Attorneys for Plaintiff Alfredo Sanchez

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

ALFREDO SANCHEZ, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, and as an aggrieved employee and Private Attorney General,

Plaintiff,

vs.

GREENWORLD, INC., a California
corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: CVRI2105756

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

- (1) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 (Unpaid Overtime)
- (2) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) (Unpaid Meal Period Premiums)
- (3) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 226.7 (Unpaid Rest Period Premiums)
- (4) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.2, 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 (Unpaid Minimum Wages)
- (5) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid)
- (6) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 226(a) (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements)
- (7) Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses)
- (8) Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.
- (9) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 2699, (Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiff ALFREDO SANCHEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members of 2 the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that either
3 have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 4 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants GREENWORLD, INC. and DOES 1
7 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
8 violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay
9 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods,
10 failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements,
11 failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-12 related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on behalf
14 of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively 15 referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 13, below) pursuant 16 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by 17 Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 18 according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or more of 21 the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by 24 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according 25 to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except 28 those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify

1 any other basis for jurisdiction.

2 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
3 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise
4 intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over 5 them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
7 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Riverside.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff ALFREDO SANCHEZ is an individual residing in the State of California.

10 8. Defendant GREENWORLD, INC., is and at all times herein mentioned was, a 11 corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do 12 business in the state of California.

13 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and 14 therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals,
15 partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times
16 mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee,
17 co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned 18 acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency,
19 employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true
20 names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 21 each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences
22 herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct.
23 GREENWORLD, INC. and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as 24 "Defendants."

25 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the 26 County of Riverside, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the 27 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

28 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the

1 working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and
2 the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly 3 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

4 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

5 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on his own
6 behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks 7 class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

8 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
9 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4)
10 years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class
11 action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.").

12 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

13 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 14 litigation:

15 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members 16 is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this 17 time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity
18 of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment 19 records.

20 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated 21 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
22 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

23 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class 24 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of 25 claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other 26 Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 27 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 28 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;

d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members when

- 1 they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods;
- 2 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
- 3 Members for all hours worked;
- 4 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required
- 5 minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 6 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper
- 7 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 8 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff proper wages for rest and recovery periods
- 9 and non-productive time;
- 10 k. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class
- 11 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from
- 12 employment;
- 13 l. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all
- 14 necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 15 m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor
- 16 Code, including section 226;
- 17 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- 18 o. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 19 p. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
- 20 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper
- 21 withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 22 q. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting
- 23 from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 24 r. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages
- 25 pursuant to the California Labor Code.

26 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

27 17. Defendants are a wholesale nursery and produce grower.

28 18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a cutter from approximately July 2019 to 1 July 2021.

2 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

4 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire
5 and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work
6 rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class,
7 and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and 8 the Aggrieved Employees.

9 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State
10 of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

11 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in a 12 pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in 13 more detail below, this pattern and practice of wage abuse involved, inter alia, regularly failing to pay
14 all wages earned and owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum, 15 overtime wages, and wages for non-productive time and rest and recovery periods. Defendants also 16 implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 17 recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 18 Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and 19 the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of 20 California law. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 21 for all necessary business-related expenses, failed to timely pay wages during employment and upon 22 termination of employment, and failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

23 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
24 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with 25 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and the 26 Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish control
27 over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly failed to 28 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take their meal

1 periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from
2 taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their fifth hour of work
3 and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour
4 of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records
5 of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

6 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under California
8 law. Moreover, Defendants often disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and 9 timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants'
10 actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way
11 that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class,
12 and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their meal periods, for which they were not 13 compensated.

14 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
15 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
16 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that 17 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment
18 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late,
19 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to provide legally 20 compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to 21 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 22 rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

23 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
24 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking 25 timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit
26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for 27 every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 28 periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith effort to

1 authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

2 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
3 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under California
4 law. Moreover, Defendants often disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and
5 timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants'
6 actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way
7 that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty free rest periods, and to regularly require 8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their rest periods.

9 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
10 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
11 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that
12 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment
13 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, 14 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to authorize and 15 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failed to 16 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 17 rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or interrupted.

18 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
19 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although Defendants
20 prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
22 Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they were not compensated.

23 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees were compensated by Defendants on a piece-rate basis. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
25 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for non-productive time and rest and recovery periods at least 26 the applicable minimum wage.

27 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies that 28 prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time

1 worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

2 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

4 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
5 all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they
6 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week,
7 or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week.
8 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 9 entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages
10 for overtime compensation.

11 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay overtime to 12 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular 13 rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

14 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
15 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.
16 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 17 entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at 18 least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter
19 alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage
20 pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform
21 work off the clock and failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for non-22 productive time and rest and recovery periods.

23 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 25 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
27 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation,

1 including overtime compensation, minimum wages, wages for non-productive time and rest and
2 recovery periods, and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California
3 Labor Code section 202.

4 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under 6 California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew or should 7 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages
8 owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not 9 receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum wages, wages for non-10 productive time and rest and recovery periods, and meal and rest period premiums.

11 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 12 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
13 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 14 entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 15 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
16 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages
17 earned, the correct rates of pay, net wages earned, all applicable hourly rates, number of piece-rate 18 units paid and any applicable piece rate, and the correct address of the legal entity of the employer.
19 The wage statements further improperly listed the full social security numbers of Plaintiff, the Class,
20 and the Aggrieved Employees

21 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to keep 22 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
23 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and accurate
24 payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with California 25 law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

26 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 27 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
28 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, piece-rate unites, hours per pay period, and applicable pay

1 rates.

2 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
3 or should have known that Defendants were required to produce employee records for inspection
4 upon request pursuant to California Labor Code sections 226, 432, and 1198.5, but failed to do so.
5 Plaintiff requested his records pursuant to these Labor Code provisions on November 8, 2021, but 6 Defendants failed to ever produce the requested records to Plaintiff.

7 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
9 including but not limited to gloves and tools. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants
10 were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary
11 business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

12 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 13 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant 14 to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, 15 knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase Defendants' 17 profits.

18 44. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code 19 shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or 20 her] under this article."

21 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
25 allegation set forth above.

26 46. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
27 ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a 28 rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

48. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

49. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

50. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

52. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

53. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every

1 allegation set forth above.

2 55. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
3 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

4 56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer
5 shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of 6 the California IWC.

7 57. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
8 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a 9 work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period
10 of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no 11 more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and 12 employee.

13 58. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an 14 employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten 15 (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not 16 less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, 17 the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if 18 the first meal period was not waived.

19 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 20 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-
21 mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5)
22 hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

23 60. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 24 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for periods
25 longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) 26 minutes.

27 61. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
28 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

62. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

63. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

64. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against All Defendants)

65. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

66. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

67. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

68. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours."

69. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest

1 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

2 70. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other
3 Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to 4 take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to 5 take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

6 71. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class
7 Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7 for work
8 performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other Class
9 Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

10 72. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code
11 section 226.7.

12 73. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 13 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional 14 hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work day that the rest 15 period was not provided.

16 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.2 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 74. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every 20 allegation set forth above.

21 75. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide 22 that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum 23 so fixed is unlawful.

24 76. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage to 25 Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 26 1197, and 1197.1.

27 77. California Labor Code section 226.2(a)(1) further provides that employees who are 28 compensated on a piece-rate basis during a pay period shall be compensated for rest and recovery

1 periods and other non-productive time separate from any piece-rate compensation.

2 78. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3), employees who are
3 compensated on a piece rate basis shall be separately compensated for rest and recovery periods at a
4 regular hourly rate that is no less than the higher of: (1) the average hourly rate determined by dividing
5 the total compensation for the workweek, exclusive of any compensation for rest and recovery periods
6 and any premium compensation for overtime, by the total hours worked during the workweek,
7 exclusive of rest and recovery periods; or (2) the applicable minimum wages.

8 79. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.2(a)(4), employees who are 9 compensated on a piece rate basis shall be separately compensated shall be separately compensated
10 for any other non-productive time at an hourly rate that is no less than the applicable minimum wage.

11 80. During the relevant time period, Defendants compensated Plaintiff and other Class
12 Members on a piece-rate basis, but failed to separately compensate Plaintiff and the Class for rest and 13 recovery periods and other non-productive time, in violation of California Labor Code section 226.2.

14 81. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum wage 15 as required violates California Labor Code sections 226.2, 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those 16 sections, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their 17 minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated damages
18 in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

19 82. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other Class
20 Members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully 21 unpaid and interest thereon.

22 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
26 allegation set forth above.

27 84. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 28 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of

1 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or 2 her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 3 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the 4 employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

5 85. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
6 Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
7 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed
8 by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to minimum wages,
9 straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants'
10 employ.

11 86. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer 12 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 13 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

14 87. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
15 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue 16 as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but 17 the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

18 88. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants are 19 entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up 20 to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

21 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
25 allegation set forth above.

26 90. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides 27 that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in 28 writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of

1 piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4)
2 all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated
3 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 4 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name
5 and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during 6 the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.
7 The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form,
8 properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the 9 deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or 10 at a central location within the State of California.

11 91. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
12 with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to the failure
13 list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, net wages
14 earned, all applicable hourly rates, and the number of piece-rate units paid and any applicable piece
15 rate. Defendants also improperly listed the complete social security numbers of the Plaintiff and the 16 Class.

17 92. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff
18 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

19 93. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional
20 and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their 21 legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements
22 pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

23 94. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual 24 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an 25 aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

26 95. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with 27 this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).
28

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
5 allegation set forth above.

6 97. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 7 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence
8 of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct 9 consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

10 98. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were 11 not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-
12 related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred
13 as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

14 99. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class
15 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover 16 from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of 17 their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary
18 expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

19 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 100. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
23 allegation set forth above.

24 101. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful 25 and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors.
26 Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 27 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

28 102. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute

1 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 2 17200, et seq.

3 103. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be 4 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and 5 practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without paying 6 them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally,
7 Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work
8 through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor
9 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay 10 wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

11 104. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 12 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

13 105. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully 14 gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

15 106. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business
16 acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or 17 property.

18 107. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
19 and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a 20 period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees
21 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award 22 of costs.

23 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 108. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
27 allegation set forth above.

28 109. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of himself

1 and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private 2 Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

3 110. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for 4 violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision
5 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
6 Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 7 employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action 8 brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 9 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

10 111. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
11 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 12 employee” under PAGA.

13 112. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants have 14 routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes 15 by:

- 16 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 17 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 18 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees wages for rest and recovery periods 19 and non-productive time in violation of Labor Code § 226.2.
- 20 c. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
21 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 22 d. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 23 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 24 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 25 and 512.
- 26 e. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take 27 duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an 28 additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code

1 §§ 226.7 and 512.

2 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of 3 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.

4 g. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during 5 employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.

6 h. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate,
7 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

8 i. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees’ 9 work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and 10 compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the 11 applicable IWC Wage Order.

12 j. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-
13 related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

14 113. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually
15 and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to 16 recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not 17 limited to penalties under Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order, penalties under California
18 Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all 19 additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The 20 exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

21 114. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.
22 On December 2, 2021, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and 23 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
24 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that 25 Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s
26 intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under 27 Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed
28 since the mailing of Plaintiff’s December 2, 2021 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development

Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

115. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

116. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code §2699.3.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class;
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and
4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

As to the First Cause of Action

5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and other Class Members;

6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194; and

9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the Class;

11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided;

12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiff and the Class;

18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the Class of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;

19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7;

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

and

22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.2, 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the Class;

24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

25. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1 for Plaintiff and the Class in the amount as may be established according to proof at trial;

26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

27. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

28. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and other Class Members no longer employed by Defendants;

31. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for Plaintiff and other Class Members who have left Defendants' employ;

33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the Class, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

37. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e); and

38. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

39. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802;

40. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

41. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

42. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

43. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

44. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. by failing to provide Plaintiff and the Class all overtime compensation due to them, failing to provide all meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the Class, failing to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiff and the Class, failing to pay Plaintiff's and other Class Members' wages timely as required by California Labor Code section 201, 202 and 204 and by violating California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), 2800, and 2802;

45. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and the Class and all pre-judgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

46. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violation of California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;

47. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5;

48. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; and

49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

50. For statutory attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 2699(g)(1) of California Labor Code;

51. For the imposition of civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699, 210,

1 558, 226, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and all other penalties allowed by the California Labor Code and/or 2 other applicable statutes; and 3 52. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
