1 TO THIS HONORABLE COURT, ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF 2 RECORD:

3 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on December 16, 2025, at 8:30 a.m. in Department S-26
4 of the above-captioned court located at 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, CA 92415, Plaintiffs 5 PARADICE BROOKS, IGNACIO GOMEZ, and GAIL ANN GAINES (“Plaintiffs”) will, and 6 hereby do, move for an order:

- 7 1. Granting preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement 8 Agreement;
- 9 2. Appointing Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives;
- 10 3. Appointing Plaintiffs’ counsel as Class Counsel;
- 11 4. Appointing Phoenix Settlement Administrators as the Settlement Administrator;
- 12 5. Approving the form of notice to the Class and Notice Procedures;
- 13 6. Setting the hearing date for a Motion for Final Approval.

14 This motion is made on the ground that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate 15 because it is the product of arm’s-length, good-faith negotiations after significant litigation, and given 16 the relative strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses, as well as the risks involved in 17 pursuing further litigation. This motion will be based upon this Notice, the accompanying 18 Memorandum of Points and Authorities, Declaration of Reuben D. Nathan (“Nathan Decl.”), 19 Declaration of David Mara (“Mara Decl.”), Declaration of Joseph Szilagyi (“Szilagyi Decl.”), as well 20 as the pleadings and papers on file herein and upon any other matters that may be presented to the 21 Court at the hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiffs PARADICE BROOKS (“Brooks”), IGNACIO GOMEZ (“Gomez”), and GAIL 4 ANN GAINES (“Gaines”) (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) and Defendant BIG BANG ENTERPRISES, 5 INC. (“Defendant” or “BIG BANG”) have reached a proposed settlement that resolves this putative
6 wage-and-hour class action and PAGA action and seek preliminary approval of this settlement 7 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §384 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769.

8 BIG BANG is a privately held employment agency. Defendant employed Plaintiff
9 PARADICE BROOKS from approximately April 2019 through August 2019. Defendant employed
10 Plaintiff IGNACIO GOMEZ, from approximately July 2021 through October 2021. Defendant
11 employed Plaintiff GAIL ANN GAINES, from approximately May 2021 through September 2021.

12 The parties have reached a settlement of the claims alleged in the lawsuit on behalf of the 13 following class: All individuals employed in California by Defendant in hourly, non-exempt positions 14 during the Class Period¹.

15 The settlement class consists of approximately 856 employees and the Settlement provides 16 the settlement class with an average payment of approximately $642.52 gross recovery per class 17 member. The Settlement will also provide a payment of $18,750.00 to the California Labor and 18 Workforce Development Agency (i.e., 75% of the $25,000.00 amount allocated to resolve the PAGA 19 allegations). This is an excellent result for the class, which consists of approximately 856 individuals 20 (current and former similarly situated employees within the statute of limitations) and the LWDA.
21 This Settlement will fully resolve the lawsuit in connection with the claims alleged in the First 22 Amended Complaint (“FAC”). As set forth below, the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, 23 and Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary approval.

24 II. NOTICE TO THE LWDA

25 This Motion, supporting papers, and the Settlement Agreement will be submitted to the 26 LWDA PAGA Portal contemporaneously with the filing of this Motion. Nathan Decl. ¶ 77; Exhibits 27 4-6 (proofs of submission).

28

¹ “Class Period” means July 15, 2016, through August 30, 2025.

1 III. RELEVANT FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 A. The Parties and Plaintiffs' Allegations

3 Defendant employed Plaintiff PARADICE BROOKS from approximately April 2019 through 4 August 2018. Defendant employed Plaintiff IGNACIO GOMEZ, from approximately July 2021
5 through October 2021. Defendant employed Plaintiff GAIL ANN GAINES, from approximately May 6 2021 through September 2021. See Declaration of Reuben D. Nathan ("Nathan Decl.") ¶ 3.

7 Plaintiffs and all other similarly situated employees were employed by Defendant in non-8 exempt positions, which are related to Defendant's company. As non-exempt employees, Plaintiffs 9 allege that they were not paid for all hours worked, including minimum wage, on-call time pay, 10 straight time pay, overtime and double overtime pay, and reporting time pay, were not paid their 11 wages timely, denied meal and rest breaks, did not receive proper wage statements, were not paid all 12 wages upon separation, and not reimbursed for all business expenses, had wages unlawfully deducted, 13 were not provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code § 2810.5, that Defendant failed to maintain 14 accurate employment records and failed to adopt a compliant sick pay/paid time off policy. The 15 violations were consistent (i.e., not paid all wages owed including straight time and overtime, 16 premium pay, did not receive proper wage statements, were not paid or reimbursed for business-17 related expenses) throughout their employment. Nathan Decl. ¶ 4.

18 The Class Period is from July 15, 2016, through August 30, 2025. See Joint Stipulation of 19 Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Settlement Agreement") ¶ 5, Ex. 1 to Nathan Decl.

20 B. Relevant Procedural History [Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 6-14]

21 On November 14, 2019, and June 25, 2020, Brooks through her attorneys, submitted the 22 original letter and an amended letter to the LWDA for the purpose of complying with California 23 Labor Code § 2699.3's notice requirement. On December 27, 2021, Gomez through his attorneys, 24 submitted a letter to the LWDA for the purpose of complying with California Labor Code § 2699.3's 25 notice requirement. On February 9, 2022, Gaines through her attorneys, submitted a letter to the 26 LWDA for the purpose of complying with California Labor Code § 2699.3's notice requirement. On 27 July 15, 2020, Brooks filed her Class Action Complaint with the Contra Costa Superior Court; Case
28 No. MSC20-01342 ("Brooks Contra Costa Action"). On May 12, 2021, Brooks filed the Second

1 Amended Complaint in the Brooks Contra Costa Action. On December 28, 2021, Gomez filed his 2 class action Complaint with the San Bernardino Superior Court; Case No. CIVSB2135164 (“Gomez 3 Class Action”), alleging similar claims as alleged by Brooks. On March 8, 2022, Gomez filed his 4 PAGA Complaint with the San Bernardino Superior Court; Case No. CIVSB2204888 (“Gomez
5 PAGA Action”), alleging causes of action as Brooks. On February 10, 2022, Gaines filed the Class
6 Action Complaint with the Contra Costa Superior Court; Case No. MSC22-00281 (“Gaines Action”), 7 alleging causes of action similar to the claims alleged by Brooks and Gomez.

8 On July 22, 2022, Paradise Brooks, Ignacio Gomez, and Gail Ann Gaines filed the 9 consolidated First Amended Class Action Complaint (“Consolidated FAC”) in the Gomez Class 10 Action, alleging causes of action set forth in the First Amended Consolidated Complaint.

11 On October 27, 2022, the Parties in the Brooks Contra Costa Action filed the Joint Stipulation
12 for Dismissal. On October 28, 2022, the Court in the Brooks Contra Costa Action issued its Order 13 granting the Parties’ Joint Stipulation for Dismissal, dismissing the Brooks Contra Costa Action as 14 to Plaintiff’s individual claims without prejudice, the putative class claims without prejudice, the 15 PAGA claims without prejudice, and the action in its entirety, without prejudice.

16 On March 18, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation with mediator Doug 17 Leach. The Parties did not resolve the case at mediation.

18 On June 30, 2025, the Parties participated in a half day second session mediation with 19 mediator Doug Leach. The Parties resolved the case at the second session mediation.

20 C. Discovery and Investigation

21 Plaintiffs’ counsel sought and received information for the number of employees, the number 22 of pay periods, the number of workweeks, dates of employment, the average pay rate, and any meal 23 and rest break premiums paid. As a part of the mediation, Defendant provided information based on 24 the wage and time records for 856 class members. Defendant also provided Plaintiffs with hundred 25 pages of documents and various other forms of data in preparation for mediation based on a 20% 26 sampling. See Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 15; Mara Decl. ¶¶ 16-18.

27 1. Settlement Negotiations

28 All of Plaintiffs’ counsel’s pre-filing investigation and discovery during litigation aided

1 Plaintiffs in evaluating this case. Plaintiffs were thus able to enter settlement negotiations armed with 2 the information required to settle this matter for a fair and reasonable amount, having thoroughly 3 assessed the risks and prepared an estimated class-wide damages model. On March 18, 2025, the 4 Parties participated in a full-day mediation with mediator Doug Leach, which was resolved on June 5 30, 2025 in a second session. Nathan Decl. ¶ 16.

6 Furthermore, Plaintiffs' counsel is familiar with wage and hour class actions that arise with 7 similar claims alleged herein. Plaintiffs' counsel has been counsel of record and settled cases that 8 involve the same groups of employees, issues, and industry. Here there are approximately 856
9 employees. Nathan Decl. ¶ 17, 69-72; Mara Decl. ¶¶ 2-8; Szilagyi Decl. ¶¶ 3-15. Plaintiffs' counsel's 10 experience in litigating and settling similar wage and hour cases in various industries provided 11 Plaintiffs with a strong foundation to not only appreciate the strengths and the weaknesses of each 12 side's position but also how to value the claims for purposes of a settlement. Nathan Decl. ¶ 18, 69-13 72; Mara Decl. ¶¶ 2-8; Szilagyi Decl. ¶¶ 3-15.

14 During the course of the parties' settlement discussions, Defendant was forthcoming with all 15 the necessary information to evaluate the claims in this case. Nathan Decl. ¶ 19.

16 The parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Class Notice. These 17 negotiations lasted for more than one month and the parties encountered numerous difficulties in 18 reaching agreement as to the terms of the settlement and the language of the notice packet.
19 Nevertheless, the parties worked together as best they could to finalize the settlement terms, which 20 are memorialized in the Settlement Agreement. A true and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement 21 (hereinafter "Sett. Agmt.") is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Nathan Decl., which is being filed
22 concurrently herewith. The Class Notice, which consists of a Notice of Class Action and PAGA 23 Settlement and instructions on how to opt-out or object, is attached as Exhibit 2 to the Nathan Decl.
24 The Class Notice is also attached to the Proposed Order as Exh. 1. Nathan Decl. ¶ 20, Exh. 1-2.

25 The negotiations were conducted at more than arm's-length and the resulting settlement was 26 the outcome of an informed and educated analysis regarding certification and liability issues and the 27 total exposure in relation to the costs and risks affecting Plaintiffs and the Class. This settlement was 28 accomplished after discovery and investigation, with Plaintiffs having invested in extensive factual

1 and legal research, engaged in numerous discussions and exchanges of correspondence, reviewed and 2 analyzed time and payroll records and data, policy documents, and other relevant documents, and 3 conducted extensive negotiations thereafter. It was only after the parties thoroughly assessed the risks 4 that they entered into a well-reasoned settlement. Nathan Decl. ¶ 21.

5 There were risks and uncertainty regarding several factors in the case, which gave the parties
6 the perspective and the incentive to thoroughly assess the risks of the case. In addition to Defendant's 7 financial position and the fact it no longer does business in California, it is possible that Plaintiffs 8 would not be able to certify all of the claims. Plaintiffs believed it would be straightforward to certify 9 the claim for reimbursement of expenses for cell phones, however, the off-the-clock claim would 10 likely prove more challenging to certify since the payroll records and wage statements on their face 11 appear accurate and employees logged out of the system. Further, many of the rest break policies 12 appeared to be facially compliant, which would present challenges, which is supported by complaint 13 meal and rest break policies. Even if Plaintiffs succeeded in certifying some or all of the claims, there 14 was no guarantee that Plaintiffs would win on the merits, and surviving any post-trial motions or 15 appeals would have come at great litigation costs and expenses to the Class. Nathan Decl. ¶ 22.
16 These factors also support a finding that the settlement is fair and reasonable.

17 Plaintiffs' counsel thoroughly analyzed all of the available information and documents to 18 evaluate the strength of each claim and prepare a class-wide damages analysis, taking into account 19 the strengths and weaknesses of the parties' positions, the risks of litigation to arrive at this settlement.
20 Nathan Decl. ¶ 23.

21 IV. SUMMMARY OF SETTLEMENT TERMS

22 A. The Proposed Settlement Class

23 The Settlement Class to be conditionally certified shall consist of all individuals employed in 24 California by Defendant in hourly, non-exempt positions at any point between July 15, 2016, through 25 August 30, 2025. Nathan Dec. ¶ 26. See Sett. Agmt. ¶ 5 which is attached to the Nathan Decl. as Ex.
26 1.

27 B. Relief Provided by the Settlement Agreement

28 The Gross Settlement Amount is $550,000.00, which will be used to make a $18,750.00

1 payment to the LWDA (75% of the $25,000 PAGA allocation), and pay the Settlement
2 Administrator's expenses, the Class Representatives' service payments, and Class Counsel's 3 attorneys' fees and costs. Sett. Agmt. ¶¶ 6, 15, 23, 35, 59(a). The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross
4 Settlement Amount, less the Class Counsel Award, Class Representative Service Awards, PAGA 5 Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs. The Net Settlement Amount shall be used to 6 compensate the Class Members. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 17, 18, 59(a)(i). Defendant shall be separately
7 responsible for the employer share of payroll taxes on the Wage Portion of each Settlement Share 8 distributed to the Participating Class Members. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 61. Nathan Decl. ¶ 27, 41, 42.

9 1. Settlement Allocation Formula

10 The participating Class Members ("Class Participants") will be paid pursuant to an allocation 11 formula based on the number of workweeks they worked for Defendant during the Class Period. From 12 the Net Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator will calculate each Individual Settlement 13 Award by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks, resulting in the 14 Workweek Value; and then multiplying the Workweek Value by the number of Workweeks worked 15 by each Class Member, as defined above. As necessary, and to the extent not already provided by 16 Defendant, the Settlement Administrator will calculate the number of Workweeks worked by the 17 Class Members during the Class Period. The Settlement Administrator will also calculate the amount 18 to be paid per Workweek, and the Individual Settlement Awards to eligible Class Members. All 19 Workweek Disputes will be resolved and decided by the Settlement Administrator, in consultation 20 with Class Counsel and/or Defense Counsel, as appropriate, and subject to review by the Court as 21 needed. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a)(i). Nathan Decl. ¶ 28.

22 For tax purposes, Individual Settlement Awards shall be allocated as follows: twenty percent 23 (20%) as alleged unpaid wages subject to all applicable tax withholdings; forty percent (40%) as 24 alleged unpaid interest; and forty percent (40%) as alleged unpaid penalties. The Settlement 25 Administrator shall issue an IRS Form W-2 to each Participating Class Member for the portion of 26 each Individual Settlement Award payment allocated as alleged unpaid wages and subject to all 27 applicable tax withholdings. The Settlement Administrator shall issue an IRS Form 1099 to each 28 Participating Class Member including PAGA Member, for the portion of each Individual Settlement

1 Award including Individual PAGA Payment allocated as alleged unpaid non-wage penalties and 2 interest and not subject to payroll tax withholdings. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a)(v). Nathan Decl. ¶ 29.

3 2. No Reversion and No Claim Form Required

4 This is a non-reversionary settlement. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a). To make the relief provided by the 5 Settlement as accessible to Class Members as possible, the Parties have agreed to eliminate the claims 6 process. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a). Each Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid request for 7 exclusion within 45 days after the Notice Packet is first mailed will be automatically mailed a check 8 for his or her pro rata portion of the Settlement. Sett. Agmt. ¶¶ 32, 33. Nathan Decl. ¶ 30.

9 3. Distribution of Uncashed Settlement Checks

10 The Settlement Agreement provides that Class Members shall have one-hundred eighty (180) 11 calendar days from the postmark date of the checks to deposit or otherwise cash their settlement 12 checks. After the expiration of the 180-day period to cash/deposit the Individual Settlement Award 13 checks, the Settlement Administrator will prepare the Final Report regarding the distribution of the 14 Gross Settlement Amount as detailed above. The total amount of any uncashed settlement checks will 15 be transmitted to the California State Controller's Office Unclaimed Property Fund, in the name of 16 the individual. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 14, 59(a)(vi). Nathan Decl. ¶ 31.

17 4. Scope of the Release of Claims

18 Plaintiffs, Participating Class Members will release all claims arising from the same set of 19 facts alleged in the FAC or in the LWDA letters and as set forth in the Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 30, 20 55, 56. In addition to the releases of the Released Claims and PAGA Released Claims, Plaintiffs, 21 Plaintiffs expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits of section 1542 of the Civil Code of 22 the State of California. Sett. Agmt. ¶¶ 57. The time period covered by the release is July 15, 2016, 23 through August 30, 2025. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 5, 30.

24 PAGA Members release all claims for penalties under PAGA that arise out of or relate to 25 California Labor Code sections 201 through 203, 204, 205.5, 210, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225.5, 226, 26 226.7, 233, 234, 246, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 2810.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2751, 27 and 2810.5 as pled in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notices, during the PAGA Period 28 (November 14, 2018, through August 30, 2025). Sett. Agmt. ¶¶ 24, 25.

1 The released parties are defined as:

2 Defendant and its respective present and former parents, owners, 3 subsidiaries, and any affiliated or related persons or entities and each of 4 their respective officers, directors, partners, shareholders, attorneys and agents and any other successors, assigns, or legal representatives.

5 Sett. Agmt. ¶ 31.

6 The release also includes all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged or could have been 7 alleged by Plaintiffs based on the facts alleged in the FAC. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 25, 56.

8 [Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 32 – 37]

9 C. Requested Attorneys’ Fees and Costs and Proposed Service Payments to the 10 Class Representatives

11 The Settlement Agreement allows Class Counsel to apply for an award of attorneys’ fees of 12 not more than 33.33% of the Total Settlement Amount ($183,315) and litigation costs not to exceed 13 $60,000. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 2, 15. Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for a service payment of $10,000 each 14 to compensate Plaintiffs for their time and service to the class. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 6. These amounts are 15 preliminarily reasonable and justified based on the work performed and the costs incurred by 16 Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs’ counsel in order to obtain a successful result on behalf of the Class Members.
17 Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 38-39.

18 To provide further justification for awarding these amounts, Plaintiffs will apply for award of 19 Class Representatives Service Payments, Settlement Administrator’s Expenses, and Class Counsel’s 20 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to be heard at the Motion for Final Approval. If the Court approves a Class 21 Counsel Fees Payment or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of less than these amounts, 22 which are presently $183,315 and $60,000. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a)(iii). Nathan Decl. ¶ 40.

23 D. Settlement Administration

24 As explained further in Section IV.B.7 below, the Settlement Agreement provides for Class 25 Members to receive direct notice of the Settlement by mail. Id. ¶ 58(a)(i). The notice administration 26 plan will ensure that substantially all of the Class Members will receive notice of the Settlement and 27 will be adequately apprised of and able to exercise their rights and options thereunder. Phoenix Class 28 Administration Solutions (“Phoenix”), an experienced third-party claims administrator, will handle

1 all aspects of the notice process and settlement administration. Phoenix’s CV is marked and attached
2 as Exhibit 3 to the Nathan Decl. Class Counsel will also be available to the Class Members to answer 3 their questions and encourage participation. Nathan Decl. ¶ 46.

4 V. ARGUMENT

5 A. Legal Standard for Preliminary Approval Under California Law

6 Under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769, 7 California courts require class action settlements to comply with statutory and judicial standards by 8 demonstrating that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the class and the public 9 interest. Under the California Code of Civil Procedure § 382, a representative action may be 10 maintained where the questions of law or fact are common to the class, and trial courts must 11 determine whether settlement is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable, considering factors 12 such as class counsel’s experience, risks, and the settlement’s value to the class (Sav-On Drug Stores, 13 Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 326–327 (2004); Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 14 53 Cal.4th 1004 (2012); Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 1163, 1172-1173
15 (2008); Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal.4th 429, 435-436 (2000)). California Rule of Court 3.769 16 provides procedural requirements for settlement approval, including notice, an opportunity for 17 objection, and judicial review. California Labor Code §§ 2698–2699.8 (“PAGA”) establish a 18 statutory framework for representative claims seeking civil penalties on behalf of the State of 19 California and aggrieved employees.

20 B. The Settlement Class Should Be Provisionally Certified

21 During the preliminary approval analysis, the Court determines whether certification of a 22 provisional settlement class is appropriate and whether the settlement is fair. Carlin v. DairyAmerica, 23 Inc., 328 F.R.D. 393, 398-399 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (citing In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 24 654 F.3d 935, 946 (9th Cir. 2011)). Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a), the plaintiff 25 must show that the requirements of numerosity, commonality, typicality, and adequacy of 26 representation are met. The settlement class must also meet one of the requirements of Fed. R. Civ.
27 P. 23(b) and Plaintiffs seek certification under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), which requires that common 28 questions of law or fact predominate over individual questions and that class treatment is a superior

1 method of resolving the controversy. California adopts Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 in terms of the criteria that 2 must be met for class certification. Each of the factors are discussed below. See Sav-on Drug Stores
3 v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 326 (2004). Under Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382 and Sav-On, the 4 settlement class satisfies ascertainability, community of interest (with predominance), and 5 superiority/“substantial benefits” as recognized by the California Supreme Court.

6 1. The Settlement Class Is Sufficiently Numerous

7 The first requirement is that the class be so numerous that joinder of all members would be 8 “impracticable.” Numerosity is satisfied with as few as 40 class members. See Welling v. Allexy, 155
9 F.R.D. 654, 656 (N.D. Cal. 1994). Here, numerosity is satisfied because there are approximately 856 10 class members – all of whom are identifiable from Defendants’ records.

11 2. There Are Common Issues of Law and Fact

12 Rule 23(a) also requires “questions of law or fact common to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P.
13 23(a)(2). Here, there are common questions to support include: (1) whether Plaintiffs and the class 14 members worked time for which they were not compensated; (2) whether Plaintiffs and the class
15 members were properly paid all straight time wages; (3) whether Plaintiffs and the class members 16 were paid all overtime for all overtime hours worked; (4) whether Plaintiffs and the class members 17 were timely paid all wages; (5) whether Plaintiffs and the class members were provided with a duty-
18 free meal break of at least 30 minutes for every 5 hours of work; (6) whether Plaintiffs and the class 19 members were provided with a duty-free rest break of at least 10 minutes for every 4 hours of work 20 or major fraction thereof; (7) whether Plaintiffs and the class members were provided with accurate, 21 itemized wage statements; (8) whether Defendant maintained accurate employment records; (9) 22 whether Plaintiffs and the class members were paid all wages due at the time of termination of 23 employment; (10) whether Defendant adopted a compliant sick pay/paid time off policy; (11) whether 24 Plaintiffs and the class members were reimbursed for all expenses incurred while performing work 25 for Defendant; (12) whether Plaintiffs and the class members suffered from unlawful deductions; (13) 26 whether Defendant provided written notice pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2810.5; and (14) whether 27 Defendant engaged in unlawful business practices. These questions are based on alleged policies and 28 practices that apply to the entire class and discrete subclasses. This is sufficient to satisfy the

1 commonality requirement for settlement purposes. See Stonehocker v. Kindred Healthcare Operating 2 LLC, 2021 WL 1643226 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 27, 2021) (granting final approval of a settlement involving 3 allegations of off-the-clock work and failure to provide meal and rest breaks).

4 3. Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical of the Settlement Class

5 Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3), Plaintiffs must establish that the "claims or defense of the 6 representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). This 7 is a permissive standard that is met so long as the representative claims "are reasonably coextensive 8 with those of absent class members." Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. The typicality requirement is met if 9 the claims of the representative plaintiff are typical of the claims of the class. (See, Fireside Bank v.
10 Superior Court (2007) 40 Cal. 4th 1069, 1090). Here, the named Plaintiffs seeking to represent the 11 proposed Settlement Class satisfies the typicality requirement because they have held the same 12 positions and assert the same types of injury arising from the same conduct by Defendant as Plaintiffs.

13 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Settlement Class

14 Rule 23 also requires that "the representative parties fairly and adequately protect the interests 15 of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). To satisfy this element, Plaintiffs must establish that: (1) the 16 class representatives do not have a conflict of interest; and (2) class counsel will adequately represent 17 the interests of the class. See Lerwill v. Inflight Motion Pictures, Inc., 582 F.2d 507, 512 (9th Cir.
18 1978). "Adequacy of representation depends on whether the plaintiff's attorney is qualified to conduct 19 the proposed litigation and the plaintiff's interests are not antagonistic to the interests of the class." 20 McGhee v. Bank of America, 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 450-451 (1976). "[A]n essential concomitant of 21 adequate representation is that the party's attorney be qualified, experienced and generally able to 22 conduct the proposed litigation." Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 478-479.

23 Plaintiffs have no conflict of interest with the Class Members. Plaintiffs performed similar 24 work and were subject to the same policies and practices as the Class Members. Plaintiffs' claims are 25 identical to the claims of the other Class Members and arise from the same course of conduct by 26 Defendant. Plaintiffs have embraced their responsibilities as the class representatives by actively 27 participating in this case, providing documents, identifying potential witnesses, providing valuable 28 information regarding the policies and practices at issue in this case and Defendant's business

1 structure, engaging in the settlement process, and consulting with counsel throughout the litigation.
2 Nathan Decl. ¶ 63. Plaintiffs have devoted considerable time to this litigation and are prepared to 3 continue to do so, demonstrating their commitment to achieving the best possible result for the class.² 4 Nathan Decl. ¶ 64. Further, Plaintiffs are represented by qualified and competent counsel, who have 5 the experience and resources necessary to vigorously pursue this action. Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 65, 69-72; 6 Mara Decl. ¶¶ 2-8; Szilagyi Decl. ¶¶ 3-15. Plaintiffs’ attorneys have certified many class actions in 7 state and federal court, for both litigation and settlement purposes, and have recovered many millions 8 of dollars on behalf of class members.

9 5. Common Issues Predominate Over Individualized Issues

10 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) certification is proper when common questions “predominate over 11 any questions affecting only individual members” and class resolution is “superior to other available 12 methods for the fair and efficient resolution of the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). Both Rule 13 23(b)(3)’s predominance and superiority requirements are satisfied for purposes of certifying the 14 proposed Settlement Class. “The Rule 23(b)(3) predominance inquiry tests whether proposed class 15 [is] sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation.” Amchem Prods. Inc. v. Windsor, 16 521 U.S. 591, 623 (1997). As Brinker v. Superior Court 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012) explained, the core 17 test for certification is whether “the issues which may be jointly tried, when compared with those 18 requiring separate adjudication, are so numerous or substantial that the maintenance of a class action 19 would be advantageous to the judicial process and to the litigants.” Id. at 1021 (quoting Collins v.
20 Rocha, 7 Cal. 3d 232, 238 (1972)). This motion confirms that Plaintiffs satisfy this test.

21 This inquiry tests whether the “proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant 22 adjudication by representation.” Tyson Foods, Inc. v. Bouaphakeo, 577 U.S. 442, 453 (2016) 23 (quotations omitted). An individual question is defined as “one where members of a proposed class 24 will need to present evidence that varies from member to member.” Id. A common question, on the 25 other hand, is “one where the same evidence will suffice for each member to make prima facie 26 showing [or] the issue is susceptible to generalized, class-wide proof.” Id.

28 _____
² Further details regarding Plaintiffs’ work on the case will be presented in a declaration with the motion for final approval.

1 Here, the legality of the challenged policies and practices involve common questions that can 2 be decided with common proof and will generate an answer common to the entire class. The common 3 questions are set forth in Sect. V(A)(2) above.

4 If the case were to be litigated, the common proof would include, among other things, 5 employee handbooks, standalone policy documents, performance reviews that reflect productivity
6 rules, and Plaintiffs' and the Class Members' time and payroll records, as well as documents 7 reflecting when employees used their personal cell phones and vehicles while discharging their duties 8 for Defendant. The Class Members would have to individually prove their damages, but "damage 9 calculations alone cannot defeat certification." Yokoyama v. Midland Nat'l Life Ins. Co., 594 F.3d 10 1087, 1094 (9th Cir. 2010); Leyva v. Medline Indus., Inc., 716 F.3d 510, 513 (9th Cir. 2013) 11 ("damages determinations are individual in nearly all wage-and-hour class actions").

12 6. A Class Action Is Superior to Individual Actions

13 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)'s final requirement is "that the class action be superior to other 14 methods of adjudication." This requirement is satisfied because there is no indication that Class 15 Members seek to individually control their cases, that individual litigation is already pending in other 16 forums, or that this particular forum is undesirable for any reason. Rule 23(b)(3)(A)-(D). In addition, 17 the alternative of hundreds of individual actions "is not realistic." See Wren v. RGIS Inventory 18 Specialists, 256 F.R.D. 180, 210 (N.D. Cal. 2009). Accordingly, certification of a settlement class is 19 superior to any other method of resolving this matter, since it will promote economy, expediency, 20 and efficiency. California has a strong "public policy that encourages the use of the class action 21 device." Sav-On Drug, supra, 34 Cal. 4th at 340. There, the Supreme Court counseled that in 22 circumstances such as those in the case at bar, class treatment is superior to individual trials:

23 Many of the issues likely to be most vigorously contested in this dispute, as noted, 24 are common ones. Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present 25 in separate, duplicative proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments 26 and evidence, including....The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted 27 at enormous expense to both the judicial system and the litigants. It would be 28 neither efficient nor fair to anyone...to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and decide the same issues.

Id. (internal citations omitted). The superiority analysis also includes considerations of whether individual members are likely to come forward and claim a part of the recovery and whether a group

1 action will serve to deter future wrongdoing. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 445.

2 There is no better evidence that the case should proceed on a class-wide basis than the fact 3 that if absent class members were to bring their claim individually, they would each rely on the 4 same evidence of Defendant's standard policy of non-payment of wages for all hours worked, 5 failure to pay overtime, failure to reimburse for all business expenses, failure to pay all wages upon 6 separation, and failure to provide meal and rest breaks pursuant to California law.

7 Although Defendant disagrees that the proposed class would satisfy the requirements for a 8 litigated class action, Defendant does not object to certification of the class for purposes of this 9 settlement. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 43, 54, 69.

10 7. The Court Should Appoint Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives and 11 Plaintiffs' Counsel as Class Counsel

12 Because the commonality, typicality, and adequacy requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) are 13 met, Plaintiffs should be appointed as the class representatives. Plaintiffs' counsel should also be 14 appointed to represent the settlement class. The factors that apply in deciding whether to appoint class 15 counsel are: (1) the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the 16 action; (2) counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of 17 claims asserted in the action; (3) counsel's knowledge of the applicable law; and (4) the resources 18 that counsel will commit to representing the class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g) (1)(A).

19 As set forth herein, Plaintiffs' counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the claims at 20 issue before filing the complaint and during litigation leading up to this settlement. Plaintiffs' counsel 21 has extensive experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions and representative actions, is well-22 versed in the applicable law, and has ample resources to dedicate to the case. Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 66-67, 23 69-72; Mara Decl. ¶¶ 2-8; Szilagyi Decl. ¶¶ 3-15. The firms representing Plaintiffs have vigorously 24 represented the Class Members' interests and will continue to do so.

25 C. The Settlement Should Be Preliminarily Approved

26 A class action settlement requires court approval upon a finding that the settlement is fair, 27 reasonable, and adequate. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e); Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026. There are two sources of 28 factors for the fairness analysis: case law, and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e). The fairness

1 factors established by case law provide that a settlement should be preliminarily approved if it (1) 2 appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations; (2) has no obvious 3 deficiencies; (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to the class representatives or 4 segments of the class; and (4) falls within the range of possible approval. In re Tableware Antitrust 5 Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079-1080 (N.D. Cal. 2007).

6 The relevant factors are under Rule 23(e)(2) are whether: (1) the class representatives and 7 class counsel have adequately represented the class; (2) the proposal was negotiated at arm's length; 8 (3) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account (a) the costs, risks, and delay of 9 trial and appeal; (b) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, 10 including the method of processing class members' claims; (c) the terms of any proposed award of 11 attorney's fees, including the timing of the payment; and (d) any agreement required to be identified 12 under Rule 23(e)(3)³; and (4) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

13 The relative degree of importance of a particular factor depends on "the unique facts and 14 circumstances presented by each individual case." Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n of City
15 & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). In applying these factors, the Court 16 should also be guided by the "strong judicial policy" that favors the settlement of class actions." Class 17 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992); Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027 (a 18 settlement is a "private consensual decision of the parties" and the approval analysis is limited to 19 considering whether the settlement is a product of collusion and is fair as a whole).

20 1. The Settlement Was Negotiated at Arm's Length by Experienced Counsel

21 The Settlement is the product of protracted arm's-length negotiation by mediating with 22 mediator Doug Leach. Class Counsel advocated vigorously on behalf of the Class throughout the 23 negotiations in order to negotiate a settlement that is in the best interest of the Class Members and 24 provides adequate class-wide relief. Nathan Decl. ¶¶ 16-24. The vigorous negotiations between the 25 Parties resulted in a reasonable compromise that is the product of genuine give and take justified by 26 the facts of this case. Plaintiffs' counsel requested certain information from Defendant in order for 27 the parties to engage in mediation and have any meaningful discussion towards settlement.

28 ³ There are no agreements to disclose under this rule.

1 Specifically, Plaintiffs’ counsel sought and received information about the number of employees, the 2 number of pay periods, the number of workweeks, dates of employment, the average pay rate, and 3 any meal and rest break premiums paid. Defendant provided information based on the wage and time 4 records for 856 class members. Defendant also provided Plaintiffs with over one hundred pages of 5 document production in order to prepare for mediation. Plaintiffs are represented by highly 6 experienced class action litigators, who believe that the Settlement is an excellent result for the Class
7 Members. Nathan Decl. ¶ 25.

8 Further, there are no “subtle signs of collusion.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 9 654 F.3d 935, 947 (9th Cir. 2011). The settlement is non-reversionary and there is no clear sailing 10 provision. The Settlement provides for an attorneys’ fee award of up to 33.33% of the Gross 11 Settlement Amount, which is in line with the market rate. Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc., (2000)
12 82 Cal. App. 4th 19.

13 2. The Settlement Provides Excellent Relief for the Class

14 The Settlement provides a significant monetary relief to the Class Members to compensate 15 them for the alleged wage-and-hour violations at issue in this case. Under California Code of Civil 16 Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769, the Court must determine whether the 17 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the class and the public interest. Evaluation of the 18 Settlement and analysis of claims, including PAGA penalties allocated pursuant to Labor Code 19 sections 2698–2699.8, is provided in the Nathan Decl. at ¶¶ 47-62. In determining whether to grant 20 preliminary approval, the Court considers the factors established by Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail,
21 Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116 (2008); Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal.App.5th 56 (2021); and Dunk
22 v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794 (1996).

23 The $25,000 allocation for PAGA penalties, split 75% to the LWDA and 25% for aggrieved 24 employees, is reasonable given the risks specific to the representative claims, including uncertainty 25 regarding liability and challenges to manageability. This allocation reflects a genuine compromise 26 considering potential penalties at issue and complies with Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal.App.5th 27 56, 64 (2021) (requiring PAGA settlements to be “fair, reasonable, and adequate”). Evaluation of 28 risks and strengths underlying this allocation is provided in the Nathan Declaration ¶¶ 56, 57-61.

1 3. The Settlement Is Non-Reversionary and Checks Will Be Mailed Automatically

2 The method for distributing relief to the Class Members is simple and effective. The Class
3 Members have been identified from Defendant’s employment records and will be mailed automatic 4 payments unless they opt out. No part of the settlement will revert to Defendant. Nathan Decl. ¶ 30.

5 4. The Process for Uncashed or Unclaimed Funds is Appropriate

6 Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 384, the Court must ensure that any distribution 7 of class action settlement funds, including unpaid or unclaimed funds, serves the interests of the 8 Class. In accordance with California law and the terms of the Settlement, any settlement payments 9 issued to participating class members that remain uncashed after the expiration period will be 10 remitted to the California State Controller’s Office, Unclaimed Property Fund, as required by statute.
11 This process ensures the residual funds are properly handled for the benefit of the class and in 12 compliance with state escheatment requirements. Nathan Decl. ¶ 31.

13 5. There Is No Unfair Preferential Treatment of Class Members

14 The Settlement does not give preferential treatment to any Class Members. The settlement 15 provides for the funds to be allocated to each participating Class Member proportionally based on the 16 number of weeks they worked for Defendant, as shown by Defendant’s records. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a)(i).
17 Nathan Decl. ¶ 62.

18 Further, the proposed incentive award to Plaintiffs is within the range approved by courts in 19 this district. The requested award also accounts for the risk that Plaintiffs took on by filing this lawsuit 20 with the possibility of receiving backlash from other similar companies in this industry.

21 6. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fee Award is Preliminarily Appropriate

22 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiffs’ counsel will seek attorneys’ fees not to 23 exceed $183,315 (33.33% of the Gross Settlement Amount) and actual litigation costs not to exceed 24 $60,000. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 2. Class counsel appreciates that this Court will utilize the period of time
25 before the hearing on final approval to consider any comments from Class Members and inform itself 26 of all aspects of the settlement. Further, at the final approval stage, this Court will rule upon the 27 reasonableness of any attorney’s fees, the class representatives’ enhancement requests and general 28 release payments, and repayment of costs advanced by Plaintiffs’ counsel. In preparation for final

1 approval, Plaintiffs will provide this Court with further briefing pertaining to those requests. Nathan 2 Decl. ¶ 68.

3 However, at this preliminary stage the requested fee award is less than Class Counsels'
4 lodestar and in line with the market rate. Class Counsel intends to seek attorneys' fees based on a 5 percentage of the common fund, and, consistent with California law, including Code of Civil 6 Procedure section 384 regarding proper distribution and administration of class settlement funds, the 7 Court will cross-check the percentage against the lodestar at the time of final approval as required 8 by Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc., 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26-27, and subsequent authority.

9 The awarded fees and costs will be paid after the settlement has been finally approved and the 10 deadline to file appeals has passed, assuming that no appeals are filed. To the extent the Court awards 11 less than the requested amount of fees and costs, the difference will be distributed pro rata to the 12 Class Members. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 59(a)(iii).

13 7. The Release Is Narrowly Tailored

14 As set forth above in Section III.B.4, the release is tailored to track the definition of the Class.
15 The Class Members will release all claims arising from the same set of facts alleged in the operative 16 FAC and in Plaintiffs' LWDA letters. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 30. The release period for class claims is from 17 July 15, 2016, through August 30, 2025. Sett Agmt. ¶ 5, 30. Nathan Decl. ¶ 32-37.

18 8. The Proposed Class Notice, Notice Plan, and Settlement Administrator Are 19 Sufficient

20 The Class Members have already been identified from Defendant's records and the Class 21 Notice will be mailed to them using the last known mailing address in Defendants' records. Sett.
22 Agmt. ¶ 58(a). Prior to mailing, the Settlement Administrator will perform a search in the National 23 Change of Address database to update the addresses. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 58(a)(i). If a Class Notice is 24 returned because of an incorrect address, the Settlement Administrator will promptly, and not later 25 than five (5) days from receipt of the returned Class Notice, search for a more current address for the 26 Class Member and re-mail the Class Notice to the Class Member. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 58(a)(ii). There will 27 be a 45-day period to opt out of and object to the settlement. Sett. Agmt. ¶ 33. Nathan Decl. ¶ 43.

1 The Class Notice (also attached to the Proposed Order) will describe the nature of the action; 2 the definition of the settlement class; the total settlement amount and the proposed deductions for the 3 payment to the LWDA, class representative service award, attorneys' fees and costs, and settlement 4 administration costs; the scope of the release; the formula for calculating individual settlement 5 payments and how to challenge the number of workweeks and pay periods used to calculate the 6 payments; how to participate in, object to, and opt out of the Settlement, and the deadlines for doing 7 so; that Class Members may enter an appearance through an attorney if desired; the binding effect of 8 the judgment on Class Members; information about when and where the final approval hearing will 9 be held, and how to check if the hearing date has changed; and how to obtain further information 10 about the lawsuit and the Settlement. The Class Notice also includes Class Counsel's contact 11 information and the address for the settlement administration website. Id. The notice will be sent in 12 English and in Spanish. A true and correct copy of the Class Notice is attached as Exhibit 2 to the 13 Nathan Decl. Nathan Decl. ¶ 44.

14 In order to request exclusion from the Settlement, Class Members only need to follow the 15 instructions included in the Class Notice, which explains that in order to exclude one's self they "must 16 send a letter, email, or fax with your name, signature, address, telephone number, and the last four 17 digits of your Social Security number, and a statement that clearly states you do not wish to be 18 included in the Settlement," and provides an email address, fax number, and address that the request 19 for exclusion must be sent to and provides the deadline for doing so. The Notice Packet also states 20 that Class Members may submit a written objection to the Settlement Administrator and the deadline 21 for doing so, or alternatively, may appear at the Final Approval hearing in-person to present any 22 objection for the Court to consider. Written objections must state the ground for the objection, and 23 Class Members will also be permitted to make oral objections if they appear at the final approval 24 hearing. Additionally, the Class Notice provides notice that the PAGA portion of the settlement 25 cannot be opted out of. Nathan Decl. ¶ 45.
