1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, Plaintiff seeks final approval of the Settlement with Defendant.
4 The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 1,803 Class 5 Members.

6 Upon the Court’s approval of the Settlement, participating Class Members will receive 7 an average estimated individual settlement payment of approximately $189.45, with the 8 highest individual estimated settlement payment to be paid of approximately $3,038.55.
9 (Declaration of Beth Paris on Behalf of Apex Class Action, LLC, in Support of Motion for Final 10 Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement [“Paris Decl.”], ¶ 16.) As of filing this Motion 11 there no objections to the settlement and no requests for exclusion. (Id. at ¶¶ 12-13.) For 12 the reasons set forth in this Motion, the Settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and adequate and is 13 in the best interests of the Class Members.

14 Final approval of the Settlement is warranted as it satisfies all the criteria for approval 15 under California law. As demonstrated in the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action, 16 the Settlement provides excellent benefits to the Class, particularly considering the complexities 17 and risks of the Action. Accordingly, Plaintiff request that the Court grant final approval of the 18 Settlement.

19 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

20 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

21 1. This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal.
22 Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and the putative class members worked 23 in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant CCN Framing, Inc.
24 (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) during the class period. Defendant 25 operates in the general construction industry and specializes in wooden framing. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 26 2.)

27 2. On March 29, 2022, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint 28 against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204,

1 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) 2 failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit
3 rest periods (Labor Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code 4 §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) 5 failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); (8) failure to produce 6 requested employment records (Labor Code §§ 226 and 1198.5); and (9) unfair business practices 7 (Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.). (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 3.) Plaintiff sent a notice to 8 Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging 9 similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA on April 8, 2022. On October 28, 2022, 10 Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding claims for civil penalties under 11 PAGA (hereinafter referred to as the “Action” or “Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

12 B. Discovery and Investigation

13 Following the filing of the Action, the Parties exchanged documents and information 14 before mediating this action. (Wilcox Decl. ¶ 4.) Defendant produced a 10% sample of time and 15 pay records for class members and information regarding the total number of current and former 16 employees in its informal discovery responses, as well as information about its wage and hour 17 policies and practices during the Class Period. (Id.) The Parties have engaged in sufficient 18 formal and informal discovery and investigation to assess the relative merits of the claims and 19 contentions of the Parties. (Id.)

20 After reviewing Defendant’s documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and 21 practices and analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to 22 evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum 23 monetary exposure for all claims. (Wilcox Decl. ¶ 5.) Class Counsel also investigated the 24 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the Action. (Id.) Class Counsel 25 reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This extensive 26 investigation and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively in 27 negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

28 C. Settlement Negotiations and Agreement

1 On August 14, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 2 action mediator Mark LeHocky, Esq. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 6.) The mediation was conducted via 3 Zoom, which led to an agreement to settle this action. (Id.) The settlement negotiations were 4 at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The 5 Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 6 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement
7 had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths
8 and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses and further negotiations 9 regarding the Settlement terms, the Parties finalized the Settlement, the material terms of which 10 are stated in the Settlement Agreement. (Id., Ex. 1).

11 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this Action.
12 (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 7.) Based on the foregoing discovery and their independent investigation, and 13 evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, just, reasonable, and 14 adequate and is in the best interests of the Class Members in light of all known facts and 15 circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant 16 both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id.)

17 D. Preliminary Approval and Overwhelming Support for the Settlement

18 Following the execution of the Settlement Agreement, the Court granted Plaintiff's 19 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement on March 4, 2026. (Wilcox Decl., 20 ¶ 8.) The deadline for Class Members to opt out or object to the Settlement was June 4, 2026.
21 (Id.) The reaction of the Class to the settlement so far has been overwhelmingly positive. (Id.)
22 Indeed, as of the filing of this Motion, no Class Member has opted out of the Settlement and no
23 Class Member has objected to the Settlement. (Id.; Paris Decl. at ¶¶ 12-13.)

24 E. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

25 Under the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay the Gross Settlement Amount to 26 resolve this Action. The key terms include:

27 1. Aggrieved Employees: An "Aggrieved Employee" means a person employed by 28 Defendant in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked

1 for Defendant during the PAGA Period. (Settlement, ¶ 1.4.)

2 2. Class: For purposes of this Settlement Agreement only, the Parties agree to the 3 certification of the Class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 defined as:
4 “all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant who were employed by Defendant
5 in the state of California at any time during the Class Period.” (Settlement, ¶ 1.5.)

6 3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a 7 valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, ¶ 1.35.)

8 4. Gross Settlement Amount: The Gross Settlement Amount of $650,000.00 will be 9 used to pay all of the following (the Gross Settlement Amount less these payments shall be the 10 “Net Settlement Amount”):

- 11 a. “Individual Class Payments” are the Participating Class Members’ pro rata 12 share of the “Net Settlement Amount” (as defined below) calculated 13 according to the number of “Workweeks” (any week during which a Class 14 Member worked for Defendant for at least one day during the Class 15 Period) worked during the Class Period (the “Individual Class 16 Payments”);
- 17 b. “PAGA Penalties” are the total amount of PAGA civil penalties to be paid 18 from the Gross Settlement Amount, $40,000.00, allocated 25% to the 19 PAGA Members ($10,000.00) and 75% to LWDA ($30,000.00) in 20 settlement of PAGA claims;
- 21 c. “Individual PAGA Payments” are the Aggrieved Employee’s pro rata 22 share of 25% of the PAGA Penalties calculated according to the number 23 of Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period;

5. Effective Date: “means the date by when both of the following have occurred: (a) the Court enters a Judgment on its Order Granting Final Approval of the Settlement; and (b) the Judgment is final. The Judgment is final as of the latest of the following occurrences: (a) if no Participating Class Member objects to the Settlement, the day the Court enters Judgment; (b) if one or more Participating Class Members objects to the Settlement, the day after the deadline for filing a notice of appeal from the Judgment; or if a timely appeal from the Judgment is filed, the day after the appellate court affirms the Judgment and issues a remittitur.” (Settlement, ¶ 1.18.)

6. Uncashed Checks: For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member, thereby leaving no “unpaid residue” subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.3.)

7. Released Parties: “means: Defendant and each of its former and present directors, officers, shareholders, owners, members, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, and assigns, and any other person, corporation, association, or partnership responsible or potentially responsible for any claims made or that could have been made in the Action (including, but not limited to, any alleged employers or joint employers of Plaintiff, the Class Members, or the PAGA Members), and the former and present directors, officers, shareholders, owners, members, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, and assigns of any of the foregoing.” (Settlement ¶ 1.41.)

8. Release by Participating Class Members: “Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments,...” (Settlement, ¶ 5) “All Participating

1 Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, 2 agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from 3 any and all claims that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts 4 pled in the operative First Amended Complaint, including but not limited to, state wage and 5 hour claims for any and all violations of California's Labor Code and Unfair Competition Law 6 based on Defendant's failure to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and 7 overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, 8 failure to timely pay final wages at termination, failure to furnish accurate itemized wage 9 statements, and failure to indemnify employees for expenditures based on the alleged Labor 10 Code violations, and all damages, interest, penalties, attorneys' fees, costs, and other amounts 11 recoverable under said causes of action under California law, to the extent permissible, 12 including, but not limited to, the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders. Except 13 as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any 14 other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair 15 Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' 16 compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, ¶ 5.2.)

17 9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “Effective on the date when Defendant fully 18 funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the 19 Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments,...” (Settlement, ¶ 5) “All Aggrieved Employees 20 are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present
21 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released 22 Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been 23 alleged, based on the facts pled in the operative First Amended Complaint, and/or the PAGA 24 Notice, including any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wages or 25 overtime, failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to provide accurate wage statements, 26 failure to pay all wages due at separation, and failure to reimburse business expenses, including 27 Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 210, 216, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 245-248.5, 256, 28 432, 432.5, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199,

2699, 2699.3, 2802, 2810.5 during the PAGA Period. Aggrieved Employees only release these claims for the duration of the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, ¶ 5.3.)

10. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's number of Workweeks.” (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share of PAGA Penalties $10,000.00 by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee’s PAGA Period Pay Periods. PAGA Members assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.” (Settlement ¶ 3.2.5.1.)

11. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments: “10% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining 90% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.” (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.1.)

12. Class Representative’s Service Payment: A Class Representative Service Payment to the Class Representative of not more than $10,000.00 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member). Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff’s request for Class Representative Service Payment that does not exceed the above amounts. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.)

13. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 33 and 1/3%, which is currently estimated to be $216,666.67 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $28,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for these

1 payments provided that they do not exceed these amounts. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.)

2 14. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Class Notice set forth in plain 3 terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount 4 of attorneys’ fees, costs, and service awards being sought, and an explanation of how the 5 settlement allocations are calculated. (Paris Decl. Ex. A.) A true and correct copy of the Class 6 Notice is attached as Exhibit A to the Paris Declaration. (Id.) Class Members were notified by 7 U.S First Class Mail of the Settlement. (Paris Decl., ¶ 7.) The Administrator undertook its best 8 efforts to ensure that the Class Notice was provided to the current addresses of Class Members, 9 including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the Class Notice to 10 updated addresses. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

11 III. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

12 The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex 13 cases. (See e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of California (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277-81.) Factors to 14 be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the 15 risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class 16 action status through proceedings, the experience and views of counsel ... and the reaction of the 17 class members to the proposed settlement.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 18 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) The factual record must be sufficiently developed to withstand evaluation 19 of plaintiffs’ likelihood of success, with the most important factor being “the strength of the case 20 for plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in settlement. (Clark v. American 21 Residential Services, LLC, (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799).

22 Whether a class action settlement should be approved is a question committed to the trial 23 court’s broad discretion. (Id. at pp. 234-35.) In exercising its discretion, the Court should give 24 “[d]ue regard ...to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” (Dunk 25 v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) “The inquiry ‘must be limited to the extent 26 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 27 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 28 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

1 A. Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Further Litigation

2 Plaintiff has established that his claims are based on viable causes of action. Class Counsel 3 engaged in informal discovery (Wilcox Decl. ¶¶ 4-5). Through all of this informal discovery and 4 investigation it became abundantly clear that both Parties were able to establish credible claims 5 and viable defenses. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 6 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 7 the amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 8 uncertain proposition. (Id.) Furthermore, even if Plaintiff obtained certification of all or some of 9 the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and possible appeals, and 10 would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. (Id.)

11 Under Clark, the most important factor is the strength of the case for plaintiffs on the merits, 12 balanced against the amount offered in settlement (Clark at 799). Indeed, the Plaintiff has 13 identified and provided a sufficient basis for bringing legitimate claims against Defendant, which 14 could very well lead to a favorable judgment should litigation continue. However, the strengths 15 of Plaintiff's claims cannot be viewed in a vacuum. When considering the risks of litigation, the 16 uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish 17 liability, and the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment compared to the relative strengths 18 of Plaintiff's claims, it is clear that the Gross Settlement Amount is within the "ballpark" of 19 reasonableness, and approval of the Settlement is appropriate.

20 Because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief 21 and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Indeed, each Class Member is eligible to 22 receive an average benefit of approximately $189.45, and the highest estimated net payout is 23 expected to be approximately $3,038.55. (Paris Decl., ¶ 16.) Furthermore, given that continued 24 litigation of this Action could very reasonably result in a lower award than the amount of the 25 Settlement (or even no award), the Gross Settlement Amount and Individual Class Payments are 26 reasonable.

27 A settlement is not judged against what the plaintiff might recover had he or she prevailed 28 at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and

1 reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250 [“Compromise is 2 inherent and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed 3 settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, 4 this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary 5 settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”])).

6 B. A Presumption of Fairness Over the Settlement Exists

7 A presumption that a settlement is fair and reasonable exists where, as here, the following 8 four factors are present: “(1) the settlement is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) 9 investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) 10 counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.”
11 (Wershba, at 245.) A presumption of fairness exists here as the Settlement was reached through 12 extensive, mediated arm’s-length negotiations, sufficient investigation and discovery, which 13 allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently, and Class Counsel is experienced in similar wage and 14 hour litigation.

15 The Settlement was reached over the course of a full-day mediation with experienced 16 employment mediator, Mark LeHocky, Esq. after a full-day mediation (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 6.) The 17 settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 18 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 19 settlement of the Action, but the Parties were also prepared to litigate their positions through trial 20 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

21 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 22 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Wilcox Decl., ¶¶ 25-36.) Class Counsel has substantial 23 experience in all facets of litigation in state and federal court, including discovery, law and motion, 24 trial, appeals, arbitration and mediation. Class Counsel has litigated numerous class actions on 25 behalf of plaintiffs and has been lead counsel or otherwise exercised significant case handling 26 responsibilities in numerous cases resulting in millions of dollars in class action settlements. (Id.)

27 Based on Class Counsel’s experience as employment and class action attorneys, Class 28 Counsel is eminently qualified to evaluate the strength of Plaintiff’s claims, the strength of 1 Defendant's defenses against certification, the strength of Defendant's defenses on the merits, and 2 the fairness of the Settlement. Their opinion that final approval of the Settlement would be in the 3 best interests of Class Members in light of the significant risks of litigation is entitled to great 4 weight. (See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 129 ["The court undoubtedly should give 5 considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel and the involvement of a neutral 6 mediator in assuring itself that a settlement agreement represents an arms' length transaction 7 entered without self-dealing or other potential misconduct"].)

8 Lastly, as of the date of this Motion, no Class Member has objected to the Settlement, and 9 no Class Member has requested exclusion from the Settlement. (Paris Decl., ¶¶ 12-13.) The 10 overwhelmingly positive response of the Class strongly supports final approval of the Settlement.
11 (See, e.g., In re Lifelock, Inc. Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Ariz. 2010) 2010 WL 12 3715138, *6 [relatively few objections and requests for exclusion support approval].) In fact, 13 Courts have approved class action settlements in lesser circumstances. (See, e.g., Hughes v.
14 Microsoft Corp. (W.D.Wash. 2001) 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5976, 2001 WL 34089697, *8 [court 15 found that the "class members overwhelmingly support[ed] the settlement" where there were over 16 37,000 notices sent out, 2,745 class members participated in the settlement, "only nine objections 17 were submitted", and there were 86 timely opt-outs and over 20 additional defective or untimely 18 opt-outs, "these indicia of the approval of the class of the terms of the settlement support a finding 19 of fairness under Rule 23"], citing Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir.1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 20 [despite vigorous objections and appeal by objectors, the "fact that the overwhelming majority of 21 the class willingly approved the offer and stayed in the class presents at least some objective 22 positive commentary as to its fairness," and the court did not abuse its discretion in approving 23 settlement].) Here, the percentage of objectors is small as there are zero objectors out of 1,803
24 Class Members. (Paris Decl., ¶ 13.)

25 Taken all together, a presumption that the Settlement is fair, just, adequate, and reasonable 26 therefore exists, and the Settlement should be approved.

1 IV. CLASS COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT, CLASS COUNSEL LITIGATION
2 EXPENSES PAYMENT, AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVE'S SERVICE
3 PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE.

4 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant has agreed to pay Class 5 Counsel the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment.
6 (Settlement ¶ 3.2.2.) Defendant has further agreed to pay the Class Representative the Class 7 Representative's Service Payment. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.) Defendant has also agreed that it would not 8 oppose an application for these payments addressed above, and no Class Member has objected to 9 these amounts. (See generally Settlement; Paris Decl., ¶ 13.)

10 A. Class Counsel Fees Payment Is Reasonable

11 According to a leading treatise on class actions, "[n]o general rule can be articulated on 12 what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on 13 a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 14 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 15 are not unprecedented." (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
16 Attorneys' fees at fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to 17 forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 18 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 19 cases where 30-50% was awarded involved "smaller" settlement funds of under $10 million].)

20 In common fund cases like this one, the primary method California courts use for 21 calculating attorneys' fees is the percentage of the common fund method, which may be followed 22 by a lodestar cross-check. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, the California 23 Supreme Court affirmed an award of 33 1/3% of a $19 million wage and hour class action 24 settlement with a 2.03 to 2.13 multiplier. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 25 506.) In doing so, the California Supreme Court explained:

26 As to the incentives a lodestar cross-check might create for class counsel, we 27 emphasize the lodestar calculation, when used in this manner, does not override 28 the trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund and thus does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award. If the multiplier calculated by means of a lodestar cross-

1 check is extraordinarily high or low, the trial court should consider whether the 2 percentage used should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a 3 justifiable range, but the court is not necessarily required to make such an 4 adjustment. Courts using the percentage method have generally weighed the time 5 counsel spent on the case as an important factor in choosing a reasonable 6 percentage to apply.

7 (Id. at p. 505, emphasis added; see also Beaver v. Tarsadia Hotels (S.D. Cal. Sept. 28, 2017) 2017
8 WL 4310707, at *9 [applying Laffitte standard to fee request for 33 1/3% of common fund].)

9 The settled-for Class Counsel Fees Payment is consistent with the average fee award in 10 class actions. Indeed, as is the case here, the custom and practice in class actions is to award 11 approximately one-third of a fund as a fee award. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 12 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method 13 or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 14 recovery.”].) 33 and 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount fits squarely within the “approximate” 15 custom and practice of awarding around one-third of a fund and is therefore reasonable.

16 Although California supports the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 17 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can 18 be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to “cross-check” or adjust the lodestar in 19 comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and 20 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In 21 re Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.)

22 Applying the lodestar method requires a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the 23 number of hours reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate. The second step is to apply a 24 multiplier to the lodestar to take into account various factors. “The purpose of such adjustment is 25 to fix a fee at the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, 26 retrospectively, whether the Action involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill 27 justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for 28 such services.” (Id. at pp. 556-57.) “Under certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis.” (Id. at p. 557.)

Detailed timesheets are not necessary for a lodestar cross-check. “The law is clear ... that

1 an award of attorney fees may be based on counsel’s declarations, without production of detailed 2 time records.” (Raining Data Corp. v. Barrenechea (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 1363, 1375) (see also 3 United Steelworkers of America v. Phelps Dodge Corp. (9th Cir. 1990) 896 F.2d 403, 407 4 “Affidavits of the plaintiffs’ attorney and other attorneys regarding prevailing fees in the 5 community, and rate determinations in other cases, particularly those setting a rate for the 6 plaintiffs’ attorney, are satisfactory evidence of the prevailing market rate.”) Here, Class Counsel 7 submits their declaration to support their lodestar hourly rates concurrently with this Motion.

8 Additionally, as the California Supreme Court explained in Laffitte:

9 With regard to expenditure of judicial resources, we note that trial courts 10 conducting lodestar cross-checks have generally not been required to closely 11 scrutinize each claimed attorney-hour, but have instead used information on attorney time spent to “focus on the general question of whether the fee award appropriately reflects the degree of time and effort expended by the attorneys.”

12 (5 Newberg on Class Actions, supra, § 15:86, p. 331; see, e.g., Goldberger v.
13 Integrated Resources, Inc., supra, 209 F.3d at p. 50 [2d Cir.; “where used as a 14 mere cross-check, the hours documented by counsel need not be exhaustively 15 scrutinized by the district court”]; In re Prudential Ins. Co. America Sales 16 Practice Action Agent Actions (3d Cir.1998) 148 F.3d 283, 342 [agreeing with 17 district court that “detailed time summaries were unnecessary where, as here, it was merely using the lodestar calculation to double check its fee award.”]; Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp. (E.D.Cal.2013) 297 F.R.D. 431, 451 [“Where the lodestar method is used as a cross-check to the percentage method, it can be performed with a less exhaustive cataloguing and review of counsel’s hours.”].)

18 (Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 505.)

19 Class Counsel’s total lodestar is at least $136,467.50 based on a total of over 170.5 hours
20 of work performed thus far by all Class Counsel. (Wilcox Decl., ¶¶ 15-24.) Accordingly, the Class 21 Counsel Fees Award is reasonable and fair as it is based on an approximate multiplier of 1.58.
22 This disparity is important to note because when plaintiffs seek an amount in fees that is less than 23 what they actually billed, the requested fee amount is generally considered reasonable. (Chun- 24 Hoon v. McKee Foods Corp. (N.D. Cal. 2010) 716 F. Supp. 2d 848, 854 [finding that, if the court 25 is asked to apply a negative multiplier, it “suggests the negotiated fee award is a reasonable and 26 fair valuation of the services rendered to the class by Plaintiff’s Counsel.”].) Indeed, there is no 27 reason for the Court to reduce Class Counsel’s lodestar with a negative multiplier. (Roos v.
28 Honeywell Int’l, Inc. (2015) 241 Cal. App. 4th 1472, 1495 [“a trial court acts appropriately . .

1 .when it accepts in a common-fund case a cap on fees . . . when the application of the cap results 2 in a lower award than would be authorized under the lodestar method.”], disapproved on another
3 ground in Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc. (2018) 4 Cal.5th 260.)

4 To be sure, trial courts have substantial discretion in adjusting the lodestar to account for 5 various factors. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26, 39-45; 6 see also Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 49.) In addition, it has been held that “[m]ultipliers 7 can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.” (See Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 255; see also 8 Van Vranken, supra, 901 F. Supp. At p. 298 “[m]ultipliers in the 3-4 range are common in lodestar 9 awards for lengthy and complex class action litigation.”).)

10 Once this lodestar figure has been determined, the Court may take into account other 11 “enhancement” factors to adjust the lodestar award. While Plaintiffs seek a multiplier of 1.58 here, 12 the overall reasonableness of Plaintiff’s request is underscored by the fact that similar multipliers 13 have been found to be reasonable for Class Counsel in other class actions. (See, e.g., Moreno v.
14 Pretium Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) No. 8:19-cv-02500-SB, 2021 WL 3673845, 15 *3 [finding WLF’s multiplier of 2.57 reasonable “in light of the contingent nature of recovery, the 16 complexity of the issues, and the result obtained”]; Chavez, supra, 162 Cal.App.4th at p. 60
17 [applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check]; Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 18 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 [“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier of 1.0-4.0]; Been v. O.K.
19 Industries Inc. (E.D. Okla. 2011) 2011 WL 4478766, *11, citing a study “reporting [an] average 20 multiplier of 3.89 in survey of 1,120 class action cases” and finding that a multiplier of 2.43 would 21 be “per se reasonable.”)

22 By way of further example, the intermediate court in Laffitte, after finding that “2 to 4” is 23 a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check, affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. (Laffitte v. Robert 24 Half Int’l (2014) 231 Cal.App.4th 860, 881-82.) The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in 25 full by the California Supreme Court in its new decision guiding lower courts on assessing fees.

26 Factors considered in determining whether a lodestar multiplier is appropriate generally 27 include: (1) the risks presented by the contingent nature of the case; (2) the novelty and difficulty 28 of the questions involved and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (3) the

1 nature of the opposition; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to 2 acceptance of the case; and (5) the result obtained and the importance of the lawsuit to the 3 public. (Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at pp. 48-49.) All these factors favor approval of a multiplier 4 along the lines of those approved in the cases above.

5 The major consideration in determining the necessity of a multiplier is the contingent 6 nature of the award. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33.) Further, the 7 possibility of no recovery is only one of the uncertainties involved in taking on such a case.
8 Other uncertainties are the amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost, both in 9 effort and expenses, and uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is 10 obtained. (Id. at pp. 1132-1133, 1138.)

11 Furthermore, contingency fees should be higher than fees for the same legal services 12 paid concurrently with the provision of the services. (Id.) “A lawyer who both bears the risk 13 of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work 14 if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel 15 will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.” Application of that rule is particularly appropriate 16 where the case is brought to redress important rights of vulnerable persons. (Id.) A risk 17 enhancement is “earned compensation; unlike a windfall, it is neither unexpected nor fortuitous.
18 Rather it is intended to approximate market-level compensation for such services which 19 typically pay a premium for the risk of nonpayment or delay in payment of attorney’s fees.”
20 (Id. at p. 1138.)

21 Here, Class Counsel represents the Class Members in this Action and have borne the entire 22 risk and costs of litigating this Action purely on a contingency basis. Class Counsel’s outlay of 23 time and money in this case has been significant. (Wilcox Decl., at ¶ 23.)

24 The other factors are also present here. As discussed, this Action represents complex 25 questions of law and fact. Defendant’s contentions compared to Plaintiff’s assertions underscore 26 the risk of prevailing at class certification and trial, and any of these obstacles could have 27 prevented recovery completely. (Id. at ¶ 7.) Given the complexities of this Action, this Action 28 required experienced and competent lawyers with expertise in the issues presented herein.

1 Further, proceeding to trial would have added years to the resolution of this Action because of 2 the difficult legal and factual issues raised and the likelihood of appeals. (Id.) Despite these 3 risks, Class Counsel took this case on a contingency basis. (Id. at ¶ 23.) Further, there are only 4 so many cases that Class Counsel can take at any one time. (Id.) As a direct result of litigating 5 this Action, there were other meritorious cases that were presented to Class Counsel and that 6 would have generated substantial fees but were nonetheless declined during the pendency of 7 this Action in order to devote the attention necessary to achieve this favorable result. (Id.)
8 Considered against the risks of continued litigation, and the importance of the employment 9 rights and a speedy recovery, the relief provided under the Settlement represents a very strong 10 result for the Class.

11 Thus, Plaintiff’s request for the Class Counsel Fees Payment is in line with the prevailing 12 guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards
13 in California. Accordingly, the Court should approve the Class Counsel Fees Payment requested 14 herein.

15 B. Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment Is Reasonable.

16 As of the date of filing this Motion, Class Counsel has incurred around $25,378.28 in costs, 17 and Defendant has agreed that they will not oppose a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment 18 request of up to $28,000.00. Defendant has agreed that they will not oppose the Class Counsel
19 Litigation Expenses request. (Wilcox Decl., ¶ 24) Class Counsel respectfully requests 20 reimbursements of $25,378.28 to Wilshire Law Firm, PLC in expenses, which should be reimbursed 21 in full. The categories of costs are set forth in the accompanying Wilcox Declaration, and these 22 costs are easily seen to be both reasonable and necessary.

23 Counsel can recover “out-of-pocket expenses that ‘would normally be charged to a fee-24 paying client’” including costs for “service of summons and complaint, service of trial 25 subpoenas, fee for defense expert at deposition, postage, investigator, copying costs, hotel bills, 26 meals, messenger service and employment record reproduction.” (Harris v. Marhoefer (9th Cir.
27 1994) 24 F.3d 16, 19.) Such costs are properly recoverable on motions for settlement approval.
28 (See Nunez v. BAE Sys. San Diego Ship Repair Inc. (S.D. Cal. 2017) 292 F. Supp. 3d 1018,

1 1057; Rutti v. Lojack Corp. (C.D. Cal. July 31, 2012) No. CV 06–00350 DOC, 2012 WL
2 3151077, at *12 [“Expenses such as reimbursement for travel, meals, lodging, photocopying, 3 long-distance telephone calls, computer legal research, postage, courier service, mediation, 4 exhibits, documents scanning, and visual equipment are typically recoverable.”].)

5 Therefore, the requested Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment should be 6 approved.

7 C. Class Representative’s Service Payment Is Reasonable.

8 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 9 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 10 members of the class.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 11 Cal.App.4th 399, 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements 12 containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to 13 represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring 14 about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.) The 15 California Supreme Court has also noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory 16 rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect 17 employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) Plaintiffs should therefore be 18 rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman 19 Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

20 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 21 a Class Representative’s Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Kevin Adonay
22 Quijada Molina. The Class Representative’s Service Payment is also in exchange for Plaintiff’s 23 general release of all claims against Defendant, which is broader than the other Class Members.
24 Plaintiff has submitted a declaration demonstrating his devotion to this Action, including his efforts 25 assisting Class Counsel in the Action, communicating with Class Counsel frequently for litigation, 26 preparing for mediation, sitting for deposition, and reviewing case-related documents. (See, 27 generally, Declaration of Kevin Adonay Quijada Molina submitted in support of Motion for 28 Preliminary Approval.)

1 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 2 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 3 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 4 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 5 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 6 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) Courts routinely approve a $10,000 enhancement award
7 for plaintiffs represented by class counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno, supra, 2021 WL 3673845 at *3 8 [“The Court concludes a $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of Am., Nat’l
9 Ass’n, No. 18-CV-01202-LB, 2024 WL 150721, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 11, 2024) [“The court 10 approves awards of $10,000 for each class representative.”].)

11 “Since without a named plaintiff there can be no class action, such compensation as may 12 be necessary to induce him to participate in the suit.” (Clark at 804.) “[T]he rationale for making 13 enhancement or incentive awards to named plaintiffs is that they should be compensated for the 14 expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Id. at 15 p. 806.) “An incentive award is appropriate ‘if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate
