MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Angel Armenta and Jakkob Romero (“Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a proposed $1,600,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendants Blue Beacon International, Incorporated, Blue Beacon U.S.A., L.P., and Blue Beacon U.S.A. II, L.P. (collectively, “Blue Beacon” or “Defendants,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The proposed Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 1,398 class members and, as set forth more fully below, satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Gail A. Glick, Esq., over the course of a full-day mediation. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendants’ defenses, Ms. Glick issued a mediator’s proposal, which the Parties ultimately accepted. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiffs and the putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendants during the class period. Defendants own, operate, and manage a chain of truck washing facilities throughout the United States, including in San Bernardino County. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendants’ payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in numerous Labor Code violations. Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants failed to, inter alia, pay for all hours worked, provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, indemnify employees for all necessary business expenses, and provide timely wages. Plaintiffs also allege that Defendants had a policy and practice of not providing adequate written disclosures to applicants and employees before procuring credit reports or causing credit reports to be procured. Based on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert claims against Defendants for failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to indemnify for necessary business expenses, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, unfair business practices, civil penalties under PAGA, and failure to conduct lawful background checks. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On March 25, 2022, Plaintiff Armenta filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendants for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); and (7) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200, et seq.). (Id. at ¶ 4.) On March 28, 2022, Plaintiff Armenta sent a notice to Defendants and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 5, Ex. 1 [Plaintiff Armenta’s Notice of Labor Code Violations and PAGA Penalties].) Plaintiff Armenta also paid the $75.00 filing fee on March 28, 2022. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 5.) On June 3, 2022, Plaintiff Armenta filed a separate case seeking civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.)

On June 24, 2022, Plaintiff Romero filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendants for: (1) Recovery of Unpaid Minimum Wages and Liquidated Damages; (2) Recovery of Unpaid Overtime Wages; (3) Failure to Provide Meal Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof; (4) Failure to Provide Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof; (5) Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements; (6) Failure to Timely Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment; (7) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses; (8) Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act (29 U.S.C. sections 201, et. seq); and (9) Unfair Competition.

(Declaration of Zachary M. Crosner in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Crosner Decl.”], ¶ 2.) On April 14, 2022, Plaintiff Romero sent a notice to Defendants and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3, Ex. 1 [Plaintiff Romero’s Notice of Private Attorneys General Act Claim].) On June 17, 2022, Plaintiff Romero filed a separate case seeking civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On March 29, 2023, the Parties filed a first amended complaint, which adds Plaintiff Romero as class representative and combines Plaintiffs’ class and representative causes of action. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 6; Crosner Decl., ¶4.) Plaintiffs also provided a conformed copy of the FAC to the LWDA. (Id.)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the initial Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. (Id. at ¶ 7.) Defendants produced a sample of timekeeping and pay records for the class members. (Id.) Defendants also provided documents of their wage and hour policies and practices during the class period and information regarding the total number of current and former employees in their informal discovery responses. (Id.) In total, Defendants produced nearly 18,000 pages of policy documents, time records, wage records, and other relevant documents in advance of the mediation.

After reviewing the documents regarding Defendants’ wage and hour policies and practices, analyzing Defendants’ timekeeping and payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendants’ maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 8.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.)

C. Settlement Negotiations

On November 16, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class action mediator Gail A. Glick, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 9.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.

1 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 2 manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 3 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 4 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 5 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims and Defendants' 6 defenses, the Parties reached a settlement following the issuance of a mediator's proposal, the 7 material terms of which were subsequently incorporated in the Parties' proposed Settlement
8 Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class 9 Notice].)

10 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 11 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 12 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 13 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 14 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendants both to certification and 15 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 17; Crosner Decl. at ¶ 13.)

16 Indeed, the $1,600,000.00 Settlement represents 71.9% of the realistic maximum 17 recovery of $2,223,843.73. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendants' 18 maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $25 million, when the risk of 19 prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that 20 Defendants' realistic exposure was $2,223,843.73, meaning the Settlement achieves a 21 significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 18-30.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at 22 class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Indeed, 23 because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and 24 will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

25 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

26 The Parties used the Los Angeles County Superior Court's Form Class Action and PAGA 27 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. A document showing edits the Parties made to the 28 template in redline is attached to the Declaration of Justin F. Marquez as Exhibit 3. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 11.) The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: all individuals employed by Defendants in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the Class Period. (Settlement, §§ 1.5, 1.6.)

2. Class Period: “means the period from March 25, 2018 to December 31, 2022.” (Settlement, § 1.13.)

3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.36.)

4. Non-Participating Class Members: “means any Class Members who opts out of the Settlement by sending the Administrator a valid and timely Request for Exclusion.” (Settlement, § 1.29.)

5. Aggrieved Employees: means a person employed by any of the Defendants in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for Defendants during the PAGA Period of March 25, 2021 to December 31, 2022. (Settlement, §§ 1.4, 1.31, and 1.32.) Every class member is not also an Aggrieved Employee.

6. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $1,600,000.00 and will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Award, and the Administrator’s Expenses. (Settlement, § 1.22.) “Blue Beacon shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Blue Beacon’s share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 14 days after the Effective Date.” (Id. at § 4.3.)

7. Uncashed Checks: For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing), the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California State Controller’s Unclaimed Property Funds in the name of the Class Members thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure § 384, subd. (b). (Settlement, §§ 4.4.1, 4.4.3.)

8. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release the Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint, including, any and all claims involving any recovery of unpaid minimum wages and unpaid overtime (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198), failure to provide meal and rest periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512), failure to provide accurate wage statements (Cal. Lab. Code § 226), failure to pay all wages due at separation (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203), failure to reimburse business expenses (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802), violation of Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.), violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act (29 USC § 203), violation of the Federal Credit Reporting Act (15 USC § 1681, et seq.), and violation of the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency Act (Cal. Civil Code §§ 1786.10 – 1786.40) during the Class Period. Participating Class Members only release these claims for the duration of the Class Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 5.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendants fully fund the entire Gross Settlement Amount and fund all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments. (Id. at § 5.)

9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notices, including any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wages or overtime, failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all wages due at separation, and failure to reimburse business expenses, including Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 210, 216, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 245-248.5, 256, 432, 432.5, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2699, 2699.3, 2802, 2810.5 during the PAGA Period. Aggrieved Employees only release these claims for the duration of the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

10. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Blue Beacon.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

11. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $50,000.00 allocated to Plaintiffs’ claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($37,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($12,500.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.35.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 12.)

12. Net Settlement Fund/Amount: “Gross Settlement Amount, less the following payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class Representatives’ Service Payments, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

13. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment [will be] calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($12,500) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Period Pay Periods.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14. Tax Allocation: “One-third of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the ‘Wage Portion’). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining two-thirds of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for [e.g., interest and penalties] (the ‘Non-Wage Portion’).” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.) Defendants will pay their employer-side payroll taxes in addition to and separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, §§ 3.1, 5.)

15. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiffs shall each be paid a service award not to exceed $10,000.00, for a combined total of $20,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiffs’ time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1542. (Id. at § 5.1.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the Participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

16. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendants will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($533,333.33) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $15,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

17. Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval: The Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 4.4.1.) Simpluris, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the Notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Marquez Decl., ¶ 13, Ex. 4 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to

1 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
2 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

3 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 4 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 5 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 6 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 7 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 8 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 9 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 10 that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 11 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 12 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 13 require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 14 prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy 15 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

16 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 17 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 18 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

19 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 20 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

21 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 22 and Non-Collusive Arm's-Length Negotiations

23 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 24 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 25 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
26 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
27 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 ["The 28 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not

1 to approve the settlement.”].)

2 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 3 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Gail A. Glick, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.) The 4 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 5 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 6 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 7 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 8 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendants’ defenses, 9 the Parties reached an agreement. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 10.)

10 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 11 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 12 records, Defendants’ policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of 13 meal and rest breaks, providing all wages at separation, and the issuance of wage statements, as 14 well as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 15 former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages 16 paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 7-8.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 17 Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 18 litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and their counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 19 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

20 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 21 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-51.) Again, this supports the position that the 22 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 23 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 24 action.

25 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ 26 Respective Legal Positions

27 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 28 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.

1 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 2 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 3 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 4 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 5 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

6 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
7 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 28.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 8 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 27.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving 9 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 10 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

11 The proposed settlement of $1,600,000 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 12 compared to Plaintiffs’ reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 17-30.) Because of the proposed 13 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 14 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 15 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 16 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $1,600,000.00 is within 17 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 18 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 19 $702.91. (Id. at ¶ 29.)

20 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

21 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
22 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 23 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-51; 24 Crosner Decl. ¶¶ 6-11.) Although Plaintiffs and their counsel were prepared to litigate the claims 25 alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the 26 class.

1 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

2 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 3 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 4 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 5 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 6 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 7 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

8 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

9 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendants agree to pay Class 10 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $533,333.33, which is 33 1/3% of the Gross 11 Settlement Amount, and up to $15,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 12 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

13 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
14 Method

15 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 16 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 17 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 18 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 19 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 20 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

21 Class Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 22 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 23 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent, 24 supra, 557 F.2d at p. 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California 25 Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund 26 from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of 27 the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet 28 (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine

1 has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in 2 which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

3 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 4 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 5 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 6 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 7 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 8 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 9 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 10 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—11 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
12 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

13 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

14 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on 15 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 16 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 17 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 18 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
19 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 20 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 21 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294 [stating that most 22 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 23 million].)

24 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 25 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature, 26 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 27 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 28 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)

1 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys' fees as negotiated 2 by the Parties and requested herein.

3 3. This Matter Involves A "Fee-Shifting" Provision of the Labor Code

4 Labor Code § 1194(a) provides for the recovery of "minimum wage or overtime 5 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit." Under this 6 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys' fees, even if those fees were 7 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 8 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 9 Defendants while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 10 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class 11 Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 39-40.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 12 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.; Crosner Decl., ¶ 3.) Once counsel undertook this 13 litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing 14 its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

15 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Supports the 16 Requested Fee Award

17 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 18 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez 19 Decl., ¶¶ 41-51; Crosner Decl., ¶¶ 6-11.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-20 counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable 21 to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class 22 Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

23 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 24 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement.
25 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 26 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 27 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 28 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award

1 is reasonable and fair.

2 D. The Service Awards to Named Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

3 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 4 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 5 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 6 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 7 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 8 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir.
9 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

10 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 11 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 12 codified in California Labor Code Section 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to 13 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 14 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions....”). Nonetheless, the California 15 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 16 the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
17 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 18 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
19 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

20 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendants agreed to pay 21 service awards in the amount of $10,000.00 to each Plaintiff, for a combined total of $20,000.00.
22 This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiffs’ general release of all claims against Defendants.
23 Class Counsel represent that Plaintiffs devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in 24 the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, 25 and was frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 31-26 35; Crosner Decl. ¶ 5.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits 27 Plaintiffs generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar 28 Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F. Marquez helped

1 negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, and the court approved a 2 $25,000 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 35.)

3 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 4 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 5 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 6 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 7 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 8 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment 9 discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, 10 while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121
11 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards 12 in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 13 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 14 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

15 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

16 A. Legal Standard

17 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 18 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 19 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 20 prerequisites for certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 21 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when 22 the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more 23 may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to 24 Section 382: “(1) There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined 25 community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be 26 represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal.2d 695, 704 [internal citations omitted].) To 27 clarify these requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil 28 Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors:

1 “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical 2 of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v.
3 Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal.3d 462, 470.)

4 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
5 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 6 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 7 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 8 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 9 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

10 B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 11 Settlement Purposes.

12 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

13 The proposed class that Plaintiffs seek to represent is easily ascertainable, and includes 14 approximately 1,398 employees of Defendants.

15 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 16 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 17 records of Defendants, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
18 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 19 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

20 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 21 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 22 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 23 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable 24 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 25 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 26 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 27 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 28 Plaintiffs contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

1 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

2 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 3 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class predominate over any individual 4 questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant 5 adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 6 605.)

7 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendants had legally compliant 8 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendants had legally 9 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting their employees to take rest periods; 10 whether Defendants had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 11 overtime wages; whether final payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, 12 including meal and rest period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were 13 consequently non-compliant. Plaintiffs contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for 14 all of the identified class members, including Plaintiffs. Further, all class members suffered from, 15 and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

16 3. Plaintiffs' Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

17 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 18 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 19 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 20 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 21 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 22 situated" vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 23 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 24 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs are a former employee of Defendants; as 25 such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 26 employees.

27 ///

28 ///

1 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

2 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 3 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 4 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 5 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

6 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiffs retained counsel 7 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 8 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-51; Crosner Decl. ¶ 6-11.) Class Counsel 9 unquestionably is "qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." 10 (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs have no conflicts, and 11 Plaintiffs have, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, 12 showing their dedication. Plaintiffs' willingness to serve as representatives demonstrate their 13 serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the class and subclass.
14 (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

15 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

16 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 17 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
18 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 19 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 20 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-21 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 22 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 23 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at p. 443, 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind.
24 (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 25 are essentially non-existent.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

2 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

3 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 4 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 5 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 6 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 7 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 8 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 9 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 10 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

11 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

12 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 13 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 14 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 15 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 16 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

17 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 18 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 19 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 20 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 21 Defendants, who deny all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 22 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 23 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 24 combined settlement-certification class notice.

25 VI. CONCLUSION

26 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary 27 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing in October 2023 or the 28 soonest available date thereafter.
