1 Plaintiff Paul Blevins (“Plaintiff”) hereby submits his Complaint against Defendants
2 Markstein Beverage Co. of Sacramento; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive; (collectively,
3 “Defendants”), on behalf of himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of 4 Defendants for penalties as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This representative action is brought pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.
7 (the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”)) for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code
8 §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 9 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800 and 2802.

10 2. This Complaint challenges Defendants’ systemic illegal employment
11 practices resulting in violations of the stated provisions of the Labor Code against the identified
12 group of employees.

13 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges Defendants jointly 14 and severally acted intentionally and with deliberate indifference and conscious disregard to the 15 rights of all employees in (1) failing to pay all meal period wages and rest break wages, (2) failing
16 to properly calculate and pay all minimum and overtime wages, (3) failing to provide accurate
17 wage statements, (4) failing to pay all wages due and owing during employment and upon 18 termination of employment, and (5) failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses.

19 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

20 4. This action is brought pursuant to PAGA. The civil penalties sought by 21 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established
22 according to proof at trial.

23 5. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California
24 Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all 25 causes except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is 26 brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

27 ///

28 ///

6. This Court has jurisdiction over the violations of PAGA and Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800 and 2802.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, each party has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of California law so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

8. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, the named Defendants transact business and/or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county. Moreover, this action is brought on behalf of the State of California as a private attorney general and has jurisdiction in this venue.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Paul Blevins is an individual residing in the State of California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within the statutory time period.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants are licensed to do business and actually doing business in the State of California, including the County of San Joaquin.

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and for that reason, said Defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff prays for leave to amend this complaint when the true names and capacities are known. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of Defendants designated as a DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

12. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and that all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and consent of each Defendant designated herein.

13. As such, and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to PAGA and Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800 and 2802.

CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PAGA

(AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS BY PLAINTIFF)

14. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 13 as though fully set forth herein.

15. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

16. On March 25, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the theories supporting his contentions. Plaintiff believes that on or about May 31, 2022, the sixty-five (65) days' notice period expired, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

1 17. On December 1, 2022, Plaintiff provided an amended notice to the LWDA
2 including additional theories of liability. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and incorporated by 3 reference is a copy of the amended notice to the LWDA.

4 18. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are
5 “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current 6 or former employees (whether hired directly or through staffing agencies) of Defendants who
7 worked for Defendants at any time during the period from March 25, 2021 to the present, and one
8 or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

9 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

10 19. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their 11 non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
12 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 13 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

14 20. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and 15 other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay
16 all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

17 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

18 21. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
19 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
20 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further
21 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5)
22 hours worked.

23 22. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other 24 aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks and 25 failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

26 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

27 23. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their 28 employees within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

1 24. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other
2 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time
3 period.

4 Failure to Properly Pay Sick Leave

5 25. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code § 246, Defendants were
6 required to provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours
7 worked, paid in accordance with Labor Code § 246(l), which requires that paid sick leave be paid
8 at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses
9 paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including
10 overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior
11 90 days of employment.

12 26. At all times relevant herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other
13 aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor
14 Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's 15 regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including
16 overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior
17 90 days of employment.

18 Failure to Provide One Day's Rest in Seven-Day Workweek

19 27. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 551 and 552,
20 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take one day of 21 rest from every seven-day workweek.

22 28. As a policy and practice, Defendants required Plaintiff and other aggrieved
23 current and former employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

24 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

25 29. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their
26 employees all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California
27 Labor Code §§ 201 to 204.

28 ///

1 30. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above,
2 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages
3 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to 4 Labor Code § 203.

5 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

6 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate
7 records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226 and 8 1174.

9 32. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants
10 failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former 11 employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate
12 records regarding Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages
13 earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and 14 the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

15 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

16 33. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its 17 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
18 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 2800
19 and 2802.

20 34. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other
21 aggrieved current and former employees all business expenses incurred and owing them within 22 the required time period.

23 Conditioning Employment on Agreement to Arbitrate

24 35. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code § 432.5, Defendants were 25 not permitted to condition employment on an agreement they knew to be prohibited by law.

26 36. As a policy and practice, Defendants required Plaintiff and other aggrieved
27 current and former employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment
28 despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.5.

Penalties

37. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

38. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

39. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

40. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

41. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

42. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and

43. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on his own behalf and as representative of other current and former aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA, prays for judgment as follows:

1. Upon the Cause of Action, for civil penalties pursuant to statute as set forth in Labor Code § 2698 et seq., for Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800 and 2802.
2. Upon the Cause of Action, for costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 218.5, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute; and
3. For such other and further relief the court may deem just and proper.

Re: MARKSTEIN BEVERAGE CO. OF SACRAMENTO

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Paul Blevins against Markstein Beverage Co. of Sacramento (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MARKSTEIN").

Mr. Blevins is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Blevins may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Markstein Beverage Co. of Sacramento is a California corporation located at 60 Main Avenue, Sacramento, California 95838.

¹ Mr. Blevins does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Blevins will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Blevins is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Blevins and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

MARKSTEIN employed Mr. Blevins as an hourly-paid non-exempt Merchandiser within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around May of 2021²) in the State of California. MARKSTEIN directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Blevins may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of MARKSTEIN within the State of California.

MARKSTEIN failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Blevins has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at MARKSTEIN, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

MARKSTEIN has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

² Per Emergency Rule 9 (Tolling statute of limitations for civil causes of action) of the Judicial Council's Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, all statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020. Therefore, the one (1) year statute of limitations for Mr. Blevins's PAGA cause of action is tolled.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. MARKSTEIN failed to compensate Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks. MARKSTEIN also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN routinely required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with MARKSTEIN's policies and expectations. MARKSTEIN failed to provide coverage to Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, MARKSTEIN also failed to authorize and permit Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, MARKSTEIN failed to compensate Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states “[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day’s rest therefrom in seven.” Section 552 further states “[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven.” MARKSTEIN required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day’s rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states “[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law.” MARKSTEIN required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.5.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN did not provide Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from MARKSTEIN were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN did not provide Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by MARKSTEIN, including for purchasing tools and equipment they were required to use and wear while working, and using their personal vehicles for work related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Blevins and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Blevins will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of MARKSTEIN within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

Re: MARKSTEIN BEVERAGE CO. OF SACRAMENTO

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Paul Blevins against Markstein Beverage Co. of Sacramento (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MARKSTEIN").

Mr. Blevins is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Blevins may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Markstein Beverage Co. of Sacramento is a California corporation located at 60 Main Avenue, Sacramento, California 95838.

¹ Mr. Blevins does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Blevins will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Blevins is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Blevins and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

MARKSTEIN employed Mr. Blevins as an hourly-paid non-exempt Merchandiser within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around May of 2021²) in the State of California. MARKSTEIN directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Blevins may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of MARKSTEIN within the State of California.

MARKSTEIN failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Blevins has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at MARKSTEIN, regardless of their classification, job title, location, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

MARKSTEIN has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

² Per Emergency Rule 9 (Tolling statute of limitations for civil causes of action) of the Judicial Council's Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, all statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020. Therefore, the one (1) year statute of limitations for Mr. Blevins's PAGA cause of action is tolled.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. MARKSTEIN failed to compensate Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks. MARKSTEIN also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 246, 248.1, 248.2, and 248.6, and 8 CCR 3205 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked and for certain Covid-19 qualifying reasons. California Labor Code sections 246(l), 248.1, 248.2, and 248.6 and 8 CCR 3205 also requires that all paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with paid sick leave, including kin care leave under California Labor Code section 233, that complied with California Labor Code sections 246, 248.1, 248.2, and 248.6 and 8 CCR 3205, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN routinely required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with MARKSTEIN's policies and expectations. MARKSTEIN failed to provide coverage to Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, MARKSTEIN also failed to authorize and permit Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, MARKSTEIN failed to compensate Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." MARKSTEIN required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." MARKSTEIN required Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.5.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums, earned vacation wages, and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to pay Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN did not provide Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from MARKSTEIN were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, MARKSTEIN did not provide Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, donning and doffing uniforms, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code section 2751 requires an employer to provide written commission plan agreements to all employees who perform services in California and whose compensation involves commissions. During their employment, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees' compensation included commissions yet MARKSTEIN failed to provide written commission plan agreements to all employees who perform services in California and whose compensation involves commissions.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Blevins and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by MARKSTEIN, including for purchasing tools and equipment they were required to use and wear while working, and using their personal vehicles for work related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Blevins and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 233, 246, 248.1, 248.2, 248.6, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800, 2802, 6400, 6401, 6402, 6403, 6404, and 6407,, and the IWC Wage Orders, and all claims arising under 8 CCR section 3205, et seq.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.
