COMES NOW Plaintiff DANIEL DE JESUS MORENO (“Plaintiff”), as aggrieved employees, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys’ General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against M & J SEAFOOD COMPANY, INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California” (“SEAFOOD COMPANY” and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff, or some of them, and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff, or some of them, and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Class Members in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Class Members in Los Angeles County.

4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by

1 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
2 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 3 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
4 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 5 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 6 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

7 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 8 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
9 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 10 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

11 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 12 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 13 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 14 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 15 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

16 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 17 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 18 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures
19 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 8. On or around January 31, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 21 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’
22 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 23 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

24 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 25 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
26 calendar days of the January 31, 2022 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 27 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from dispatch and others), to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from dispatch and others), to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours

1 than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and 2 failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

3 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
4 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 5 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 6 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 7 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 8 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 9 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal
10 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 11 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 12 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

13 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 14 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 15 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions
16 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 17 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 18 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 19 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 20 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

21 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 23 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 24 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 25 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 26 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 27 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 28 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

1 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
2 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 3 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
4 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
5 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 6 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other 7 Aggrieved Employees.

8 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
9 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
10 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
11 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 12 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

13 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 14 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 15 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3
16 and applicable Wage Orders.

17 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 18 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 19 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 20 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 21 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment (including 22 work boots to handle oil), for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone 23 plans, in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions
24 of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802.

25 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 26 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 27 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
28 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment;

1 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 2 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
3 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
4 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

5 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 6 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 7 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 8 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 9 all other Aggrieved Employees.

10 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 11 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 12 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 13 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 14 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 15 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

16 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
17 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 18 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 19 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 20 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 21 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 22 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 23 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor
24 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

25 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 26 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 27 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation
28 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section

1 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
2 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information
3 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 4 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

5 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other
6 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state

8 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 9 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 10 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 11 economic liberty.

12 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 13 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 14 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved

22 36. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 6 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 7 penalty as follows:

8 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 9 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 10 to recover underpaid wages;

11 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 12 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 13 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

14 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

15 43. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 24 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty 25 dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred 26 dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

27 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

28 45. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required

1 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 2 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 3 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 4 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts,

27 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
28 under Labor Code section 1174.

50. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.
