1 Plaintiff ANDRES FLORES (“Plaintiff”) individually and on behalf of other similarly
2 situated current and former employees of Defendant CERTIFIED CONCRETE, INC.
3 (“Defendant”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have 4 evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery,
5 alleges as follows:

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure
8 section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal 9 jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

10 2. Plaintiff’s First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 11 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 12 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 13 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
14 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 15 and will be established according to proof at trial.

16 3. Plaintiff’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 17 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 18 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 19 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is 20 an aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 21 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and 22 will be established according to proof at trial.

23 4. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 24 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes"
25 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 26 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

27 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, 28 Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over

1 it by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

2 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant
3 maintains offices, has agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of 4 California, County of Los Angeles. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating 5 to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the 6 County of Los Angeles, including in part, a substantive project located in Pasadena, California 7 in 2021.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff ANDRES FLORES is an individual residing in the State of California.

10 8. Defendant CERTIFIED CONCRETE, INC., at all times therein mentioned, was 11 and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation and, at all times herein mentioned,
12 whose employees are engaged in work throughout the State of California, including the County
13 of Los Angeles.

14 9. At all relevant times, Defendant CERTIFIED CONCRETE, INC. was the 15 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

16 10. At all times herein relevant, Defendant CERTIFIED CONCRETE, INC., and 17 DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 18 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or 19 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 20 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, 21 servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions 22 alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, 23 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

24 11. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 25 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said 26 defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 27 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally 28 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

12. Defendant CERTIFIED CONCRETE, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiff bring this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

15. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid and non-except employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's original Complaint to final judgment.

16. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

17. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than one hundred (100) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is

1 antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed
2 class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery,
3 certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency 4 of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been,
5 are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 6 substantial benefit of each class member.

7 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair
8 and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all 9 class members is impractical.

10 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 11 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 12 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 13 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
14 actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint 15 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 17 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 18 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 19 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in 20 accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 21 b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their 22 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours
23 worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal
24 periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 25 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over 26 eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay
27 the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class 28 members;
- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work

- during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;
 - f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
 - g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
 - h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
 - i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 1174(d);
 - j. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
 - k. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
 - l. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
 - m. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles, including a substantive project located in Pasadena, California, in 2021.

20. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

21. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees, classified them as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

22. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

23. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

25. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

26. Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for short, late, interrupted, and/or missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees all required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, including Wage Order No. 16, and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and

1 the other class member's and Aggrieved Employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was 2 missed.

3 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
5 Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at 6 Plaintiff's and the other class member's and Aggrieved Employee's regular rate of pay when a 7 rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional 8 hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members' and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate 9 of pay when a rest period was missed.

10 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
12 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they 13 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

14 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
16 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed upon discharge or resignation, including 17 overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 18 wages owed to them at the time their discharge or resignation.

19 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
21 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff
22 and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages, 23 including earned, but unpaid, overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, 24 within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

25 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved
27 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 28 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the accurate total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

1 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
3 for Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 4 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

5 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 7 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses, including in part, the use of personal 8 cellphones.

9 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class 11 members and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the 12 financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to 13 do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees
14 that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

15 39. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 16 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.
17 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees were required to work more

28 class members and Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

 44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate

1 wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

2 45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate
3 payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees.

4 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate 5 Plaintiff and the other class members and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law in 6 order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 47. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
8 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 9 to him [or her] under this article."

10 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 48. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 14 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

15 49. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 16 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, including Wage Order No. 16, provide that it is unlawful to 17 employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-18 times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

19 50. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No. 16, 20 provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members
21 employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40)
22 hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight 23 (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

24 51. The applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No. 16, further provides 25 that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime 26 compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 27 twelve (12) hours in a day.

28 52. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in

1 a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 2 work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess
3 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

4 53. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 5 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

6 54. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 7 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members and failed to pay class
8 members overtime in the amount of one-and-one half time their correct regular rate of pay.

9 55. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid 10 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 11 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

12 56. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 13 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 14 attorneys' fees.

15 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 19 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

20 58. At all relevant times, the IWC Order, including Wage Order No. 16, and California
21 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class
22 members' employment by Defendants.

23 59. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 24 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 25 applicable order of the California IWC, including Wage Order No. 16.

26 60. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No.
27 16, and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause 28 or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be

1 waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

2 61. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No.
3 16, and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require,
4 cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day
5 without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 6 (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second 7 meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the 8 first meal period was not waived.

9 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 10 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 11 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 12 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or 13 rest period.

14 63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 15 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 16 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 17 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

18 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
19 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate 20 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 21 meal periods.

22 65. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
23 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 24 226.7.

25 66. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order 26 No. 16, and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

27 67. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No. 16, and 28 California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 68. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and 5 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

6 69. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage 7 Order No. 16, and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs and the 8 other class members' employment by Defendants.

9 70. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
10 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
11 order of the California IWC, including Wage Order No. 16.

12 71. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order, including Wage Order No.
13 16, provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest 14 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the 15 "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes 16 net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof' unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

17 72. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class
18 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 19 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

20 73. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 21 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class 22 members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

23 74. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
24 class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7

25 75. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders, including Wage Order 26 No. 16, and California Labor Code section 226.7.

27 76. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including Wage Order No. 16, and 28 California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of 1 compensation for each work day that the rest period was not provided.

2 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained above, and each and
6 every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

7 78. All relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide 8 that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the 9 minimum so fixed is unlawful.

10 79. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to 11 Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 12 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

13 80. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum 14 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to 15 those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance 16 of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and 17 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

18 81. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class
19 members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each 20 employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee 21 minimum wages.

22 82. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class
23 members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

118. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

119. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

120. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

121. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

122. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

123. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;

124. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;

125. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;

1 126. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 2 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an

5 127. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of 6 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203;

7 128. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed
8 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204;

9 129. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate,
10 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;

11 130. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
12 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable
13 pay rates;

14 131. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all necessary
15 expenditures incurred by the employee in violation of Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

16 132. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 17 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and 18 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described 19 above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 20 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 25 §2699.3. On February 25, 2022, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with

28 and IWC Wage Orders, including Wage Order No. 16, that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. The LWDA assigned Plaintiff's case number LWDA-CM- 870206-22.

1 Plaintiff also submitted a filing fee of seventy-five ($75.00) to the LWDA in accordance with 2 Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(1)(B). As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have 3 elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's February 25, 2022 notice, and the Labor and Workforce
4 Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in 5 the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself
6 and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

7 134. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 8 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
9 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
10 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

11 135. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
12 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
