MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

RAGINI MAL is the named plaintiff (“Plaintiff”) in this action brought against Defendant BMO Harris Bank, N.A., as successor in interest to BANK OF THE WEST (“Defendant”) (collectively with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) for wage and hour violations. Following a thorough investigation and evaluation of their respective claims and defenses, the Parties participated in a mediation session with the Honorable Amy D. Hogue, an experienced mediator of wage and hour actions. With the Honorable Amy D. Hogue’s guidance, the Parties were able to negotiate a gross settlement of the Action for $395,000.00 after a full day of mediation.

Plaintiff accordingly seeks preliminary approval of the class action and PAGA settlement, as memorialized in the Class and PAGA Action Settlement Agreement (hereinafter “Settlement Agreement”). If approved, the Settlement would provide considerable monetary relief for approximately 230 class members. The principal terms of the Settlement provide for the following:

(1) Conditional certification of Settlement Classes. It is estimated there are approximately 230 total class members as of the date of mediation.

(2) A Gross Settlement Amount of $395,000.00. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.15).

An objective evaluation of the Settlement Agreement confirms that the relief negotiated on the Settlement Class’s behalf is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated by the Parties at arm’s length with helpful guidance from the Honorable Amy D. Hogue, and the Settlement confers substantial benefits to Class Members. The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be approximately $183,750.00. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.21). This relief—averages approximately $735 per Class Member after fees and costs- and is particularly impressive when viewed against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing wage and hour cases. Moreover, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, Class Members will not have to wait (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risk of class certification being denied or of Defendant prevailing at trial, or of Plaintiff prevailing at trial but losing on appeal. (James Hawkins Decl. “Hawkins Decl.” ¶¶ 15-36).

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary settlement approval under California law and falls within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, Plaintiff

1 respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement.

2 II. FACTS AND PROCEDURE

3 A. Brief Overview of the Litigation

4 On March 23, 2022, Plaintiff Ragini Mal filed a class action lawsuit in Orange County
5 Superior Court (Case No. 30-2022-01251706-CU-OE-CXC) on behalf of herself and a putative 6 class of all persons who have been employed by Defendants as Non-Exempt Employees or 7 equivalent positions, however titled, in the state of California within four (4) years from the filing 8 of the Complaint in this action until its resolution (the “Class Complaint”). Plaintiff brings 9 claims for failure to pay wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to timely pay wages, 10 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to accurately record and pay sick 11 leave, failure to pay vested vacation pay, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, and 12 an unfair competition claim. Plaintiff seeks damages on behalf of herself and a class including 13 unpaid wages, statutory penalties, interest, and attorney’s fees and costs. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 3-6).

14 Plaintiff’s class complaint initially defined the class as “All persons who have been 15 employed by Defendants as Non-Exempt Employees or equivalent positions, however titled, in the 16 state of California within four (4) years from the filing of the Complaint in this action until its 17 resolution”. During the discovery stages of the action, the Parties met and conferred and agreed to 18 narrow the class scope to instead be defined as all current and former non-exempt employees of 19 Defendant who worked within the CESS division of Defendant in California during the Class 20 Period. Class Period means the period from March 23, 2018 through the earlier of either 120 days 21 from the execution of the Settlement Agreement or the date of preliminary approval of the 22 Settlement. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.6). On August 1, 2024, the Parties filed a joint stipulation 23 requesting leave from the court to file a First Amended Class Action Complaint in order to reflect 24 the agreed upon revised scope of the class definition. (Hawkins Decl. ¶6).

25 On May 31, 2022, Plaintiff Ragini Mal filed a PAGA Representative Action complaint in 26 Orange County Superior Court (Case No. 30-2022-01262144-CU-OE-CXC) on behalf of herself 27 and all other aggrieved employees (the “PAGA Complaint”). Plaintiff asserts violations of 28 California Labor Code sections 201-203, 510, 226.7, 226, 226.3, 227.3, 246, 512, 1174, 1174.5,

1 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 2802 and 2698 et seq. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.6). On August 1, 2024
2 the Parties filed a joint stipulation requesting leave from the court to file a First Amended PAGA 3 Complaint to identify the population of Aggrieved Employees at issue as all current and former 4 non-exempt employees of Defendant who worked within the CESS Division of Defendant in 5 California during the liability period. (Hawkins Decl. ¶5).

6 B. The Parties Settled After Mediation and Expert Analysis

7 On March 20, 2024, the Parties engaged in private mediation with a well-respected wage and hour 8 class action mediator, the Honorable Amy D. Hogue. The Parties have engaged in formal discovery. The 9 Parties exchanged sufficient information to engage in good faith negotiations, including, policies, time and 10 pay records for a sample of approximately 60% of the putative class, and data points (e.g., workweeks, pay 11 period, class size) relating to the putative class.

12 Defendant specifically and generally denies any and all liability or wrongdoing of any sort 13 with regard to any of the Released Claims and makes no concessions or admissions of liability of 14 any sort. Defendant maintains that for any purpose other than settlement, the Lawsuit is not appropriate for 15 class action treatment pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Nonetheless, Defendant has 16 concluded that further litigation would be protracted, distracting and expensive, and that it is desirable that 17 the Lawsuit be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this 18 Agreement. Defendant has also taken into account the uncertainty and risks inherent in any litigation.
19 Defendant has therefore determined that it is desirable and beneficial to settle the Lawsuit in the manner 20 and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. (Settlement Agreement at V).

21 In short, Defendant provided discovery sufficient to enable the Plaintiff and Class Counsel to 22 rigorously evaluate the strengths and risks of the case and perform an analysis of the potential damages 23 arising from the claims made in this case. As a result of settlement efforts, the Parties agreed to settle this 24 matter for the Gross Settlement Amount of $395,000.00 for approximately 230 class members and the 25 terms of which are fully memorialized in the Settlement Agreement (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 6, Ex. A.) 26
27
28

1 III. SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT TERMS

2 A. The Proposed Settlement Fully Resolves Plaintiff's Claims

3 1. Composition of the Settlement Class

4 The "Settlement Class Members" are defined as all current and former non-exempt 5 employees of Defendant who worked within the CESS division of Defendant in California during 6 the Class Period. As of the date of mediation, March 20, 2024, it is estimated there are 7 approximately 230 Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.37) "Aggrieved 8 Employees" means all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant who worked 9 within the CESS Division of Defendant in California between August 11, 2021 through the earlier 10 of either 120 days from the execution of this Agreement or the date of preliminary approval of the 11 Settlement (the PAGA Period). (Settlement Agreement ¶3.1). "PAGA Period" means the period 12 from August 11, 2021 through the earlier of either 120 days from execution of this Agreement or 13 the date of preliminary approval of the Settlement. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.27).

14 2. Settlement Consideration

15 Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to settle the underlying class claims in exchange for the Gross 16 Settlement Amount of $395,000.00. The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) attorneys' fees in the 17 amount of $138,250.00 ("Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Expenses") and reimbursement of reasonable 18 litigation costs and expenses in the amount of up to $16,000.00 to Class Counsel; (2) Class 19 Representative's incentive award to Plaintiff in the amount of up to $10,000.00 ("Service Enhancement 20 Payment"); (3) fees and expenses of administration of the Settlement to the Settlement Administrator in an 21 amount not to exceed $7,000.00 ("Claims Administration Costs"); (4) $40,000.00 ("PAGA Penalty 22 Payment") with twenty-five percent (25%) share of the PAGA Penalties to be a part of the Net Settlement 23 Sum that will be distributed to Class Members in the PAGA Group in the amount of $10,000.00; (5) the 24 seventy-five percent (75%) share of PAGA Penalties in the amount of $30,000.00 to the California Labor 25 and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"); and the remainder to of the Net Settlement Amount to 26 the Settlement Class Members. (Settlement Agreement ¶3.21).

27 3. Formula for Calculating Payments from the Net Settlement Amount

28 The "Net Settlement Amount" means the net amount available for payment of claims to Class

1 Members after deducting Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Expenses, Claims Administration Costs, Service
2 Enhancement Payment, 75% of the $40,000.00 PAGA Penalty Payment that is payable to the LWDA.
3 (Settlement Agreement ¶3.21). The Net Settlement Amount estimated at $183,750.00. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 4 15)

5 Given that there are approximately 230 Class Members, each can expect to receive on average 6 approximately $735. (Hawkins Decl. ¶25.)

7 This average net recovery is in line with many other wage and hour class action settlements
8 approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Sandoval v. Nissho of Cal., Inc., Case No. 37-9 2009-00091861 (San Diego County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $145); Fukuchi v.
10 Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); 11 Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net 12 recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (L.A.
13 County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case

16 $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net
17 recovery of approximately $35); Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.)
18 (average net recovery of approximately $20); Jones v. Bath & Body Works, Inc., No. 2:13-cv-05206-FMO-19 AJW (C.D. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $50); and Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No.
20 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $80).

21 4. Release by the Settlement Class and Aggrieved Employees

22 The release is narrowly tailored to release the claims litigated in the complaints in exchange 23 for the Gross Settlement Amount. Plaintiff and Participating Class Members will agree to release the 24 Released Claims during the Class Period as follows: the claims alleged or could have reasonably been 25 alleged based on the facts alleged, including all claims for any violation of California Labor Code sections 26 203, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 2802, and Business and Professions Code ¶¶17200, et seq., 27 including claims for damages, penalties, interest, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees, costs, injunctive 28 relief, or accounting reasonably related to the allegations in the Complaint. (Settlement Agreement ¶11.1).

1 Upon the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount by Defendant following the Effective Date (i.e., 2 75 days following the Effective Date), Aggrieved Employees shall release any and all Private Attorneys
3 General Act (PAGA) claims under Labor Code section 2698 et. seq. or causes of action for the claims 4 alleged in, or that may arise out of, the to-be filed First Amended Complaint and/or LWDA Letter, or that 5 could have reasonably been alleged in the Complaint and LWDA Letter, including but not limited to:
6 California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 7 1197, 1197.1, 2698, and 2802, civil penalties, attorneys fees or costs, and any other applicable relief under 8 PAGA that could have reasonably been alleged in the Complaint and/or LWDA letter. (Settlement 9 Agreement ¶11.2).

10 IV. ARGUMENT

11 A. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Proposed Class Action 12 Settlement

13 1. Courts Review Class Action Settlements to Ensure that the Terms Are Fair, 14 Adequate, and Reasonable

15 California Rule of Court (“Rule”), Rule 3.769 requires litigants to obtain court approval of class 16 action settlements. Approval occurs in two steps: (1) an early “preliminary” review by the trial court; and 17 (2) a subsequent “final” review after notice of the settlement has been distributed to class members for their 18 comments and objections. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c)-(g); Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th 19 1230, 1118 (2010) (the court first “preliminarily approves the settlement” and later “conducts a final 20 approval hearing to inquire into the fairness of the proposed settlement”). The motion for preliminary 21 approval must be accompanied by (1) the settlement agreement, (2) proposed notice to the class, and (3) the 22 proposed order. Id. at 3.769(c). The motion must also identify any agreement concerning the payment of 23 attorneys’ fees. Id. at 3.769(b).

24 If the trial court grants preliminary approval of a settlement, Rule 3.769(f) requires the court to (1) 25 schedule a final approval hearing and (2) approve the method by which the parties are to provide notice to 26 the class of the hearing and “an explanation of the proposed settlement.” The court must also approve a 27 procedure for class members to file objections to the settlement. Id. at 3.769(f). At the final approval 28 hearing, the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the proposed settlement. Id. at 3.769(g).

Although Rule 3.769 does not provide detail as to the scope of review of the proposed settlement,

1 preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a “reasonable range.” See North County
2 Contractor’s Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Services, 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1089-90 (1994); Conte &
3 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, §§ 11.26 (4th ed. 2002) (“Newberg”).

4 Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where, as here: (1) the settlement is reached through 5 “arms-length bargaining;” (2) investigation and discovery are “sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 6 act intelligently;” (3) counsel is “experienced in similar litigation;” and (4) the percentage of objectors “is 7 small” (collectively, “Dunk Factors”). Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996).¹

8 2. Plaintiff’s Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation of the Factual and 9 Legal Issues and Were Thus Able to Objectively Assess the Settlement’s
10 Reasonableness

11 Plaintiff’s Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the factual and legal issues implicated 12 by Plaintiff’s claims and were able to objectively assess the settlement’s reasonableness. For example, prior 13 to filing the action, Plaintiff contacted Plaintiff’s Counsel to discuss the factual bases for pursuing their 14 respective actions against Defendant for Labor Code violations. Plaintiff was intimately familiar with 15 Defendant’s labor policies and practices, and over the course of multiple interviews, knowledgeably 16 summarized those policies and practices to Plaintiffs’ Counsel. During those conversations, Plaintiff’s 17 Counsel explained how the policies and practices were instituted and provided valuable insight into how 18 they gave rise to the alleged Labor Code violations. Based on these interviews with Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s 19 Counsel determined that there were legally sufficient grounds for pursuing the Actions against Defendant 20 and in preparation for drafting the complaint, Plaintiff’s Counsel conducted their own independent

21 ¹ The presumption of fairness is consistent with California’s public policy goal of favoring 22 settlements. Stambaugh v. Super. Ct., 62 Cal. App. 3d 231, 236 (1976) (“the law wisely favors
23 settlements”); Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th at 1118 (“public policy 24 generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation”); 7-Eleven Owners for Fair 25 Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1151 (2000) (“voluntary conciliation and 26 settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution . . . [t]his is especially true in complex 27 class action litigation”); Skulnick v. Roberts Express, Inc., 2 Cal. App. 4th 884, 891 (1992) 28 (“public policy strongly discourages litigation and encourages settlement [because settlements] can produce peace and goodwill in the community while reducing the expense and persistency of litigation”). Additionally, in reviewing the fairness of a class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is “otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal. App. 4th at 1117. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. at 1118.

1 preliminary investigations into the factual bases for Plaintiff's claims, which entailed, inter alia, a careful 2 examination of Plaintiff's personnel files and associated records. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 7-12.)

3 In summary, Plaintiff's Counsel performed a thorough investigation into the claims at issue, which 4 included: (1) determining Plaintiff's suitability as private attorneys general and class representative through 5 interviews, background investigations, and analyses of their employment files and related records; (2) 6 evaluating all of Plaintiff's potential representative claims; (3) researching similar wage and hour class 7 actions as to the claims brought, the nature of the positions, and the type of employer; (4) analyzing 8 employees' time and wage records; (5) reviewing Defendant's employment policies and practices; (6) 9 researching settlements in similar cases; (7) evaluating Plaintiff's claims and estimating Defendant's 10 liability for purposes of settlement; (8) drafting the mediation brief; and (9) participating in the mediation.

11 (Id.)

12 By engaging in such a thorough investigation and evaluation of Plaintiff's claims, Plaintiff's 13 Counsel can opine that the Settlement, for the consideration and on the terms set forth in the Settlement 14 Agreement, is fair, reasonable, an adequate, and is in the best interests of Class Members in light of all 15 known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay and uncertainty associated with 16 litigation, and various defenses asserted by Defendant. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 14-37.)

17 3. The Settlement Was Reached Through Arm's-Length Bargaining in which 18 All Parties Were Represented by Experienced Counsel

19 "[W]hat transpires in settlement negotiations is highly relevant to the assessment of a proposed 20 settlement's fairness." State of Cal. v. Levi Strauss & Co., 41 Cal. 3d 460, 482 (1986). Courts presume the 21 absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered; 22 thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are conducted in good faith. Newberg, ¶ 11.51.

23 As explained above, the Parties settled this matter with the assistance of an experienced wage and 24 hour class and PAGA action mediator. The Honorable Amy D. Hogue helped to manage the Parties' 25 expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. See In re Bluetooth
26 Headset Prod. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 948 (9th Cir. 2011) (the presence of a neutral mediator is a factor 27 weighing in favor of finding of no collusion); In re Apple Computer, Inc. Derivative Litig., No. C 06-4128 28 JF (HRL), 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 108195 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 2008) (mediator's participation weighs

1 considerably against any inference of a collusive settlement); D’Amato v. Deutsche Bank, 236 F.3d 78, 85 2 (2d Cir. 2001) (a “mediator’s involvement in pre-certification settlement negotiations helps to ensure that 3 the proceedings were free of collusion and undue pressure.”); Villegas v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., No.
4 09–00261, 2012 WL 5878390, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2012) (participation in mediation “tends to 5 support the conclusion that the settlement process was not collusive”); Ogbuehi v. Comcast of 7 “tends to support the conclusion that the settlement process was not collusive”). At all times, the Parties’

8 negotiations were adversarial and non-collusive. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 6.)

9 The Parties were represented by experienced class action counsel throughout the negotiations 10 resulting in this Settlement. Plaintiff is represented by James Hawkins, APLC. Plaintiff’s Counsel employ 11 seasoned class action attorneys who regularly litigate wage and hour claims through certification and on the 12 merits, and have considerable experience settling wage and hour class actions. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 33.)

13 Defendant is represented by ORRICK, HERRINGTON & SUTCLIFFE LLP, a respected defense 14 firm.

15 4. The Consideration Provided for the Class Claims Is Fair and Reasonable in 16 Light of the Amount in Controversy Discounted by the Risks of Continued 17 Litigation

18 In seeking approval, a settling party must provide sufficient information to “enable the court to 19 make an independent assessment of the adequacy of the settlement terms.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, 20 Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 131-32 (2008). However, “[i]t is well-settled law that a cash settlement 21 amounting to only a fraction of the potential recovery will not per se render the settlement inadequate or 22 unfair.” See Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n of City & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 628 23 (9th Cir. 1982). “The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure 24 of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Id. at 625. “Estimates of a fair settlement figure are 25 tempered by factors such as the risk of losing at trial, the expense of litigating the case, and the expected 26 delay in recovery (often measured in years).” In re Toys R Us-Delaware, Inc.-- Fair & Accurate Credit 27 Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453 (C.D. Cal. 2014). In other words, in valuing the 28 claims within a realistic range of outcomes, the settling plaintiff should discount the value of the settled

1 claims for risks such as changes in the law, the probability of success, and other factors.²

2 Settling parties are not, however, required to partake in a hypothetical accounting exercise: “Kullar 3 does not ... require any such explicit statement of [maximum] value; it requires a record which allows ‘an 4 understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.’” 5 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 409-10 (2010) (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal.
6 App. 4th at 120 (emphasis added)). Overall, “the most important factor” in determining “whether a 7 settlement is fair and reasonable” is the “strength of the case for plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against 8 the amount offered in the settlement.” Id. at 409 n.6 (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal. App. 4th at 130). As 9 explained in detail below, the Gross Settlement Amount is within the range of reasonableness in light of the 10 nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery.

11 As explained in detail below and in the Hawkins Declaration, the Gross Settlement Amount is 12 within the range of reasonableness in light of the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the 13 various potential impediments to recovery. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 14-37.)

14 Defendant denies that they engaged in any misconduct in connection with the wage-and-hour 15 practices associated with the Class Members (inclusive of the Aggrieved Employees). Defendant further 16 denies that they have any liability of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Actions. Defendant 17 contends that they have complied with both federal and state wage-and-hour laws, and all other laws 18 regulating its relationship with the Class Members and the Aggrieved Employees, including the Named 19 Plaintiff. (Settlement Agreement V)

20 Accounting for the risks of continued litigation and impediments to discovery, Plaintiff determined

21 ² Federal district courts also recognize that there is an inherent “range of reasonableness” 22 in determining whether to approve a settlement “which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact 23 in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any 24 litigation to completion.” In re World Trade Ctr. Lower Manhattan Disaster Site Litig., 66 F.

27 even though it amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery”); *In re Global Crossing Sec.
28 and ERISA Litig.*, 225 F.R.D. 436, 461 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (“settlement amount’s ratio to the maximum potential recovery need not be the sole, or even dominant, consideration when assessing settlement’s fairness”); In re IKON Office Solutions, Inc. Sec. Litig., 194 F.R.D. 166, 184 (E.D.
Pa. 2000) (“the fact that a proposed settlement constitutes a relatively small percentage of the most optimistic estimate does not, in itself, weigh against the settlement; rather the percentage should be considered in light of strength of the claims”); Officers for Just. v. Civ. Serv. Comm’n of City & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir. 1982) (it is “the complete package, taken as a whole rather than the individual component parts, that must be examined for overall fairness”).

1 that a settlement amounting to $395,000.00 was fair and reasonable, and accounts for an approximate 23%- 2 47% of total possible recovery and courts have routinely approved settlements that provided a similar 14 commissioner notifies the employer that it is in violation of the Labor Code”), citing Amaral v. Cintas 15 Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157 (2008).

16 It should be noted that PAGA gives the Court wide latitude to reduce the amount of civil penalties 17 “based on the facts and circumstances of a particular case” when “to do otherwise would result in an award 18 that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” Cal. Lab. Code ¶ 2699(h). In reducing PAGA 19 penalties, courts have considered issues including whether the employees suffered actual injury from the 20 violations, whether the Defendant was aware of the violations, and the employer’s willingness to fix the 21 violation. Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504, 528 (2018) (awarding PAGA penalties of 22 only 0.2% of the maximum); see also Cotter v. Lyft, Inc., 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037 (N.D. Cal. 2016);

25 For example, during the penalty phase of trial in Carrington, the plaintiff requested PAGA 26 penalties in the amount of approximately $70 million. The trial court instead awarded only $150,000—or 27 0.21% of the maximum—and stated that this reduction was warranted because imposing the maximum 28 penalty would be “unjust, arbitrary, and oppressive” based on Starbucks’s “good faith attempts” to comply

1 with meal period obligations and because the court found the violations were minimal. Carrington, 30 Cal.
2 App. 5th at 517. The Court of Appeal affirmed the lower court's reduced award of a $150,000 penalty 15 PAGA violations from $1.8 million to $500,000, after rejecting numerous other PAGA claims).

16 Plaintiff therefore determined an appropriate range of settlement for PAGA penalties as a allocated to the settlement of PAGA penalties); Coleman v. Estes Express Lines, Inc., No.

BC429042 (L.A. County Super. Ct. Oct. 3, 2013; Judge Kenneth R. Freeman) (gross settlement

2 generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., Case No. 08-00844, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
3 33900, at *24 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009); see, e.g., Nordstrom Com. Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 579
4 (2010) (“[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement which does not allocate any 5 damages to the PAGA claims.”).

6 C. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Service Enhancement Payment

7 Enhancement payments “are fairly typical in class action cases.” Cellphone Termination Fee
8 Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1393 (2010) (affirming incentive awards of $10,000); Rodriguez v. West
9 Publishing Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958 (9th Cir. 2009), citing 4 Newberg on Class Actions (4th ed. 2002) ¶
10 11:38, and Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study, 53 UCLA
11 L. Rev. 1303 (2006). Enhancement payments “are intended to compensate class representatives for work 12 done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, 13 and, sometimes, to recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general.” Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 14 958–59. “[T]he rationale for making enhancement or incentive awards to named plaintiffs is that they 15 should be compensated for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members 16 of the class.” Clark v. American Residential Services LLC, 175 Cal. App. 4th 785, 806 (2009).

17 Approximately 230 current and former employees will share a $395,000.00 settlement fund due 18 entirely to the effort and commitment of Plaintiff. Subject to Court approval, therefore, the Settlement 19 provides for Service Enhancement Payment of $10,000.00 to the Class Representative⁵. The Service 20 fund of $1,535,000, of which $1,000 (or 0.1%) was allocated to the settlement of PAGA 21 penalties).

22 ⁵ Such amounts are reasonable by reference to the amounts that California courts (both 23 federal and state) have repeatedly found to be reasonable for wage and hour class action 24 settlements: See Carter v. GMRI Inc., No. RIC 1506085 (Riverside County Super. Ct. Jan. 10, 25 2017) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payments to the named plaintiffs); Crook v. Barton 26 Healthcare System, No. SC20150146 (El Dorado County Super. Ct. Dec. 9, 2016) (awarding 27 $10,000 enhancement payment to the named plaintiff); Singh v. American Building Supply, Inc., 28 No. 34-2015-00179889-CU-OE-GDS (Sacramento County Super. Ct. Oct. 3, 2016) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payment to the named plaintiff); Alvarez v. MAC Cosmetics Inc., No.
CIVDS1513177 (San Bernardino County Super. Ct. July 29, 2016) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payments to the named plaintiffs); Coffey v. Beverages & More, Inc., No. BC477269 (L.A. County Super. Ct. July 26, 2016) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payment to the named plaintiff); Restoration Hardware Wage and Hour Cases, No. JCCP4794 (L.A. County Super. Ct.
April 28, 2016) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payments to the named plaintiffs); Cook v.

2016) (awarding $10,000 enhancement payments to the named plaintiffs); Quintana v. Claire’s

1 Enhancement Payment is fair and reasonable compensation for Plaintiff's effort in pursuing the action, 2 assisting counsel with the litigation and settlement, regularly conferring with counsel on the status of their 3 case and the strategies for prosecuting the claims, and reviewing the proposed settlement to ensure that its 4 terms are fair and provide adequate relief for the Settlement Class. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 27; see also 5 generally, Mal Decl.)

6 D. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Negotiated Attorneys' Fees and 7 Litigation Expenses

8 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who took the 9 risk of non-payment and invested in a case that achieved a substantial positive result for the class.
10 California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equalling one-third or more of the potential value of the 11 common fund. See Laffitte v. Robert Half, Inc., 1 Cal. 5th 480 (2016) (affirming a fee award representing 12 one-third of the common fund); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008) ("Empirical 13 studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 14 class actions average around one-third of the recovery."). At final approval, Plaintiff will seek Court-15 approval of attorneys' fees of $138,250.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount) and litigation costs and 16 expenses not to exceed $16,000.00 which are currently approximately $14,421.58.

1 E. California Law Authorizes Provisional Certification for Settlement Purposes

2 1. The California Standard for Class Certification

3 Class actions are statutorily authorized “when the question is one of common or general interest, of 4 many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court.”
5 Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 382; Lee v. Dynamex, Inc., 166 Cal. App. 4th 1325, 1332 (2008). Class certification 6 is appropriate when there is an “ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class 7 members.” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004). Class treatment is 8 appropriate even if class members at some point may be required to make an individual showing as to 9 eligibility for recovery. Bufile v. Dollar Financial Group, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 1193, 1207 (2008); Sav-
10 On, 34 Cal. 4th at 333.

11 Conditional certification of the proposed Settlement Classes is particularly warranted here given 12 the relatively relaxed standard for certification at the preliminary approval stage. See Dunk v. Ford Motor 13 Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794 (1996) (courts can apply a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for class certification in 14 settlement cases).⁶ In Dunk, the California Court of Appeal specifically rejected the argument that the 15 standard for certifying a class for purposes of settlement is identical to the standard for certifying the same 16 class for purposes of litigation:

17
18 Geer argues the court must use the same standard under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 19 rule 23 (28 U.S.C.) to determine the propriety of both settlement and litigation class 20 certifications . . . That rule is contrary to the Ninth Circuit rule, stated in Officers for Justice
21 v. Civil Service Com. supra, 688 F.2d at p. 633, and the position of the leading commentators 22 (Newberg & Conte, supra, ¶ 11.28 at p. 11–58), which allow a lesser standard of scrutiny for 23 settlement cases . . . We agree with the latter. The two basic purposes for the Rule 23 24 certification requirements, as they relate to questions of a nationwide class, are: (1) to keep 25 the lawsuit manageable for trial; and (2) to protect the interests of the non-representative class 26 members. The first purpose is inapposite in the settlement context, and the second, as it relates 27 to commonality of issues, only makes a difference if the non-representative class members

28
29 ⁶ See also Newberg on Class Actions § 13:18 (5th ed.) (courts “declin[e] to treat formal 30 class certification as a prerequisite for preliminary approval and undertak[e] a more cursory class 31 certification analysis at the preliminary approval stage.”); Dearaujo v. Regis Corp., No. 2:14-CV-32 01408-KJM-AC, 2016 WL 3549473, at *6 (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2016) (“[D]espite the Supreme 33 Court’s cautions in Amchem . . . , a cursory approach appears the norm.”); In re Amtrak Train 34 Derailment in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, No. 15-MD-2654, 2016 WL 1359725, at *4 (E.D. Pa.
35 Apr. 6, 2016) (“[A] settlement class can be preliminarily certified based on a less rigorous analysis 36 than that necessary for final certification.”); In re Processed Egg Prod. Antitrust Litig., No. 08-37 MD-2002, 2014 WL 828083, at *2 (E.D. Pa. Feb. 28, 2014) (at the preliminary approval stage, 38 “the Court must determine whether the proposed class should be conditionally certified, and leave 39 the final certification decision for the Fairness Hearing.”).

1 would do much better by litigating on their own or in their own jurisdiction. The second 2 category concerns are protected by the trial court's fairness review of the settlement. Id. at n19.

3 2. The Proposed Settlement Class Is Ascertainable and There Is a Well-
4 Defined Community of Interest Among Class Members

5 Whether a class is "ascertainable" within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 is 6 "determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class, and (3) the means available for 7 identifying class members." Lee, 166 Cal. App. 4th at 1334. Class members are ascertainable where they 8 may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time by reference to official records. Id.

9 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 10 questions of law or fact; (2) a class representative with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) a 11 class representative and counsel who can adequately represent the class. Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 382.

12 In April of 2012, the California Supreme Court expounded on the element of predominance:

13 The "ultimate question" the element of predominance presents is whether "the issues 14 which may be jointly tried, when compared with those requiring separate adjudication, are so numerous or substantial that the maintenance of a class action would be advantageous to the judicial process and to the litigants."

15 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super. Ct., 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012) (citations omitted).

16 The proposed Settlement Class Members consists of the individual Class Members who did not 17 opt-out of the Settlement by submitting a valid request for exclusion. The Class is defined as all 18 current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant who worked within the CESS division of 19 Defendant in California during the Class Period. Defendant represents there are approximately 230 Class 20 Members as of March 20, 2024. Because all Class Members are either current or former employees of 21 Defendant, subject to the same policies and practices, the class is readily ascertainable from Defendant's 22 regular business records. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 7-38).

23 Here, common issues of fact and law predominate because the California statutes relating to each 24 of Plaintiff's claims, and Defendant's defenses thereto, apply with equal force and effect to all Class 25 Members. Factually, Plaintiff contends that Defendant's policies and practices apply class-wide and 26 Defendant's liability can be determined by facts common to all members of the class. The wage and hour 27 issues are both numerous and substantial, and a class action is the most advantageous method of dealing 28 with the claims of the Settlement Class Members. (Id.).

1 Plaintiff's wage and hour claims are typical of the proposed Settlement Class because they arise
2 from the same factual bases and are based on the same legal theories applicable to the other Class 3 Members. Likewise, Plaintiff's interests are entirely coextensive with the interests of the Class. Plaintiff
4 maintains that Plaintiff was injured by the same company-wide practices to which the proposed Settlement 5 Class was subject and seek the same relief. Plaintiff has already demonstrated the ability to advocate for the 6 interests of the Class by initiating this litigation, undertaking representative investigation and informal 7 discovery, and evaluating the proposed settlement to assure that it is fair. (Id.)

8 Additionally, Plaintiff is represented by competent counsel who have extensive experience in 9 litigating wage and hour class action cases. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 33.) Plaintiff's Counsel has successfully 10 briefed, argued, certified, and gained state and federal court settlement approval of the same class-wide
11 causes of action that are at issue in this case. (Id.) Plaintiff's Counsel's wage and hour class action 12 expertise establishes that they are well qualified to represent the interests of this Class.

13 A class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of 14 each individual Class Member's claim, Class Members likely have little incentive to litigate their claims on 15 an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expense and personal commitment necessary to litigate each 16 claim outweighs any potential recovery. In sum, class treatment is superior to individual, case-by-case 17 adjudication.

18 3. The Proposed Notice Properly Informs Class Members about the Case and 19 the Settlement

20 Class members are entitled to the best practical notice under the circumstances. Kass v. Young, 67 21 Cal. App. 3d 100, 106 (1977). The purpose of the notice is to give class members sufficient information to 22 decide whether they should accept the benefits offered, opt out and pursue their own remedies, or object to 23 the settlement. Trotsky v. Los Angeles Fed. Savings & Loan Assn., 48 Cal. App. 3d 143, 151-52 (1975).
24 The notice must advise class members "that they may be excluded from the class if they so request and that 25 they will be bound by the judgment, whether favorable or not, if they do not request exclusion." Kass, 67 26 Cal. App. 3d at 106. In a case such as this involving a significant number of class members, California 27 authorities generally require service of the class notice by mail or similar reliable means. Chance v. Super.
28

1 Ct., 58 Cal. 2d 275, 290 (1962); Cartt v. Super. Ct., 50 Cal. App. 3d 960, 972 (1975).⁷

2 The Parties have jointly drafted the Notice of Class Action settlement (“Class Notice”) which fairly 3 and neutrally informs Class Members of their rights and remedies in this action. (Hawkins Decl., Exhibit B; 4 Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 31-32.)

5 Accordingly, both the method of disseminating the Class Notice and content of the Class Notice 6 satisfy due process and the requirements of California law. See Cal. R. Ct. 3.776(e)-(f); State of Cal. v. Levi
7 Strauss, 41 Cal. 3d 460, 485 (1986) (the class notice must “fairly apprise the class members of the terms of 8 the proposed compromise and of the options open to dissenting class members.”).

9 V. CONCLUSION

10 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of claims. Having appropriately 11 presented the materials and information necessary for preliminary approval, the Parties request that the 12 Court preliminarily approve the settlement.

27 ⁷ Due process does not require that each Class Member actually receive a notice, but rather 28 a procedure reasonably certain to reach Class Members. Wright, A. Miller & M. Kane, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1789, at 253 (2d ed. 1986). If appropriate notice is given, Class Members will be bound by the judgment even if they never actually receive the notice. Fontana v. Elrod, 826 F.2d 729, 732 (7th Cir. 1987).
