1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.769 (d) and (e), Plaintiff Melinda Andre (“Plaintiff”)
3 requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, 4 including claims under the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Lab. Code §
5 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against Defendant Supportive Hospice Care Corp. (“Defendant”) (collectively, 6 Plaintiff and Defendant referred to as, the “Parties”). The putative class consists of approximately 250 7 non-exempt employees employed by Defendant in California (individually, “Class Member”; 8 collectively, the “Class”) from June 19, 2017 to October 29, 2025 (the “Class Period”). The basic terms
9 of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”)¹ 10 provide for the following:

- 11 (1) A non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $450,000² allocated to approximately 250 Class 12 Members on a pro rata basis according to the number of weeks each Class Member worked 13 during the Class Period;
- 14 (2) An award of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently $150,000) and up to 15 $30,000 in reimbursement of costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel for services rendered as counsel on this 16 matter;
- 17 (3) Incentive Award of up to $10,000 to Plaintiff Melinda Andre;
- 18 (4) Settlement Administration fees and costs of up to $7,995; and
- 19 (5) Allocation of $20,000 for settlement of claims for civil penalties under PAGA. Seventy-five 20 percent (75%) of this payment will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development
21 Agency (“LWDA Payment”), and twenty-five percent (25%) will be paid to the Net Settlement 22 Amount for distribution to PAGA Group Members.

23 The Settlement satisfies the criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within the range of 24 _____

25 ¹ A true and correct copy of the fully-executed “Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement” is 26 attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Alex J. Valle in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary 27 Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Valle Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith. Unless otherwise 28 defined herein, all capitalized terms in this Motion will be used as such terms are defined and used in the Settlement.

² Defendant will also separately pay an individual settlement to Plaintiff of $50,000 in exchange for a release of all of her individual claims against it.

1 reasonableness given the risks and costs of continued litigation. The Settlement was reached through 2 informed, arms-length bargaining at and after mediation between experienced attorneys. As such, 3 Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the 4 Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's 5 Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint Phoenix Settlement Administrators as the Settlement Administrator, 6 authorize the Settlement Administrator to send notice of the Settlement, and set a final approval hearing 7 date.

8 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

9 On December 14, 2021, Plaintiff filed this class action on behalf of Defendant's non-exempt 10 employees and alleged the following claims: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime 11 wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to permit rest breaks; (5) failure to provide accurate 12 wage statements; (6) failure to pay all wages timely and upon separation of employment; and (7) violation 13 of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., based on the preceding claims. Valle Decl., ¶ 3.

14 On December 14, 2021, before adding a PAGA claim, Plaintiff provided written notice to the 15 LWDA and Defendant regarding Defendant's alleged Labor Code violations, as required by Lab. Code § 16 2699.3(a). Valle Decl., ¶ 4, Ex. 2. The LWDA did not respond to this notice, indicating it did not intend 17 to investigate, thus allowing Plaintiff to bring a PAGA claim against Defendant. Id. As such, on July 14, 18 2022, Plaintiff filed her First Amended Complaint to add a claim for PAGA. Id.

19 Through formal discovery, Defendant produced significant amount of documents and information, 20 including Plaintiff's personnel files, policy documents, the class members' contact information, and class 21 members' timekeeping and pay records. Valle Decl., ¶ 5. Plaintiff's Counsel contacted several Class 22 Members to obtain additional information about their work experiences with Defendant and potential 23 claims. Id. After formal discovery and engaging in numerous discussions between the Parties' attorneys, 24 the Parties agreed to attend a private mediation session. Id.

25 On October 29, 2025, the Parties attended a mediation session with Hon. Richard Stone (Ret.), a 26 respected mediator. Valle Decl., ¶ 6. The Parties agreed to settle this matter and executed a memorandum 27 of understanding that memorialized the terms of their agreement. Id. The Parties spent the next several 28 months negotiating the terms of the Settlement, which was finalized in January 2026. Id. The negotiations

1 were adversarial, conducted at arm's length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the 2 interests of their clients. Id. Plaintiff submitted the Settlement to the LWDA pursuant to Lab. Code §
3 2699(1)(2). Id. at ¶ 7, Ex. 3.

4 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

5 A. Terms of Settlement

6 Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to settle the class claims in exchange for a Gross Settlement 7 Amount of $450,000. Valle Decl., Ex. 1, § 3.1. The Gross Settlement Amount will be used to make 8 payments for the following: (1) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members; (2)
9 attorneys' fees to Class Counsel of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount; (3) reimbursement 10 of Class Counsel's litigation costs of up to $30,000; (4) an Incentive Award to Plaintiff of up to $10,000;
11 (5) Settlement Administration fees and costs of $7,995; and (6) a payment to the LWDA of $15,000 12 pursuant to PAGA. Id. at §§ 3.2-3.2.6. Class Members' Individual Settlement Payments will be 13 distributed after final approval of the Settlement and Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount. Id.
14 at §§ 4.3-4.4. Individual Settlement Payments will be calculated by comparing the total Qualifying 15 Workweeks for the Class to each individual Class Member's Qualifying Workweeks. Id. at § 3.2.5. With 16 approximately 250 Class Members, the Net Settlement Amount allocates an average of around $930 per 17 Class Member. The Settlement Administrator will calculate the actual estimated recovery to include in 18 the Class Notice and provide the estimated low and high range of possible recovery at final approval.
19 Id. at Ex. A.

20 The Parties have agreed to allocate $20,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount to the resolution of 21 PAGA Group Members' claims arising under PAGA. Settlement Agreement, § 3.2.6. Of this amount, 22 75% will go to the LWDA and the remaining 25% will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees which 23 re defined as all non-exempt employees employed by Defendant in California at any time from 24 December 14, 2020 through October 29, 2025 (the "PAGA Period"), regardless of whether he or she 25 opts out of the class settlement. Settlement Agreement, §§ 1.4, 1.31, 7.4.5. The PAGA Settlement 26 Amount will be divided between all Aggrieved Employees in proportion to the number of pay periods 27 that each PAGA Group Member worked during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 3.2.6.1.

1 The Individual Settlement Payments to Class Members will be allocated for tax purposes as 2 follows: 20% to wages; 80% to penalties and interest. Valle Decl., Ex. 1 § 3.2.5.1. The PAGA Settlement 3 Amount to be distributed to Aggrieved Employees are to be considered 100% penalties. Id. at § 3.2.6.2.
4 The employer-side payroll taxes on the portion allocated to wages will be paid by Defendant separately
5 from, and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.1. No portion of the Gross Settlement 6 Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. Funds from uncashed or undeliverable checks will be tendered by 7 the Settlement Administrator to the State Controller Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class 8 Member for whom the funds are designated. Id. at § 4.4.3.

9 B. Proposed Opt-Out and Objection Process

10 The Settlement Administrator will send Class Members the Notice of Class Action Settlement 11 (“Class Notice”) by first-class mail after checking for updated addresses through the National Change of 12 Address database. Valle Decl., Ex. 1, § 7.4.2. The Class Notice provides information regarding the nature 13 of the lawsuit, a summary of the substance of the settlement terms, the formula for calculating Individual 14 Settlement Payments, the individual’s estimated payout, a statement that Class Members who take no 15 action will release their claims and receive settlement checks, instructions regarding how to dispute the 16 calculations, instructions regarding how to request exclusion or object to the Settlement, the date for the 17 final approval hearing, the amounts sought for attorneys’ fees and costs, the Settlement Administration 18 Costs, the class representative’s Incentive Award, the PAGA allocation, and information on how to 19 access the court’s website to view the case records. Id. at Ex. A.

20 The Class Notice provides instructions for Class Members who choose to exclude themselves 21 from the Settlement. Valle Decl., Ex. 1(A). To opt out, Class Members are instructed to submit a Request 22 for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator by a specified date (60 days after the date of mailing of the 23 Class Notice). Id. Class Members do not need to submit a claim form to participate in the Settlement. Id.
24 Class Members are informed of how they can object to the Settlement, and the Class Notice informs Class 25 Members of the date, time, and location of the final fairness and approval hearing so that they can appear 26 in person. Id. Accordingly, the content of the Class Notice complies with the requirements of Cal. R. Ct.
27 3.766(d).
28

1 If Class Notice packets are returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will perform a 2 skip-trace or other search, and re-mail the Class Notice with an extended deadline, to opt out or object, of 3 14 days from the date of mailing. Valle Decl., Ex. 1, § 7.4.4. The initial 60-day notice period and extension 4 process ensures the notice program provides due process by giving Class Members enough time to 5 determine whether they want to participate in the Settlement. This means of notice is reasonably calculated 6 to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.766 (d)-(f).

7 C. Proposed Release

8 The release to be given by Class Members is limited to the Defendant and each of its former and 9 present directors, officers, shareholders, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, 10 subsidiaries, and affiliates (“Released Parties”). Valle Decl., Ex. 1, § 1.41. Under the proposed release, 11 Class Members who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement will be deemed to have released 12 the following “Released Claims” against the Released Parties:

13 all claims alleged or that could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the Operative 14 Complaint, which arose during the Class Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of [the 15 Settlement Agreement], Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, 16 including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

17 Id § 5.2.

18 Aggrieved Employees will also release the Released Parties from all claims for civil penalties 19 under PAGA arising during the PAGA Period that were alleged or could have been alleged, based on 20 the facts stated in the Operative Complaint, and PAGA Notice. Id. at § 5.3.

21 Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release of any and all claims, whether known or unknown, 22 which exist or may exist on Plaintiff’s behalf as of the date of the Settlement, and a waiver of Civ. Code 23 § 1542. Settlement Agreement, §§ 5.1-5.1.1.

24 IV. LEGAL ARGUMENTS SUPPORTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

25 A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

26 Class certification is appropriate when there exists (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous 27 class, (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members, and (3) when certification would 28

1 be a fair and efficient means of adjudicating the action, rendering class litigation superior to alternative 2 means. See Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012).

3 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

4 Whether a class is “ascertainable” is “determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the 5 size of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying class members.” Reyes v. Bd. of Supervisors, 6 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271 (1987). Here, the Class consists of all non-exempt employees employed 7 by Defendant in California from June 19, 2017 to October 29, 2025. Valle Decl., Ex. 1, §§ 1.5, 1.12.
8 Defendant’s records show the Class consists of approximately 250 individuals, making joinder of all 9 Class Members impracticable. Valle Decl., ¶ 8. Further, the Class is readily ascertainable from 10 Defendant’s business records because all Class Members are current or former employees of Defendant.
11 Id.

12 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists Among Class Members

13 “[T]he ‘community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 14 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) 15 class representatives who can adequately represent the class.’” Fireside Bank v. Superior Court, 40 Cal.
16 4th 1069, 1089 (2007) (quoting Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470 (1981)).

17 a. Common Questions Predominate

18 To assess whether common questions predominate, courts focus on whether the theories of 19 recovery advanced are likely to prove amenable to class treatment. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
20 Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 327 (2004). In other words, courts determine whether the elements 21 necessary to establish liability are susceptible of common proof, even if the class members must 22 individually prove their damages. Brinker, supra, 53 Cal. 4th at 1021-1022, 1024.

23 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant maintained uniform employment policies and/or practices that 24 illegally deprived Class Members of lawful wages, meal periods, rest breaks, accurate wage statements, 25 and waiting time pay. Valle Decl., ¶ 9. Plaintiff’s allegations present common legal and factual questions 26 of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, minimum and overtime pay, 27 meal period, and rest break policies to all Class Members; whether these policies and practices resulted in 28 Labor Code violations; whether Defendant’s conduct was intentional; and whether Class Members are

1 entitled to penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class Members' schedules, 2 time punches, and payroll records, Defendant's corporate representative's testimony, written 3 communications between Defendant and Class Members, and Class Member declarations. Id. Thus, the 4 Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

5 b. Plaintiff's Claims are Typical of the Class Claims

6 The typicality requirement is satisfied when the legal theories and facts supporting Plaintiff's 7 claims are substantially similar to other class members. See Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 46 8 (1983). Here, Plaintiff alleges that she and other Class Members were employed by Defendant and 9 injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant's 10 scheduling, timekeeping, minimum wage pay, overtime pay, meal period, and rest break policies. Valle 11 Decl., ¶ 10. Through documents and information exchanged in formal discovery, including production 12 of thousands of pages of documents by Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that these common policies and 13 practices similarly affected Plaintiff and the Class. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's claims arise from the same 14 employment practices and are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to other Class 15 Members, as further explained in Plaintiff's exposure analysis below.

16 c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Interests of 17 the Proposed Class

18 Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative(s) and proposed class 19 counsel. With respect to the class representative, a plaintiff must adequately represent and protect the 20 interests of other members of the class and demonstrate that his or her claim is not inconsistent with the 21 claims of other members of the class. See Capitol People First v. State Dep't of Developmental Servs., 22 155 Cal. App. 4th 676, 696-697 (2007). Here, Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with the interests of 23 the Class. Declaration of Melinda Andre ("Andre Decl."), ¶ 6. Plaintiff demonstrated an ability to 24 advocate for the interests of the Class by initiating this litigation, gathering documents and information, 25 responding to discovery, sitting for deposition, being available on the day of mediation to answer 26 questions, meeting with their attorneys on several occasions to understand the claims and theories of 27 liability at issue, assisting attorneys in preparing for mediation, reviewing the proposed settlement 28 agreement and its terms to make sure it was fair. Id. at ¶ 7,

1 Likewise, Aegis Law Firm, PC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will 2 continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Valle Decl. Accordingly, Plaintiff should be 3 appointed Class Representative, and Plaintiff's Counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

4 3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

5 Class treatment is superior to other methods of adjudication when the probability is small that 6 each class member will come forward to prove his or her claim and when the class approach would deter 7 and redress the alleged wrongdoing. See Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435, 446 (2000);
8 Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 1537-1538 (2008). Here, none of the other 9 250 Class Members had shown any interest in bearing the expense and burden of litigating their own 10 claims. Valle Decl., ¶ 22. Thus, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

11 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

12 Preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a "reasonable range." See North 13 County Contractor's Ass'n., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Servs., 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994);
14 Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, § 11.26 (4th ed. 2002). In reviewing the fairness of a 15 class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is "otherwise a private consensual 16 agreement between the parties." Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1389 17 (2010). The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the 18 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, 19 and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id.

20 Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where (1) the settlement is reached through "arms-21 length bargaining"; (2) investigation and discovery are "sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 22 intelligently"; (3) counsel is "experienced in similar litigation"; and (4) the percentage of objectors "is 23 small." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996). The Settlement satisfies the first 24 three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at the final approval stage.

25 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

26 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's-Length Negotiations

27 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 28 evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are

1 conducted in good faith. Here, the Settlement was the product of a mediation session with a respected 2 mediator, after formal discovery. Valle Decl., ¶¶ 5-6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at 3 arm's length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. at ¶ 6.
4 The amount of Plaintiff's requested Class Representative Enhancement and individual settlement was 5 not negotiated until after the Parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. Id.
6 at ¶ 23.

7 b. Plaintiff's Counsel Conducted Sufficient Investigation and Discovery

8 Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the class claims, applicable law, and potential 9 defenses. See generally, Valle Decl. In particular, Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value of the class 10 claims using Defendant's data and documents produced through formal discovery. Valle Decl., ¶ 5.
11 Plaintiff's counsel extensively reviewed policy documents and Class Members' time and pay records to 12 perform a thorough exposure analysis. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel fully understood the 13 strengths and weaknesses of the claims before the Parties reached a settlement. Id. at ¶ 10.

14 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

15 Plaintiff is represented by Aegis Law Firm ("Class Counsel"). Class Counsel prosecute wage and 16 hour class actions on behalf of employees and others who have had their rights violated. Valle Decl., ¶¶ 17 25-39. The attorneys working on this case have been appointed class counsel in many cases, through 18 both contested motions and settlement approval motions. Id. Thus, Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive 19 experience in similar litigation and should be appointed as Class Counsel.

20 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and 21 the Risks and Expense of Litigation

22 Courts have discretion to approve class settlements by assessing several factors, including the 23 "strength of plaintiffs' case, risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation and risk 24 of maintaining the class action through trial." Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A., 186 Cal.
25 App. 4th 399, 407 (2010); see Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 129 (2008).

26 While Plaintiff and her counsel believed and continue to believe this is a strong case for 27 certification, the significant risks and expenses associated with class certification and liability 28 proceedings were taken into account. Valle Decl. ¶ 12. To determine if the amount offered at mediation

1 was reasonable, Plaintiff’s Counsel weighed that figure against many risk factors. Id. at ¶ 13. If Plaintiff
2 continued to prosecute the claims rather than accept a settlement, Plaintiff would have faced deadlines 3 to file a motion for class certification, had to have engaged in more formal written discovery and taken 4 depositions, expended time and resources to resolve disputes, prepared and filed potential dispositive 5 motions and/or discovery motions, and engaged in extensive trial preparation. Id. at ¶ 14. An adverse 6 ruling at any one of these stages could have prevented the Class from obtaining any recovery. Id.

7 a. Exposure Analysis

8 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered a fair and 9 reasonable settlement. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal. App. 3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Rather, 10 compromise is expected:

11 Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if “the relief afforded 12 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 13 successfully litigated,” this is no bar to a class settlement because “the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”

14 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 250 (2001) (citation omitted). Here, Plaintiff 15 contend that her claims are based on Defendant’s common, class-wide policies and procedures, and that 16 liability could be determined on a class-wide basis without dependence on individual assessments of 17 liability. Valle Decl., ¶ 11. Although the amount of Defendant’s potential exposure – if proven – is 18 substantial, the legitimate and serious risks of succeeding at class certification and trial compelled a 19 serious consideration of the benefit of a settlement. Id. at ¶ 13.

20 Unpaid Wages Claims: Plaintiff’s minimum wage claims were premised on the theories that 21 Defendant underpaid on-call time, and did not pay employees for time spent completing paperwork 22 during their shifts or traveling during their lunch breaks. Valle Decl., ¶ 15. Plaintiff calculated that the 23 minimum wage claim was worth approximately $3.2 million. Id. However, Defendant argued that it 24 had compliant meal period policies informing employees not to work during breaks, it complied with 25 applicable law regarding recording of hours worked, and it did not stop Class Members from recording 26 time spent completing paper work or traveling. Id. As such, Plaintiff discounted this claim accordingly.
27 Id.

1 Overtime Wages Claims: Plaintiff's overtime claims were premised on the theories that 2 Defendant paid hours worked in excess of 8 hours per shift at straight time, rather than overtime. Valle 3 Decl., ¶ 16. Plaintiff calculated that the overtime claim was worth approximately $600,000. Id.
4 However, Defendant argued that most Class Members were properly paid overtime, and could defeat 5 this claim by showing that only a small number (unlikely to meet numerosity requirements) were not 6 correctly paid overtime. Id. As such, Plaintiff discounted this claim accordingly. Id.

7 Meal Break Claims: Plaintiff's theory of liability for meal period violations was based on 8 Defendant's failure to provide meal periods after 5 hours of work, interrupted meal periods, failed to 9 provide second meal periods, and failure to pay premiums when the records showed violations. Valle 10 Decl., ¶ 17. Plaintiff's damages could reach $2,400,000 for meal period violations. Id. However, 11 Defendant argued that it had compliant policies that provided for lawful meal periods, and employees
12 waived their meal periods voluntarily. Id. Certification would likely have required depositions of Class
13 Members who provided declarations, and Defendant surely would have obtained opposing declarations 14 stating either meal breaks were taken or were voluntarily waived. See, e.g., Ordonez v. Radio Shack, 15 Inc., 2013 WL 210223, at *11 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 17, 2013) ("Because of the competing testimony before 16 the Court, plaintiff's evidence that defendant may have an illegal, written rest break policy is insufficient 17 for this Court to find that common issues predominate."); Villa v. United Site Servs. of California, Inc., 18 2012 WL 5503550, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2012) ("Indeed, Plaintiff's own evidence confirms that the 19 written policy does not generate uniform practices."). As a result, Plaintiff discounted this claim 20 accordingly. Id.

21 Rest Break Claims: Plaintiff's rest break claim was based on the allegations that Defendant failed 22 to provide rest breaks when working full shifts each day, and failed to pay rest break premiums. Valle 23 Decl., ¶ 18. Assuming a 50% violation rate, Plaintiff's expert calculated that this claim could be worth 24 approximately $1.4 million. Id. However, Defendant argued that it had compliant policies for most of 25 the Class Period that provided for lawful rest breaks, and employees could waive their rest breaks 26 voluntarily. Id. Moreover, after interviewing Class Members, few Class Members stated that they 27 suffered rest break violations, making it hard to recover full damages for this claim, even if Plaintiff 28 could certify it. Id. Certification would likely have required depositions of Class Members who provided

1 declarations, and Defendant surely would have obtained opposing declarations stating either rest breaks
2 were taken or rest breaks were voluntarily waived. See, e.g., Ordonez, 2013 WL 210223, at *11; Villa, 3 2012 WL 5503550, at *8. As a result, Plaintiff discounted this claim significantly. Id.

4 Reimbursement Claims: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the theories that Defendant 5 did not reimburse employees for mileage incurred for traveling to visit clients or for using their cell
6 phones to contact clients. Valle Decl., ¶ 19. Assuming violations in every month, Plaintiff's expert 7 calculated that this claim could be worth as much as $1.6 million. Id. However, Defendant argued that 8 it paid a reimbursement of $30 per month that was designed to cover the use of personal cell phones, it 9 reimbursed mileage at the IRS rate, and it provided employees with laptops so they could work at 10 patient's houses. Id. As a result, Plaintiff discounted this claim significantly, as she believed this claim 11 would be hard to recover the full value. Id.

12 Derivative Waiting Time and Wage Statement Penalty Claims: Plaintiff's Counsel also considered 13 the arguable presence of various penalties, and weighed the potential recoveries against probable defenses.
14 Valle Decl., ¶ 20. Specifically, Defendant could argue that Plaintiff could not prove the "willful" prong 15 needed to obtain waiting time penalties under Lab. Code § 203. Id. Additionally, Defendant could argue 16 that Plaintiff could not show that Class Members suffered an "injury" as a result of wage statement 17 violations, as required by Lab. Code § 226. Id. Although the Class arguably could have seen a payout of 18 approximately $670,000 for waiting time penalties and $616,000 for wage statement penalties, Plaintiff 19 would not recover any of these derivative penalties if she failed to prove the underlying claims. Id. This 20 was especially true where Defendant had compliant policies for most of the Class Period, provided 21 reimbursements, and had paid wages for on-call time. Id. Thus, Plaintiff discounted these claims 22 appropriately. Id.

23 PAGA Claim: The PAGA claim presented even higher hurdles. Valle Decl., ¶ 21. Although 24 Plaintiff's Counsel found Defendant's exposure could potentially reach approximately $725,000 under 25 Lab. Code § 2699(f), assuming the initial penalty rate of $100 for each pay period, Plaintiff would have 26 to prove a violation in every pay period. Id. Most importantly, the Court would have discretion to reduce 27 the PAGA award based on whether the amount of the award would be "unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, 28 or confiscatory." Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2). In theory, the Court could reduce the award by 99% if it so

1 wished. Valle Decl., ¶ 21. Plaintiff was doubtful she could recover any PAGA penalties, especially if a 2 large class judgment was entered for the same violations. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff could not place a 3 high value on the PAGA penalties, and therefore allocated $20,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount to 4 settle these claims. Id.

5 C. The Requested Incentive Award for Plaintiff

6 Plaintiff seeks an Incentive Award of up to $10,000 to Plaintiff for accepting the responsibilities 7 of representing the interests of the Class and assuming risks and potential costs that were not borne by 8 any other Class Members. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him 9 or her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone
10 Termination Fee Cases, supra, 186 Cal. App. 4th at 1393; Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal. App. 4th 11 715, 726 (2004).

12 Here, Plaintiff had the option to pursue her claims individually, but instead chose to pursue this 13 class action, delaying individual recovery until approval of a class action settlement. Valle Decl., ¶ 22.
14 Throughout the case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in gathering the evidence necessary to prosecute the class 15 claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, were available on the day of mediation and 16 communicated with their attorneys during the day of mediation to answer critical questions, responded 17 to discovery, sat for a deposition, and reviewed the Settlement to make sure it was fair to the Class. Id.;
18 Andre Decl., ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually, and no 19 compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class.
20 Valle Decl., ¶ 22.

21 By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing 22 the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc., supra, 34 Cal. 4th at 340. The requested 23 Incentive Award for Plaintiff's service as the class representative and for a general release of all 24 employment claims is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. At the final approval stage, 25 Plaintiff will further support the request for Incentive Award by declaration addressing the factors for 26 the award. Valle Decl., ¶ 24.

1 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs

2 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested 3 in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
4 Attorneys' fees are awarded as a matter of equity. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees
5 equaling one-third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162
6 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage 7 method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 8 recovery").

9 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed 10 significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting the matter with no guarantee of any 11 payment. Valle Decl., ¶ 40. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval of up to one-third of the 12 Gross Settlement Amount for attorneys' fees, which is currently $150,000 and up to $30,000 in 13 reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information 14 exchange, and substantial recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel 15 achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Valle Decl. At final approval, 16 Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees and litigation 17 costs. Id. at ¶ 41.

18 V. CONCLUSION

19 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement of the class claims in light of the 20 risks present in this case. Plaintiff has appropriately presented the materials and information necessary 21 for preliminary approval, and therefore, respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the 22 Settlement and schedule a date to conduct the final approval hearing.
