PAGA CLAIMS

- (8) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
- (9) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
- (10) Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
- (11) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks;
- (12) Failure to Timely Pay Wages;
- (13) Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages; and
- (14) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

1 Plaintiff Joel Arellano (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and on 2 behalf of others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows.

3 I. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against his former employer(s), Defendants Pacific
5 Award Metals, Inc. and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, (collectively, “Defendants”) on behalf of 6 all current and former nonexempt employees employed by Defendants in California (the “Class”
7 or “Represented Employees”), for Labor Code violations stemming from Defendants’ failure to 8 pay all wages owed, including minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide meal
9 periods, failure to provide rest breaks, failure to timely pay wages each period, failure to timely
10 pay wages upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage 11 statements.

12 2. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately June 2020 through 13 March 2022.

14 3. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the Represented Employees were 15 subjected to the same policies, working conditions, and corresponding wage and hour violations
16 to which Plaintiff was subjected during employment.

17 4. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided all minimum, regular,
18 and overtime wages due to Defendants’ failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
19 worked. As one such example, Defendants frequently required Plaintiff to clock out for meal
20 periods but continue performing work for Defendants. This resulted in a failure to pay
21 minimum/regular wages (since Plaintiff was not paid at all for those 30 minutes), as well as a 22 failure to pay overtime wages (since those 30 minutes were in excess of 8 hours and had to be 23 paid at the proper overtime rate). Thus, Defendants failed to pay proper minimum, regular, and 24 overtime wages every time it applied its practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Represented
25 Employees to clock out for 30 minutes during each shift, regardless of whether an off-duty meal 26 period was taken.

27 5. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were also denied 30-minute off-duty
28 meal periods, as mandated by California law. As a result of Defendants’ policies and practices,

1 the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations when they were: (1) unable 2 to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal period while under the 3 control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4) forced to take a meal
4 period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided a mandated second meal period for shifts
5 in excess of 10 hours.

6 6. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Represented Employees with 7 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major fraction thereof, as 8 mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks and the Represented
9 Employees were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks due to being 10 overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and the 11 Represented Employees worked longer shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit
12 mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

13 7. Plaintiff also alleges that he and the Represented Employees were not paid all
14 wages due and owing each pay period (Labor Code § 204) and upon separation of employment
15 within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants
16 engaged in the practice of failing to pay all wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Represented
17 Employees at the time their employment ended with Defendants, including, but not limited to 18 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, wage premiums, vacation wages, among others.

19 8. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants failed to provide accurate itemized wage 20 statements that fully complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 226(a). As one specific 21 example, Defendant's wage statements violated Labor Code § 226(a)(9) each period where 22 Defendant paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees "Double Time" because, on such 23 occasions, the wage statements failed to accurately itemize the double time rate(s) of pay.

24 9. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' violations of the wage and hour components of 25 the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders enabled them to decrease expenses and to increase their 26 level of productivity and profits, thereby allowing Defendants to gain an unfair advantage over 27 its competitors.

28 ///

1 10. At all material times, Defendants and DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the 2 Represented Employees' employers or persons acting on behalf of the Represented Employees'
3 employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be 4 violated, a section of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California Labor Code or any provision regulating
5 hours and days of work in an IWC Wage Order and, as such, are subject to penalties for each
6 underpaid employee as set forth in Labor Code § 558 and under California law.

7 11. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking declaratory, injunctive, equitable, and 8 monetary relief against Defendants and each of them, on behalf of himself and the Represented
9 Employees to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys' fees,
10 penalties, costs and expenses pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 208,
11 210, 218.6, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 1199,
12 among possibly other sections inadvertently omitted. Plaintiff also reserves the right to name
13 additional representatives throughout the State of California.

14 12. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff is in the process of giving written 15 notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by 16 certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been 17 violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. As such, Plaintiff
18 reserves the right to amend this complaint or bring a separate complaint for the PAGA claims
19 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(C).

20 II. JURISDICTION

21 13. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief of Plaintiff and the 22 Represented Employees pursuant to the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders.

23 III. VENUE

24 14. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this Court pursuant to Code of Civil 25 Procedure § 395(a). Defendants transact business in Los Angeles County and the unlawful acts
26 alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and the Represented Employees in Los Angeles
27 County. Furthermore, Defendants employed or employ Plaintiff and Represented Employees in 28 Los Angeles County.

1 IV. PARTIES

2 Plaintiff

3 15. Plaintiff and Class Representative Joel Arellano was employed by Defendants
4 from approximately June 2020 through March 2022 and performed work for Defendants in Los 5 Angeles County.

6 Defendants

7 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Pacific
8 Award Metals, Inc. is a California corporation authorized to and doing business in Los Angeles
9 County, California. Plaintiff is also informed and believes that Defendant Pacific Award Metals,
10 Inc. is and/or was the legal employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees during the 11 applicable statutory periods.

12 17. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 13 participation in the conduct herein alleged, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 20, 14 inclusive, but on information and belief alleges that those Defendants are legally responsible for 15 the payment of penalties and damages to Plaintiff and all Represented Employees by virtue of 16 Defendants' unlawful actions and practices and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious
17 names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE
18 Defendants when ascertained.

19 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that he and the Represented
20 Employees worked under the joint direction and control of Defendants and that Defendants, and 21 each of them, acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, 22 carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respect pertinent hereto, and the acts of 23 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. On information and belief, a 24 unity of interest and ownership between each Defendant exists such that all Defendants acted as 25 a single employer of Plaintiff and other Represented Employees.

26 19. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 27 Defendants, and each of them, are an integrated enterprise and should be treated as a single 28 employer because these entities share an interrelation of operations, with common human resources and personnel policies and shared common offices and facilities. Additionally, Defendants also have a shared website, common management, a centralized control of labor operations, and common ownership or financial control.

20. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, in conducting themselves in the manner described herein, Defendants, and each of them, were acting in active concert with one another such that the acts of each were and are fully attributable to the others in all material respects. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times Defendants and each of them are now, and at all material times herein mentioned were, the agents, servants, employees, partners, affiliates, and/or representatives of each of their remaining co-Defendants, and were, at all times herein mentioned, acting within the course, scope, and purpose of such relationship(s) and with the knowledge, consent and/or ratification of each of their remaining co-Defendants.

21. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that at all relevant times, Defendants have been inadequately capitalized to conduct business, have failed to follow appropriate corporate formalities, and have simply been a shell and instrumentality through which Defendants DOES 11 through 20, inclusive, have conducted their personal affairs. Accordingly, the corporate veil should be pierced, and any liability attached to Defendants should be imposed jointly and severally against Defendants DOES 11 through 20. Adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of these corporate entities would permit abuse of the corporate privilege, thereby sanctioning fraud and promoting injustice.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

23. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as a class action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

24. The relevant time period for this class action is defined as the period beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until class certification (the “Relevant Time Period”).

1 25. The Class, also referred to as the “Represented Employees,” that Plaintiff seeks to 2 represent is defined as follows:

3 All current and former nonexempt employees employed by 4 Defendants in California during the Relevant Time Period.

5 26. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following subclasses:

6 Meal Break Subclass

7 All Represented Employees who worked a shift in excess of 8 5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

9 Rest Break Subclass

10 All Represented Employees who worked a shift of at least
11 3.5 hours during the Relevant Time Period.

12 Waiting Time Penalties Subclass

13 All Represented Employees who separated from their 14 employment with Defendants during the period three years
15 before the filing of this action and ending when final
16 judgment is entered.

17 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass

18 All Represented Employees during the period one year
19 before the filing of this action and ending when final
20 judgment is entered.

21 27. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class description with greater 22 specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as appropriate.

23 28. Plaintiff, as Class Representative, is a member of the class and subclasses that he 24 seeks to represent.

25 29. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
26 under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the 27 litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable from Defendants’ records.

28 ///

1 30. Numerosity: The potential members of the Class as defined are so numerous that 2 a joinder of all Represented Employees is impracticable. Although the exact number is currently 3 unknown to Plaintiff, this information is easily ascertainable from Defendants' records.

4 31. Commonality: There are questions of law and fact common to the class which 5 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the class, including 6 without limitation:

7 i. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
8 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees for all 9 hours worked;

10 ii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
11 IWC Wage Order by failing to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
12 Employees for hours above 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week;

13 iii. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
14 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant meal periods to Plaintiff and the Meal Break
15 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
16 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a compliant 17 meal period was not provided;

18 iv. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code and applicable
19 IWC Wage Order by failing to provide compliant rest breaks to Plaintiff and the Rest Break
20 Subclass and whether Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass
21 with one additional hour of wages at the regular rate of pay for each instance when a paid rest 22 break was not provided;

23 v. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 24 timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment between Defendants and Plaintiff and 25 the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass, whether such separation was voluntary or involuntary;

26 vi. Whether Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to 27 provide Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass with complete, accurate, itemized 28 wage statements;

vii. Whether Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. due to the: failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated paid rest breaks, failure to provide mandated meal periods, and failure to timely pay final wages; and viii. Whether Plaintiff and Represented Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

32. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims, as the Class Representative, are typical of the claims of The Class. Plaintiff, like other members of The Class, was subjected to Defendants' ongoing Labor Code and Wage Order violations including pertaining to the failure to pay all wages owed, failure to provide mandated meal periods, failure to provide mandated paid rest breaks, failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment, and failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

33. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff, as the Class Representative, will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff's interests are not in conflict with those of the Class. Class Representative's counsel are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and other complex litigation matters, including cases like this case.

34. Superiority of Class Action. Class certification is appropriate because a class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Represented Employees is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Each Represented Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies and practices set forth above. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

4 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

5 35. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
6 alleged herein.

7 36. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not exempt from the requirement
8 to be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for 9 each hour worked.

10 37. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were not provided proper minimum and 11 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
12 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were 13 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 14 were performing.

15 38. As one such example, Defendants frequently failed to pay proper minimum/
16 regular wages to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees due to the practice of requiring 17 Plaintiff to clock out 30 minutes during each shift but continue performing work for Defendants.
18 This resulted in a failure to pay minimum/regular wages (since Plaintiff was not paid at all for 19 those 30 minutes). Thus, Defendants failed to pay proper minimum/regular wages every time it
20 applied its practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Represented Employees to clock out for 30
21 minutes during each shift, regardless of whether an off-duty meal period was taken.

22 39. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
23 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and 24 Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

25 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
26 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Represented
27 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

28 ///

1 41. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the
2 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid wages throughout the statutory period for each
3 hour worked, including proper minimum and regular wages, yet Defendants chose not to pay
4 them in accordance thereto.

5 42. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the
6 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
7 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be
8 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California
9 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

10 43. During employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants
11 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

12 44. As a result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
13 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

14 45. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 15 all unpaid minimum wages, liquidated damages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs of 16 suit, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1194.2, against Defendants in an amount to be proven 17 at trial.

18 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

20 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

21 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees Against All Defendants

22 46. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 23 alleged herein.

24 47. Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were employees of Defendants who did
25 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

26 48. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 27 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 28 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in

1 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the
2 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
3 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

4 49. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were required by 5 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to
6 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 7 Represented Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

8 50. As one such example, Defendants frequently failed to pay proper overtime wages
9 to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees due to the practice of requiring Plaintiff to clock out
10 30 minutes during each shift but continue performing work for Defendants. This resulted in a 11 failure to pay overtime wages (since those 30 minutes were in excess of 8 hours and had to be 12 paid at the proper overtime rate). Thus, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime wages every 13 time it applied its practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Represented Employees to clock out for 14 30 minutes during each shift, regardless of whether an off-duty meal period was taken.

15 51. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage
16 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Represented Employees because 17 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per 18 week without proper overtime compensation.

19 52. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
20 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 21 Represented Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

22 53. Defendants' conduct was willful, as Defendants knew that Plaintiff and the 23 Represented Employees were entitled to be paid proper overtime wages throughout the statutory 24 period, yet Defendants chose not to pay them in accordance thereto.

25 54. At all material times, Defendants DOES 1 through 20 were and/or are the
26 employer of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees or were persons acting on behalf of said
27 employer(s), within the meaning of California Labor Code § 558, who violated or caused to be
28 violated Labor Code § 204 and a provision or provisions of Part 2, Chapter 1 of the California

1 Labor Code regulating hours and days of work respectively.

2 55. During the employment of Plaintiff and the Represented Employees, Defendants
3 failed to pay them all wages to which they were entitled, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

4 56. As a result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Plaintiff and the Represented
5 Employees have been damaged in amounts to be proven at trial.

6 57. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Represented Employees, seeks recovery of 7 all unpaid overtime wages, penalties, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit against 8 Defendants in an amount to be proven at trial.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

11 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

12 Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass Against All Defendants

13 58. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 14 alleged herein.

15 59. Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants
16 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal
17 periods.

18 60. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
19 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

20 61. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 21 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
22 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
23 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal
24 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
25 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing 26 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

27 62. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
28 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of

1 pay for each meal period that is missed.

2 63. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were denied
3 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and
4 practices, Plaintiff and the Represented Employees were subjected to meal period violations
5 when they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty
6 meal period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period,
7 (4) forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided a mandated 8 second meal period for shifts in excess of 10 hours.

9 64. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
10 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not provided with all
11 mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass one 12 additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

13 65. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Meal
14 Break Subclass all mandated meal periods and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 15 meal or rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

16 66. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass did not 17 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
18 obtained from Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass were not willfully obtained, were not 19 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
20 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass
21 to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

22 67. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Meal Break Subclass with meal
23 periods as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of 24 each meal period not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and 25 IWC Wage Order § 11. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at 26 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a meal period was not 27 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

28 ///

1 68. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
2 and IWC Wage Order § 11, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Meal
3 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST BREAKS

6 (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 12)

7 Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass Against All Defendants

8 69. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 9 alleged herein.

10 70. Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass are and/or were employees of Defendants 11 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory rest breaks.

12 71. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide rest
13 breaks to its employees as mandated by Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission.

14 72. The IWC Wage Order § 12 states, in part, that every employer shall authorize and 15 permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 16 each work period. Employees shall receive a 10-minute rest period every four hours or major 17 fraction thereof that they are required to work. Authorized rest period time shall be counted, as 18 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.

19 73. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and Section 12(B) of the applicable Wage
20 Order, Defendants shall pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees one additional hour of pay 21 at his regular rate of compensation for each day that the rest period is not provided.

22 74. At all relevant times, Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
23 Break Subclass with 10 minutes of net rest break time for every 4 hours worked, or major 24 fraction thereof, as mandated by California law. Defendants did not schedule rest breaks and the 25 Rest Break Subclass were often not authorized and/or permitted to take mandated rest breaks due 26 to being overwhelmed by their hectic workload. Furthermore, on occasions when Plaintiff and 27 he Rest Break Subclass worked lengthy shifts, Defendants failed to authorize and/or permit
28 mandated third or fourth rest breaks.

1 75. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
2 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass were not provided with all
3 mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Represented Employees
4 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

5 76. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Rest
6 Break Subclass all mandated rest breaks and failed to pay wage premiums in lieu of mandated 7 rest periods, thereby receiving an economic benefit.

8 77. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and the Rest Break Subclass with rest breaks
9 as required by California law, and failing to pay one hour of additional wages in lieu of each rest
10 break not provided, Defendants willfully violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and IWC Wage
11 Order § 12. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for one hour of additional wages at the 12 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a paid rest break was not 13 lawfully provided in an amount to be proven at time of trial.

14 78. Also, as a direct result of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512,
15 and IWC Wage Order § 12, Defendants, and each of them, are liable to Plaintiff and the Rest
16 Break Subclass for unpaid wage premiums, penalties, costs, and interest.

18 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY FINAL WAGES

19 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203)

20 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

21 79. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
22 alleged herein.

23 80. Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 24 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the timing 25 and payment of wages.

26 81. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 27 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

28 ///

1 82. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
2 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of
3 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

4 83. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
5 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is
6 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

7 84. At all relevant times, Defendants employed a policy and practice whereby
8 Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass were not paid all wages due and owing upon 9 separation of employment within the time required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

10 85. Also, at all relevant times, Defendants engaged in the practice of failing to pay all 11 wages due and owing to Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass upon separation of 12 employment, including, but not limited to, minimum, regular, overtime, and vacation wages, as 13 well as meal and rest period premiums.

14 86. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
15 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Waiting Time Penalties Subclass all 16 wages due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 17 202. Consequently, pursuant to Labor Code § 203, Defendants owe Plaintiff and the Waiting
18 Time Penalties Subclass the above-described waiting time penalty, all in an amount to be shown 19 according to proof at trial and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

22 (Labor Code § 226)

23 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass against All Defendants

24 87. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
25 alleged herein.

26 88. Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass are and/or were employees of 27 Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 28 provision of accurate itemized wage statements.

1 89. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized
2 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the
3 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her
4 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal
5 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 6 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

7 90. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
8 and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass due to violations including: failure to accurately state
9 total hours worked (the wage statements failed to accurately reflect total compensable hours due 10 to the illegal auto-deduct policy); failure to accurately state gross wages earned; failure to 11 accurately state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned; failure to state the 12 applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); and failure to accurately 13 state the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

14 91. As one specific example, Defendant's wage statements violated Labor Code §
15 226(a)(9) each period where Defendant paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees "Double
16 Time" because, on such occasions, the wage statements failed to accurately itemize the double 17 time rate(s) of pay.

18 92. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
19 to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass because Defendants failed to provide a 20 wage statement to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass that complied with the 21 requirements of Labor Code § 226(a).

22 93. Defendants' failure to provide the required writing deprived Plaintiff and the 23 Wage Statement Penalties Subclass of the ability to know, understand, and question the 24 calculation and rate of pay and hours used to calculate the wages paid by Defendants. Therefore,
25 Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass had no way to dispute the resulting 26 miscalculation of wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to said
27 Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered 28 and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost

1 interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully 2 perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damages in amounts according to 3 proof at trial.

4 94. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
5 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have suffered an injury in 6 that each was prevented from knowing, understanding and disputing the wage payments paid to 7 them. Furthermore, Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass have each suffered an 8 injury in that the failure to show all wages earned on the itemized wage statements resulted in 9 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees being denied all necessary deductions, payments, and 10 withholdings owed by the employer, including, but not limited to, the failure to make all 11 necessary contributions for unemployment benefits, social security benefits, proper payment of 12 taxes and withholdings, and other mandated state and federal benefits.

13 95. Plaintiff has also been injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt 14 to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the 15 mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

16 96. Labor Code § 226(e) requires Defendants to pay the greater of all actual damages 17 or fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and 18 one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus
19 attorney's fees and costs, to Plaintiff and the Wage Statement Penalties Subclass who were 20 injured by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a). The exact amount of the 21 applicable penalty is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

22 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 UNFAIR AND UNLAWFUL COMPETITION

24 (Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.)

25 Plaintiff and the Represented Employees against All Defendants

26 97. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 27 alleged herein.

28 ///

1 98. California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair
2 competition, which includes any “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice.” The 3 Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, have suffered and continue to suffer injuries in fact,
4 due to the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein.

5 99. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under Business &
6 Professions Code § 17021.

7 100. As alleged herein, Defendants engaged in conduct that violated California’s wage 8 and hour laws, including failure to pay minimum, regular, and overtime wages, failure to provide 9 mandated meal periods and rest breaks, and failure to timely pay wages each period and upon 10 separation of employment, all to decrease their costs and increase their profits.

11 101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and the Represented
12 Employees wages and monies and other financial obligations to which they were entitled.

13 102. As a result of Defendants’ failure to comply with the Labor Code and IWC
14 Orders, Represented Employees, including Plaintiff, suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in 15 an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. Defendants’ ongoing violations of the 16 foregoing statutes and laws constitute a violation of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.

17 103. Defendants’ violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and 18 its scheme to lower its payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful and unfair business 19 practices because it was done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of the 20 Plaintiff and all others similarly-situated.

21 104. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
22 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Represented Employees, and to the general public.
23 Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code
24 of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

25 105. A violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. may be 26 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as 27 violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, are 28 unlawful and in violation of public policy, and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive,

1 fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
2 practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

3 106. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has no plain,
4 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which they have suffered as a
5 consequence of Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of 6 the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, individually,
7 and on behalf of the Represented Employees, has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable
8 harm unless Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said
9 unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

10 107. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is entitled to,
11 and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge the profits which Defendants have 12 acquired, or of which Plaintiff and Represented Employees have been deprived, by means of the 13 above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the 14 Represented Employees are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the unfair
15 practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

16 108. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the Represented Employees, is further 17 entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, 18 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining Defendants, and each of them, from 19 engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in 20 the future.

21 109. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 22 Represented Employees are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 23 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a 24 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiff and 25 Represented Employees; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 26 Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

1 VI. LABOR CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CAUSES OF ACTION
2 (Cal. Lab. Code. §§ 2698 – 2699.5)

3 110. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under the PAGA as he was employed by 4 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
5 violations alleged herein. As such, Plaintiff may recover the remedies described herein in a civil 6 action filed on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated current and former aggrieved
7 employees in California against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed 8 (hereinafter the “Aggrieved Employees”).

9 111. Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 10 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by
11 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
12 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Therefore, Plaintiff is not required to, nor 13 does she, seek class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

14 112. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a), Plaintiff is in the process of providing written
15 notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by 16 certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been 17 violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

18 113. Therefore, once more than sixty-five (65) days have passed since that date,
19 Plaintiff will have fully satisfied the administrative prerequisites to suit under the PAGA and this 20 Complaint will be deemed amended to include the PAGA allegations enumerated below. Once 21 this occurs, Plaintiff seeks to recover all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to 22 Labor Code § 2699, as well as attorneys’ fees, costs, and/or other damages as permitted by
23 PAGA through a representative action pursuant to the PAGA and the California Supreme Court
24 in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal. 4th 969. Plaintiff is not required to, nor does he, seek 25 class certification of the PAGA claims under Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

3 (Labor Code §§ 200, 1194, 1194.2, 1197; IWC Wage Order § 4)

4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

5 114. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 6 herein.

7 115. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not exempt from the requirement to 8 be paid at least the applicable California minimum wage throughout the statutory period for each 9 hour worked.

10 116. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided proper minimum and 11 regular wages due to Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours
12 worked. As a result of this policy and practice, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were 13 required to perform off-the-clock work that Defendants either knew or should have known they 14 were performing.

15 117. As one such example, Defendants frequently failed to pay proper minimum/
16 regular wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees due to the practice of requiring Plaintiff
17 to clock out 30 minutes during each shift but continue performing work for Defendants. This 18 resulted in a failure to pay minimum/regular wages (since Plaintiff was not paid at all for those 19 30 minutes). Thus, Defendants failed to pay proper minimum/regular wages every time it
20 applied its practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to clock out for 30
21 minutes during each shift, regardless of whether an off-duty meal period was taken.

22 118. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 23 Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked.

24 119. Consequently, Defendants violated California Labor Code laws and minimum
25 wage laws, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 200, 221, 222, 223, 1197, IWC Wage Order 9, § 4, and Cal.
26 Code Regs., tit. 8, section 11090, subds. 1 and 4(B).

27 120. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
28 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved

1 Employees for each hour worked in violation of Labor Code §§ 221-223, 1194 and 1197.

2 121. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
3 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
4 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

5 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

7 (Labor Code §§ 204 and 510; IWC Wage Order § 3(A))

8 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

9 122. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 10 herein.

11 123. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were employees of Defendants who did
12 not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing payment of overtime wages.

13 124. Labor Code § 204 requires that the employer timely pay all overtime wages to its 14 employees. Labor Code § 510(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 3(A) provide that any 15 work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in 16 any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the 17 regular rate of pay for an employee. Furthermore, any work performed in excess of twelve (12)
18 in one workday shall be compensated at twice the regular rate of pay for an employee.

19 125. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required by 20 Defendants to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per week. However, due to
21 Defendants' failure to accurately record and compensate for all hours worked Plaintiff and the 22 Aggrieved Employees did not receive proper overtime compensation.

23 126. As one such example, Defendants frequently failed to pay proper overtime wages
24 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees due to the practice of requiring Plaintiff to clock out 30
25 minutes during each shift but continue performing work for Defendants. This resulted in a failure 26 to pay overtime wages (since those 30 minutes were in excess of 8 hours and had to be paid at 27 the proper overtime rate). Thus, Defendants failed to pay proper overtime wages every time it
28 applied its practice of requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to clock out for 30

1 minutes during each shift, regardless of whether an off-duty meal period was taken.

2 127. As a result of this policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the 3 Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked.

4 128. Defendants violate Labor Code §§ 204 and 510 and the applicable IWC Wage
5 Order § 3(A) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because
6 Defendants required its employees to work hours in excess of 8 and/or 12 per day and/or 40 per
7 week without proper overtime compensation.

8 129. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
9 intentionally, willfully, and improperly failed to pay proper overtime wages to Plaintiff and the 10 Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 221-223, 510, 1194 and 1197.

11 130. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
12 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
13 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

14 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE COMPLIANT MEAL PERIODS

16 (Labor Code § 226.7 and 512; IWC Wage Order § 11, 12)

17 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

18 131. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
19 alleged herein.

20 132. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants
21 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing mandatory meal
22 periods.

23 133. Labor Code § 226.7 requires employers, including Defendants, to provide
24 employees with meal periods as mandated by the Industrial Welfare Commission.

25 134. Labor Code § 512(a), in part, provides that employers, including Defendants, may 26 not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing an
27 employee the opportunity to take an uninterrupted meal period of not less than 30 minutes,
28 except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal

1 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee. Employers
2 may not employ an employee for a work period more than 10 hours per day without providing
3 the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

4 135. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and the applicable IWC Wage Order § 11(B),
5 Defendants shall pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 6 pay for each meal period that is missed.

7 136. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were denied
8 the 30-minute meal periods to which they were entitled. As a result of Defendants' policies and 9 practices, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were subjected to meal period violations when 10 they were: (1) unable to take a meal period due to workload, (2) forced to take an on-duty meal
11 period while under the control of the Company, (3) forced to take a shortened meal period, (4)
12 forced to take a meal period after the 5th hour of work, and (5) not provided mandated second or 13 third meal periods for shifts in excess of 10 and 15 hours, respectively.

14 137. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
15 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with 16 all mandatory meal periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees 17 one additional hour of compensation at the regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

18 138. On information and belief, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees did not
19 voluntarily or willfully waive the mandated meal periods. Any expressed or implied waivers
20 obtained from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not willfully obtained, were not 21 voluntarily agreed to, were a condition of employment, or were a part of a contract of an
22 unlawful adhesion. Defendants did not permit or authorize Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
23 Employees to take meal periods in accordance with California law.

24 139. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
25 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
26 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

27 ///

28 ///

1 146. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC Wage
2 Order every pay period because Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with
3 all mandatory rest periods and Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees
4 one additional hour of compensation in lieu thereof.

5 147. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
6 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
7 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

8 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 PAGA ASSESSMENT FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES EACH PERIOD

10 (Labor Code § 204)

11 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

12 148. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
13 alleged herein.

14 149. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were "nonexempt" employees
15 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws regarding the 16 timing of payment of wages each period.

17 150. Labor Code § 204(a) states that all wages earned by a person are due and payable 18 twice during each calendar month, and further states that wages earned during the first through 19 fifteenth days of the month must be paid no later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and that 20 wages earned between the sixteenth and last day of the month must be paid by the tenth day of 21 the following month.

22 151. Furthermore, Labor Code § 204(d) states "[t]he requirements of this section shall 23 be deemed satisfied by the payment of wages for weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly payroll if 24 the wages are paid not more than seven calendar days following the close of the payroll period."

25 152. At all relevant times herein, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the 26 Aggrieved Employees with all wages due and owing each period within the time required by 27 Labor Code § 204. Moreover, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
28 Employees with all wages due and owing each pay period, including, but not limited to,

1 minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums, within the 2 time specified by Labor Code § 204.

3 153. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
4 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
5 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

8 (Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 and 256)

9 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees against All Defendants

10 154. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 11 alleged herein.

12 155. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were “non-exempt” employees
13 of Defendants who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the 14 timing and payment of final wages.

15 156. Labor Code § 201 requires that the employer immediately pay any wages, without 16 abatement or reduction, to any employee who is discharged.

17 157. Labor Code § 202 requires that the employer pay all wages earned and unpaid,
18 without abatement or reduction, no later than 72 hours of receiving an employee's notice of 19 intent to quit or immediately at the time of quitting if at least a 72-hour notice was provided.

20 158. Labor Code §§ 201-203 cause the unpaid wages of the employee to continue as a
21 penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefore is 22 commenced, but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

23 159. At all relevant times here, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
24 Employees with all wages due and owing upon separation of employment, including, but not 25 limited to, minimum, regular, and overtime wages, as well as meal and rest period premiums, 26 within the time specified by Labor Code §§ 201 – 203.

27 160. Plaintiff alleges that, at all times material to this action, Defendants had a planned
28 pattern and practice of failing to timely pay to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages

1 due and owing upon separation of employment as required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

2 161. As a result of the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks
3 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,

11 alleged herein.

12 163. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are and/or were employees of Defendants 13 who did not receive proper protections and benefits of the laws governing the provision of 14 accurate itemized wage statements.

15 164. Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to provide its employees with itemized
16 wage statements accurately stating gross wages earned, all deductions, net wages earned, the
17 inclusive dates of the pay period, the employee's name and the last four digits of his or her
18 Social Security number (or employee identification number), the name and address of the legal 19 entity that is the employer, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 20 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

21 165. Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect to Plaintiff
22 and the Aggrieved Employees because due to violations including: failure to accurately state
23 total hours worked (the wage statements failed to accurately reflect total compensable hours [due 24 to, among other issues, the illegal auto-deduct policy]); failure to accurately state gross wages
25 earned; failure to accurately state all deductions; failure to accurately state net wages earned;
26 failure to state the applicable hourly rates (including the accurate overtime rate of pay); and 27 failure to accurately state the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

28 ///

1 166. As one specific example, Defendant's wage statements violated Labor Code §
2 226(a)(9) each period where Defendant paid Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees "Double
3 Time" because, on such occasions, the wage statements failed to accurately itemize the double
4 time rate(s) of pay.

5 167. Therefore, Defendants violate Labor Code § 226(a) every pay period with respect
6 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees because Defendants failed to provide a wage statement
7 to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees that complied with the requirements of Labor Code § 8 226(a).

9 168. As a result of the Defendants' violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff seeks
10 the assessment of all applicable and available PAGA remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699,
11 and seeks to recover all attorneys' fees, costs, and/or any other damages permitted under PAGA.

12 VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, on a representative basis, and all others
14 similarly situated, prays for judgment and relief against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 15 follows:

- 16 1. That the First through Seventh Causes of Action be certified as a class action;
- 17 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as Class Representative;
- 18 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed Class Counsel;
- 19 4. For all applicable statutory penalties recoverable under the First through Seventh 20 Causes of Action to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to Labor Code and 21 Orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission;
- 22 5. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted by 23 law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code;
- 24 6. For injunctive relief and/or restitution as provided by the Labor Code and 25 Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.;
- 26 7. As to the Eighth through Fourteenth Causes of Action, the assessment of all 27 applicable and available remedies under the PAGA;

28 ///

1 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as permitted under the PAGA;

2 9. For a declaratory judgment that Defendants have violated Labor Code §§ 200, 3 201, 202, 203, 204, 208, 210, 218.6, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 1197, 1198,
4 1199, and 2802, among other sections inadvertently omitted;

5 10. For an award of damages in the amount of unpaid compensation including, but 6 not limited to, unpaid wages, benefits, and penalties according to proof, including interest
7 thereon;

8 11. For pre- and post-judgment interest; and 9 12. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
