MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Auxaviair Carter (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $290,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Medlab2020, Inc. (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement, as defined below, will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 340 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Mr. Jeffrey Krivis, Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class for settlement purposes only, approve the proposed notice, and set a Final Approval Hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and the putative class members worked in California as hourly paid, non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant specializes in clinical laboratory providing “fast and accurate test results to both doctors and patients”, with multiple sites throughout the state of California. Plaintiff worked at Defendant’s location in Orange, California. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. In addition, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods and improperly calculated the regular rate of pay for overtime and sick pay. Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to include all remunerations in the employees’ overtime rate, sick pay, meal period premiums, and

1 unreimbursed business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for 2 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination,
3 unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

4 Defendant denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to 5 comply with the laws identified in in the Operative Complaint, and denies any and all liability 6 for the causes of action that are or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts in the 7 Operative Complaint. (Settlement, §22.)

8 On February 28, 2022, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint 9 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight-time wages; (2) failure to pay 10 overtime and double overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize 11 and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide 12 accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify for necessary business expenditures;
13 and (8) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions
14 Code §§ 17200, et seq. (Id. at ¶ 4.) On May 10, 2022, Plaintiff filed his First Amended Class 15 and Representative Action Complaint, which added a cause of action for civil penalties under 16 PAGA (“Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

17 B. Discovery and Investigation

18 Following the filing of the Complaint, the Parties exchanged documents and information 19 before mediating this action. Defendant produced a 20% sampling of timekeeping and pay 20 records for the class members. Defendant also provided documents of their wage and hour 21 policies and practices during the class period and information regarding the total number of 22 current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

23 After reviewing the documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and 24 practices and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able 25 to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s 26 maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the 27 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Litigation. (Id.) Class Counsel 28 reviewed these records and utilized an expert to prepare a damages analysis prior to mediation.

1 (Id.)

2 C. Settlement Negotiations

3 On November 4, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced 4 class action mediator, Jeffrey Krivis, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.
5 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional 6 manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 7 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 8 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

9 After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 10 Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties were able to reach a resolution, the 11 material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 8; Ex. 1 12 [Joint Stipulation of Class Action Settlement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”), with 13 the Class Notice attached as Exhibit A].)

14 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 15 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 16 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 17 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 18 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 19 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 15.)

20 Indeed, the $290,000.00 Settlement represents 94% of the realistic maximum recovery
21 of $308,836.20. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant’s maximum 22 potential liability for all claims was approximately $2.9 million, when the risk of prevailing at 23 certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s 24 realistic exposure was $308,836.20 meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id.
25 at ¶¶ 15-29.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, 26 this is an excellent result for the Class. Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class 27 members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable 28 judgment. Although Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and contends Plaintiff would not succeed on the merits of his claims or in certifying those claims for class treatment, Defendant nonetheless agreed to resolve this action through settlement to avoid the expense, distraction, and uncertainty of protracted litigation.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement's key terms include the following (Settlement, §§27(a - x)):

- (a) It is agreed by and among the Class and Defendant that this Action and any claims, damages, or causes of action arising out of the disputes which are the subject of this Action, be settled and compromised as between the Class and Defendant, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Settlement and the approval of the Court.
- (b) Effective Date: Shall be the date all of the following have occurred: (i) final approval of the settlement is granted by the Court; (ii) the Gross Settlement Amount is fully funded by Defendant; and (iii) Judgment approving the settlement becomes Final. "Final" shall mean the latest of: (i) if there is an appeal of the Court's Judgment, the date the Judgment is affirmed on appeal, the date of dismissal of such appeal, or the expiration of the time to file a petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court, or, (ii) if a petition for writ of certiorari is filed, the date of denial of the petition for writ of certiorari, or the date the Judgment is affirmed pursuant to such petition; or (iii) if no objection is made, or if an objection is withdrawn prior to the date the Court grants final approval, the date the final approval order is signed.
- (c) Gross Settlement Amount: Defendant's maximum total payment under the Settlement, including all attorney's fees and costs, the Service Payment to the named Plaintiff, the costs of settlement administration, the PAGA Allocation, and any other payments provided by this Settlement, is $290,000.00 ("Gross Settlement Amount"), subject to the Escalator Clause and except that, to the extent that any portions of the Class Members'

Settlement Payments constitute wages, Defendant will be separately responsible for any employer payroll taxes required by law, including the employer FICA, FUTA, and SDI contributions.

- (d) Escalator Clause: In the event of an increase of more than 15% from original estimate of 8,661 workweeks, in the period from September 3, 2017 through date the Court grants preliminary approval (i.e. specifically 9,960 or more workweeks), the settlement amount shall be increased by the percentage that that actual number of workweeks exceeds a 15% increase from the original estimate. The Gross Settlement Amount will not be reduced for any reason.
- (e) Non-reversionary Settlement: No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.
- (f) No Claims Required: Class Members will not be required to submit a claim to receive their Settlement payment.
- (g) Net Settlement Amount: The Net Settlement Amount shall be calculated by deducting from the Gross Settlement Amount ($290,000.00) the following sums, subject to approval by the Court: (1) attorney's fees (not to exceed 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount, or $96,666.67); (2) reasonable litigation costs (not to exceed $20,000.00); (3) the Service Payment (not to exceed $10,000.00 to the named Plaintiff); (4) the PAGA Penalty Payment in the amount of $15,000.00 (which is 75% of the PAGA Allocation); and (5) costs of settlement administration (estimated not to exceed $15,000). Settlement Payments to the Class Members will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator and paid out of the Net Settlement Amount as set forth below.
- (h) Payroll Taxes and Required Withholdings: To the extent that any portions of the Settlement Class Members' Settlement Payments constitute wages, Defendant will be separately responsible for any employer payroll taxes required by law, including the employer FICA, FUTA, and SDI

1 contributions. Except for any employer payroll taxes and as set forth in the 2 Escalator Clause, it is understood and agreed that Defendant's maximum 3 total liability under this Settlement shall not exceed the Gross Settlement 4 Amount. The Settlement Administrator will calculate and submit the 5 Defendant's employer share of payroll taxes after advising Defendant of the 6 total amount owed, in aggregate, as employer-side payroll taxes and 7 receiving a lump sum payment from Defendant in that amount when the 8 Gross Settlement Amount is delivered to the Settlement Administrator.

9 (i) Settlement Class Payments (Excludes PAGA Payments): Settlement Class 10 Payments will be paid out of the Net Settlement Amount. Each Settlement 11 Class Member will be paid a pro-rata share of the Net Settlement Amount 12 (less the PAGA Settlement Payments to the LWDA), as calculated by the 13 Settlement Administrator. The pro-rata share will be determined by 14 comparing the individual Settlement Class Member's Covered Workweeks 15 employed during the Class Period in California to the total Covered 16 Workweeks of all the Settlement Class Members during the Class Period as 17 follows: $[\text{Workweeks worked by a Settlement Class Member}] \div [\text{Sum of all}$
18 $\text{Covered Workweeks worked by all Settlement Class Members}] \times [\text{Net}$
19 $\text{Settlement Amount} - \text{all PAGA Settlement Payments to the LWDA}] =$
20 individual Settlement Payment for a Settlement Class Member. Settlement 21 Class Payments in the appropriate amounts will be distributed by the 22 Settlement Administrator by mail to the Settlement Class Members. All 23 checks not cashed within 180 days of payment shall be sent to a cy pres
24 recipient, Legal Aid at Work, an organization that seeks to protect the rights 25 of workers.

26 (j) PAGA Payments: PAGA Settlement Payments will be paid out of the Net 27 Settlement Amount. Each PAGA Employee will be paid a pro-rata share of 28 the PAGA Employees' PAGA Settlement Payment, as calculated by the Settlement Administrator minus PAGA Settlement Payments to the LWDA . Class Members will not be permitted to exclude themselves from this portion of the Settlement. The pro-rata share will be determined by comparing the individual PAGA Employees' PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period to the total PAGA Pay Periods of all the PAGA Employees during the PAGA Period as follows:

$$\frac{[\text{PAGA Pay Periods worked by a PAGA Employee}]}{[\text{Sum of all PAGA Pay Periods worked by all PAGA Employees}]} \times [\text{PAGA Settlement Payment}] = \text{individual PAGA Employee's portion of the PAGA Settlement Payment.}$$
 PAGA Settlement Payments to PAGA Employees in the appropriate amounts will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator by mail to the PAGA Employees at the same time Settlement Class Payments issue to the Settlement Class. Un-cashed, unclaimed or abandoned checks, shall be transmitted to the California Controller's Office, as set forth below. The LWDA's PAGA Penalty Payment will issue to the LWDA at the same time Settlement Payments issue to the Settlement Class.

(k) Allocation of Settlement Payments: The Parties have agreed that Settlement Class Payments will be allocated as follows: 33 1/3% to wages, 33 1/3% to penalties, and 33 1/3% to interest. The PAGA Settlement Payment shares to PAGA Employees will be entirely allocated to penalties. Appropriate federal, state and local withholding taxes will be taken out of the wage allocations, and each Class Member will receive an IRS Form W-2 with respect to this portion of the Settlement Payment. The employer's share of payroll taxes and other required withholdings will be paid as set forth above, including but not limited to the Defendant's FICA and FUTA contributions, based on the payment of claims to the Class Members. IRS Forms 1099 will be issued to each Class Member reflecting the payments for penalties and interest. Class Members are responsible to pay appropriate taxes due on the Settlement Payments they receive. To the extent required by law, IRS Forms 1099 and W-2 will be issued to each Class Member with respect to such payments.

(l) Settlement Payments Do Not Give Rise to Additional Benefits: All Settlement Payments to individual Class Members shall be deemed to be paid to such Class Member solely in the year in which such payments actually are received by the Class Member. It is expressly understood and agreed that the receipt of such Settlement Payments will not entitle any Class Member to additional compensation or benefits under any company bonus, contest or other compensation or benefit plan or agreement in place during the period covered by the Settlement up to and including the date the Settlement becomes effective, nor will it entitle any Class Member to any increased retirement, 401(k) benefits or matching benefits or deferred compensation benefits. It is the intent that the Settlement Payments provided for in this Settlement are the sole payments to be made by Defendant to the Class Members, and that the Class Members are not entitled to any new or additional compensation or benefits as a result of having received the Settlement Payments (notwithstanding any contrary language or agreement in any benefit or compensation plan document that might have been in effect during the period covered by this Settlement).

(m) Attorney's Fees and Costs: Subject to approval by the Court, Defendant will not object to Class Counsel's application for attorney's fees not to exceed 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount ($96,666.67) and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses not to exceed $20,000.00.

(n) Service Payment: Subject to Court approval, and in exchange for a general release, Defendant will not object to Class Counsel's application for an additional payment of up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff for service as a Class Representative ("Service Payment"). It is understood that the Service Payment is in addition to the individual Settlement Payment to which a Class

1 Representative is entitled to along with the other Class Members. In 2 exchange, Plaintiff has agreed to release all claims, whether known or 3 unknown, under federal law or state law against the Releasees, to the extent 4 permitted by law, through the Class Period (“Plaintiff’s Released Claims”).
5 Plaintiff understands that this release includes unknown claims and that she is, 6 as a result, waiving all rights and benefits afforded by Section 1542 of the 7 California Civil Code, which provides:

8 A general release does not extend to claims that the 9 creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to 10 exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the 11 release and that, if known by him or her, would have 12 materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor
13 or released party.

14 Specifically excluded from Plaintiff’s Released Claims are any claims for 15 workers’ compensation benefits. The Service Payment will issue at the same 16 time all Settlement Payments are mailed to the Settlement Class.

17 (o) Defendant or the Settlement Administrator will issue an IRS Form 1099 for 18 the Service Payment to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff will be individually 19 responsible for correctly characterizing this compensation on personal 20 income tax returns for tax purposes and for paying any taxes on the amounts 21 received. Should the Court approve a Service Payment in an amount less 22 than that set forth above, the difference between the lesser amount(s) 23 approved by the Court and the Service Payment amount(s) set forth above 24 shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount. Plaintiff agrees not to opt out 25 or object to the Service Payment as the Class Representative.

26 (p) Settlement Administrator: The Settlement Administrator will be ILYM 27 Group, Inc., or such Settlement Administrator as may be mutually agreeable 28 to the Parties and approved by the Court. Settlement Administration Costs are estimated not to exceed $15,000. The costs of the Settlement Administrator for work done shall be paid regardless of the outcome of this Settlement.

- (q) Funding of Settlement Account: Defendant will fund the settlement account 14 days after the date the Court grants final approval.
- (r) Mailing of Settlement Payments: The Settlement Administrator shall cause the Settlement Payments to be mailed to the Class Members within 14 calendar days of the receipt of funding.
- (s) Notice of Settlement: Each Class Member will be mailed a notice setting forth the material terms of the proposed Settlement, along with instructions about how to object or request exclusion from the proposed class action Settlement (“Notice”). For each Class Member, there will be pre-printed information on the mailed Notice, based on Defendant’s records, stating the Class Member’s Covered Workweeks during the Class Period and the estimated total Settlement Payment under the Settlement, including the Settlement Class Payment and the PAGA Settlement Payment that will be distributed irrespective of any exclusion request. The pre-printed information based on Defendant’s records shall be presumed to be correct. A Class Member may dispute the pre-printed information on the Notice as to his or her Covered Workweeks during the Class Period. Class Members must submit any dispute regarding the information on the Notice as to his or her Covered Workweeks within the Response Deadline. Unless a disputing Class Member submits documentary evidence in support of his or her dispute, the records of the Defendant will be determinative.
- (t) Settlement Notice Language: The Notice will issue in English and Spanish.
- (u) Class Members Cannot Exclude Themselves from the Released PAGA Claims: Class Members submitting a Request for Exclusion will nevertheless receive their pro-rata share of the PAGA Settlement Payment. If the Court approves the compromise of the PAGA Claim, all Class Members are bound by the Court’s resolution of that Claim. Plaintiff shall

1 serve a notice of settlement on the California Labor and Workforce 2 Development Agency at or before the time Plaintiff files the motion for 3 preliminary approval.

4 (v) Resolution of Workweek Disputes: If a Class Member disputes the accuracy 5 of Defendant's records used to calculate Covered Workweeks, and the 6 Parties' counsel cannot resolve the dispute informally, the matter will be 7 referred to the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will 8 review Defendant's records and any information or documents submitted by 9 the Class Member and issue a non-appealable decision regarding the dispute.
10 The Class Member must submit information or documents supporting his or 11 her position to the Settlement Administrator prior to the expiration of the 12 Response Deadline. Information or documents submitted after the 13 expiration of the Response Deadline will not be considered by the Settlement 14 Administrator, unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties.

15 (w) Right of Class Member to Request Exclusion from the Settlement: Any 16 Class Member may request to be excluded from the Class by mailing a 17 "Request for Exclusion" from the Settlement within the Response Deadline, 18 stating, as follows or in substantially similar terms:

19 "I WISH TO BE EXCLUDED FROM THE CLASS IN THE 20 CARTER V. MEDLAB2020, INC. CLASS ACTION
21 LAWSUIT, ORANGE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT
22 CASE NO. 30-2022-01247444-CU-OE-CXC. I
23 UNDERSTAND THAT IF I ASK TO BE EXCLUDED 24 FROM THE CLASS, I WILL NOT RECEIVE ANY 25 MONEY FROM THE SETTLEMENT OTHER THAN MY 26 SHARE OF THE PAGA PAYMENT."

27 Any Request for Exclusion must include the name, address, telephone 28 number, last four digits of the Class Member's Social Security Number, and the signature of the Class Member requesting exclusion. Any such request must be made in accordance with the terms of the Notice, and the Notice will advise Class Members of these requirements. Any Class Member who

1 timely requests exclusion in compliance with these requirements (i) shall not 2 have any rights under this Settlement other than a right to receive a pro-rata
3 share of the portion of the PAGA payment allocated to the Class Members 4 if the Class Member is also PAGA Employee; (ii) shall not be entitled to 5 receive any Settlement Payments under this Settlement other than as stated 6 in Paragraph 26(j); and (iii) shall not be bound by this Settlement or the 7 Court's Order and Final Judgment other than as it applies to the PAGA 8 Claim.

9 (x) Right of Settlement Class Member to Object to The Settlement: Any Class
10 Member may object to the Settlement. To object, the Class Member may (1) 11 appear at the Final Approval Hearing, remotely or in person, to explain any 12 objection, (2) have an attorney object for the Class Member, or (3) submit a 13 simple written brief or statement of objection to the Settlement 14 Administrator. If any Class Member chooses to submit a written objection, 15 the written objection should contain sufficient information to confirm the 16 identity of the objector and the basis of the objection, including (1) the full 17 name of the Settlement Class Member; (2) the signature of the Settlement 18 Class Member; (3) the grounds for the objection; and (4) be postmarked 19 within the Response Deadline to permit adequate time for processing and 20 review by the Parties of the written statement or objection. Class Counsel 21 shall ensure that any written objections are transmitted to the Court for the 22 Court's review (either by Class Counsel or as an attachment to declaration 23 from the Settlement Administrator). Regardless of the form, an objection 24 alone will not satisfy the requirement that a Settlement Class Member must 25 either make a timely complaint in intervention before final judgment or by 26 file a motion to set aside and vacate the class judgment under Code of Civil 27 Procedure § 663 to have standing to appeal entry of judgment approving this 28 Settlement, as is required under the California Supreme Court decision of 1 Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, 4 Cal. 5th 260 (2018). A Class 2 Member who does not object prior to or at the Final Approval Hearing, will 3 be deemed to have waived any objections and will be foreclosed from 4 making any objections (whether at the Final Approval Hearing, by appeal, 5 or otherwise) to the Settlement. If the objecting Class Member does not 6 formally intervene in the action or move to set aside any judgment and/or 7 the Court rejects the Class Member’s objection, the Class Member will still 8 be bound by the terms of this Agreement. Class Counsel and Defendant’s 9 Counsel may, at least five (5) calendar days (or some other number of days 10 as the Court shall specify) before the final approval hearing, file responses 11 to any written objections submitted to the Court.

12 III. DISCUSSION

13 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 14 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 15 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
16 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 17 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 18 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
19 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

20 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 21 factors, which may include the strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 22 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 23 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 24 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 25 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 128.) In order 26 to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within 27 the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement 28 of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the Plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.) Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that a Plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve the settlement.”].)

The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following a full day of mediation with experienced employment mediator, Jeffrey Krivis, Esq. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 7-8.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as class member timekeeping and payroll records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well as

1 information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus former 2 employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages paid
3 to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 4 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 5 Litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 6 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

7 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 8 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 41-51.) Again, this supports the position that the 9 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 10 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 11 action.

12 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’

13 Respective Legal Positions

14 A settlement is not judged against what Plaintiff might recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 15 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
16 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 17 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 18 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 19 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 20 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

21 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
22 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 27.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 23 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 24 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 25 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

26 The proposed settlement of $290,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 27 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-29.) Because of the proposed 28 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an

1 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 2 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 3 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $290,000.00 is within 4 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 5 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 6 $381.10. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

7 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

8 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
9 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 10 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-11 51.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 12 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

13 4. The Percentage of Objectors Is Likely to Be Small

14 The percentage of objectors to the Settlement is likely to be small, if there are any at all, in 15 light of the thorough investigation, arm's-length bargaining, and experience of Class Counsel, 16 which back the Settlement; and a positive response by the class strongly supports approval of the 17 Settlement. (See, e.g., In re Lifelock, Inc. Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Ariz. 2010) 18 2010 WL 37 15138, *6 [relatively few objections and requests for exclusion support approval].) 19 In fact, amongst the factors to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include "the 20 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement." (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p.
21 128.) The foregoing indicates that the Settlement is comprised of those factors which trigger a 22 presumption of fairness and reasonableness. In addition, it indicates that other discretionary factors 23 which the court considers in making a determination of fairness and reasonableness also apply.
24 Therefore, the Settlement merits preliminary approval.

25 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

26 The Proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement, in the form attached to the Settlement 27 Agreement as Exhibit A, should be approved for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs 28 the class of the terms of the settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. The

1 Notice also provides instructions in the event a Class Member wishes to object to this proposed 2 class action settlement, either in writing or at the hearing, and explains the Class Member will have 3 the opportunity to file an objection and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the 4 proposed Notice meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

5 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

6 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, the Settlement Administrator will 7 allocate from the Total Maximum Settlement Amount reasonable attorneys' fees to Class Counsel 8 in the amount of $96,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross Settlement Amount, and up to 9 $20,000.00 in actual costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class members in the Notice of 10 Proposed Class Action Settlement and are reasonable.

11 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common 12 Fund" Method

13 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 14 by counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. The California Supreme Court held that "when 15 a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a Plaintiff 16 or Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such Plaintiff 17 or Plaintiff may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 18 25, 34, quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

19 Class Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common 20 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 21 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent, 22 supra, 557 F.2d at p. 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California 23 Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund 24 from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of 25 the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet 26 (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine 27 has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in 28 which other persons are entitled to share." (Id. at p. 110.)

1 The California Supreme Court recently affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016)
2 1 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the 3 class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that 4 fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate 5 percentage of the fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages 6 of the percentage method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between 7 counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the 8 encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging 9 the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our 10 trial courts.” (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

11 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

12 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 13 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually, 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 14 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 15 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 16 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
17 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 18 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 19 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294 [stating that most 20 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 21 million].)

22 Here, Plaintiff request attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 23 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature 24 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 25 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 26 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)
27 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated 28 by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194(a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 35-40.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-51.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

1 D. The Named Plaintiff Award Is Reasonable

2 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 3 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 4 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 5 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 6 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 7 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
8 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

9 Service awards are particularly important to a plaintiff in wage and hour cases because they 10 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 11 codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to 12 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 13 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions....”). Nonetheless, the California 14 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 15 the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
16 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 17 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
18 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

19 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, the Settlement 20 Administrator will allocate from the Total Maximum Settlement Amount a Named Plaintiff Award 21 in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiff’s general 22 release of all claims against Defendant. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff devoted a great deal 23 of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for 24 litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class Counsel during 25 the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 30-34; Declaration of Auxaviair Carter in Support of Plaintiff’s 26 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Carter Decl.”], ¶¶ 4-9.) This 27 amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class
28 members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-

02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, and the court approved a $10,000.00 class representative incentive award for each named Plaintiff. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 34.)

When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class action Plaintiff from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiff: An Empirical Study”, 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) That same study found that named Plaintiff in employment discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named Plaintiff in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative Plaintiff whole by compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS WARRANTED

A. Legal Standard

The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device. (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for Settlement Purposes

1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

Plaintiff contends that the proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable, and includes approximately 340 employees of Defendant.

Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant (i.e., job position), the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

“The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore,

1 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

2 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

3 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 4 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class predominate over any individual 5 questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant 6 adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 7 605.)

8 Here, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices 9 resulted in Labor Code violations. In addition, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide 10 employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods and improperly calculated the regular rate 11 of pay for overtime and sick pay. Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to include 12 all remunerations in the employees' overtime rate, sick pay, meal period premiums, and 13 unreimbursed business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for 14 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination, 15 unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff contends that the factual and 16 legal issues are the same for all of the identified class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all 17 class members are alleged to have suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.
18 Defendant denies all allegations.

19 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

20 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 21 of the representative Plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 22 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 23 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 24 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 25 situated" vis-à-vis the class.]) A representative Plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 26 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 27 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as 28 such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.

4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a named Plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, a named Plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 41-51.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's willingness to serve as a representatives demonstrate his serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the class action device enables it to manage this Litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court,

1 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 2 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 3 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 4 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 5 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 6 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 7 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

8 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

9 The Class Notice attached as Exhibit A to Exhibit 1 of this Motion should be approved. It 10 will be disseminated through direct U.S. first-class mail to the last known address for each Class 11 Member. It informs the Class Members of the terms of the Settlement and their right to be excluded 12 from the Settlement. The Notice also provides instructions in the event a Class Member wishes 13 to object to this proposed class action settlement, either in writing or at the hearing, and explains 14 that the Class Member will have the opportunity to file an objection and be heard at the Final 15 Approval Hearing.

16 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 17 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 18 terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 19 makes clear that the Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 20 Defendant, who deny all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 21 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made.
22 Accordingly, the Notice complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality 23 required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

24 VI. CONCLUSION

25 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 26 approval of the proposed Settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing on Friday, September 8, 27 2023, at 1:30 p.m. (approximately 119 days after the May 12, 2023) hearing date on this motion, 28 if it is granted), or the first available date thereafter.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: April 20, 2023
