1 Plaintiff Zuleyma Vazquez Avila (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further
3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants QRM Corp., Mariman & Co., and Does 1
6 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations and unfair
7 business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime
8 wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain 9 accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated
10 employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage 11 statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a class
13 action on behalf of herself and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 14 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully below). The Class
15 consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendants in California as 16 an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period applicable to the claims 17 pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the California
19 Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to Plaintiff, the State
20 of California, and past and present non-exempt, hourly-paid employees of Defendants who worked in 21 California during the applicable statute of limitations period (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved 22 Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment
24 within the State of California, including San Diego County. As such, and based upon all the facts and 25 circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are subject to the California
26 Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”), and the California
27 Business & Professions Code.

28 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates;
- (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked; and
- (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 1 “respondeat superior”.

2 THE PARTIES

3 A. Plaintiff

4 8. Plaintiff is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the County of San 5 Diego, State of California, as an assistant property manager from March 2018 to January 2022,
6 primarily in San Diego county.

7 9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs,
8 if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings
9 and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

10 B. Defendants

11 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges,
12 that Defendants QRM Corp. and Mariman & Co. are:

13 (a) California corporations with their principal places of business in San Diego, 14 California.

15 (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State
16 of California, including in San Diego County;

17 (c) The former employers of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employers of 18 the putative Class. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the Class and 19 Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working 20 conditions; and

21 (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants are and were the joint employers of 22 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees.

23 11. Plaintiff does not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities
24 sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names.
25 Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 26 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to 27 set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together 28 with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

1 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each
2 of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured
3 a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

4 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each
5 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other 6 employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and 7 working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times,
8 each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling 9 shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in 10 interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other
11 Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other 12 Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is 13 informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope
14 of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and 15 authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other 16 Defendants.

17 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18 14. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in the County of San 19 Diego, State of California, as an assistant property manager from approximately March 2018 to 20 January 2022. During the statutory period, Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from 21 California's overtime requirements, and paid Plaintiff an hourly wage.

22 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours worked 23 (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with uninterrupted meal
24 periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to indemnify
25 Plaintiff for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff when 26 Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements to 27 Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and 28 illustrative.

1 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not
2 paying Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all overtime
3 wages. Defendants regularly use a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted, over a period of 4 time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees properly for all the time
5 they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' operations are such that it is 6 possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to the minute. As a result, Defendants
7 frequently paid Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time, some of 8 which should have been paid at the overtime rate. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff, the 9 Class and Aggrieved Employees received non-discretionary bonuses, additional benefits, additional 10 compensation, gift cards, and other remuneration. However, Defendants failed to incorporate all 11 remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of pay, leading to underpayment of wages, 12 meal break premiums, and PTO sick pay. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff, the Class and 13 Aggrieved Employees were required to work off the clock, and uncompensated. For example, 14 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees were required to undergo COVID screening prior to 15 clocking into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Further, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved 16 Employees were not paid their PTO and accrued vacation time properly, leading to underpayment to 17 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages
18 owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved
19 Employees worked.

20 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 21 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants
22 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to work in excess
23 of five consecutive hours a day without providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free
24 meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved
25 Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour 26 of work. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees of 27 their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10
28 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Defendants also failed to accurately record meal periods.

1 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class
2 and Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

3 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize and 4 permit Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods.
5 Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to work
6 in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take
7 a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction
8 of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees for rest periods
9 that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class
10 and Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have 11 adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class and 12 Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of 13 rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff,
14 the Class and Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendants did 15 not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendants cannot 16 demonstrate that Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the middle of 17 each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit
18 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

19 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff, the Class
20 and Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for 21 Defendants without reimbursement, including the purchase of masks. Plaintiff, the Class and 22 Aggrieved Employees were also required to use their own personal cellular telephones for work 23 purposes, without reimbursement.

24 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely pay
25 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all 26 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

27 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class and 28 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates,

1 and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours
2 worked, correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 3 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted
4 to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage statements do
5 not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a result of these violations of 6 California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees suffered injury
7 because, among other things:

- 8 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
9 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period 10 premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were entitled;
- 11 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
12 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even though 13 they had not been;
- 14 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
15 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct
16 California rate even though they were;
- 17 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime, meal
18 period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate 19 even though they had not been;
- 20 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 21 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 22 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 23 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to 24 perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to 25 them, computations they would not have to make if the wage statements 26 contained the required accurate information;
- 27 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose 28 entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;

- (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages rates to which Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e), including actual damages.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

25. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

26. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

- (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a

1 type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time
2 as their privacy is protected.

3 28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any)
4 that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation,
5 whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 6 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum wages,
7 and overtime wages;
- 8 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class
9 Members;
- 10 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages
11 to Class Members;
- 12 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or 13 resignation;
- 14 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and all 15 meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 16 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and 17 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of 18 their illegal conduct as described above.

19 29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 20 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 21 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 22 question affecting only individual members;
- 23 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient
24 adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 25 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 26 members of the class before the Court;
- 27 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective 28 and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

- 1 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable 2 relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for 3 the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount
4 sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries 5 sustained;
- 6 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 7 members of the class would create a risk of:
- 8 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members
9 of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for 10 Defendants; and/or
- 11 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would, as a 12 practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not 13 parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their 14 ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential 15 for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, 16 responsible Defendants; and
- 17 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the 18 Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class 19 as a whole.

20 30. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the 21 Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business
22 records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To 23 the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the use of additional 24 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website
25 notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed 26 necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

28 ///

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

32. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

34. Accordingly, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover minimum wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

36. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees.

38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay

1 minimum wages.

2 39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with all
3 wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this
4 cause of action, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to be paid twice a month
5 at rates required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
6 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees all such wages
7 due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

8 40. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to seek recovery of all
9 unpaid minimum wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California
10 Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

13 41. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
14 through 21 in this Complaint.

15 42. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 16 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they 17 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

18 43. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not 19 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation
20 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California Labor Code § 1198
21 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare
22 Commission is unlawful.

23 44. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees have worked 24 more than eight hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

25 45. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved
26 Employees overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
27 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff, the Class and 28 Aggrieved Employees are regularly required to work overtime hours.

46. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate compensation to the Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

47. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees.

48. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

49. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

50. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee

1 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

2 52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff, the 3 Class and Aggrieved Employees with both meal periods as required by California law. By their 4 failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to take all meal periods
5 as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these 6 uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the 7 California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

8 53. Under California law, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to be 9 paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal
10 period(s), plus interest thereon.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

13 54. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
14 through 21 in this Complaint.

15 55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 16 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two 17 hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that the 18 employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for each 4-19 hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the 20 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a
21 violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor
22 Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any 23 Wage Order.

24 56. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff, the Class and 25 Aggrieved Employees to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours
26 in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees to 27 take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or 28 impracticable to take these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of

1 Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

2 57. Under California law, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to be
3 paid one hour of premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required
4 rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

5 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

7 58. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
8 through 21 in this Complaint.

9 59. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by failing to 10 pay and indemnify the Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees for their necessary expenditures 11 and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 12 directions of Defendants.

13 60. As a result, Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees were damaged at least in the 14 amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

15 61. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees they represent are entitled to attorney's
16 fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor
17 Code section 2802(b).

18 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 20 Penalties)

21 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
22 through 21 in this Complaint.

23 63. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an 24 employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and 25 payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her 26 wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 27 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which 28 case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

1 64. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other
2 members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of 3 others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to 4 pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor
5 Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their 6 leaving Defendants' employ.

7 65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
8 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-
9 two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 10 and 202.

11 66. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages
12 owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a 13 penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but 14 the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

15 67. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants
16 their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay,
17 up to 30 days maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

18 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff, the Class and 19 Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, 20 and costs incurred in this action.

21 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 23 Compliant Wage Records)

24 69. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
25 through 21 in this Complaint.

26 70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 27 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 28 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked

1 by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 2 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written 3 orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 4 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last 5 four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a
6 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
7 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked 8 at each hourly rate by the employee.

9 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete
10 and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly
11 identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees, the failure to list the 12 true “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

13 72. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff, the 14 Class and Aggrieved Employees have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

15 73. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants’
16 intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right 17 to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under 18 California Labor Code § 226(a).

19 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved
20 Employees is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff, the Class
21 and Aggrieved Employees were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to 22 obtain correct wage information following Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates
23 of California’s Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

24 75. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants
25 their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

26 76. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to injunctive relief, as 27 well as an award of attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to 28 California Labor Code § 226(h).

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, *et
3 seq.*)

4 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
5 through 21 in this Complaint.

6 78. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business &
7 Professions Code § 17201.

8 79. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful,
9 and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce 10 important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

11 80. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute 12 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 13 et seq.

14 81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 15 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations
16 of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and 17 in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute 18 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions
19 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

20 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

21 82. Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the 22 California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business &
23 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

24 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

25 83. Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of 26 California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited
27 by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

28 ///

1 Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

2 84. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance with 3 California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
4 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

5 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

6 85. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code
7 §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair
8 activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

9 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

10 86. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California
11 Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair
12 activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

13 Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

14 87. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in 15 accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, 16 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et 17 seq.

18 Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

19 88. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with 20 California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited
21 by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

22 89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 23 herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all
24 persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable 25 rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

26 90. Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees Members suffered monetary injury as a 27 direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

28 91. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to,

1 and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants
2 have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees have been 3 deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.
4 Plaintiff, the Class and Aggrieved Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of 5 the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

6 92. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further 7 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, unlawful 8 and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in 9 any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

10 93. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain,
11 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a 12 consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 13 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually, and 14 on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm
15 unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, 16 unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

17 94. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 18 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 19 withholdings.

20 95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 21 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
22 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction
23 requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of 24 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and 25 an award of costs.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004,
3 Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.)

4 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
5 through 21 in this Complaint.

6 97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State
7 of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

8 98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to 9 recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 10 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and 11 Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies,
12 or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action 13 brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 14 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

15 99. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code §
16 2699.3. On March 29, 2022, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce
17 Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code
18 that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and certain current and former aggrieved employees,
19 including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff’s
20 PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-876128-22.

21 100. More than 65 days have elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 22 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor
23 Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover
24 penalties under Labor Code § 2699, pursuant to § 2699.3, for the violations of the Labor Code
25 described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California
26 Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

27 101. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code 28 § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

102. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

103. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of himself, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

1 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

2 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the 3 class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

4 Class Certification

5 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third,
6 Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;

7 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and 8 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

9 As to the First Cause of Action

10 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
11 Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum
12 wages due;

13 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

14 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such 15 amounts were due;

16 7. For liquidated damages;

17 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 18 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and

19 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

20 As to the Second Cause of Action

21 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
22 Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime
23 wages due;

24 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

25 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the 26 date such amounts were due;

27 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 28 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and

1 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

2 As to the Third Cause of Action

3 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
4 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

5 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

6 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such
7 amounts were due;

8 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and 9 for costs of suit incurred herein; and

10 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

11 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

12 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
13 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

14 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

15 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such 16 amounts were due;

17 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and 18 for costs of suit incurred herein; and

19 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

20 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

21 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802
22 and the IWC Wage Orders;

23 26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be 24 appropriate;

25 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such 26 amounts were due;

27 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

28 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay all wages owed, including overtime, failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest breaks, failing to indemnify necessary business expenses, failing to timely pay final wages at termination, and failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;

47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 2699, et seq., and all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699; and

49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to all Causes of Action

50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
