e.g., Chavez, 13 supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at 49-50 (approving multiplier of approximately 2.5); City of Oakland v. Oakland
14 Raiders, 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (1988) (approving multiplier of ~2.34); Coalition for L. County Planning 15 etc. Interest v. Bd. of Supervisors, 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (1977) (approving multiplier of ~2.04). In 16 class actions such as this one, where the value of the benefit conferred to the class "can be monetized 17 with a reasonable degree of certainty," a court may "adjust the lodestar in comparison to a percentage of 18 the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of fees freely 19 negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation." Consumer Privacy Cases, 175 Cal.App.4th 20 545, 557 (2009). In doing so, "the court determines, retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a 21 contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in 22 order to approximate the fair market for such services." Id. at 556; see also Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503-05.

23 In this case, Class Counsel have a lodestar of $170,365.00 which is 1.05 times more than the 24 $161,666.67 fee request. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 31. A general summary showing the number of hours of 25 work performed by each attorney and paralegals is set forth below. Id.

Name	Rate	Hours	Pre-Multiplier Lodestar
Scott M. Lidman (27th Year Attorney)	$900	78.6	$70,740.00
Paul K. Haines (18th Year Attorney)	$800	22.4	$17,920.00
Milan Moore (9th Year Attorney)	$650	92.9	$60,385.00
Tiara Gose-Hardy (6th Year Attorney)	$525	32.8	$17,220.00
Paralegals	$200	20.5	$4,100.00
Total Lodestar			$170,365.00

The billing rates used are reasonable especially in light of the hourly rates identified based on years of experience in the Laffey Matrix, submitted concurrently herewith. Lidman Decl., ¶ 32, Exh. C. Based on the Laffey Matrix, the hourly rate for a 20+ year attorney is $1,141, the hourly rate for an 18th year attorney is $948, the hourly rate for a 9th year attorney is $839, and the hourly rate for a 6th year attorney is $581. Id. The fee award requested here is justified because Class Counsel achieved a significant monetary recovery for the Settlement Class in an uncertain and risky case, while bearing the substantial burdens of representation on a contingency basis, and the fees requested are in line with the market rate. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-51 (9th Cir. 2002) (finding that exceptional results in a contingency case, significant risk and the absence of supporting precedents, are proper considerations in awarding attorneys' fees).

First, Class Counsel negotiated a substantial recovery for the Settlement Class, resulting in a current participation rate of 100 percent, and not a single Settlement Class Member has objected to the Settlement or to Class Counsel's requested fees as of the date of this filing. See Lee Decl., ¶¶ 9-11. Plaintiff has provided written approval of the split of attorneys' fees in this action. Lidman Decl., ¶ 35.

Additionally, the average settlement payment in this case of approximately $1,233.98 is in line with, and above, settlement payments in similar wage and hour class action settlements. See, e.g., Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (E.D. Cal. 2008) (wage and hour class action settlement approved where average class member recovery was approximately $60); Schiller v. David's Bridal, Inc., No. 1:10-cv-00616-AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 2117001, at *18 (E.D. Cal. 2012) (finding that average payment to class members of less than $200 was a "good" result); Williams v. Centerplate,

1 Inc., Nos. 11-CV-2159-H-KSC, 12-CV-0008-H-KSC, 2013 WL 4525428, at *4 (S.D. Cal. 2013)
2 (granting final approval of class action settlement where average recovery for each class member was 3 approximately $108). The fact that Class Counsel achieved these results without engaging in a protracted 4 legal battle, in the face of serious defense challenges and an uncertain legal landscape, confirms the 5 strength of the results achieved.

6 As discussed above, this case presented significant risk as to both class certification and merits
7 considerations. Accordingly, it is fair and reasonable to account for these risks in compensating Class 8 Counsel. Class Counsel should also be compensated for the risks involved in undertaking this litigation 9 and expending considerable effort, all while working on a pure contingency basis. Since undertaking 10 representation of Plaintiff, Class Counsel have borne all the costs of litigation without receiving any 11 compensation for almost four (4) years. Lidman Decl., ¶ 28. During this time, Class Counsel have 12 expended a total of $22,168.29 in actual costs, have devoted substantial time to this litigation, and expect 13 to incur approximately $450.00 in future costs for filing the final declaration regarding distribution of 14 settlement, Case Anywhere fees, service and messenger fees, postage fees, and/or online fees to retrieve 15 conformed copies of documents.² Id.; Exh. B. Class Counsel's efforts have included conducting pre-16 filing investigation, analyzing Plaintiff's claims, conducting legal research, drafting discovery requests 17 and reviewing discovery responses, reviewing Defendant's documents and policies, analyzing Settlement 18 Class Members' timekeeping data and payroll records, drafting a mediation brief, preparing for and 19 attending mediation, negotiating and revising the long-form Settlement Agreement, preparing the 20 Motions for Preliminary and Final Approval, overseeing the settlement administration process, 21 communicating with Settlement Class Members, and otherwise litigating this case. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 22 27. Moreover, Class Counsel have expended time, effort, and money that they could have expended on 23 less risky cases instead. Given the considerable potential for adverse outcomes in this case, including, 24 but not limited to losing on class certification and/or merits issues, the contingent risk borne by Class 25 Counsel was great. Lidman Decl., ¶ 30.

27
28

² This includes total costs incurred by both law firms.

1 Class Counsel's previous experience in litigating wage and hour class actions also supports the 2 reasonableness of the fee request. Class Counsel are well-versed in plaintiff and defense-side wage and 3 hour class action litigation, with substantial experience litigating claims for meal and rest period
4 violations, and related penalties. See Lidman Decl., ¶¶ 3-8; Declaration of Paul K. Haines ("Haines
5 Decl."), ¶¶ 3-8; Declaration of Milan Moore ("Moore Decl."), ¶¶ 2-5. They have been certified as class 6 counsel in numerous other cases. Id. Their experience in similar matters was integral in evaluating the 7 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the Settlement. See 8 Lidman Decl., ¶ 29. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge 9 concerning the rapidly evolving substantive state and federal law, as well as the procedural law of class 10 action litigation. Id. Because it is reasonable to compensate Class Counsel commensurate with their 11 skill, reputation, and experience, a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount is reasonable.

12 Other factors also show that the fee amount requested in this case is reasonable under the 13 circumstances. This case involved nuanced legal issues including questions surrounding Defendant's 14 requirement to "provide" meal periods and "authorize and permit" rest periods, what is and is not 15 excludable pay in calculating the regular rate of pay, and the propriety of statutory penalties, to name just 16 a few. Lidman Decl., ¶ 29. Lastly, Plaintiff has provided written approval of the split of attorneys' fees 17 in this action. Lidman Decl., ¶ 35. Thus, Class Counsel's requested fee award is fair, reasonable, and 18 adequate and should be approved.

19 D. The Requested Cost Amount Warrants Final Approval as Fair, Adequate, and 20 Reasonable

21 Class Counsel seek to be reimbursed a total of $22,618.29³ in litigation costs. Class Counsel's 22 request is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as all of these costs are documented and reasonably incurred.
23 See Lidman Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. B. Moreover, the costs Plaintiff seeks are the types of costs routinely 24 approved by courts. See, e.g., Harris v. Marhoefer, 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir. 1994) (counsel should recover 25 "those out-of-pocket expenses that would normally be charged to a fee paying client"); Ashker v. Sayre, 26 No. 05-03759 CW, 2011 WL 825713, at * 3 (N.D. Cal. 2011) ("costs of reproducing pleadings, motions

27 _____
28 ³ Class Counsel have expended a total of $22,168.29 in actual costs and anticipates incurring costs in the amount of $450.00 for filing the final declaration regarding distribution of settlement, Case Anywhere fees, service and messenger fees, postage fees, and/or online fees to retrieve conformed copies of documents.

1 and exhibits are typically billed by attorneys to their fee-paying clients” and are reimbursable); Trustees
2 of Const. Industry & Laborers Health and Welfare Trust v. Redland Ins. Co., 460 F.3d 1253, 1258-59
3 (9th Cir. 2006) (legal research costs are reimbursable); In re Immune Response Securities Litigation, 497 4 F. Supp. 2d 1166, 1177-78 (S.D. Cal. 2007) (mediation expenses, consultant and expert fees, legal 5 research, copies, postage, filing fees, messenger and overnight delivery costs are reimbursable). Because 6 the expense reimbursements requested by Class Counsel were reasonably incurred, and no Settlement 7 Class Member has objected to them, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court should grant the request for 8 actual costs incurred.

9 E. The Court Should Finally Approve the Requested Administration Costs

10 Plaintiff also requests that the Court approve $7,500.00 in administration costs to the Settlement
11 Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators. As detailed in the declaration of Kevin Lee on Behalf 12 of Phoenix Settlement Administrators submitted herewith, Phoenix performed duties in connection with 13 this Settlement that were integral in effectuating the Settlement and the Notice process. See Lee Decl., ¶
14 2. Among other things, Phoenix calculated each Settlement Class Member’s individual settlement 15 payment, updated addresses contained in the class data supplied by Defendant, formatted Class Notices 16 for mailing, mailed Class Notices to all 127 Settlement Class Members in English and Spanish, kept the 17 parties informed of any objections or requests for exclusion, maintained an informational website, and 18 have otherwise administered the Settlement. See Lee Decl., ¶¶ 2-15. For these reasons, Phoenix’s 19 requested costs are fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be finally approved.

20 F. Plaintiff’s Requested Service Award Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable in View of 21 Plaintiff’s Efforts and the Risks that He Assumed on Behalf of the Class

22 Courts routinely approve service payments to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they 23 provide and the risks they incur during class action litigation. See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exchange, 24 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004) (upholding “service payments” to named plaintiffs for their efforts in 25 bringing the case); Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp. 294 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (approving 26 $50,000 service payment). In analyzing the requested service payment, courts consider the following 27 factors: the risk, both financial and otherwise, the class representative faced in bringing the suit; the 28 notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by the class representative; the actions the plaintiff has taken to protect the interests of the class, the degree to which the class has benefitted from those actions,

1 and the amount of time and effort the plaintiff expended in pursuing the litigation. See Golba v. Dick's
2 Sporting Goods, Inc. (2015) 238 Cal.App.4th 1251, 1272; Clark v. Am. Residential Servs. LLC (2009) 175
3 Cal.App.4th 785, 804.

4 Here, analyzing those factors weigh in favor of approving Plaintiff's requested service award of 5 $7,500.00 because the request is reasonable given Plaintiff's efforts in this case and the risks he undertook 6 on behalf of Settlement Class Members. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 37; Declaration of Ivan Loreno ("Loreno 7 Decl."), ¶¶ 6-10. Plaintiff gathered documents for use in the lawsuit, and worked with Class Counsel to 8 prepare discovery requests, for mediation, to discuss the case, the merits, the defenses, and the settlement
9 reached. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 37; Loreno Decl., ¶¶ 6, 8. The Class has benefited from Plaintiff's actions 10 as the average settlement amount is $1,233.98.

11 Further, Plaintiff understood that the lawsuit is a matter of public record and being part of the 12 lawsuit could stigmatize him and/or affect future employment. See Lidman Decl., ¶ 37; Loreno Decl., ¶ 13 7. Plaintiff also understood the risk that he could be liable for Defendant's costs if he lost the case. See 14 Lidman Decl., ¶ 39; Loreno Decl., ¶ 7. Plaintiff accepted these risks and burdens because he wanted 15 Defendant to compensate its current and former employees for unpaid wages. Loreno Decl., ¶ 7. Plaintiff 16 estimates he spent 9-11 hours on activities related to this case. Id. at ¶ 8.

17 Moreover, Plaintiff has agreed to release, in addition to the released claims included within the 18 Settlement, all claims, whether known or unknown, under federal, state, or local law against Defendant 19 and the Released Parties. Lidman Decl., ¶ 37. Plaintiff's release includes unknown claims and that he is, 20 as a result, waiving all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

21 Moreover, after receiving notice of the proposed Class Representative Service Award for Plaintiff, 22 no Settlement Class Member has objected to the proposed award, as of the date of this filing. See Lee 23 Decl., ¶ 10. Thus, the service award to Plaintiff is appropriate and justified as part of the Settlement and 24 should be finally approved.

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 For the reasons stated herein, Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Court should grant Plaintiff's 3 motion in its entirety and adopt the [Proposed] Order of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and 4 Final Judgment submitted herewith.
