DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff BRYAN HICKS (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, has agents, employs individuals, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Santa Clara.

PARTIES

5. Defendant CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE, at all times herein mentioned,

1 was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California,
2 including the County of Santa Clara.

3 6. At all relevant times, Defendant CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE was the 4 “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

5 7. At all times herein relevant, Defendants CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE, and 6 DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 7 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and/or 8 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 9 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
10 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or 11 omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission,
12 encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

13 8. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 14 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sue 15 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 16 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
17 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 18 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
19 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 20 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

21 9. Defendants CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100 will 22 hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

23 10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 24 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 25 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable
26 under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

27 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

28 11. Plaintiff bring this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

12. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years preceding the filing of this Complaint to final judgment and who reside in California.

(Subclass A) All class members who were subject to Defendants' policy to require its hourly paid or non-exempt employees to remain on the work premises during rest breaks

(Subclass B) All class members who were subject to Defendants' practice of rounding time recorded for compensation of regular and overtime wages

(Subclass C) All class members who earned non-discretionary bonuses or other incentive-based compensation, which were not used to calculate the amount of the meal break or rest break penalty/premium payment

13. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

14. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

15. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants' had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of

- 1 California law;
- 2 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
- 3 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
- 4 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
- 5 and the other class members;
- 6 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of
- 7 meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class
- 8 members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 9 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the
- 10 other class members for all hours worked;
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other
- 12 class members within the required time upon their discharge or
- 13 resignation;
- 14 g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and
- 15 the other class members during their employment;
- 16 h. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the
- 17 California Labor Code; including, inter alia, section 226;
- 18 i. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as
- 19 required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section
- 20 1174(d);
- 21 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class
- 22 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 23 k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 24 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of
- 25 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 26 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
- 27 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 28 n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

16. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

17. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty, including unpaid wages and premium wages, to be assessed and collected by the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

18. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by Defendants and the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

19. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against him during his time of employment and he is therefore an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

20. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by certified mail (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the LWDA and the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter "LWDA Notice") to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it

1 does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60)
2 calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice. Upon
3 receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not
4 provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date
5 of the Employee's Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence
6 a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to 7 recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which 8 the employee may be entitled.

9 21. On March 3, 2022, Plaintiff provided written notice by certified mail to the 10 LWDA and to Defendants of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to 11 have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
12 Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to 13 recover civil penalties against Defendants in addition to other remedies, for violations of 14 California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 15 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders have been satisfied.

16 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17 22. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 18 persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the 19 County of Santa Clara.

20 23. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-21 exempt employee, from approximately May 2018 to approximately November 2018, in the 22 State of California, County of Santa Clara.

23 24. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other class members, classified them as 24 hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked and 25 missed meal periods and/or rest breaks.

26 25. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
27 members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'
28 employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

26. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

27. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

28. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

29. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members all required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class member's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

1 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class
4 member's regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest
5 periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members'
6 regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

7 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
9 at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum 10 wages for all hours worked.

11 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
14 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to 15 them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

16 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
18 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other class members did
19 not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
20 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

21 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
23 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did
24 not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
25 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the 26 other class members.

27 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records

1 for Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did
2 not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

3 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 5 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

6 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 8 one day's rest in a seven-day workweek. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the 9 aggrieved employees were required to regularly and/or consistently work in excess of six (6)
10 days in a workweek.

11 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
13 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 14 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
15 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 16 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

17 43. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to 18 Plaintiff and the other class members for all overtime hours worked. Plaintiff and the other
19 class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours 20 per week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

21 44. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite
22 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members.

23 45. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other 24 class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

25 46. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
26 class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

27 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
28 class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter

1 alia, California Labor Code section 204.

2 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete or 3 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

4 49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate
5 payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

6 50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 7 other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

8 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate
9 Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase
10 Defendants' profits.

11 52. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
12 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 13 due to him [or her] under this article."

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

16 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

17 53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1
18 through 51, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
19 forth herein.

20 54. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
21 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 22 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 23 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly 24 basis.

25 55. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 26 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, and 27 working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the 28 rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more

1 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

2 56. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 3 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two
4 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

5 57. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
6 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
7 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day
8 of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 9 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day 10 of work.

11 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in 12 excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

13 59. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 14 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

15 60. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
16 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 17 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

18 61. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 19 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 20 attorneys' fees.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

23 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

24 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
25 through 60, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
26 forth herein.

27 63. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7
28 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by

1 Defendants.

2 64. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
3 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 4 applicable order of the California IWC.

5 65. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
6 Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to 7 work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee
8 with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per 9 day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual 10 consent of both the employer and employee.

11 66. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
12 Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an 13 employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 14 employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except 15 that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may 16 be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period
17 was not waived.

18 67. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 19 scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive
20 their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods
21 longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30)
22 minutes and/or rest period.

23 68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other class members who were 24 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for 25 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty
26 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

27 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
28 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate

1 Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during 2 meal periods.

3 70. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
4 class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 5 226.7.

6 71. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
7 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

8 72. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
9 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 10 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that 11 the meal or rest period is not provided.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

14 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

15 73. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
16 through 71, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
17 forth herein.

18 74. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
19 Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members'
20 employment by Defendants.

21 75. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
22 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
23 order of the California IWC.

24 76. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 25 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 26 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be
27 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
28 hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half

1 (3 ½) hours.

2 77. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class
3 members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute
4 rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

5 78. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 6 other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class
7 members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

8 79. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
9 class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 10 226.7.

12 80. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California
13 Labor Code section 226.7.

14 81. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
15 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
16 additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each work
17 day that the rest period was not provided.

18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

20 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

21 82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
22 through 80, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
23 forth herein.

24 83. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1
25 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage 26 than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

27 84. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay minimum wage to 28 Plaintiff and the other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections

1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

85. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to those sections Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

86. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover a penalty of $100.00 for the initial failure to timely pay each employee minimum wages, and $250.00 for each subsequent failure to pay each employee minimum wages.

87. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

(Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

88. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 86, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

89. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

90. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to

1 pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their
2 wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

3 91. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members who are no
4 longer employed by Defendants' their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72)
5 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections
6 201 and 202.

7 92. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to 8 pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee 9 shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an 10 action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

11
12 93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 13 statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum 14 pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

15 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code § 204)

17 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

18 94. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
19 through 92, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
20 forth herein.

21 95. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all 22 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 23 any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and 24 payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was 25 performed.

26 96. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
27 wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive,
28 of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due

1 and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

2 97. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all
3 wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the 4 payday for the next regular payroll period.

5 98. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to
6 pay Plaintiff and the other class members all wages due to them, within any time period
7 permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

8 99. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover all remedies
9 available for violations of California Labor Code section 204.

12 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

14 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

15 100. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
16 through 98, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
17 forth herein.

18 101. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a)
19 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized
20 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee,
21 (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid
22 on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 23 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 24 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and 25 his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 26 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 27 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions
28 made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated,

1 showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions
2 shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a
3 central location within the State of California.

4 102. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 5 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include,
6 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 7 the other class members.

8 103. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
9 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
10 protected rights.

12 104. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 13 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 14 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
15 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

16 105. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 17 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
18 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 19 employee.

20 106. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 21 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

22 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d))

24 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

25 107. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
26 through 105, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
27 forth herein.

28 108. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d), an employer shall keep, at a

1 central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are 2 employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the 3 number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees
4 employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance
5 with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file
6 for not less than two years.

7 109. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete
8 payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Plaintiff and the other
9 class members.

10 110. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d),
11 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
12 protected rights.

13 111. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 14 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d) because 15 they were denied both their legal right and protected interest, in having available, accurate and 16 complete payroll records pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d).

17 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

19 (Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

20 112. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
21 through 110, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
22 forth herein.

23 113. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 24 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 25 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her 26 obedience to the directions of the employer.

27 114. Plaintiff and the other class members incurred necessary business-related 28 expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

115. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs.

116. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

117. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 115, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

118. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

119. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

120. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the other class members, to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Defendants' policies and practices of failing to pay minimum wages violate California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 204. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), 2800 and 2802.

121. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

122. Plaintiff and the other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

123. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years preceding the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2698, et seq.)

(Against CALIFORNIA WATER SERVICE and DOES 1 through 100)

124. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 121, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

125. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

126. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

128. Defendants' failure to pay overtime in violation of the Wage Orders and California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.

129. Defendants' failure to provide legally required meal periods in violation of the Wage Orders and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a), as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

130. Defendants' failure to provide legally required meal periods in violation of the Wage Orders and California Labor Code sections 226.7, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226.7.

131. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages in violation of the Wage Orders and California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

132. Defendants' failure to timely pay wages upon termination in violation of California Labor Code sections 210, 202, and 203, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

133. Defendants' failure to pay timely wages during employment in violation of California Labor Code section 204, as alleged, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 204.

Failure to Provide Compliant Wage Statements

134. Defendants' failure to provide compliant wage statements in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 226(a).

Failure to Keep Complete or Accurate Payroll Records

135. Defendants' failure to keep complete or accurate payroll records in violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d), as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code section 1174(d).

Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses

136. Defendants' failure to reimburse all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

Failure to Provide One Day's Rest in a Seven-Day Workweek

137. Defendants' failure to provide one day's rest in a seven-day workweek in violation of California Labor Code sections 551 and 552, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Labor Code sections 551 and 552

138. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants and each of them, business expenses, unpaid wages, and/or untimely wages according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.5, as well as all penalties against Defendants, each of them, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11010, et seq. in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation; and
- d. Any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code section.

139. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(i), civil penalties recovered by aggrieved employees shall be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the LWDA for the enforcement of labor laws and education of employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities and twenty-five percent (25%) to the aggrieved employees.

140. Further, Plaintiff is entitled to seek and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210, 218.5 and 2699 and any other applicable statute.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action as to the first ten causes of action;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class as to the first ten causes of action;
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and
4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most current/last known contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

As to the First Cause of Action

5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members;
6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;
7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194; and
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the other class members;
11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided;

12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;
13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);
14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;
15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and
16. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members;
18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;
19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;
20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);
21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due; and
22. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members;
24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

- 1 25. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1197.1
2 for Plaintiff and the other class members in the amount as may be established
3 according to proof at trial;
4 26. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such
5 amounts were due;
6 27. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to
7 California Labor Code section 1194(a);
8 28. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and
9 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

10 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

- 11 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
12 Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all 13 compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of Plaintiff and 14 the other class members no longer employed by Defendants;
15 31. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 16 proof;
17 32. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for 18 Plaintiff and the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;
19 33. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such 20 amounts were due; and
21 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

22 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

- 23 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
24 Labor Code section 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the 25 time required by California Labor Code section 204 to Plaintiff and the other
26 class members;
27 36. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to
28 proof;

37. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

38. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

39. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and the other class members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

40. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

41. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(e);

42. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h); and

43. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

44. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 1174(d) by willfully failing to keep accurate and complete payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members as required by California Labor Code section 1174(d);

45. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

46. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174.5; and

47. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

As to the Ninth Cause of Action

48. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 by willfully failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses as required by California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802;

49. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

50. For the imposition of civil penalties and/or statutory penalties;

- 1 51. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and
2 52. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

3 As to the Tenth Cause of Action

- 4 53. That the Court decree, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
5 Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq. by failing to provide
6 Plaintiff and the other class members all overtime compensation due to them,
7 failing to provide all meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class
8 members, failing to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class
9 members, failing to pay Plaintiff's and the other class members' wages timely as 10 required by California Labor Code section 201, 202 and 204 and by violating 11 California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), 2800 and 2802.
12 54. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all the other class members and 13 all pre-judgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;
14 55. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all
15 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully 16 acquired by Defendants as a result of violation of California Business and 17 Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
18 56. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 19 California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5; 20 57. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to 21 California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.; and
22 58. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

23 As to the Eleventh Cause of Action

- 24 59. For civil penalties and wages pursuant to California Labor Code sections
25 2699(a), (f), and (g) plus costs and attorneys' fees for violation of California
26 Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558,
