1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This Court preliminarily approved the settlement on or about September 10, 2025.
4 (James Hawkins Decl. “Hawkins”, Exhibit A - Preliminary Approval Order). Plaintiff RAGINI
5 MAL(“Plaintiff”), now respectfully requests that this Court grant final approval of the settlement 6 agreement attached to the Hawkins Declaration as Exhibit B, which seeks to resolve claims 7 against BMO Bank, N.A., as successor in interest to Defendant Bank of the West. (“Defendant”) 8 in exchange for a Gross Settlement Amount of (“GSA”) of Three Hundred and Ninety-Five 9 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($395,000.00).
10

11 The Class Members overwhelmingly supported the Settlement, as there is a 99.56% 12 participation rate, with zero objections and one opt out resulting in a large participation from all 13 Class Members (228). To determine a Participating Class Member’s individual settlement award 14 payment, Each Class Settlement Payment shall be calculated by dividing the Net Settlement 15 Amount by the total number of Work Weeks worked by Settlement Class Members then 16 multiplying that amount by the number of Work Weeks the individual Settlement Class Member 17 worked as a non-exempt hourly employee for Defendant in California during the Class Period.
18 (Settlement Agreement at ¶8.7.1). The highest Class Settlement Payment to a Participating Class 19 Member is currently estimated to be approximately $2,006.15, the average Class Settlement 20 Payment is currently estimated to be approximately $918.50, and the lowest Class Settlement 21 Payment is currently estimated to be approximately $2.46. These amounts are subject to 22 employee-side tax and withholdings. (Administrator Decl. of NORMA AYALA-hereinafter 23 “Ayala”, ¶ 16).

24 There are 171 Aggrieved Employees who worked a total of 8,172.00 pay periods during 25 the PAGA Period. Id. at ¶ 17. The highest individual PAGA Penalty Payment to an Aggrieved 26 Employee is approximately $107.68, the average individual PAGA Penalty Payment is 27 approximately $58.48, and the lowest individual PAGA Penalty Payment is approximately $1.22.
28 Id. at ¶ 18.

1 Plaintiff also moves for final approval of attorneys' fees in the amount of $118,500.00 2 which is 30% of GSA. As will be demonstrated herein, Class Counsel's attorney fee request is 3 supported using the percentage fee method and the lodestar method. Second, Plaintiff moves for 4 final approval of payment of the litigation costs in the amount of $14,771.48, all of which was 5 incurred in litigating this matter. Third, Plaintiff moves for final approval of the Service 6 Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff in the sum of $5,000.00, to compensate the Class 7 Representative for their service as the Class Representative and for the risks absorbed and time 8 spent litigating the case. Plaintiff played a vital role in representing Class Members in this case 9 and spearheading the lawsuit to seek monetary relief on behalf of all Class Members. Fourth, 10 Plaintiff moves for final approval of the payment of $7,000.00 in administrative costs to APEX 11 Class Action Administrators, LLC. Fifth, Plaintiff moves for final approval of the $40,000.00 12 PAGA Payment and the payment to the Labor and Work Development Agency ("LWDA") for 13 its share of the PAGA Payment ($30,000.00, which is 75% of $40,000.00; with the remaining 14 $10,000.00 payable to Aggrieved Employees).

15 This case required many hours of attorney and Plaintiff time who sought relief on behalf 16 of 228 potential class members within the State of California defined as all current and former 17 non-exempt employees of Defendant who worked within the CESS division of Defendant in 18 California during the Class Period, March 23, 2018 through December 5, 2024.

19 This litigation involved the review and analysis of documents, policies, and practices, as 20 well as a full day of mediation. Most importantly, the Settlement and all its terms received 21 overwhelming support from Class Members, as there were no objections and only one request 22 for exclusion. Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant final approval of the 23 Settlement, attorneys' fees, litigation costs, Service Enhancement Payment, Claims 24 Administration Costs, and payment to the LWDA in the amounts preliminarily approved by the 25 Court and as fully disclosed to Class Members.

26 II. BACKGROUND, INVESTIGATION, DISCOVERY

27 On March 23, 2022, Plaintiff Ragini Mal filed a class action lawsuit in Orange County 28 Superior Court (Case No. 30-2022-01251706-CU-OE-CXC) on behalf of herself and a putative

1 class of all persons who have been employed by Defendants as Non-Exempt Employees or 2 equivalent positions, however titled, in the state of California within four (4) years from the 3 filing. of the Complaint in this action until its resolution (the “Class Complaint”). Plaintiff brings 4 claims for failure to pay wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to timely pay wages, 5 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to accurately record and pay sick 6 leave, failure to pay vested vacation pay, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and 7 an unfair competition claim. Plaintiff seeks damages on behalf of herself and a class including 8 unpaid wages, statutory penalties, interest, and attorney’s fees and costs. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 3-9 7).

11 On May 31, 2022, Plaintiff Ragini Mal filed a PAGA Representative Action complaint in 12 Orange County Superior Court (Case No. 30-2022-01262144-CU-OE-CXC) on behalf of herself 13 and all other aggrieved employees (the “PAGA Complaint”). Plaintiff asserts violations of 14 California Labor Code sections 201-203, 510, 226.7, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 15 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, and 2802. Plaintiff seeks penalties, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.
16 Id.

17 On September 14, 2022, in response to Defendant’s filing of a Notice of Related Cases 18 concerning the Class Complaint and the PAGA Complaint, the Court reassigned the PAGA 19 Complaint to Judge Peter Wilson who was already presiding over the Class Complaint. Though 20 not formally consolidated, the Lawsuits have preceded in parallel since that time.

21 The Parties have engaged in formal discovery. Plaintiff served written document requests 22 on November 11, 2022. Defendant served objections and responses on March 7, 2023. Defendant 23 served written document requests on October 12, 2022. Plaintiff served objections and responses 24 on January 3, 2023. Following a meet and confer process, Plaintiff then served amended 25 objections and responses on March 9, 2023. Plaintiff served form and special interrogatories on 26 November 11, 2022 and March 14, 2023. Defendant served objections and responses on March 27 7, 2023 and on May 22, 2023. Documents and information were exchanged in response to the 28 formal discovery.

1 Defendant denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any 2 failure to comply with the laws identified in the Operative Complaint and denies any and 3 all liability for the causes of action alleged. Id.

4 In December 2023 and January 2024, the Parties met and conferred about an early private 5 mediation to resolve Plaintiff's claims. The Parties ultimately agreed in January 2023 to 6 mediation with the Honorable Amy D. Hogue on March 20, 2024. The Parties exchanged 7 sufficient information to engage in good faith negotiations, including, policies, time and pay 8 records for a sample of approximately 60% of the putative class, and data points (e.g., 9 workweeks, pay period class size) relating to the putative class. The Parties engaged in arm's 10 length negotiation including, but not limited to, a full day mediation session on March 20, 2024, 11 facilitated by Judge Hogue, who has extensive experience in labor and employment litigation, 12 including in particular wage and hour litigation. Towards the end of the day-long mediation, the 13 Parties agreed to a memorandum of understanding of the key terms of the Settlement, which was 14 memorialized on the same day and signed by all parties on March 21, 2024. Plaintiff's 15 investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot 16 Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc.
17 (2008) 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 129-130 ("Dunk/Kullar"). (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 3-7).

19 The settlement discussions were conducted at arm's-length, and the settlement is the 20 result of an informed and detailed analysis of Defendant's potential liability in relation to the 21 costs and risks associated with continued litigation. Based on the documents produced, as well as 22 Class Counsel's own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel believes that the 23 Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set forth in this Agreement is 24 fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class Members in light of all 25 known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay and uncertainty associated 26 with litigation and various defenses asserted by Defendant. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 4-12, Ex. B.)

27 In reaching the proposed settlement, Plaintiff counsel's negotiation efforts took into 28 consideration relevant factors such as the size of the class, the information, data, and documents

1 obtained in the litigation and/or otherwise exchanged pursuant to the mediation privilege; the 2 experience of the named Plaintiff; the strengths and weaknesses of the case; the uncertain 3 outcome and risk of litigating complex actions; the time and expense in litigating a case through 4 trial; Defendant's defenses; and the non-reversionary nature of the settlement.

5 A. THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDES REASONABLE COMPENSATION TO 6 CLASS MEMBERS

7 As a result of the mediation, the parties agreed to settle this matter for a Gross Settlement 8 Amount ("GSA") of $395,000.00 (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 15, Ayala Decl., ¶ 14). Based on their own 9 respective independent investigations and evaluations, and after taking into account the sharply 10 disputed factual and legal issues involved in this matter, the risks attending further prosecution of 11 the case, and the monetary benefits received under the Settlement despite the questionable nature 12 of the claims, Plaintiff's counsel is of the opinion that Settlement for the consideration and on the 13 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement remains fair, reasonable and adequate and is in the 14 best interests of the Class Members. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 5-13).

15 Even without the presumption of fairness and reasonableness, the settlement is clearly 16 within the range of reasonableness as thoroughly discussed in detail in the motion for 17 preliminary approval, and as considered by the Court in granting preliminary approval, 18 (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 9-18; Ex. A- Order Granting Preliminary Approval).

19 Accounting for the risks of continued litigation and impediments to discovery, Plaintiff 20 determined that a settlement amounting to $395,000.00 was fair and reasonable and the court 21 preliminarily agreed. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 11-23). See, e.g., In re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 212 22 F.R.D. 231, 256-58 (D. Del. 2002) (recognizing that a reasonable settlement amount can be 1.6% to 14% 23 of the total estimated damages); In Re Armored Car Antitrust Litig., 472 F. Supp. 1357, 1373 (N.D. Ga.
24 1979) (settlements with a value of 1% to 8% of the estimated total damages were approved); In Re Four

III. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND THE CLASS MEMBERS' RESPONSE

A. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

The GSA is ($395,000.00). This amount includes, the Claims Administration Costs of $7,000.00; the Service Enhancement Payment of up to $5,000.00 to Plaintiff; Court-approved attorneys' fees up to $118,500.00, litigation costs to Class Counsel in the amount of $14,771.48; and PAGA penalties of $40,000.00 with 75% of that amount paid to the LWDA and the remaining 25% paid to the Aggrieved Employees. The Net Settlement fund available to the settlement class is approximately $208,500.00. (Ayala Decl., ¶ 15).

The Settlement is a common fund settlement with no reversion to Defendant. Thus, each of the participating Settlement Class Members will be paid his or her pro-rata share of the NSA.

B. RELEASED CLAIMS

Subject to approval by this Court, and in exchange for the consideration recited in the Settlement Agreement, the Released Claims are all claims that have been or could have been reasonably alleged or asserted in the PAGA Notices and as defined in the Settlement. (Hawkins Decl., Ex. B- Settlement Agreement ¶11).

1 On September 10, 2025, the Court granted Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, 2 conditionally certified the class for settlement purposes, appointed APEX Class Action 3 Administration to act as the administrator, approved the Notice to be sent to the Class, and directed 4 that the Notice be mailed to the Class via U.S. First Class Mail. (Hawkins Decl., Ex. A- Order 5 Granting Preliminary Approval). On October 27, 2025, The Notice Packet was sent to all 228
6 individuals listed in the Class Data using U.S First Class Mail. (Ayala Decl., ¶7). Out of the 228
7 Notices, only 4 were deemed undeliverable after attempts to ascertain the addresses. (Ayala Decl., 8 ¶¶ 7-11). As a result of the mailing, there is a 99.56% participation rate and 228 Class Members 9 will be mailed a settlement check. (Id. ¶ 14).

10 Not later than seventy-five (75) calendar days following the Effective Date (or, if 11 that date falls on a weekend or holiday, the next business day thereafter), the Settlement 12 Administrator shall provide Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel with a declaration under oath 13 to verify the mailing of Class Settlement Payment checks and the other distributions from the 14 Gross Settlement Amount. Any checks issued to Settlement Class Members shall remain 15 negotiable for a period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date of mailing of the 16 Class Settlement Payment checks. Uncashed checks will be voided and, within two hundred (200)
17 calendar days from the date of mailing of the Class Settlement Payment checks, the funds 18 associated with such voided checks will be transmitted by the Settlement Administrator to the 19 Controller of the State of California to be held in that Settlement Class Member's name pursuant 20 to the Unclaimed Property Law. No later than two hundred ten (210) calendar days from the date 21 of mailing of the Class Settlement Payment checks (or, if that date falls on a weekend or holiday, 22 the next business day thereafter), the Settlement Administrator shall provide Class Counsel and 23 Defendant's Counsel with a declaration as to the total amount of any uncashed settlement checks.
24 (Settlement Agreement ¶ 10.6).

26 A. THE SETTLEMENT SATISFIES THE STANDARD FOR FINAL

APPROVAL

California Rule of Court, Rule 3.769, requires court approval for class action settlements. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(g). California courts favor settlement. Stambaugh v. Superior Court (1976) 62 Cal. App. 3d 231, 236, Potter v. Pacific Coast Lumber Co. of Cal. (1951) 37 Cal. 2d 592, 602 (“[T]he law wisely favors settlements”). Accordingly, the Court must give “[due] regard to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 245.

In deciding whether to approve a class settlement, a court evaluates whether the proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, and reasonable.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n of City & Cnty. Of S.F. (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). A court enjoys broad discretion to make its fairness determination. Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1801. However, “a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Id. at 1802; accord Wershba, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 245. In addition, a court should consider additional relevant factors, including the strength of the Plaintiff’s case compared to the settlement amount; the risk, expenses, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; and the fair treatment of class members in relation to each other. Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

At the time of preliminary approval, the Court was provided with sufficient information to satisfy three of the four Dunk factors, leaving the fourth factor, the number of objectors, unknown until after the Class had an opportunity to respond to the Settlement as explained in the Notice. Subject only to the Class’s reaction to the Settlement, the Court preliminarily presumed the Settlement was fair, adequate, and reasonable. Following dissemination of the Notice, and adequate time provided to the Class to object to the Settlement, no class member submitted objections and one Class Member excluded themselves from the settlement, resulting in a 99.56% participation rate from the Class. (Ayala Decl., ¶ 14). Thus, the proposed Settlement is entitled to the presumption that it is fair and in all other respects proper and should be finally approved.

1                   V. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE REQUESTED FEES AND COSTS

2                   A. THE REQUESTED FEE AWARD IS FAIR AND REASONABLE, 3                   CALCULATED AS A PERCENTAGE
4                   OF A COMMON FUND

5                   Class Counsel applies for an award of attorneys’ fees in the sum of $118,500.00 of the 6                   GSA, and litigation costs of $14,771.48 (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 24-29, attached to the Hawkins 7                   Declaration as Exhibit C are the actual litigation costs). When a settlement results in a common 8                   fund for the benefit of a class, class counsel may be awarded fees as a percentage of the common 9                   fund. See Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 254 (recognizing the “percentage of recovery” 10                  method). The California Supreme Court confirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. that “[t]he 11                  percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases.” 1 Cal.5th 480, 506 (2016), 12                  in stating:

13                         The recognized advantages of the percentage method—including relative ease of 14                         calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better 15                         approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 16                         it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging 17                         the litigation—convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not 18                         be denied our trial courts.

19                         Id. at 503 (internal citation omitted); see also e.g., Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 20                         (1977) (“when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action
21                         brought by a plaintiff or Plaintiff for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that 22                         fund, such plaintiff or Plaintiff may be awarded attorney’s fees out of the fund.”); Serrano v.
23                         Unruh, 32 Cal.3d 621, 627 (1982) (in awarding a fee from the common fund obtained for the 24                         benefit of all parties, the trial court acts within its equitable power to prevent the other parties’
25                         unjust enrichment.); Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache Properties, Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir.
26                         1993) (the percentage of the fund method for calculating attorney’s fees more accurately reflects 27                         the results achieved for the putative class than the lodestar method and “establishes reasonable 28                         expectations on the part of Plaintiff’s attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages 29                         early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation.”); In re Rite Aid Corp. Securities Litigation, 30                         396 F.3d 294, 300 (3d Cir. 2005) (“The percentage-of-recovery method is generally favored in

1 common fund cases because it allows courts to award fees from the fund ‘in a manner that rewards 2 counsel for success and penalizes it for failure.”).<sup>2</sup>

3         The purpose of the common fund/percentage approach is to “spread litigation costs 4 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 5 burden alone.” Vincent, supra, 557 F.2d at 769. In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 6 162, 167, the Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a 7 fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share 8 of the litigation costs.” Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 9 105, 110, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been 10 applied “consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which 11 other persons are entitled to share.” The reasons for applying the common fund doctrine include: 12 “...fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery 13 might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others 14 who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its recovery; 15 encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake 16 and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured 17 that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.” Id. Because 18 there is a defined and clearly traceable benefit to the Class, the Court can base an award of 19 attorneys’ fees using a ‘common fund’ approach to compensate Class Counsel.

20                 1.         The Requested Attorneys’ Fee is Within the Range of Fees Approved in 21                         Comparable Common Fund Cases

22                 Assessing an appropriate fee based on a percentage of the fund involves considering “all 23 of the circumstances of the case.” Appellate cases addressing fees arise almost exclusively where 24
25

26 <sup>2</sup> Laffitte also held trial courts have discretion to assess reasonableness of fee awards with tools 27 such as the lodestar cross-check, although they need not do so. Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 506 (“We hold 28 further that trial courts have discretion to conduct a lodestar cross-check on a percentage fee . . . they also retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee”).

awards were challenged by Defendants or objectors – the only parties with standing to appeal. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 236.

The requested fee falls in the mid-range of percentage class fee awards, which generally range from 20% to 50% of a common fund, and it constitutes fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation on a contingent basis and compensates Class Counsel for their efforts, as well as the result achieved for the benefit of the Class. Numerous courts in California routinely approve fee requests equal to or greater than 25% of the common fund. See Martin v. Ameripride Servs., 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 61796, *22-23 (S.D. Cal. 2011) (collecting cases); Birch v. Office Depot, Inc., USDC Southern District, Case No. 06cv1690 DMS (WMC) (awarding 40% fee on a $16 million wage and hour class action settlement); Rippee v. Boston Mkt. Corp., USDC Southern District, Case No. 05cv1359 BTM (JMA) (awarding a 40% fee on a $3.75 million wage and hour class action settlement). In fact, the Sacramento County Superior Court has awarded fees of 25% of the common fund in wage and hour class actions. (McMahon v. Airco Mechanical, Inc., Case No. 34-2019-00259269; Uribe v. EcoGuard Pest Management, Inc., Case No. 34-2021-00300650; Arroyo v. Epic Home Solar, Case No. 34-2021-00310634; Blair v. Clark Wagaman Designs, Case No. 34-2021-00313156).

In short, Class Counsel’s fee request of $118,500.00 (30% of the common fund) is in line with awards in similar cases in California and demonstrates that Class Counsel’s fee request is consistent with market rates and is reasonable.

2. A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Requested Fee

Class Counsel’s fee request is also reasonable when calculated using the lodestar method. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly compensation of the attorney. Serrano, 20 Cal. 3d at 48. The court then may enhance this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. Id. at 49; see also Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36 (2001); Thayer v. Wells Fargo Bank, 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 834 (2001), [“[t]here is no...rule limiting the factors that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion to [adjust the] lodestar”].

As of the date of filing, Class Counsel worked approximately 204.9 documented hours on this case. for a lodestar value of approximately $163,962.00. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 27; See also Time Ticket Diary Report, attached to the Hawkins Declaration as Exhibit E). In light of the facts and circumstances of this matter, as well as the results that Class Counsel have achieved, Class Counsel have spent a reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the implementation of the Settlement. Where “exceptional effort produced an exceptional benefit,” a fee award may be enhanced. Thayer v. Wells Fargo 92 Cal. App. 4th at 838; In re Vitamin Cases, 110 Cal. App. 4th 1041, 1058-1059 (2003) (high-quality work from counsel supports multiplier). Here, the Lodestar exceeds the attorney’s fees requested thus no multiplier is requested.

3. Class Counsel’s Hourly Rates are Reasonable

Class Counsel’s hourly rates are between $200 and $950 and are in line with rates typically approved in wage and hour class action litigation and which rates have been approved by Courts in California in the Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Alameda, Orange and San Diego County Superior Courts. (Hawkins Decl., ¶26); Children’s Hosp. and Med. Ctr. v. Bonta, 97 Cal.App.4th 740, 746 (2002) (noting rates were reasonable where they were “within the range of reasonable rates charged by and judicially awarded comparable attorneys for comparable work”).

A reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing rate charged by attorneys of similar skill and experience in the relevant community. PLCM Group, Inc v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 1095. When determining a reasonable hourly rate, courts may consider factors such as skill and experience, the nature of the work performed, the relevant area of expertise and the attorney’s customary billing rates. Flannery v. California Highway Patrol (1998) 61 Cal. App. 4th 629, 632. Class Counsel’s skill and experience support their hourly rates. Our practices are limited exclusively to litigation, focusing on the representation of employees in wage and hour and consumer class action matters. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 26). As prominent attorneys in the field of wage and hour class action litigation, Class Counsel continually monitors the prevailing market rates charged by both defense and plaintiff law firms and set the billing rates of their attorneys and

1 paralegals to be consistent with the prevailing market rates in the private sector for attorneys and 2 staff of comparable skill, qualifications and experience. Other wage and hour attorneys working 3 as class counsel before California courts charge comparable if not higher rates. Therefore, as they 4 are in line with those of the relevant community, Class Counsel's hourly rates are reasonable.

5 4. Class Counsel's Total Hours are Reasonable

6 In determining a lodestar fee, reasonable hours include, in addition to time spent during 7 litigation, the time spent before the action was filed, including time spent interviewing clients, 8 investigating the facts and the law, and preparing the initial pleadings. See New York Gaslight 9 Club, Inc. v. Carey (1980) 447 U.S. 54, 62. The fee award should include fees incurred to establish 10 and defend the attorneys' fee claim. Serrano v. Priest (1982) 32 Cal.3d 621, 639.

11 Class Counsel expended a combined total of approximately 204.9 hours on this case. The 12 work performed to achieve a settlement that will provide valuable consideration to the Class is 13 summarized by Class Counsel in the declaration submitted herewith. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 24-31); 14 Syers Props. III, Inc. v. Rankin, 226 Cal.App.4th 691, 699 (2014) ("Because time records are not 15 required under California law ..., there is no required level of detail that counsel must achieve.") 16 (internal quotations omitted). All tasks and work performed were reasonable and necessary for the 17 prosecution of this case. The work performed was justified considering the result achieved. All of 18 the work and tasks performed by Class Counsel were reasonable and necessary for the prosecution 19 of this case. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶24-31).

20 5. Costs of Litigation are Reasonable

21 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of the litigation costs and expenses of $14,771.48.
22 These costs were reasonable and necessary to prosecute this case, and the results achieved are fair, 23 and reasonable. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 24-31, Ex. C).

24 B. THE SERVICE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS REASONABLE

25 Class Counsel seeks approval of a $5,000.00 Service Enhancement Payment to the named 26 Plaintiff/Class Representative. The requested enhancement award is reasonable in light of the 27 benefits Plaintiff conferred upon the entire Class resulting in payments to all Class Members, the 28 time spent assisting counsel with the investigation and prosecution of these claims and consenting

1 to the proposed Settlement. Furthermore, in pursuing this action on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff
2 risked a judgment for attorneys' fees and costs in the event this matter had been lost. (Hawkins 3 Decl., ¶¶ 30-31; See also declaration of Plaintiff Mal filed concurrently herewith as Exhibit D to 4 the Hawkins Declaration)

5 Courts routinely approve service payments, or incentive awards, to compensate named 6 Plaintiff for the services they provide and the risks they incur during class litigation. See In re
7 Cellphone Fee Termination Cases (2010) 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1393; see also Bell v. Farmers
8 Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 715, 725-26 (upholding service payments to class 9 representatives); Manual § 21.62 n.971 (noting that service payments are warranted). Based on the 10 foregoing, the $5,000.00 Service Enhancement Payment is fair, appropriate, and justified as part 11 of the overall settlement.

12 C. THE CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE REASONABLE

13 The Parties agreed to hire APEX Class Action Administration as the administrator, and 14 the Court approved this choice. APEX Class Action Administration's total fees and costs for 15 services in connection with the administration of this Settlement, which includes fees and costs 16 incurred to-date, as well as anticipated fees and costs for completion of the settlement 17 administration, are $7,000.00. APEX Class Action Administration's work in connection with this 18 matter will continue with the calculation of the settlement award payments, issuance and mailing 19 of the settlement award checks, the necessary tax filing and reporting on such payments, and any 20 other tasks that the Parties mutually agree to and/or the Court orders APEX Class Action 21 Administration to perform. (Ayala Decl., ¶15). Following the grant of final approval, the 22 Administrator's duties will continue in order to calculate and mail the Individual Settlement 23 Payment checks to Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, perform tax reporting obligations, 24 disburse other payments as ordered by the Court, and perform such other duties as set forth in the 25 Settlement Agreement. The fee of $7,000.00 for services rendered and to be rendered is fair and 26 reasonable and should be granted.

27 D. THE SETTLEMENT PENALTIES UNDER PAGA ARE REASONABLE

28

1 The PAGA payment of $40,000.00 with 75% of to the LWDA and 25% to the aggrieved 2 employees is reasonable under the circumstances. The Parties negotiated a good faith amount for 3 PAGA penalties. The PAGA penalties allocation is not the result of self-interest at the expense of 4 other Class Members. The LWDA was also provided notice of the Settlement with the concurrent 5 filing of the preliminary approval motion and the instant motion. Plaintiff did not receive a 6 response or objection to the Settlement from the LWDA. Thus, Plaintiff requests the Court finally 7 approve the PAGA allocation in the amount of $40,000.00 with 75% being paid to the LWDA and 8 25% being distributed to the aggrieved employees.

9 VI. CONCLUSION

10 Based on the foregoing, Class Counsel respectfully requests the Court grant final approval 11 of the Class Action Settlement, award (1) Class Counsel's fees in the sum of $118,500.00 and 12 litigation costs of $14,771.48; (2) award the named Plaintiff an Service Enhancement Payment in 13 the sum of $5,000.00; (3) award $7,000.00 to APEX Class Action Administration, for settlement 14 administration services, and (4) approve the PAGA Payment of $40,000.00 with a $30,000.00 of 15 that sum paid to the LWDA and the remaining $10,000.00 paid to the Aggrieved Employees.
