1 Plaintiff CRISTO HERNANDEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members
2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that either 3 have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 4 further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants ELDORADO NATIONAL 7 (CALIFORNIA), INC. and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as 8 “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties
9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods,
10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, 11 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and 12 failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on behalf
14 of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively 15 referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 13, below) pursuant 16 to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by 17 Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 18 according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or more of 21 the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought by 24 Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according 25 to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except 28 those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify

1 any other basis for jurisdiction.

2 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
3 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise
4 intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over 5 them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
7 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Riverside.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff CRISTO HERNANDEZ is an individual residing in the State of California, 10 County of Riverside.

11 8. Defendant ELDORADO NATIONAL (CALIFORNIA), INC. is and at all times herein
12 mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and 13 registered to do business in the state of California.

14 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and 15 therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals,
16 partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times
17 mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee,
18 co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned
19 acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency,
20 employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true
21 names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 22 each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences 23 herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by their 24 conduct. Defendant ELDORADO NATIONAL (CALIFORNIA), INC. and Doe Defendants 1 through 25 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

26 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the 27 County of Riverside, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the 28 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.").

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred,

1 and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees,
2 which have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this
3 action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

4 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 5 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members 6 is impractical.

7 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 8 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment
9 and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out
10 of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class 11 Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the 12 vindication of their rights.

13 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 14 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among 15 others, exist as to the members of the Class:

16 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 17 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

18 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and 19 the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted
20 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

21 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than 22 eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay
23 the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;

24 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or 25 rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal
26 and/or rest periods without compensation;

27 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 28 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

- 1 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members when 2 they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods;
3 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
4 Members for all hours worked;
5 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required
6 minimum wage pursuant to California law;
7 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper
8 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
9 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 10 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 11 employment;
12 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all 13 necessary business-related expenses and costs;
14 l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor
15 Code, including section 226;
16 m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
17 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
18 o. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
19 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper 20 withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
21 p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting 22 from Defendants' violation of California law; and 23 q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages
24 pursuant to the California Labor Code.

25 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26 17. Defendants are a bus manufacturing company.

27 18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a welder from approximately January 2020
28 to October 2021.

1 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the 2 Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

3 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire
4 and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work
5 rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and 7 the Aggrieved Employees.

8 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State
9 of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

10 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in a 11 pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in 12 more detail below, this pattern and practice of wage abuse involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 13 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby 14 failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also 15 implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 16 accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the 17 Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the 18 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in 19 violation of California law. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
20 Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, failed to timely pay wages during employment 21 and upon termination of employment, and failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

22 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
23 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with 24 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and the 25 Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish control
26 over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly failed to 27 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take their meal
28 periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from

1 taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their fifth hour of work
2 and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour
3 of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records
4 of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

5 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under California
7 law. Moreover, Defendants often disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and 8 timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants'
9 actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way
10 Plaintiff that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal periods, and to require Plaintiff,
11 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their meal periods, for which they were not 12 compensated.

13 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
14 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
15 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that 16 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment
17 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late,
18 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to provide legally 19 compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to 20 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 21 rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

22 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
23 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking 24 timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit
25 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for 26 every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 27 periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith effort to 28 authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

1 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform
2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under California
3 law. Moreover, Defendants often disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and
4 timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants'
5 actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way
6 that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require 7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their rest periods.

8 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff,
9 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
10 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that
11 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment
12 of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late,
13 and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to authorize and 14 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failed to
15 pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular 16 rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or interrupted.

17 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
18 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock for which they were 19 not compensated.

20 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies that 21 prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time
22 worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

23 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 24 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

25 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
26 all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they 27 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week,
28 or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week.

1 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were
2 entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages
3 for overtime compensation.

4 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay overtime to 5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular 6 rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

7 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.
9 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 10 entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at 11 least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter
12 alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage
13 pursuant to California law and requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform 14 work off the clock.

15 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
16 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 17 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
18 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
19 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
20 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 21 including overtime compensation, minimum wages, and meal and rest period premiums, within any 22 time permissible under California Labor Code section 202.

23 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay
24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under 25 California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew or should 26 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages
27 owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not 28 receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum wages, and meal and rest

1 period premiums.

2 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
3 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
4 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 5 entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 6 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
7 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages
8 earned, and the correct name legal entity that employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
9 Employees.

10 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to keep 11 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
12 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and accurate
13 payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with California 14 law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

15 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 16 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work 17 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

18 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
19 or should have known that Defendants were required to produce employee records for inspection
20 upon request pursuant to California Labor Code sections 226, 432, and 1198.5, but failed to do so.
21 Plaintiff requested his records pursuant to these Labor Code provisions on January 24, 2022 and 22 March 2, 2022, but Defendants failed to ever produce the requested records to Plaintiff.

23 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, 25 including but not limited to uniforms and badges. Defendants knew or should have known that 26 Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all
27 necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California 28 law.

42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, to increase Defendants' profits.

43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

54. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

56. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

62. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

63. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against All Defendants)

64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

65. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours."

68. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

69. 3 period was not provided.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 73. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
8 allegation set forth above.

9 74. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide 10 that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum 11 so fixed is unlawful.

12 75. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage to 13 Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194, 14 1197, and 1197.1.

15 76. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum wage 16 as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those 17 sections, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their 18 minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees, and liquidated damages
19 in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

20 77. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other Class

23 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 78. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
27 allegation set forth above.

28 79. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202

1 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 2 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or 3 her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 4 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the 5 employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

6 80. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
7 Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
8 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed
9 by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to minimum wages,
10 straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants'
11 employ.

12 81. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
13 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 14 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

15 82. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
16 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue 17 as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but

19 83. Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants are 20 entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up 21 to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

22 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 84. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
26 allegation set forth above.

27 85. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides 28 that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in

1 writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of
2 piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4)
3 all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated

8 The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, 9 properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the 10 deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or 11 at a central location within the State of California.

12 86. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class

14 failure to list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay,
15 and the correct name the legal entity of that employed Plaintiff and the Class.

16 87. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff
17 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

18 88. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional
19 and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their 20 legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements
21 pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

22 89. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual 23 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an 24 aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

25 90. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with 26 this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

27 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

28 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

1 (Against All Defendants)

2 91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
3 allegation set forth above.

4 92. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 5 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence
6 of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job duties or in direct 7 consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

8 93. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were 9 not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-
10 related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred 11 as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

12 94. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class
13 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover
14 from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of 15 their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary
16 expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

17 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
21 allegation set forth above.

22 96. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful 23 and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors.
24 Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 25 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

26 97. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute 27 unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 28 17200, et seq.

1 98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be
2 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants’ policies and 3 practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without paying 4 them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally,
5 Defendants’ policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work
6 through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor
7 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants’ policies and practices of failing to timely pay
8 wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

9 99. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 10 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

11 100. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully 12 gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

13 101. Plaintiff and the Class have personally been injured by Defendants’ unlawful business 14 acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or 15 property.

16 102. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
17 and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a
18 period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys’ fees
19 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award 20 of costs.

21 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 103. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every
25 allegation set forth above.

26 104. Plaintiff brings his NINTH cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 27 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to 28 the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

1 105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for 2 violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision
3 of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
4 Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 5 employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action
6 brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 7 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

8 106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
9 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore an “aggrieved
10 employee” under PAGA.

11 107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants have 12 routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes 13 by:

- 14 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 15 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 16 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
17 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 18 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 19 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 20 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 21 and 512.
- 22 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take 23 duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an 24 additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code
25 §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 26 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of 27 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 28 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.

g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3, 1174.5, and 1197.1, penalties under the applicable IWC Wage Order, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

109. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On March 7, 2022, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's March 7, 2022 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to

1 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed
2 by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 3 Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

4 111. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor
5 Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor
6 Code §2699.3.
