1 Plaintiff Maria Adelaida Sillas Cobian (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants Arcadia Gardens Management 6 Corporation, and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California 7 Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay 8 minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 9 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal 10 periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary 11 business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations 17 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants employed at any 21 time within the applicable statutory period (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved 22 Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based 25 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants 26 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare 27 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum 4 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code 5 and IWC Wage Orders;
- 6 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 7 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 8 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 9 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 10 violation occurred;
- 11 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest 12 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage 13 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 14 period violation occurred;
- 15 (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- 16 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 18 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 19 and
- 20 (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- 21 (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements 22 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 23 IWC Wage Orders.

24 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 25 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 26 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 27 willful and deliberate.
28

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, as a caregiver from July 2020 to March 2021.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendant Arcadia Gardens Management Corporation is:

- (a) A California corporation with its principal place of business in Los Angeles, California.
- (b) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los Angeles County; and
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

1 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 2 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, 3 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

4 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times 5 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 6 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 7 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges 8 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, 9 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest 10 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 11 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 12 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters 13 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 14 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 15 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 16 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

17 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18 14. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of Los 19 Angeles, State of California, as a caregiver from approximately July 2021 to March 2021. During 20 the statutory period, Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California's overtime 21 requirements, and paid Plaintiff an hourly wage.

22 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours 23 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with 24 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest 25 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all 26 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 27 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 28 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

1 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 2 not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. Plaintiff
3 and the Class were required to work “off the clock” and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff 4 and the Class were required to wait in line in order to undergo a COVID screening prior to 5 clocking into work each workday, off the clock and uncompensated. After undergoing the 6 COVID screening, Plaintiff and the Class were required to wait in line in order to clock into 7 work each workday, and when returning from meal periods, off the clock and uncompensated. In 8 maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate 9 records of the hours Plaintiff and the Class worked.

10 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 11 Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not 12 always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without 13 providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of 14 work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by 15 the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately 16 inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of 17 work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants also 18 failed to accurately record meal periods. Accordingly, Defendants’ policy and practice was to not 19 provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with California law.

20 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 21 and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants 22 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive 23 hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous 24 and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or 25 without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or 26 permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take 27 a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or 28 authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or

1 practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or 2 practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods.
3 Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 4 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during the middle of 5 each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit 6 Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

7 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the 8 Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without 9 reimbursement, such as the purchase of masks and robes. Plaintiff and the Class were also 10 required to use their own personal cellular telephones for work related purposes, without 11 reimbursement.

12 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely 13 pay Plaintiff and the Class at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all minimum 14 wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

15 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the 16 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross 17 and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, 18 correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 19 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and 20 permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage 21 statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a result of these 22 violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, 23 among other things:

- 24 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid 25 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 26 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 27 entitled;
28

- 1 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 2 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 3 though they had not been;
- 4 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid 5 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 6 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 7 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime, 8 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct 9 California rate even though they had not been;
- 10 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 11 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 12 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 13 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 14 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages 15 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 16 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 17 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to 18 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 19 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 20 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages 21 rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the 22 Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were 23 entitled.

24 Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 25 226(e), including actual damages.

26 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27 22. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 28 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil

1 Procedure § 382.

2 23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief 3 authorized by California law.

4 24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

5 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-6 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 7 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

8 25. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

9 26. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 10 conditions of all Class Members.

11 27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 12 readily ascertainable:

13 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 14 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
15 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 16 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 17 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 18 Defendants' records.

19 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 20 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-21 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) 22 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

23 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 24 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-25 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated 26 herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class 27 Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in 28

the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without

1 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 2 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum
- 3 wages, and overtime wages;
- 4 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to
- 5 Class Members;
- 6 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
- 7 wages to Class Members;
- 8 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their
- 9 discharge or resignation;
- 10 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked,
- 11 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 12 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses;
- 13 and
- 14 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a
- 15 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

16 29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 17 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 18 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any
- 19 question affecting only individual members;
- 20 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and
- 21 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 22 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all
- 23 members of the class before the Court;
- 24 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain
- 25 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a
- 26 class action;
- 27 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and
- 28 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate

1 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are 2 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members 3 of the Class for the injuries sustained;

4 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 5 individual members of the class would create a risk of:

6 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual 7 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards 8 of conduct for Defendants; and/or 9 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, 10 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other 11 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially 12 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 13 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 14 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

15 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 16 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 17 the class as a whole.

18 30. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 19 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 20 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 21 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 22 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 23 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 24 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

25 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

27 31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
28 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

1 32. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 2 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 3 not required to do so.

4 33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 5 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 6 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 7 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage 8 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

9 34. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 10 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

11 35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 12 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

13 36. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 14 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 15 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 16 Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 17 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

18 37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 19 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage 20 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

21 38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are 22 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 23 wages.

24 39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 25 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable 26 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates 27 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants 28

1 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 2 pay those wages twice a month.

3 40. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum 4 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 5 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

7 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

9 41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
10 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

11 42. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 12 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 13 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

14 43. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 15 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 16 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California 17 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 18 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

19 44. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 20 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

21 45. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class 22 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours 23 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class 24 are regularly required to work overtime hours.

25 46. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate 26 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the 27 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently 28 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

47. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

48. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

49. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact

1 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 2 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 3 the applicable Wage Orders.

4 53. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 5 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 6 plus interest thereon.

7 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

9 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
10 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

11 55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 12 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 13 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that 14 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 15 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten 16 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so 17 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 18 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest 19 period mandated under any Wage Order.

20 56. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the 21 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 22 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as 23 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 24 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 25 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

26 57. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 27 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 28 plus interest thereon.

1 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

3 58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

5 59. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 6 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiff and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 7 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 8 directions of Defendants.

9 60. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 10 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

11 61. Plaintiff and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 12 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 13 2802(b).

14 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 16 Penalties)

17 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
18 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

19 63. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 20 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 21 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, 22 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, 23 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 24 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

25 64. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 26 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 27 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 28 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be

1 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 2 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

3 65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer 4 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 5 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor 6 Code §§ 201 and 202.

7 66. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 8 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 9 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 10 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

11 67. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 12 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days 13 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

14 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 15 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs 16 incurred in this action.

17 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 19 Compliant Wage Records)

20 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
21 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

22 70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 23 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement 24 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 25 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate 26 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made 27 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 28 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 1 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 2 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 3 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 4 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

5 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 6 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 7 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list 8 the true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

9 72. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff 10 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

11 73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 12 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied 13 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage 14 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

15 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 16 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 17 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following 18 Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related 19 laws and regulations.

20 75. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 21 damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

22 76. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 23 attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor 24 Code § 226(h).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 3 et seq.)

4 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

6 78. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business 7 & Professions Code § 17201.

8 79. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 9 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff 10 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 11 Procedure § 1021.5.

12 80. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 13 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 14 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

15 81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 16 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 17 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of 18 public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, 19 and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of 20 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

22 82. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 23 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California 24 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

25 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

26 83. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation 27 of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity 28 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

1 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

2 84. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance 3 with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or 4 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

6 85. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor 7 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 8 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

10 86. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 11 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 12 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

14 87. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 15 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, 16 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17 17200, et seq.

18 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

19 88. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance 20 with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity 21 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices 23 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 24 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly 25 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

26 90. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 27 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

28 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled

1 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 2 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 3 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 4 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 5 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

6 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 7 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 8 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, 9 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 10 practices in the future.

11 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no 12 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members 13 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business 14 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 15 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and 16 will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained 17 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

18 94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 19 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 20 withholdings.

21 95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff 22 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 23 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 24 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 25 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 26 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act 3 of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

4 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 5 1 through 21 in this First Amended Complaint.

6 97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 7 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

8 98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 9 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 10 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 11 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, 12 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, 13 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or 14 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 15 2699.3.”

16 99. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor 17 Code § 2699.3. On February 19, 2022, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the Labor 18 and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific 19 provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and 20 former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations (See 21 attached as Exhibit A). Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is No. LWDA-CM-869186-22. At the 22 time of this filing, 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 23 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor 24 Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to 25 recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor 26 Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 27 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).
28

1 100. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor 2 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 3 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 4 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
5 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins 6 and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.
7 Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total 8 hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

9 101. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 10 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to 11 maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when employees 12 begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by 13 the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to 14 know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of 15 their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 16 Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an 17 unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 18 Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and 19 enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking 20 to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective 21 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to 22 comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 23 Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 24 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

25 102. Based on the conduct described in this First Amended Complaint, Plaintiff is 26 entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and 27 similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in 28

all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

104. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;
5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
7. For liquidated damages;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California

1 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 2 overtime wages due;

3 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

4 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 5 from the date such amounts were due;

6 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 7 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

8 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

9 As to the Third Cause of Action

10 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
11 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

12 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

13 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date 14 such amounts were due;

15 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 16 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

17 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

18 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

19 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
20 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date 23 such amounts were due;

24 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 25 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

26 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

27 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

1 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

3 26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be 4 appropriate;

5 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date 6 such amounts were due;

7 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

8 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

9 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

10 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California 11 Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of 12 termination of the employment;

13 31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 14 employees who have left Defendants' employ;

15 32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 16 due;

17 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and 18 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

19 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

20 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record 21 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 22 willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

23 36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

24 37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
25 Labor Code § 226(h);

26 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

27 39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

28 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

1 40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
2 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked 3 (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain 4 accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to 5 maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage 6 statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

7 41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and 8 prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

9 42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all 10 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 11 Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

12 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 13 California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

14 44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California 15 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

16 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

17 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

18 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California 19 Labor Code by failing to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide 20 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of 21 hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure 22 to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements;

23 47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, et seq., and all 24 other applicable Labor Code provisions;

25 48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 26 California Labor Code § 2699;

27 50. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.
28

As to all Causes of Action

51. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
