MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Paris Spry (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved employees, and Defendant JT-CGS Motors, Inc. (“Defendant”), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(1)(2).¹

Subject to approval by the Court, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have agreed to resolve the above-captioned action, brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), for a Gross Settlement Amount of $156,000.00.²

The Gross Settlement Amount is inclusive of: (1) Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to be paid to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Plaintiff’s Counsel”), (2) General Release Fee to Plaintiff, (3) Settlement Administration Costs to be paid to the PAGA Settlement Administrator, and (4) Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and all current and former non-exempt employees employed by Defendant within the State of California during the period from May 23, 2021 to present (“Aggrieved Employees”).³

The Net Settlement Amount will be the Gross Settlement Amount less the Court-approved Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fees, and is currently estimated to be no less than $83,371.96, if the Gross Settlement Amount is $156,000.00.⁴ The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed as follows: seventy-five percent (75%) to the LWDA (“LWDA PAGA Payment”) and twenty-five percent (25%) to the Aggrieved Employees.⁵ Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to payment of his or her pro rata share of the Individual PAGA Payments, based on the number of pay periods in which

³ Id., Section 1.19. “PAGA Period” is defined as the period extending from May 23, 2021 to present.

⁴ Id., Section 1.15.

⁵ Id., Section 3.2.4.

1 Aggrieved Employees performed work for Defendant as non-exempt employees in California
2 during the PAGA Period.⁶

3 The payments to Aggrieved Employees will be treated and reported for tax purposes as 4 one hundred percent (100%) penalties and the PAGA Settlement Administrator will be
5 responsible for issuing IRS Forms 1099 as required.⁷

6 Plaintiff submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets the 7 requirements for approval by the Court based upon the relevant fairness factors, the relative
8 strengths of the PAGA claim, the risk, expense, and complexity of further litigation, the benefit
9 conferred by the Settlement, the scope of the release of claims, the experience and views of 10 counsel, and the reasonableness of the Net Settlement Amount (consisting of the LWDA 11 Payment and Employees' Portion), Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs,
12 and General Release Fee. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court approve the Settlement,
13 award the Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release
14 Fees and approve the LWDA Payment, which are provided for by the Settlement and requested 15 herein.

16 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether 17 to grant approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this 18 memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 19 3.1113(d).

20 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

21 Defendant is JT-CGS Motors, Inc. is an automotive sales company, doing business as 22 Honda of Oakland. Plaintiff Paris Spry is a former employee of Defendant.

23 Prior to commencing this lawsuit, on April 28, 2022 as required by California Labor
24 Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff Paris Spry provided the LWDA and Defendant with written notice
25 of his intent to assert claims under PAGA and the basis for those claims, to which the LWDA did not respond (“PAGA Notice”).⁸ A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice is attached to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher as “EXHIBIT 2-1.”

On July 27, 2022, Plaintiff Paris Spry filed a Complaint for Enforcement Under the Private Attorneys General Act, California Labor Code § 2698, Et Seq. against Defendant thereby commencing the action entitled Paris Spry v. JT-CGS MOTORS, INC., Alameda County Superior Court (“Court”), Case No. 22CV015162 (the “Action”). Plaintiff’s core allegation is that Defendant has violated the California Labor Code by engaging in a uniform practice and procedure, with respect to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, of, inter alia, failing to pay wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods and associated premiums, failing to pay timely wages during employment and upon termination of employment, failing to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements, failing to keep complete and accurate payroll records, and failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs.

Defendant filed a Motion to Compel Arbitration and Stay or Dismiss Proceedings on February 28, 2023. Shortly thereafter, on March 7, 2023, the Parties agreed to attend private mediation to resolve the action, and stipulated to continue the hearing date of Defendant’s Motion to Compel Arbitration and Stay or Dismiss Proceedings.⁹ Mediation was initially scheduled for January 10, 2024, however Defendant required additional time to produce sufficient documents and evidence, and the mediation was rescheduled to April 10, 2024.¹⁰ On April 10, 2024, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation conducted by Phyllis Cheng, Esq., a well-respected mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.¹¹ Although the matter did not settle the day of the Mediation, the Parties were able to reach a settlement after continued negotiations.¹² Defendant’s June 14, 2024 Motion to Compel Arbitration was ultimately not heard, as the Parties settled the Action in principle and filed a Notice of Settlement on May 20, 2024.¹³

On October 29, 2024, for purposes of settlement, Plaintiff submitted an amended LWDA correspondence (“Amended PAGA Notice”).¹⁴ A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s Amended PAGA Notice is attached to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher as “EXHIBIT 2-2.” On January 27, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint for Enforcement under PAGA, and on February 28, 2025, Defendant filed its Answer to the First Amended Complaint.¹⁵

Plaintiff now moves for an order granting approval of the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2). The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion are being submitted to the LWDA in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), concurrently with this filing.¹⁶

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Aggrieved Employees

The Aggrieved Employees who are covered by the Settlement are:

All current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees of Defendant in California during the PAGA Period.¹⁷

Based on information provided by Defendant, there were approximately 198 Aggrieved Employees for the time period from May 23, 2021 to January 30, 2024.¹⁸

B. Distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $156,000.00.¹⁹ The Net Settlement Amount will be the Gross Settlement Amount less the following amounts: (1) attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the sum total of $ 51,994.80 to Plaintiff’s Counsel; (2) General Release Fee of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff; and (3) Settlement Administration Costs of up to $4,500.00 to ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM” or “PAGA Settlement Administrator”).²⁰ The Net Settlement Amount will be fully distributed to the Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA, as described in Part III.C, infra.

C. Distribution of the Net Settlement Amount

Within thirty (30) calendar days of the Court's order granting approval of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant shall deliver the Aggrieved Employee Data to the Administrator in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet, which contains the following information for each Aggrieved Employee: (i) first and last name; (ii) last known mailing address; (iii) social security number; and (v) number of PAGA Pay Periods worked based on Defendant's personnel and pay records.²¹

Within thirty (30) calendar days of the Effective Date, as defined in Section 1.9 of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant shall deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into a qualified settlement account established by the PAGA Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement.²²

No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator shall distribute the Individual PAGA Payment checks to Aggrieved Employees, LWDA PAGA Payment to the LWDA, General Release Fee to Plaintiff, Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Plaintiff's Counsel, and payment to itself for the Settlement Administration Costs, as provided for by this Order and Judgment and the Settlement Agreement.²³

Seventy-five percent (75%) of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $62,528.97) will be distributed to the LWDA (i.e., LWDA Payment) and twenty-five percent (25%) of the ²¹ Id., Section 1.5. PAGA Pay Periods is defined in Section 1.18 of the Settlement Agreement as any Pay Period during which an Aggrieved Employee worked for at least one day during the PAGA Period. The PAGA Period is defined in Section 1.19 of the Settlement Agreement as the period from May 23, 2021 to present.

²² Id., Sections 1.9, 4.3. Effective Date is defined in Section 1.9 of the Settlement Agreement as the date by when all of the following have occurred: (a) notice of this Settlement has been sent to the LWDA; (b) the Court enters a Judgment on its Order Approving the PAGA Settlement; and (c) the later of the following events: (i) five (5) court days after the period for filing any appeal, writ, or other appellate proceeding opposing the Order Approving PAGA Settlement has elapsed without any appeal, writ, or other appellate proceeding having been filed (i.e., 65 days from the date the Court enters Order Approving the PAGA Settlement); or (ii) if any appeal, writ, or other appellate proceeding opposing the Order Approving the PAGA Settlement has been filed within that timeframe, then five (5) court days after any appeal, writ, or other appellate proceedings opposing the Settlement has finally and conclusively dismissed with no right to pursue further remedies or relief

²³ Id., Section 4.4.

Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $20,842.99) (i.e., Individual PAGA Payments) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis, based on the number of pay periods worked during the PAGA Period.²⁴ To calculate each Aggrieved Employee's share ("Individual PAGA Payment"), the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall: calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($19,376.30) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiply the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods.²⁵ The payments to Aggrieved Employees for their Individual PAGA Payments are considered one hundred percent (100%) penalties to be reported on IRS Form 1099, if required.²⁶

The PAGA Settlement Administrator shall mail the agreed-upon proposed information cover letter ("Cover Letter") and Individual PAGA Payment checks (together, the "PAGA Settlement Package") to all Aggrieved Employees by first-class United States mail.²⁷ For each check that is returned as undeliverable within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the returned check, the PAGA Settlement Administrator shall re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Aggrieved Employee Address Search.²⁸

The Individual PAGA Payment checks issued to Aggrieved Employees shall remain valid for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days, and thereafter, shall be canceled.²⁹ Funds associated with cancelled checks shall be transmitted to the State Controller's Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Aggrieved Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of their respective Individual PAGA Payment(s).³⁰

D. The Scope of the Release in the Settlement Agreement

Upon the date the Court has entered an order approving the Settlement Agreement and the full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the State of California with respect to the Aggrieved Employees will be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily released and forever discharged Released Parties from the Released Claims for the “PAGA Period,” which extends from May 23, 2021 to present.

The “Released Claims” of the Aggrieved Employees means all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the Operative PAGA Notice concerning alleged violations of the California Labor Code and the California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders during the PAGA Period for alleged: failure to provide meal periods, failure to provide rest periods, failure to pay regular and overtime wages, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay all wages to discharged and quitting employees, unlawful deductions and withholdings from employees’ wages, failure to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and to indemnify employees for necessary business expenditures incurred in discharge of duties, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 223, 225.5, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227, 227.3, 246, 248.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2800 and 2802, and IWC Wage Orders including inter alia, Wage Orders 1-2001, 4-2001, 5-2001, and 7-2001.³¹

The “Released Parties” are Defendant, and each of their former and present directors, officers, shareholders, owners, members, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and affiliates.³²

E. No Right to Object to, or Opt Out of, the Settlement

“[A] PAGA action is a statutory action for penalties brought as a proxy for the State,” as such, “there is no need to protect absent employees’ due process rights[.]” Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 546. “Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” Ochoa-

³² Id., Section 1.27.

Hernandez v. CJADERS Foods, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010), 2010 WL 1340777, at *5. A representative PAGA action need not satisfy class action requirements, and no due process concern arises from the fact that there are “nonparty aggrieved employees who are not given notice of, and an opportunity to be heard in, a representative action that is not brought as a class action.” Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 984. “PAGA does not make other potentially aggrieved employees parties” to the action and no “due process concerns arise under PAGA because absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and whatever personal claims the absent employees might have for relief are not at stake.” Williams, supra, 546-547 (internal references omitted, citing Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-CIO v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 993, 1003 and Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC, (2014) 58 Cal.4th 348, 381.)

“[A]bsent fellow employees will be bound by the outcome of any PAGA action[.]” Williams at 548 (internal references omitted, citing Arias, supra, 980-981; Fireside Bank v. Superior Court (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1069, 1074 and Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc. (1981) 29 Cal, 3d 462, 474.) A “judgment in such an action is binding not only on the named employee plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the proceeding” because “the employee plaintiff represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies[.]” “collateral estoppel applies [...] against those for whom the party acted as an agent or proxy[.]” and “[w]hen a government agency is authorized to bring an action on behalf of an individual or in the public interest, and a private person lacks an independent right to bring the action, a person who is not a party but who is represented by the agency is bound by the judgment as though the person were a party.” Arias, supra, at 985-86 (citations omitted); see also Robinson v. Southern Counties Oil Co. (2020) 53 Cal.App.5th 476 (aggrieved employee cannot opt out of a PAGA settlement).

As such, the Settlement is consistent with the law, and there is no requirement that the Aggrieved Employees be provided with a mechanism to opt out of or object to the Settlement.

IV. STANDARDS FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

The PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of himself

1 or herself and on behalf of other aggrieved employees and the State of California to recover civil 2 penalties which, outside of PAGA, only the LWDA can assess upon and collect from an
3 employer. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee
4 must comply with California Labor Code section 2699.3. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Plaintiff
5 has complied.

6 The settlement of a PAGA action requires court approval. See Cal. Lab. Code §
7 2699(l)(2) (“The superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed
8 pursuant to this part.”). However, “[a] PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis 9 . . . is not considered a class action but a law enforcement action” and therefore does not have to 10 meet the requirements of a class action. Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 11 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna Health of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011)
12 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 980-88 (affirming lower court’s holding 13 that “plaintiff need not satisfy class action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v.
14 PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013) 2013 WL 1490667, at *15. As such, a court’s review of 15 a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several unique features that render the approval process
16 distinct from, and simpler than, the process for approval of a class action settlement. A court 17 reviewing a PAGA settlement need only “ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those 18 affected.” Williams, supra, 549 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)). Although California Labor
19 Code section 2699(l) does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA settlement is to be judged,
20 courts have approved settlements of PAGA claims. See, e.g., Resendez v. Bridgestone Retail
21 Operations, LLC, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BC596892 (June 2016), DCH Auto
22 Wage and Hour Cases, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. JCCP4833 (May 2017); Garcia v.
23 Gordon Trucking (E.D. Cal. Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 WL 5364575, at *3; Schiller v. David’s Bridal,
24 Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) 2012 WL 2117001, at *14; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs., LLC (N.D.
25 Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 672645, at *1; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 26 2012) 2012 WL 5941801, at *14; Nordstrom Commissions Case (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 27 589.

28 In a PAGA case, the court’s focus is not the monetary amount which aggrieved employees or the State stand to receive, but instead, whether the gross settlement amount achieves the PAGA’s objectives. The purpose of the PAGA is “to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies.” See Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at *4 (citing Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 986). Penalties recovered under the PAGA are, in part, to “be distributed to the [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to supplement and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes.” See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(j). The recovery of penalties on behalf of the State, by way of a PAGA claim, is essentially a law enforcement action. See Amalgamated, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 1003 (stating that the PAGA is a mechanism for “an aggrieved employee to recover civil penalties—for Labor Code violations—that otherwise would be sought by state labor law enforcement agencies”); see also Iskanian, supra, at 381.

A PAGA settlement is a settlement of claims for penalties and other remedies which the LWDA could assess and collect on behalf of employees without their involvement or approval. “[U]nnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at *5. This renders the approval process of a PAGA settlement distinct from a class action settlement, and the Court need not employ the two-step approval process that applies to a class action settlement, under both state and federal law.

V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement resulted from hard-fought negotiations, fulfills the objectives of the PAGA statute, is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets all of the criteria for approval for the reasons discussed below.

1 A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

2 The Parties reached the Settlement through arm’s-length negotiations, following a
3 mediation with an experienced and respected mediator, Phyllis Cheng, Esq.³³ A settlement that 4 is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial negotiations between the parties” is 5 entitled to a presumption of fairness. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 6 224, 245.

7 The Settlement is presumptively fair because: (1) it is the product of non-collusive,
8 arm’s-length negotiations with the assistance of an independent mediator knowledgeable in 9 complex labor and employment matters; (2) it was negotiated by counsel with significant 10 experience in similar complex labor and employment matters; and (3) it occurred after counsel
11 for the Parties engaged in significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of 12 the PAGA claim, and the risks associated with continued litigation.³⁴

13 After engaging in significant investigations, and engaging in extensive informal 14 discovery and exchange of information, documents, and data, the Parties participated in 15 settlement negotiations to try to resolve the lawsuit.³⁵ These efforts included participating in 16 formal mediation conducted by Phyllis Cheng, a well-respected mediator experienced in 17 mediating complex labor and employment matters.³⁶ In the course of mediation and settlement
18 negotiations, the Parties discussed all aspects of the case, including the risks and delays of 19 further litigation, the risks to the Parties of proceeding with trial, possible arbitration
20 proceedings, as well as the law relating to representative PAGA actions, manageability, off-the-21 clock theory, wage-and-hour enforcement, arbitration agreements, exemption, waiver, the 22 evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of bifurcation of discovery and/or trial and 23 appeals, among other things.³⁷ During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their 24 negotiations at arm’s length in an adversarial position.³⁸

25 ³³ Maher Decl., ¶¶ 12-13.

26 ³⁴ Id., ¶¶ 2-6, 11-13, & 16-20.

27 ³⁵ Id., ¶ 13.

28 ³⁶ Ibid.

³⁷ Id., ¶ 13.

Based on all of the information available to the Parties and with the assistance of the experienced mediator, the Parties agree that this matter is well-suited for settlement given the strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim.³⁹ Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel believe that the settlement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of this matter.⁴⁰ Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive experience handling representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to achieve a great result for Plaintiff, the State of California, and the Aggrieved Employees.⁴¹ Therefore, the Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product of arm's length bargaining. See Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-17, 622 (recommendations of Plaintiff's Counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating that the "assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive").

B. The Relative Strength of the PAGA Claim and the Range of Possible Outcomes in the Litigation Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

In order for Plaintiff to prevail on the PAGA claim, he would have to prove that Defendant engaged in the alleged California Labor Code violations and demonstrate that Defendant's conduct warrants the imposition of penalties. See, e.g., Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC (C.D. Cal. 2008) 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-82 ("Plaintiff's claim under [PAGA] is wholly dependent upon her other claims. Because all of plaintiff's other claims fail as a matter of law, so does her PAGA claim.").

Plaintiff's core allegation is that Defendant has systematically violated the California Labor Code, with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, by, inter alia, failing to pay all wages due, failing to provide compliant meal periods and failure to provide proper meal

³⁹ Maher Decl., ¶ 27.

⁴¹ Id., ¶¶ 2-6.

1 premiums, failing to provide compliant rest breaks and proper rest break premiums, failing to 2 timely pay wages during employment, failing to timely pay wages upon termination, failing to 3 provide complete and accurate wage statements, failing to maintain complete and accurate payroll
4 records, and failing to reimburse necessary business-related expenses and costs.

5 Although wage-and-hour actions are amenable to resolution as to a group of employees,
6 some courts have also found that, for various reasons, the issues raised by Plaintiff raise 7 individualized issues and/or are unmanageable and thus not suitable for adjudication as to a 8 group of employees.

9 Defendant maintained several defenses to Plaintiff's theory of liability, which, if 10 successfully argued and proven, had the potential to eliminate or substantially reduce recovery.
11 Throughout this litigation, Defendant maintained, and continues to maintain, that it had, and 12 continues to have, legally-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time
13 period at issue.⁴² Defendant denies that it ever violated any provision of the California Labor
14 Code, including, but not limited to, those sections for which Plaintiff seeks penalties under the 15 PAGA.⁴³ Defendant further denied, and continues to deny, that the lawsuit is appropriate for 16 representative treatment for any purpose other than settlement.⁴⁴

17 Defendant also challenged Plaintiff's standing as an aggrieved employee and denied that 18 any of Defendant's other employees, with respect to whom Plaintiff seeks civil penalties, were 19 aggrieved.⁴⁵ Also, multiple courts have taken an approach requiring a plaintiff to establish 20 standing and face the possibility of bifurcation of discovery and/or trial of the PAGA claim. See 21 Amalgamated Transit Union, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 1001 (noting that PAGA "require[s] a plaintiff 22 to have suffered an injury resulting from an unlawful action"); Stafford v. Dollar Tree Stores, 23 Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2014) 2014 WL 6633396, at *4 (finding that judicial economy supported 24 bifurcation because of the difficulties and inherent uncertainties of being able to establish 25 liability with respect to a large number of potentially aggrieved employees and noted that

26 ⁴² Maher Decl., ¶ 17.

27 ⁴³ Ibid.

28 ⁴⁴ Ibid.

⁴⁵ Id., ¶ 19.

1 “PAGA’s public purpose would be ill-served if the court finds [the plaintiff] has not been
2 aggrieved by a Labor Code violation”); Horton v. Jones (1972) 26 Cal.App.3d 952, 955 (stating
3 that bifurcation and sequencing of litigation is allowed to avoid wasting time and money on trial
4 when litigation of issues could be rendered moot).

5 Defendant also argued that an important feature of PAGA is that the Court retains 6 discretion to lower the penalties if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to 7 do otherwise would result in an award that is “unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.”
8 See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2); see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Management, Inc.
9 (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112, 1136 (holding that a court may reduce the amount of PAGA 10 penalties awarded to an employee based upon discretionary factors). Defendant maintained, and 11 continues to maintain, that it had and continues to have, legally-compliant employment policies
12 and practices throughout the time period at issue.⁴⁶ Defendant denies that it ever violated any 13 provision of the California Labor Code.⁴⁷ For example, Defendant maintains that it properly
14 classified its hourly-paid inside salesperson employees as “exempt” from California’s overtime 15 requirements and therefore properly paid employees for all overtime premiums owed, in 16 accordance with IWC Wage Order No. 7-2001 Section (3)(D), which states that an inside 17 salesperson working in a retail industry, such as a vehicle salesperson, may be classified as 18 exempt from California’s overtime requirements if the employee earns more than 1.5x the state’s 19 minimum wage and more than half of the employee’s compensation is from commission
20 payments.⁴⁸

21 Even if, arguendo, such violations occurred, which Defendant denies, Defendant
22 contended that said violations would only be considered “initial violations” and thus heightened
23 “subsequent violation” penalties were not warranted. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2); see also 24 Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1208-09 (“Until the employer has 25 been notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision [...], the employer cannot be presumed 26

27 ⁴⁶ Maher Decl., ¶ 17.

28 ⁴⁷ Ibid.

1 to be aware that its continuing underpayment of employees is a ‘violation’ subject to penalties.”).

2 Defendant also contended that, with respect to PAGA claim, the Court was unlikely to 3 assess cumulative penalties for the maximum number of possible, separate California Labor
4 Code violations, because it would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and/or confiscatory, especially 5 where certain conduct may be regulated by multiple provisions of the California Labor Code that 6 are interrelated and work in tandem. As such, Defendant contended that cumulative penalties
7 and heightened penalties would be unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, and confiscatory.

8 There is also uncertainty regarding PAGA claims due to the United States Supreme 9 Court’s decision in Viking River Cruises, Inc. v. Moriana (2022) 142 S. Ct. 1906, 2022 U.S.
10 LEXIS 2940. As a result of that decision, it may be more likely that employer agreements 11 containing arbitration terms will impact the viability of adjudication of PAGA claims in the 12 judicial forum, which is relevant to this matter in light of agreements that Defendant obtained
13 from its employees (which include, inter alia, delegation clauses, class and collective action 14 waivers, and binding individual arbitration provisions). Viking River Cruises, Inc. v. Moriana
15 (2022) 142 S. Ct. 1906, 2022 U.S. LEXIS 2940; but see Adolph v. Uber Technologies, Inc.,
16 (2023) 14 Cal.5th 1104, 532 P.3d 682, 685. While the Parties may disagree regarding the impact
17 of Viking River on this case, it remains possible that Plaintiff’s representative/non-individual 18 PAGA claims could be stayed pending arbitration of a plaintiff’s individual PAGA claims. If 19 this occurred and then in arbitration Plaintiff was determined to not be an “aggrieved employee”
20 for PAGA purposes, issue preclusion would apply and, once reduced to a final judgment, the trial
21 court would be are bound by the arbitrator’s determination and Plaintiff could theoretically lose 22 standing to pursue non-individual PAGA claims.

23 While Plaintiff disagrees with Defendant’s contentions and maintains that his PAGA
24 claim has merit, in reaching the settlement, Plaintiff and his counsel took into account the 25 strengths and weaknesses of each side’s position and the uncertainty of how the case might have 26 concluded as litigation continued, at trial, in arbitration proceedings, and/or appeals.⁴⁹

27
28 ⁴⁹ Maher Decl., ¶ 20.

1 C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Further Litigation

2 Courts favor the voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. Class
3 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276. Generally, “unless the 4 settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and 5 expensive litigation with uncertain results.” Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc.
6 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).

7 Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties investigated the veracity, strength, and scope
8 of the PAGA claim and allegations.⁵⁰ In addition, the Parties exchanged a significant volume of 9 information, documents, and data relevant to the PAGA claim and Defendant’s defenses thereto,
10 including, and not limited to, the employment records of Plaintiff and other putative class
11 members/aggrieved employees, a sampling of aggrieved employee time and pay data,
12 Defendant’s Employee Handbook, various agreements and acknowledgments, and Defendant’s
13 operations and employment practices, policies, and procedures documents.⁵¹ Counsel for the 14 Parties undertook significant investigation, and also invested time reviewing and analyzing 15 relevant information, documents, and data to evaluate Plaintiff’s claims, including, and not 16 limited to, calculating the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁵² Other work performed by 17 Plaintiff’s Counsel included, but was not limited to: meeting and conferring with Defendant’s
18 counsel regarding the pleadings, motions, case management, putative arbitration agreement, 19 mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues; case strategy and analysis; drafting,
20 reviewing, and revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation brief, and settlement 21 agreement; preparing for and engaging in the mediation and settlement negotiations; and 22 preparing for and appearing for court proceedings.

23 Had the case not settled, the Parties would have conducted extensive additional formal 24 discovery, including propounding additional written discovery requests as well as multiple 25 depositions of party and percipient witnesses all over the State of California, to prepare the case
26

27 ⁵⁰ Maher Decl., ¶ 14.

28 ⁵¹ Id., ¶¶ 14, 20.

for trial. From the inception of this litigation, Defendant indicated that it would aggressively litigate this case.⁵³ Even if Defendant failed on its defenses, litigating a complex PAGA action is inherently expensive, and the litigation could continue beyond entry of judgment if either party were to appeal adverse rulings.⁵⁴ Additionally, there is a real possibility that Plaintiff would recover nothing, either for himself or on behalf of the State of California or other Aggrieved Employees after years of costly and labor-intensive litigation. Avoiding these risks and the likelihood of future contentious litigation, which would involve significant costs, favors settlement.

D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

“[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm’n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624. “The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Id. at 625.

The Settlement provides significant benefits to the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees and falls well-within the range of acceptable settlements under the circumstances. Under the Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $156,000.00, which encompasses the Net Settlement Amount, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fee.⁵⁵ Subject to approval by the Court, the following amounts will be subtracted from the Gross Settlement Amount to yield the Net Settlement Amount: (1) Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, consisting of attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $58,178.04 to Plaintiff’s Counsel; (2) the Settlement Administration Costs of up to $4,500.00; and (3) General Release Fee of up to $10,000.00 to the Plaintiff.⁵⁶

The Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $83,371.96, of which an estimated $20,842.99 is to be distributed to Aggrieved Employees on a pro rata basis, based on ⁵³ Maher Decl., ¶ 17.

⁵⁴ Id., ¶¶ 12, 13, 16 & 19.

⁵⁵ Settlement Agreement, Sections 3.1, 3.2.

⁵⁶ Ibid.

1 their pay periods worked, and $62,528.97 is to be distributed to the LWDA. There is no reason
2 to doubt the fairness of the proposed plan of allocation of the Net Settlement Amount as it fully 3 complies with California Labor Code section 2699(i).

4 The Settlement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. Plaintiff and his counsel
5 recognize the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to litigate the matter
6 through trial and any possible appeals.⁵⁷ Plaintiff and his counsel have also taken into account
7 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays
8 inherent in such litigation.⁵⁸ Plaintiff and his counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof
9 necessary to establish liability, both generally and in response to Defendant's defenses thereto,
10 and the difficulties in establishing Defendant's liability for, and the right to recover, penalties on 11 behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other Aggrieved Employees.⁵⁹ Plaintiff and his 12 counsel have also taken into account Defendant's agreement to enter into a settlement that 13 confers significant relief upon the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.⁶⁰

14 Considering all of the facts in this case, Plaintiff and his counsel have determined that the 15 Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claim, and that it
16 is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California.⁶¹

17 The result achieved in this case, and the monetary recovery provided by this settlement, 18 are well-within the range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, especially when 19 compared to the settlement of PAGA claims in other cases. See, e.g., DCH Auto Wage and Hour
20 Cases, Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. JCCP4833 (May 2017) (approving the amount of 21 $15,000 out of $4 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Garcia, supra, 2012 WL 22 5364575, at *3 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $3.7 million toward settlement of 23 PAGA claims); Schiller, supra, 2012 WL 2117001, at *14 (approving the amount of $10,000 out
24 of $518,245 toward settlement of PAGA claims); Chu, supra, 2011 WL 672645, at *1

(approving the amount of $10,000 out of $6.9 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Franco, supra, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 (approving the amount of $10,000 out of $2.5 million toward settlement of PAGA claims); Nordstrom Commissions Case, supra, at 589 (finding no abuse of discretion by the trial court in approving a settlement that allocates $0 toward the settlement of PAGA claims that were at issue in the lawsuit). Here, the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claim is significant, and it will be distributed in accordance with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

E. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel Favor Approval of the Settlement

Plaintiff’s Counsel is highly experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation.⁶² In the view of Plaintiff’s Counsel, the benefits conferred by the settlement are eminently fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees in light of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation and the substantial monetary benefits provided for by the Settlement.⁶³ Furthermore, courts have acknowledged that “the interests of plaintiff, counsel and other potentially aggrieved employees are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as convincingly as possible as many Labor Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]” Williams, supra, 548 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1)(i)).

VI. THE PROPOSED ATTORNEYS’ FEES PAYMENT IS FAIR AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate

The Settlement provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $156,000.00.⁶⁴ The Settlement provides for attorneys’ fees and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the sum total of $58,178.04, subject to approval and award by the Court.⁶⁵ When taking into account the $6,183.24 in litigation costs and expenses for which reimbursement is sought, the amount of ⁶² Maher Decl., ¶¶ 2-6.

⁶³ Id., ¶ 27.

⁶⁴ Settlement Agreement, Section 3.1.

⁶⁵ Id., Section 3.2.1.

attorneys' fees sought ($51,994.80) represents approximately thirty-three and thirty-three hundredth percent (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount. The requested attorneys' fees award is commensurate with: (1) the risk that Plaintiff's Counsel took in bringing and litigating the matter, (2) the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the matter, (3) the skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved throughout the litigation, (5) the value that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved, and (6) the other cases that Plaintiff's Counsel has turned down in order to devote its time and effort to this matter.

Plaintiff's Counsel is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as a matter of right under PAGA. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1) ("Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs"). Plaintiff's Counsel is also entitled to fees and costs under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, as the instant PAGA action is by definition "for the benefit" of others and secures monetary recovery for a large number of Aggrieved Employees, as well as the State of California. See Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 (recognizing that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individuals satisfies the "significant benefit," "public interest," and "large class of persons" requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff's personal motivation). The settlement will also benefit the state labor agency in enforcing labor laws and educating "employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under [the California Labor Code]." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(i).

The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others, has been confirmed by the California Supreme Court. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. While trial courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage-of-the-fund method, the California Supreme Court has taken the position that trial courts also "retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee" and "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253.

1 Courts award fees to serve as an economic incentive for lawyers to undertake litigation,
2 and thereby enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for adjudication of meritorious
3 claims, and to deter wrongdoing. This is especially true in situations where multiple similar 4 alleged wrongs would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A.
5 Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

6 Trial courts have “wide latitude” in assessing the value of attorneys’ fees and their

20 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” Lealao, supra, 82
21 Cal.App.4th at 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys’ fees should be 22 equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation
23 based on the result achieved and risk incurred. See Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-50;
24 Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the 25 defendant will pay the plaintiff’s attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use
26 of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32. Fee awards that 27 are too small will “chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights
28 and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately

1 adjudicate numerous claims.” Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should
2 approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated
3 attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. “The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a 4 ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of

7 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances
8 surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have 9 awarded fees as high as fifty percent (50%) of the settlement in complex actions, depending on 10 the circumstances of the case. See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp.

13 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys’ fees). California courts routinely 14 approve attorneys’ fees awards “average[ing] around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v.
15 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency 16 fees in marketplace to be 20 to 40 percent and determined such a percentage fee was 17 appropriate).

18 Plaintiff’s Counsel has litigated this matter for several years, with the very real possibility
19 of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.⁶⁶ Counsel for the Parties undertook 20 significant investigation, and also invested time reviewing and analyzing relevant documents and 21 data to evaluate the allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential monetary
22 recovery under PAGA.⁶⁷ Other work performed by Plaintiff’s Counsel included, but was not 23 limited to: meeting and conferring with Defendant’s counsel regarding case management,
24 motions, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues; case strategy and analysis;
25 drafting, reviewing, and revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation brief, and

1 settlement agreement; preparing for and engaging in the mediation and settlement negotiations;
2 and preparing for and appearing for court proceedings.⁶⁸

3 In the present case, Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation
4 and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁶⁹ Plaintiff's Counsel is 5 experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great 6 result for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁷⁰ Considering the 7 amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of 8 Plaintiff's Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys'
9 fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

10 B. The Fee Award Requested by Plaintiff's Counsel Is Reasonable Based on the 11 Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards

12 The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all
13 of which support the fee award requested by Plaintiff's Counsel, are: (1) the time and labor 14 required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; (3) the skill requisite to 15 perform the legal services properly; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due 16 to the acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
17 (7) the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and 18 results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; (10) the undesirability
19 of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12)
20 awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991)
21 946 F. 2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be 22 addressed below.

23 It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the time,
24 effort, and expense dedicated to the matter, the contingent nature of Plaintiff's Counsel's
25 representation and the risks taken in commencing the Action, the skill and determination required, the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Plaintiff's Counsel has obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California. For the reasons discussed herein, an award of attorneys' fees equal to approximately thirty-three and thirty-three hundredths percent (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount is reasonable.
26

1. Time & Labor

Plaintiff's Counsel has used its experience and skills in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions to bring this matter to a successful conclusion. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business, and its operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁷¹ During the litigation of the Action, Plaintiff's Counsel interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, conducted legal research, reviewed and analyzed a large amount of information, documents, and data, prepared for and attended mediation, evaluated the PAGA claim, and calculated the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁷² Plaintiff's Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding case management, motions, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues.⁷³ Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work including, inter alia, case strategy and analysis; drafting, reviewing, and revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation brief, and settlement agreement; and preparing for and appearing for court proceedings.⁷⁴

Plaintiff's Counsel dedicated the full extent of staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute the case with maximum efficiency, and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process. The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as "EXHIBIT 3" to the accompanying Declaration of Travis J. Maher, sets forth in detail the hours that Plaintiff's Counsel has spent performing tasks in this matter. Attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent 139.30 hours to obtain a recovery on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the ⁷⁴ Ibid.

State of California. These hours were required to bring the matter to its successful conclusion.

In light of the value of time expended and the carrying of costs involved in this litigation, the requested attorneys' fees award is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly

The skill required to properly litigate this case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach the same. Defendant retained highly-respected counsel to represent its defenses. Defendant and its counsel felt very strongly about Defendant's ability to prevail on the merits and avoid representative adjudication of the PAGA claim in a court of law. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel believe that the PAGA claim has merit and that Plaintiff will prevail at trial. Plaintiff's Counsel undertook extensive investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing the lawsuit and during the litigation of the matter. Plaintiff's Counsel took steps to prepare the case for trial and had every intention of taking the case to trial if Defendant did not offer an appropriate settlement.

Plaintiff's Counsel's efforts and skill were used to, among other things, investigate the allegations and gather facts, research the legal issues, analyze data and information obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, evaluate the PAGA claim, and negotiate the settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, Plaintiff's Counsel used its extensive experience and skill in the handling of complex wage-and-hour matters to advocate for and obtain Aggrieved Employees and the State of California a recovery now, with maximum efficiency, as opposed to the possibility of recovery in the future, after significant expense and time.⁷⁵

3. The Value of the Settlement

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this lawsuit, given the uncertainty and risks of further litigation.⁷⁶ Had the case not settled, Defendant would have vigorously continued its efforts to enforce its arbitration agreements, challenge manageability and liability, and sought a reduction in the amount assessed as penalties. Defendant, however, faced risks too, ⁷⁵ Maher Decl., ¶¶ 16-20.

⁷⁶ Id., ¶¶ 15, 16, 19, 27.

including and not limited to, the risk of a jury trial and having the Court assess penalties. Additionally, preparing the case for trial would have been extraordinarily expensive for the Parties.

At this stage, the settlement is preferred over continued litigation because such resolution saves time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, and appellate review of those proceedings. The Settlement offers present and considerable monetary relief to Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California while avoiding additional expense, risk, and delay in obtaining possible further recovery.

4. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent

The representation provided by Plaintiff's Counsel has been wholly contingent and Plaintiff's Counsel took on this matter without knowing whether any recovery would be obtained. Plaintiff's Counsel has invested 139.30 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁷⁷ Plaintiff's Counsel is also requesting reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $6,183.24.⁷⁸

In this case, Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁷⁹ If Plaintiff's Counsel had not been successful, the time that they have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. Plaintiff's Counsel is well-experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result for Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California.⁸⁰ The skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown throughout the Action justify the requested

⁷⁷ Maher Decl., ¶ 23 and Exh. 3.

⁷⁸ Id., ¶ 25 and Exh. 4.

⁷⁹ Id., ¶ 25.

⁸⁰ Id., ¶¶ 2-6.

attorneys' fees and costs. Considering the amounts requested, work performed, and risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

5. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable. Ultimately, despite the fate of the individual and class damages claims asserted in the putative class action, the Action seeking civil penalties under PAGA has continued and reached a resolution that provides for a significant monetary payment of civil penalties to the State of California and Aggrieved Employees. Here, the results achieved, and the recovery obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California represent a fair and reasonable resolution of this lawsuit. Plaintiff's Counsel's efforts have resulted in a settlement that provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $156,000.00, and it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount available for distribution to the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, as set forth in Part III.C infra, is approximately $83,371.96.⁸¹

6. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys

Plaintiff's Counsel is a recognized class action and complex litigation law firm, and its attorneys employed their knowledge, skill, and experience to bring the case to a successful conclusion. Plaintiff's Counsel has years of wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and representative action cases.⁸²

C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees, Because Plaintiff's Counsel Has Performed Work That Is of Significant Value Based on Reasonable Hours and Prevailing Hourly Rates of Compensation

⁸¹ Settlement Agreement, Sections 1.15, 3.2.

⁸² Maher Decl., ¶¶ 2-6.

1 While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of 2 the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar
3 method to “cross-check” the results of the other. See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505 (explaining 4 that “[a] lodestar cross-check is simply a quantitative method for bringing a measure of the time
5 spent by counsel into the trial court’s reasonableness determination”); see also, e.g., Vizcaino,
6 290 F.3d at 1050 (“[W]hile the primary basis of the fee award remains the percentage method,
7 the lodestar may provide a useful perspective on the reasonableness of a given percentage
8 award.”). Importantly, “the lodestar calculation . . . does not override the trial court’s primary 9 determination of the fee as a percentage” and “does not impose an absolute maximum or 10 minimum on the potential fee award.” Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505.

11 The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable prevailing hourly rates
12 for the attorneys. Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at 1131-32. Under California law, counsel is 13 entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent on the matter. Id. at 1133.

14 1. Plaintiff’s Counsel Performed Work for a Reasonable Number of Hours

15 The reasonableness of hours is assessed by “the entire course of the litigation, including 16 pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]” Vo v.
17 Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.

18 As discussed above, this matter was highly contested and required a significant amount of 19 time and labor. Defendant made it clear very early on that it disputed all of Plaintiff’s allegations
20 and disputed that representative adjudication was appropriate. Defendant also argued, inter alia, 21 that it had facially-compliant employment policies and practices throughout the time period at 22 issue.⁸³ Defendant raised affirmative defenses and denied liability, and the pursuit of this case
23 involved gathering and analyzing data from Defendant as well as other sources.⁸⁴ The handling 24 of this litigation involved a great amount of effort, and also required and involved the exercise of 25 a high level of skill, which Plaintiff’s Counsel has, as a result of its extensive experience in 26 complex wage-and-hour litigation. Long and difficult battles would have followed as the case

27 ⁸³ Maher Decl., ¶ 17.

28 ⁸⁴ Id., ¶¶ 14 & 19.

1 moved toward trial, including taking and defending declarant and expert depositions, depositions
2 of person most knowledgeable designees, conducting additional formal discovery, and engaging
3 in extensive motion practice. As Plaintiff's Counsel geared up for these battles, Plaintiff's
4 Counsel undertook intense preparation in an attempt to resolve the entire matter through 5 settlement negotiations.

6 Plaintiff's Counsel had to bring together a volume of information, data, and documents
7 that were obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant and other sources. Plaintiff's Counsel conducted 8 extensive review and analysis of the information, documents, and data to strategize and evaluate 9 the case and engage in settlement discussions.

10 As set forth above in Part VI.B.1 infra, attached to the Declaration of Travis J. Maher is 11 the Attorney Task and Time Chart that sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Plaintiff's
12 Counsel performed in this matter, and the time required for completing those tasks.⁸⁵ The chart
13 demonstrates that Lawyers for Justice, PC has spent a total of 139.30 hours on this matter. In 14 light of the facts and circumstances of this matter, as well as the results Plaintiff's Counsel has 15 achieved on behalf of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff's
16 Counsel has spent a reasonable number of hours on this matter.

17 2. The Fees Requested Represent a Reasonable Hourly Rate of Compensation
18 in Light of Plaintiff's Counsel's Efforts and Experience

19 Both California and federal courts recognize that attorneys should be compensated for 20 providing representation on a contingency basis and for taking on the risks associated with said
21 representation, as well as being provided with financial incentives to enforce important rights
22 and protections like those at issue in this matter. See Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. In 23 awarding attorneys' fees, the aim is to mirror "the established practice in the private legal market 24 of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their 25 normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." See id.

27
28 ⁸⁵ Maher Decl., ¶ 23, Exh. 3.

Plaintiff's Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of this matter, prior to the commencement of the Action and all the way up to approval of the settlement, and their dedication to the representation of Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California has precluded other employment. Here, Plaintiff's Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of their efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery. Ultimately, Plaintiff's Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement of $156,000.00.

As set forth in the Declaration of Travis J. Maher, the professional backgrounds and experience of Plaintiff's Counsel support a reasonable hourly rate of compensation of at least $800 per hour for services provided by Plaintiff's Counsel.⁸⁶ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the rate of at least $800 for legal services performed, by courts of this state.⁸⁷ While the circumstance of every case is unique, the fact remains that the work performed and efforts undertaken by Plaintiff's Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys' fees award.

VII. COSTS TO BE REIMBURSED TO PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of all actual litigation costs and expenses. As set forth in the Declaration of Travis J. Maher, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks reimbursement of $6,183.24 in litigation costs and expenses.⁸⁸ These expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement.⁸⁹ Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel requests that the Court award reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $6,183.24 to Plaintiff's Counsel.

VIII. THE PROPOSED COVER LETTER TO THE AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES SHOULD BE APPROVED

Although PAGA does not require notice to unnamed aggrieved employees of a settlement, the Parties prepared, and now present for the Court's consideration and approval, the ⁸⁶ Maher Decl., ¶ 24.

⁸⁷ Ibid.

⁸⁸ Id., ¶ 25.

⁸⁹ Ibid.

Cover Letter for transmission to the Aggrieved Employees along with their Individual Settlement Share check (together, PAGA Settlement Package), substantially in the form attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment and as “EXHIBIT A” to the Settlement Agreement. The Cover Letter informs the Aggrieved Employees about the Action and the Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Cover Letter for transmission to the Aggrieved Employees at the time of disbursing their Individual Settlement Shares.

IX. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval by the Court, ILYM Group, Inc. to handle the administration of the Settlement. The fees and expenses of the PAGA Settlement Administrator are estimated not to exceed $4,450.00. These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, printing, and mailing the Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Shares checks to the Aggrieved Employees (i.e., PAGA Settlement Package); performing skip-trace searches; re-mailing the returned PAGA Settlement Packages to any updated addresses located; and handling inquiries from Aggrieved Employees regarding the Settlement, among other things. Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of up to $4,500.00 to ILYM Group, Inc., a necessary third-party for handling the settlement process.

X. THE PROPOSED GENERAL RELEASE FEE IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE, AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for a General Release Fee to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000.00.⁹⁰ The purpose of such an award is to incentivize aggrieved employees to step into the shoes of the state labor agency and undertake the responsibilities associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a representative capacity. See Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (“service payments” compensate named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark v. Am. Residential Servs., LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is appropriate ‘if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram v. The Coca-Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted) (“Courts routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided and the risks they incurred during the course of the [...] litigation.”); see also, e.g., Resendez, supra, Los Angeles County Superior Court, Case No. BC59689 (approving $10,000 enhancement award in a PAGA action).

Here, Plaintiff contributed considerable time and effort to the litigation of this matter in order to enforce the California Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and for the benefit of other Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff discussed his employment with his counsel, gathered and produced relevant documents and information, and provided the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.⁹¹ Plaintiff was available whenever his counsel needed him and tried to obtain and provide documents and information that would aid in the litigation of the PAGA claim and pursuit of recovery on behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees.⁹²

Accordingly, it is reasonable and just for Plaintiff to receive a General Release Fee in the amount of $10,000.00.

XI. CONCLUSION

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasoned compromise of disputed claims that has been reached through arm’s-length negotiations, in light of the risks, complexity, and expense of further litigation. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the Settlement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount for the LWDA Payment to the LWDA, Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel, Settlement Administration Costs to the PAGA Settlement Administrator, and General Release Fee to Plaintiff, and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
