SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF VENTURA

ALEXIS BOBBITT and LUCIA LOPEZ, on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and on behalf of similarly aggrieved employees,

Plaintiffs,

v.

AURORA VISTA DEL MAR, LLC, a California
Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1-50, inclusive.

Defendant.

CASE NO.: 56-2022-00563179-CU-OE-VTA

[Consolidated with Case No. 56-2023-00574248-
CU-OE-VTA]

Assigned to the Hon. Charmaine H. Buehner

PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL
ACT OF 2004; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS
AND AUTHORITIES

Hearing Information:

Date: January 21, 2026

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept.: J4

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on January 21, 2026 , at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the
3 matter may be heard in Department J4 of the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Ventura,
4 located at 800 South Victoria Avenue, Ventura, California 93009, before the Honorable Charmaine H.
5 Buehner, Plaintiffs Alexis Bobbitt and Lucia Lopez will, and hereby do, move the Court for an order
6 approving a settlement pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code § 2698, et 7 seq. (“PAGA”).

8 This unopposed motion seeks approval of a non-reversionary $180,000 settlement reached after 9 mediation, which resolves all PAGA claims alleged in this action on behalf of non-exempt employees
10 who worked for Defendant in California during the PAGA period. The settlement allocates:

- 11 • 75% (presently estimated to be $56,548.70) to the Labor and Workforce Development
12 Agency,
- 13 • 25% (presently estimated to be $18,849.56) to the Aggrieved Employees, distributed pro 14 rata based on pay periods worked,
- 15 • Attorneys’ fees of up to $60,000, and $20,251.73 in litigation costs,
- 16 • Service awards of $10,000 to each named Plaintiff, and
- 17 • Up to $4,350 in administration costs.

18 This motion is based on the Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declarations of PAGA
19 Counsel Mehrdad Bokhour, Joshua Falakassa, James Hawkins, the Declarations of Plaintiffs Alexis
20 Bobbit and Lucia Lopez, the PAGA Settlement Agreement, the proposed Order Granting Approval of 21 Settlement, all pleadings and papers on file, and any argument or evidence presented at the hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiffs Alexis Bobbitt and Lucia Lopez (collectively, “Plaintiffs”)—individually and on behalf
4 of other allegedly aggrieved employees, and acting as representatives of the State of California—brought
5 this consolidated representative action for civil penalties against their former employer, Defendant
6 Aurora Vista Del Mar, LLC (“Defendant”) under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California
7 Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”).

8 A PAGA action is a type of qui tam proceeding that enables private citizens to assist the State of 9 California in enforcing labor laws. (Iskanian v. CLS Transp. Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348,
10 380–382.) In such an action, the State of California is the real party in interest. (Id. at 382.)

11 As required by statute, the State of California was timely served with a copy of the executed
12 Settlement Agreement and this Motion for Approval. (Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of 13 Plaintiffs’ Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Bokhour Decl.”) ¶ 41.)

14 Plaintiffs’ operative claims are brought on behalf of individuals who worked in an hourly, non-15 exempt position for Defendant in California (the “Aggrieved Employees”) from December 21, 2020, to 16 May 2, 2025 (the “PAGA Period”). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 9.)

17 Plaintiffs allege that during the relevant period:

- 18 • Defendant failed to properly pay Aggrieved Employees all overtime and sick time wages
19 due to violations of the “regular rate of pay” requirements and Defendant’s failure to 20 properly adopt an Alternative Workweek Schedule (“AWS”). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 10.)
- 21 • Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees were denied compliant meal and rest periods as 22 a result of Defendant’s policies, practices, and the nature of the work. (Id.)
- 23 • Defendant failed to pay timely wages at separation, and issued inaccurate itemized wage 24 statements or otherwise failed to maintain records, thereby incurring civil penalties under 25 PAGA. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 11.)

26 Following informal discovery—including the exchange and review of workplace policies, time
27 and payroll data, and an exposure analysis based on the Aggrieved Employees’ pay periods—the Parties
28 participated in a private mediation before David Phillips, Esq., an experienced wage and hour mediator.

1 (See PAGA Settlement Agreement (“S.A.”), Recitals ¶¶ 2.3-2.4; Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12.) With the assistance
2 of the mediator, the Parties were able to reach a resolution of the action. (Id.)

3 With a comprehensive Settlement Agreement now in place, Plaintiffs seek—without opposition
4 from Defendant—the Court’s approval of a $180,000 non-reversionary settlement resolving all claims
5 alleged in this action pursuant to the PAGA. The settlement covers approximately 400 Aggrieved
6 Employees and approximately 12,100 PAGA Pay Periods. (S.A. ¶¶ 4.1, 8.)

7 Following the proposed deductions of:

- 8 • Attorneys’ Fees up to $60,000.00 (1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount),
- 9 • Litigation costs of $20,251.73,
- 10 • Administration Expenses Payment up to $4,350, and
- 11 • Service Awards of $10,000 to each Plaintiff (i.e., $20,000 total) for their services in 12 pursuing the action and assisting with settlement efforts, and for release of their individual 13 claims,

14 The balance of $75,398.27 will be allocated as PAGA Penalties in accordance with the California
15 Labor Code (“Labor Code”) § 2699(i). (S.A. ¶¶ 3.1-3.2.) Of this amount:

- 16 • seventy-five percent (75%), or $56,548.70, will be paid to the California Labor and 17 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and
- 18 • twenty-five percent (25%), or $18,849.56, will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees on 19 a pro rata basis based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked during the PAGA
20 Period. (S.A. ¶ 3.2.4.)

21 This results in an average PAGA-only payment of approximately $47.12 per employee, which is 22 meaningful relief for Aggrieved Employees given that the Settlement does not release any individual 23 damages or statutory claims, and the value is being distributed solely for representative penalties under 24 PAGA. (S.A. ¶ 5.1.)

25 This settlement merits full approval because it furthers the statutory goals of PAGA:

- 26 • To deter future California Labor Code violations,
- 27 • To incentivize employer compliance with wage and hour laws,

- And to provide meaningful enforcement of California labor standards for the public benefit. (See Labor Code § 2698 et seq.; Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980.)

Approval of the Settlement is governed by Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), which provides that “[t]he superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed pursuant to this part.” Consistent with California Supreme Court precedent, PAGA settlements are not subject to the requirements of class certification (such as numerosity, typicality, adequacy, or commonality), and there is no preliminary/final two-step process as is required in class actions. (See Arias, supra, at pp. 975–976; Iskanian v. CLS Transp. Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 380–382.)

For these reasons—and those discussed in more detail below—Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant approval of the PAGA Settlement as fair, reasonable, and in the public interest.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant is a behavioral health facility headquartered in Ventura, California, providing inpatient and outpatient psychiatric care. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 13.) Plaintiff Bobbitt was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt Mental Health Worker and Nurse. Plaintiff Lopez was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt Mental Health Worker.

Plaintiffs allege that throughout the PAGA Period, Plaintiffs and other Aggrieved Employees—including Nurses, Mental Health Workers, non-exempt Clinical Staff and other non-exempt positions—were responsible for executing Defendant’s business operations. Plaintiffs allege that these employees were uniformly subjected to the same systemic wage and hour violations, driven by Defendant’s common policies, procedures, and working conditions. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14.)

On February 24, 2022, Plaintiff Alexis Bobbitt filed an action in the Superior Court of California, County of Ventura, Case No. 56-2022-00563179-CU-OE-VTA, against Defendant (the “Bobbitt Action”) alleging a single cause of action against Defendant for civil penalties under the PAGA based on allegations that Defendant failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages and sick time wages; failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods; failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements and/or maintain records; and failed to timely pay wages during and upon separation of employment. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 15-17; Exhibit A to Bokhour Decl.)

1 On January 6, 2023, Plaintiff Lucia Lopez filed an action in the Superior Court of California,
2 County of Ventura, Case No. 56-2023-00574248-CU-OE-VTA, against Defendant (the “Lopez Action”)
3 alleging similar, overlapping violations under the PAGA against Defendant. (Id.)

4 The Parties in the Bobbitt Action and the Lopez Action thereafter agreed to a collective settlement
5 (described hereinafter) and therefore agreed to consolidate the two actions into Case No. 56-2022-
6 00563179-CU-OE-VTA (this “Action”).

7 On October 3, 2025, the Court granted the Parties’ stipulation to consolidate, and all future filings
8 in both matters shall be made under the Bobbitt Action, which is the earlier filed case. (Id.)

9 After some formal discovery, the parties agreed to attend private mediation and put a hold on 10 formal discovery. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 18.) The parties selected David Phillips, Esq. to serve as neutral
11 mediator. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 19.)

12 In advance of mediation, the Parties engaged in an informal exchange of relevant information and 13 documents. Defendant produced policy documents and a sampling of time and payroll records, which 14 enabled PAGA Counsel to conduct a thorough analysis of liability exposure, identify representative
15 violations, and formulate damages and penalties models. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 20.) As part of this informal
16 discovery, PAGA Counsel analyzed issues including, but not limited to, meal and rest period violations, 17 regular rate miscalculations, wage statement violations, and late payment penalties. Plaintiffs also 18 reviewed applicable policies, practices, and pay data to evaluate the risks and potential recovery at trial.
19 (Id.) (See also Declaration of Joshua Falakassa in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Approval of PAGA
20 Settlement (“Falakassa Decl.”))

21 Following these efforts, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation on May 2, 2025, before
22 David Phillips, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of complex wage and hour class and PAGA
23 actions. With the mediator’s assistance, the Parties reached a negotiated resolution of the claims asserted
24 in this action. (S.A., Recitals ¶ 2.3; Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21.) The Parties thereafter memorialized the material
25 terms in a formal Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement, which is now presented to the 26 Court for review and approval. Pursuant to a stipulation by the parties and the order executed by this 27 Court, on July 21, 2025, Plaintiff Bobbitt filed a First Amended Representative Action Complaint
28 (“Operative Complaint”) asserting an additional claim for failure to pay overtime wages based on an

1 invalid Alternative Workweek Schedule. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 21-22; Ex. B.) Subsequently, both matters
2 were deemed consolidated.

3 III. THE PAGA AND ITS REQUIREMENTS

4 The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), codified at Labor Code § 2698 et seq.,
5 provides a mechanism for aggrieved employees to recover civil penalties on behalf of the State of 6 California for violations of the Labor Code committed by their employers. Before PAGA, the 7 enforcement of such civil penalties was vested exclusively in California's labor enforcement agencies.
8 (Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980.)

9 However, recognizing both the limited resources of enforcement agencies and the prevalence of 10 Labor Code violations, the California Legislature determined it was in the public interest to deputize
11 private individuals as “private attorneys general” to enforce the law. (Id.) As the Legislature explained:
12 “The only meaningful deterrent to unlawful conduct is the vigorous assessment and collection of civil 13 penalties as provided in the Labor Code.” (Stats. 2003, ch. 906, § 1(b).) Labor Code § 90.5(a) reinforces 14 that California’s labor laws exist to prevent employees from being “required or permitted to work under 15 substandard unlawful conditions,” and protect compliant employers from unfair competition by those 16 who cut corners on labor standards. The Legislature further found that: Labor enforcement agencies had 17 insufficient staffing, unlikely to keep pace with growth in the labor market, and allowing private 18 enforcement through PAGA was a necessary supplement—while retaining agency primacy over
19 enforcement. (Stats. 2003, ch. 906, § 1(c).)

20 Under Labor Code § 2699(i), civil penalties recovered in a PAGA action are distributed: 75% to 21 the LWDA for enforcement and education efforts, and 25% to the aggrieved employees.

22 Before bringing a PAGA action, the employee must satisfy notice and exhaustion requirements
23 under Labor Code § 2699.3(a) by submitting written notice to both the employer and the LWDA
24 identifying the specific Labor Code provisions allegedly violated. The LWDA may then investigate or 25 respond; if it declines to investigate or does not act within the statutory period, the aggrieved employee
26 may proceed. (See Lab. Code §§ 2699.3(a)(2), 2699(h).)

27 In this case, Plaintiffs submitted timely PAGA Notice Letters on December 12, 2021, January 6, 28 2023, and June 30, 2025, notifying the LWDA and Defendant of the alleged violations. The LWDA did

1 not intervene, thereby authorizing Plaintiffs to proceed with this enforcement action on behalf of the 2 State. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 15–17.) Thus, the entire recovery in this case—the $180,000 Gross Settlement
3 Amount—is the result of enforcement efforts undertaken solely by Plaintiffs and their counsels. The 4 LWDA was provided with notice of the proposed Settlement Agreement and of this Motion, in 5 accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 41.)

6 PAGA also requires that any settlement of a PAGA claim brought by an aggrieved employee
7 must be approved by the Court. (Ibid.) In Arias, the California Supreme Court held that PAGA
8 representative actions are not subject to class certification requirements, nor is notice required for other 9 employees. (Arias, 46 Cal.4th at 975–76, 980–88.) The plaintiff is deemed to act as a proxy or agent of 10 California’s labor law enforcement agencies. (Id. at 986.)

11 Accordingly, the Court’s role is to review the terms of the PAGA settlement to ensure they are 12 fair, reasonable, and in the public interest, that this proposed Settlement fully satisfies, as discussed 13 below.

14 IV. THE SETTLEMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF PAGA PENALTIES

15 The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

16 A. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF PAGA PENALTIES

17 The Settlement provides that Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of 18 $180,000 (the “Gross Settlement Amount”), which is inclusive of:

- 19 • Civil penalties payable to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees,
- 20 • Attorneys’ fees and costs,
- 21 • Administration Expenses Payment, and
- 22 • Service Awards to Plaintiffs (S.A. ¶ 3.2.2; Bokhour Decl., Ex. B.)

23 Following deductions of up to $60,000 in attorneys’ fees, $20,251.73 in litigation costs, up to 24 $4,350 in Administration Expenses Payment, and $10,000 in Service Awards to each of the two named 25 Plaintiffs, the remaining amount—approximately $75,398.27—constitutes the PAGA Penalties. (See 26 S.A. ¶¶ 3.1-3.2.)

27 Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(i) and the terms of the Settlement:

- 28 • 75 percent of the PAGA Penalties ($56,548.70) will be paid to the LWDA (See S.A. ¶¶

1.22, 3.2.4.);

- The remaining 25 percent ($18,849.56) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro-rata basis based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period. (See S.A. ¶¶ 1.11, 3.2.4.)

This structure complies with the statutory distribution scheme and provides meaningful recovery to the State and to employees, without the possibility of reversion to Defendant. Uncashed settlement checks will escheat to the State of California Unclaimed Property Fund in accordance with California law. (See S.A. ¶ 4.4.3.)

The following chart reflects the estimated payments from the Settlement Agreement:

	Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$180,000.00
PAGA Counsel Fees Payment	$60,000.00
PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment	$20,251.73
Administration Expenses Payment	$4,350.00
Plaintiffs' Service Awards ($10k each)	$20,000.00
PAGA Penalties	$75,398.27
75% to the LWDA	$56,548.70
25% to Aggrieved Employees	$18,849.56

As such, the LWDA will receive approximately $56,548.70 (75 percent of the PAGA Penalties) and the Aggrieved Employees will collectively receive approximately $18,849.56 (25 percent of the PAGA Penalties), which will be paid on a pro-rata basis according to the number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. The average payment to the Aggrieved Employees is approximately $47.12. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

Defendant estimated, based on its records, that as of May 2, 2025, the Aggrieved Employees worked 12,100 PAGA Pay Periods. If the final accounting of the total PAGA Pay Periods for the PAGA Period increases by more than 10% of that estimate (i.e., above 13,310), then Defendant shall increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a proportional amount (e.g., if there was a 15% increase in the number of PAGA Pay Periods, Defendant will increase the maximum settlement amount by 5%). (S.A. ¶ 8; Bokhour Decl. ¶ 42.)

1 B. PAYMENT AND THE NOTICE

2 Defendant will fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to the 3 Administrator 30 days after the Effective Date. (See S.A. ¶ 4.3.) The “Effective Date” is defined as the 4 date by which both of the following have occurred: (a) the Court enters a Judgment on its Order
5 Approving the PAGA Settlement, (b) the later of: (i) the date sixty (60) days after the entry of the Final
6 Order and Judgment, if no motions for reconsideration and no appeals or other efforts to obtain review
7 have been filed; or (b) in the event that a motion for reconsideration, an appeal or other effort to obtain
8 review of the Final Order and Judgment, the date sixty (60) days after such reconsideration, appeal or 9 review has been finally concluded. (See S.A. ¶ 1.9.)

10 Within fourteen (14) days after Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the 11 Settlement Administrator will issue payments to:

- 12 • The Aggrieved Employees (25% of the PAGA Penalties),
- 13 • The LWDA (75% of the PAGA Penalties),
- 14 • The Settlement Administrator (for the Administration Expenses Payment),
- 15 • Plaintiffs (Service Awards), and
- 16 • PAGA Counsel (approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs).

17 (See S.A. ¶¶ 4.4.)

18 Each Aggrieved Employee will have one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of issuance to 19 cash their settlement checks. (See S.A. ¶ 4.4.1.) If any checks remain uncashed after that time, those 20 funds will be voided and submitted to the California State Controller’s Office – Unclaimed Property Fund
21 in the name of the respective Aggrieved Employee. (See S.A. ¶ 4.4.3.)

22 C. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION TO THE AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES

23 As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA Penalties—or 24 $18,849.56—will be allocated to the Aggrieved Employees. (See S.A. § 3.2.4.) According to data
25 provided by Defendant, approximately 400 Aggrieved Employees will share in this allocation on a pro
26 rata basis, based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods each individual worked during the applicable
27 PAGA Period. (See S.A. ¶ 1.11.)

1 The PAGA Period is defined in the Settlement Agreement to cover the period from December 21,
2 2020 to May 2, 2025. (See S.A. ¶ 1.19.)

3 The portion of each Aggrieved Employee's share of the PAGA Penalties will be treated as non-
4 wage income and, to the extent required by law, will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 by the Settlement
5 Administrator.

6 D. THE RELEASE

7 The California Supreme Court has held that a judgment in "a representative action brought by an 8 aggrieved employee under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ... is binding not only 9 on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a
10 party to the proceeding." (Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 985–986.)

11 Here, the release in the Settlement Agreement is narrowly tailored and binds only the LWDA, the 12 State of California, and the Aggrieved Employees, and only as to PAGA civil penalty claims. The release
13 is triggered upon Defendant's full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. (See S.A. ¶ 5.)

14 The relevant language provides:

15 5. RELEASE OF CLAIMS. Effective on the date when Defendant fully 16 funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiffs and Aggrieved
17 Employees will release claims against all Released Parties¹ as follows:

18 5.1 Release by the LWDA, State of California, and Aggrieved Employees:
19 The LWDA, State of California, and all Aggrieved Employees are deemed 20 to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present 21 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and 22 assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA Penalties that were 23 alleged or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in 24 the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notices.

25 Given these parameters, the release is appropriately narrow and consistent with California law
26 governing representative PAGA actions and related to claims alleged and identified in the Plaintiffs'
27 PAGA Notice Letters. Accordingly, the Parties respectfully submit that the scope of the release is both 28 reasonable and enforceable.

¹ "Released Parties" means Defendant and any of its past, present, and future parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, partners, members, shareholders and agents, attorneys, and any other successors, assigns, or legal representatives. Released Parties include, but are not limited to, Vista Del Mar Hospital, Aurora Behavioral Health Care Vista Del Mar, LLC, and Signature Healthcare Services, LLC. [See S.A. ¶ 1.28.]

1 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND REASONABLE AND WARRANTS COURT
2 APPROVAL

3 In 2016, the California Legislature amended PAGA to require that “[t]he superior court shall
4 review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed pursuant to this part.” (Lab. Code §
5 2699(1)(2).) The same provision requires that the proposed settlement be submitted to the LWDA at the 6 same time it is submitted to the Court. Plaintiffs have complied with this requirement. The Settlement
7 Agreement and this Motion for Approval have been concurrently submitted to the LWDA. (Bokhour
8 Decl. ¶ 41; Ex. C.)

9 Beyond procedural compliance, courts must evaluate whether a proposed PAGA settlement is 10 fair, reasonable, and consistent with PAGA’s statutory purpose—namely, to deter Labor Code violations, 11 incentivize employer compliance, and serve the State’s interest in enforcing labor standards. (See Arias 12 v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980.) Courts have held that a PAGA settlement should be 13 approved where it represents a genuine and informed compromise, particularly when the parties have 14 participated in arm’s-length negotiations (such as mediation), exchanged relevant data or discovery, and 15 thoroughly evaluated liability, exposure, and litigation risks. (See Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72
16 Cal.App.5th 56, 76.)

17 Here, the Parties engaged in meaningful pre-settlement litigation efforts. They conducted 18 discovery and factual investigation through substantive and comprehensive informal exchanges of 19 Defendant’s policies and a sampling of time and payroll records. PAGA Counsel reviewed this data and 20 conducted an exposure analysis to assess penalties and litigation risks. The Parties then participated in a
21 full-day private mediation with experienced wage and hour mediator David Phillips, Esq., and reached a 22 negotiated resolution only after extensive analysis and good-faith negotiations. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 19– 23 21.)

24 The resulting non-reversionary $180,000 settlement reflects a fair and reasonable compromise. It
25 accounts for Defendant’s asserted defenses as well as the challenges of proving liability and penalties,
26 and the Court’s discretion to reduce penalties under Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). Of the PAGA Penalties,
27 $56,548.70 will be paid to the LWDA and $18,849.56 will be distributed to approximately 400 Aggrieved
28 Employees on a pro rata basis based on approximately 12,100 PAGA Pay Periods. Given the strength of

1 Plaintiffs’ claims, the risks of further litigation, and the real and meaningful recovery for both the State
2 and employees, the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the public interest.
3 Accordingly, the Parties respectfully request that the Court grant approval.

4 A. EVALUATION OF THE PAGA SETTLEMENT

5 Although PAGA and its legislative history do not expressly require courts to evaluate settlements
6 against the theoretical “maximum value” of the claims, courts routinely assess whether the penalties
7 recovered are reasonable in light of the potential exposure and litigation risks. Here, even under that 8 framework, the penalties provided under the Settlement are fair and reasonable.

9 Plaintiffs estimate that Defendant’s maximum potential penalty exposure was approximately 10 $1,210,000, based on approximately 12,100 PAGA Pay Periods and the statutory $100 per-pay-period
11 penalty for a violation (12,100 x $100). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 30.) . (Id.) This maximum figure is grounded
12 in Plaintiffs’ core theories—namely, unpaid minimum wages, unpaid and/or underpaid overtime and sick
13 pay due to improper “regular rate of pay” calculations and improper Alternative Work Schedule, meal
14 and rest break violations, and derivative penalties for inaccurate wage statements, and untimely final 15 wages.

16 Plaintiffs based this estimate on civil penalties available under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2), which 17 generally provides $100 for an initial violation and $200 for each subsequent violation, per aggrieved
18 employee, per pay period—citing Amaral v. Cintas Corp. (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, Plaintiffs
19 asserted that Defendant’s notice of the alleged violations through the PAGA Notice Letters justified
20 applying at least the $100 rate for each pay period after the notices were served. However, Plaintiffs 21 acknowledge that some courts have held that the $200 “subsequent violation” rate applies only after an 22 employer has been put on notice of a violation by a court or commission, not merely by the PAGA letter.
23 (See, e.g., Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1309 v. Laidlaw Transit Servs., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 24 69842, *26 (C.D. Cal.)) Defendant maintains that the higher $200 rate does not apply and that only the 25 $100 rate is available.

26 However, this maximum amount does not consider the various risks and potential defenses to the 27 claims herein. Moreover, Defendant disputes liability altogether and argues that, even if violations
28 occurred, the Court has discretion under Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) to significantly reduce any penalties

1 “based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case,” including where an award might otherwise
2 be “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” Defendant further asserts that any violations were 3 unintentional, isolated, or de minimis and that any penalties should be mitigated due to the absence of 4 “willfulness” or based on their good-faith compliance efforts. They also argue that stacking penalties for 5 multiple derivative violations (e.g., wage statements and final pay) would be improper and excessive.

6 Despite these defenses and the litigation risks, Plaintiffs secured a $180,000 PAGA penalty
7 fund—representing approximately 15% of the total maximum exposure. This result reflects a meaningful 8 compromise following a thorough and extensive investigation, informal discovery, and private mediation.
9 PAGA Counsel analyzed time and pay data, reviewed Defendant’s policies and procedures, and modeled
10 potential penalty outcomes using the data provided for approximately 20% of the Aggrieved Employees
11 during the relevant time period. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 20, 30.)

12 The agreed-upon penalty fund ensures meaningful recovery to the State and affected employees
13 while avoiding the uncertainty and cost of further litigation. It advances the goals of PAGA and is neither 14 unjust, arbitrary, nor excessive. Accordingly, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution of the 15 disputed claims and warrants the Court’s approval.

16 B. THE REQUESTED SERVICE AWARD TO PLAINTIFFS IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

17 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve a $10,000 Service Award to each of the two 18 named Plaintiffs in recognition of their time, effort, and commitment in prosecuting this Action on behalf
19 of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees. The award is reasonable given Plaintiffs’ active 20 roles in the cases, including assisting counsel in preparing pleadings and declarations, participating in 21 discovery and arbitration-related proceedings, attending status conferences, reviewing Defendant’s
22 policy documents and payroll data, and providing input throughout mediation and the settlement 23 negotiations.

24 Courts routinely approve service or enhancement awards in PAGA-only cases to compensate
25 plaintiffs who invest time and energy in advancing claims for the benefit of others. Such awards reflect
26 the burden representative plaintiffs undertake and the critical role they play in enforcing the Labor Code
27 where state resources may be limited. (See, e.g., Gonzalez v. CoreCivic of Tennessee, LLC (E.D. Cal.
28 Mar. 30, 2022) 2022 WL 1050300, at *6 [approving $7,500 service award in PAGA-only settlement].)

1 Here, Plaintiffs helped initiate this enforcement action, litigated status conferences, and supported
2 resolution of the case following extensive discovery and analysis. These efforts ultimately led to a
3 significant, non-reversionary $180,000 PAGA settlement. As the California Supreme Court has 4 explained, a PAGA plaintiff “represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement
5 agencies,” and acts as a proxy for the State in vindicating public rights. (Arias v. Superior Court (2009)
6 46 Cal.4th 969, 986; Iskanian v. CLS Transp. (2014) 59 Cal.4th 348, 387.)

7 In light of Plaintiffs’ meaningful contributions to this matter and the strong result obtained on 8 behalf of the State and Aggrieved Employees, the requested $10,000 Service Award for each Plaintiff is 9 fair, reasonable, and appropriate. Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve the 10 award as part of the overall settlement.

11 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND LITIGATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND 12 REASONABLE

13 For their efforts and the risk they undertook in obtaining a common fund settlement that benefits
14 the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, the Parties allocated $60,000 to PAGA Counsel for reasonable 15 attorneys’ fees, which is one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount. Additionally, the Parties agreed to 16 reimburse PAGA Counsel for their actual litigation costs. These fees are warranted under the law and 17 within the range of fees commonly awarded in similar cases. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 31.)

18 A. PAGA COUNSEL ARE ENTITLED TO RECOVER ATTORNEYS’ FEES UNDER THE 19 COMMON FUND DOCTRINE IN THIS QUI TAM ACTION

20 PAGA provides that a plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees, expenses, and 21 costs under section 2699(g)(1) of the California Labor Code, which provides that, “Any employee who 22 prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, including any 23 filing fee paid pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or subparagraph (B) of 24 paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 2699.3.” As discussed below, in a qui tam action, reasonable 25 attorney’s fees and costs are typically awarded under the common fund doctrine where, as here, the 26 litigation creates a common fund of money in a specific amount for the benefit of others.

27 “A qui tam action is one brought under a statute that allows a private person to sue as a private 28 attorney general to recover damages or penalties, all or part of which will be paid to the government.”

1 People ex rel. Stratham v. Acacia Research Corp. (2012) 210 Cal.App.4th 487, 491-492. “A qui tam
2 action ‘is a type of private attorney general lawsuit’ (citation), in which ‘the qui tam Plaintiffs stand in 3 the shoes of the state or political subdivision (citation).” Id. at 501. As the name of the PAGA statute
4 makes clear (e.g., “Labor Code Private Attorney General Act”), a PAGA action is a qui tam action
5 because the statute allows the employee plaintiff, acting as the proxy of the state’s labor law enforcement
6 agency, to sue his or her employer for Labor Code violations and recover civil penalties that otherwise
7 would have been assessed and collected by the LWDA. Iskanian, 59 Cal.4th at 380. “A PAGA
8 representative action is therefore a type of qui tam action.” Id. at 382. Indeed, the majority of the civil 9 penalties recovered in a PAGA action are paid to the state, with a smaller portion paid to the aggrieved
10 employees (e.g., 75% paid to the state; 25% paid to the aggrieved employees). See Labor Code § 2699(i).

11 As here, where a common fund is created in a qui tam action by the successful litigation of a 12 plaintiff and his attorneys, the attorneys are entitled to recover their fees from the common fund. Bank
13 of America v. Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-91. In Bank of America, California taxpayers
14 compelled the State Controller to enforce the Unclaimed Property Law against banks who were retaining 15 accounts that should have been turned over to the State. Because of the success of the taxpayers’ lawsuit, 16 a common fund was created in favor of some depositors and the State of California. Id. When the 17 taxpayers’ attorneys sought recovery of their attorney’s fees from the judgment under the common fund
18 doctrine, the Controller opposed the request. The Court of Appeal affirmed the trial court’s fee award to 19 the taxpayers’ counsel under the common fund doctrine stating:

20 “Those benefiting from the recovery of the fund, in this case some depositors
21 and eventually the People of the State of California, must bear their share of the 22 cost of litigation. Fees for taxpayers’ attorneys will be deducted from the 23 judgment, and each claimant’s share reduced proportionately. To the extent the 24 judgment relies upon section 1021.5 for recovery of attorney fees, it must be 25 modified to confine the award of fees to the common fund theory.” Id. at p. 91.

26 In this case, the PAGA Settlement creates a common fund for the benefit of the employees and 27 the State of California. Thus, these beneficiaries must bear their share of the costs and attorneys’ fees, 28 which fees and costs must be deducted from the settlement amount under the common fund theory. Id.
Moreover, such fees are deducted as a percentage of the settlement amount. Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert
(1980) 444 U.S. 472, 478-482; Six (6) Mexican Workers v. Arizona Citrus Growers (9th Cir. 1990) 904

1 F.2d 1301, 1311; Williams v. MGM-Pathe Communications Co. (9th Cir. 1997) 129 F.3d 1026, 1027;
2 Staton v. Boeing Co.(9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 967.

3 The California Supreme Court upheld the use of the common fund theory of recovery for 4 attorneys' fees in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 506. In Laffitte, the settlement
5 created a common fund of $19 million dollars. This ruling is consistent with the Court's prior rulings
6 recognizing that "when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action
7 brought by ... Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such ...
8 Plaintiff may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." Serrano III v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34; 9 Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980) ["(A) lawyer who recovers a common fund . . . is 10 entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees from the fund as a whole"]; Mills v. Electric Auto-Lite Co. (1970)
11 396 U.S. 375, 393-394 [discussing the acceptance of awarding attorneys' fees and expenses from a 12 settlement where "litigation has conferred a substantial benefit on the members of an ascertainable
13 class"]; see also Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26 ["(f)ee spreading
14 occurs when a settlement or adjudication results in the establishment of a separate or so-called common 15 fund for the benefit of the class."].)

16 Accordingly, the common fund doctrine allows a court to award attorneys' fees based upon a
17 percentage of the total fund that is created for the satisfaction of beneficiaries' claims when the fund
18 consists of a "certain or easily calculable sum of money." Dunk v. Ford Motor, Co. (1996) 48
19 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1809; Jutkowitz v. Bourns, Inc. (1981) 118 Cal.App.3d 102, 1,282.91 [application of 20 the percentage of the fund recovery depended on "(t)he critical point" that "a fund was created from 21 which attorneys' fees could be paid"]; A. Conte & H. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 14:6 (4th 22 ed. 2002).

23 California law has long upheld, and continues to uphold, the percentage of the recovery method
24 for awarding attorneys' fees where a fund is established. See e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25,
25 34; Bell v. Farmers Insurance Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726; Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008)
26 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 563 ["fees based on a percentage of the benefits are in fact appropriate in large class
27 actions..."]; Sanders v. City of Los Angeles (1970) 3 Cal.3d 252, 261, 263 [affirming award of attorneys'
28 fee based on percentage of recovery]; Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at pp. 65-66; see

1 also Consumer Cause, Inc. v. Mrs. Gooch's Natural Food Markets, Inc. (2005) 127 Cal.App.4th 387,
2 397 [the common fund doctrine is “frequently applied in class actions when the efforts of the attorney
3 for the named class representatives produce monetary benefits for the entire class”]; Wershba v. Apple
4 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 [“courts recognize two methods for calculating attorney
5 fees in class actions: the lodestar/multiplier method and the percentage of recovery”].

6 Based on the foregoing, awarding attorneys’ fees of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount is 7 fair and warranted in light of the PAGA settlement that was reached on behalf of the State of California
8 and Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, awarding fees on this basis in this amount is reasonable and 9 appropriate. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 31-39.)

10 B. THE PERCENTAGE FEE OF THE GROSS SETTLEMENT AMOUNT IS FAIR AND 11 REASONABLE

12 An award of fees from the Gross Settlement Amount under the common fund doctrine prevents 13 unjust enrichment of those who benefit from the common fund created through the successful efforts of 14 PAGA Counsel and furthers the important goal of attracting competent counsel to handle representative 15 actions enforcing minimum labor standards. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503. In affirming the use of the 16 common fund doctrine in California, the California Supreme Court summarized the benefits of the 17 percentage method of recovery stating: “The recognized advantages of the percentage method—
18 including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 19 approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to 20 seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation (citations)—convince us the 21 percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id.)

22 Among the factors considered in determining whether the requested fee percentage is reasonable
23 are: (1) the results achieved; (2) the risk of further litigation; (3) the skill required of PAGA Counsel and 24 the quality of work performed by PAGA Counsel ; (4) the contingent nature of the fee and the financial 25 burden carried by the Plaintiffs; and (5) awards made in similar cases. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th 26 Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-50. All these factors support an award here of one-third of the common 27 fund.
28

1 First, PAGA Counsel achieved a superb PAGA settlement in a case that involved highly contested
2 issues that were primarily related to small, alleged underpayments, as well as limited meal and rest break
3 violation rates.

4 Second, Plaintiffs faced significant risks going forward with the litigation. As discussed above,
5 Defendant raised various defenses and, as such, Plaintiffs faced risky issues going forward with this 6 litigation, and it would have taken significant time to realize any recovery in this action.

7 Third, PAGA Counsel are experienced representative PAGA action litigators, including having 8 been selected as a “Super Lawyer” in employment litigation and having achieved large PAGA awards in 9 the State of California (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 3-8; Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 30.) This experience and expertise,
10 combined with the high quality of work performed by PAGA Counsel, resulted in the settlement achieved 11 in this case.

12 Fourth, as discussed above and as set forth in the Declaration of PAGA Counsel, the request for 13 attorneys’ fees falls well within the norms accepted by state and federal courts in California in comparable 14 wage and hour actions actually handled by PAGA Counsel.

15 For all of the above reasons, a fee award of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and 16 reasonable.

17 C. A LODESTAR CROSS-CHECK CONFIRMS THE REASONABLENESS OF THE FEE AWARD

18 Despite recognized limitations of the lodestar method, California and federal courts often find it
19 useful as a “cross-check” on the reasonableness of percentage-based attorneys’ fee requests.² Lealao, 20 supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 46-47. Under this approach, the court calculates counsel’s total lodestar by 21 multiplying the hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their respective 22 hourly rates. The resulting figure may then be adjusted using a multiplier based on factors such as the 23 novelty or difficulty of the issues, the contingency risk, and the results achieved. (See PLCM Group, Inc.
24 v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1095–96; Press v. Lucky Stores, Inc. (1983) 34 Cal.3d 311, 322;
25 Lealao, supra, at 43.)

26
27 ² In practice, the lodestar method is difficult to apply, time-consuming to administer, inconsistent in result, and capable of 28 manipulation. In addition, the lodestar creates inherent incentive to prolong the litigation until sufficient hours have been expended. Herr, David F., Manual for Complex Litigation, § 14.121 (1988); see also In re Activision (N.D. Cal 1989) 723
F.Supp 1373.

The requested fee of $60,000 is fully supported by Plaintiffs' Counsel's lodestar, which does not require the application of a multiplier to reach the requested amount. The requested fee is thus reasonable and appropriate under both the percentage-of-recovery method and the lodestar cross-check.

The table below summarizes the lodestar calculation:

Lodestar Summary

Attorney	Experience	Hourly Rate	Total Hours	Lodestar
Mehrdad Bokhour	13 years	$700	43.0 ³	$30,100.00
Joshua Falakassa	12 years	$675	40.5 ⁴	$27,337.50
James Hawkins	28 years	$1,050	15.2	$15,960.00
Christina Lucio	18 years	$775	23.7	$18,367.50
Mitchell Murray	13 years	$750	25.3	$18,975.00
Paul Brown	3 years	$500	32.4	$16,200.00
TOTAL				$126,940.00

(See Bokhour Decl. ¶ 36; Falakassa Decl. ¶ 29; Hawkins Decl. ¶ 30.)

The hourly rates requested by PAGA Counsel are consistent with rates approved by California courts for attorneys of similar skill, experience, and reputation in complex wage-and-hour matters. The starting point for determining a reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing market rate in the relevant legal community. (See PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1095; Chavez v. City of Los Angeles (2010) 47 Cal.4th 970, 985.)

Given that Mr. Bokhour (13 years) requests $700 per hour, Mr. Falakassa (12 years) requests $675 per hour, Mr. Hawkins (28 years), Ms. Lucio (18 years), Mr. Murray (13 years), and Paul Brown (3 years), their rates fall squarely within this approved and prevailing range for experienced counsel handling complex representative employment matters in California.

³ Includes an estimated 5 hours of additional work in preparation for and attending the hearing, as well as work that is anticipated to be performed after the hearing with counsel, administrator, employees, and the court.

⁴ Includes an estimated 5 hours of additional work in preparation for and attending the hearing, as well as work that is anticipated to be performed after the hearing with counsel, administrator, employees, and the court.

1 Thus, the hourly rates used in Plaintiffs' lodestar calculation are well-supported by recent
2 authority, and further confirm that the requested attorneys' fees are fair, reasonable, and consistent with 3 market standards.

4 D. THE REQUESTED LITIGATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

5 PAGA Counsel respectfully requests reimbursement of their actual out-of-pocket litigation
6 expenses incurred in prosecuting this action. These costs were both reasonable and necessary to the 7 effective representation of Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees. Courts routinely allow prevailing
8 plaintiffs to recover such costs under the common fund doctrine, which applies equally to representative
9 PAGA actions. (See Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 35 [common fund doctrine permits recovery
10 of fees and costs from the fund]; Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 11 Cal.App.4th 1410, 1424 n.6 11 [litigation costs may be recovered for the same reasons supporting a fee award].)

12 Additionally, courts recognize that counsel is entitled to recover "those out-of-pocket expenses
13 that would normally be charged to a fee-paying client." (Harris v. Marhoefer (9th Cir. 1994) 24 F.3d 16, 14 19.) Such reimbursable expenses may include filing fees, mediation costs, court reporting, research, and 15 related case administration expenses.

16 Here, the Settlement Agreement authorizes recovery of litigation costs of up to $30,000. (S.A. ¶ 17 3.2.1.) However, PAGA Counsel seeks reimbursement of $20,251.73, which reflects their actual costs
18 through the anticipated approval hearing. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 39; Hawkins Decl. ¶ 32.) These costs are 19 modest in relation to the size and complexity of the case and are uncontested by Defendant.

20 Because the requested costs are well-documented, reasonably incurred, and fall below the cap set
21 by the Settlement, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve reimbursement in the amount of 22 $20,251.73. The remaining balance of the Gross Settlement Amount will be directed to the PAGA
23 Penalties, benefiting the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees.

24 VII. SUBMISSION TO THE LWDA

25 As required by Labor Code § 2699(l)(2), Plaintiffs have concurrently submitted the Settlement
26 Agreement and this Motion for Approval to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency.
27 (See Bokhour Decl. ¶ 41.) Proof of the electronic submission to the LWDA is attached as Exhibit C to 28 the Bokhour Declaration.

1 VIII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

2 ILYM Group, Inc. ("ILYM") has been selected to serve as the Settlement Administrator. ILYM
3 will be responsible for issuing settlement payments, providing notice to Aggrieved Employees, handling
4 tax reporting, and performing other standard administrative functions related to the Settlement. ILYM
5 submitted an all-inclusive bid to administer the Settlement for $4,350, which will be paid from the Gross
6 Settlement Amount. (See S.A. ¶ 3.2.3.)

7 IX. CONCLUSION

8 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request (without opposition from Defendant)
9 that the Court grant approval of the Parties' PAGA Settlement Agreement pursuant to Labor Code §
10 2699(1)(2). The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and it advances the enforcement goals of the 11 PAGA by providing meaningful relief to the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees.
